

the following scheme for providing an endowment for the Archdeaconry of Saint Albans within the diocese of Saint Albans.

"Whereas by an Order of Your Majesty in Council bearing date the sixth day of February one thousand eight hundred and eighty-two and published in the London Gazette of the fourteenth day of the same month the then Archdeaconry of Rochester and Saint Albans was divided and one part thereof became and now is the Archdeaconry of Rochester within the diocese of Rochester and the other part (being so much of the said Archdeaconry of Rochester and Saint Albans as is within the diocese of Saint Albans) again became as the same had been aforetime the Archdeaconry of Saint Albans.

"And whereas the Venerable Anthony Grant theretofore Archdeacon of Rochester and Saint Albans became after the gazetting of the said Order of Your Majesty in Council, Archdeacon of the said revived Archdeaconry of Saint Albans.

"And whereas by virtue of the lastly hereinbefore mentioned Act the said Anthony Grant continued as Archdeacon of Saint Albans to hold up to the time of his decease the canonry in Rochester Cathedral which had been held by him as Archdeacon of Rochester and Saint Albans.

"And whereas the said Anthony Grant departed this life on the twenty-fifth day of November one thousand eight hundred and eighty-three.

"And whereas by virtue of the Bishoprick of Saint Albans Act 1875 hereinbefore mentioned the said canonry in Rochester Cathedral is now annexed to the said Archdeaconry of Rochester.

"And whereas the said Archdeaconry of Saint Albans has not at present any endowment beyond an annual pension or sum of one pound three shillings and four pence heretofore chargeable on the Consolidated Fund of the United Kingdom but now payable and paid by us the said Commissioners to the Archdeacon for the time being of the said archdeaconry under the provisions of the Act of the thirty-sixth and thirty-seventh years of Your Majesty chapter fifty-seven.

"And whereas the Venerable Walter John Lawrance now Rector of the parish of Saint Albans in the county of Herts has been appointed and now is Archdeacon of the said Archdeaconry of Saint Albans.

"Now therefore with the consent of the Right Reverend Thomas Legh Bishop of Saint Albans (in testimony of which consent he has signed this scheme and sealed the same with his episcopal seal) we the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners humbly recommend and propose that we be authorised to pay yearly and every year out of the common fund created by the said Act of the third and fourth years of Your Majesty chapter one hundred and thirteen to the Archdeacon of the said Archdeaconry of Saint Albans, the sum of one hundred and ninety-eight pounds sixteen shillings and eight pence such yearly payment to be made on the first day of January in every year in respect of the twelve months ended that day; Provided always that the first payment made in respect of the said sum of one hundred and ninety-eight pounds sixteen shillings and eight pence per annum shall be proportioned in amount to the period which shall have elapsed between the date of the collation of the said Walter John Lawrance to the said archdeaconry of Saint Albans and the first day of January in the year following that event, and Provided also that every such yearly payment as aforesaid shall be apportionable as between an archdeacon (or the representatives of an archdeacon) availing the said Archdeaconry of Saint Albans on any other day than the first day of January in any year and the archdeacon next collated to the same archdeaconry, and Provided also that every such yearly payment shall be made by us only after we shall have been satisfied that the archdeacon who applies (or whose representatives apply) for it, has during the previous year complied with the conditions as to residence which at the date of such application are required by law.

"And we further recommend and propose that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any other matter or thing relating to the matters aforesaid in accordance with the provisions of the said Acts or of any of them or of any other Act of Parliament."

And whereas the said scheme has been approved by Her Majesty in Council; now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Acts; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said diocese of Saint Albans.
