AT the Court at Windsor, the 14th day of April, 1884.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act passed in the first session of the Parliament holden in the first and second years of the reign of Her present Majesty, intituled "An Act to abridge the holding of benefices in plurality, and to make better provision for the residence of the clergy," after reciting that "Whereas in some instances tithings, hamlets, chapelries, and other places or districts may be separated from the parishes or mother churches to which they belong, with great advantage, and places altogether extra-parochial may in some instances with advantage be annexed to parishes or districts to which they are contiguous, or be constituted separate parishes for ecclesiastical purposes," it is, amongst other things, enacted "That when with respect to his own diocese it shall appear to the Archbishop of the Province, or when the Bishop of any diocese shall represent to the said Archbishop that any such tithing, hamlet, chapelry, place or district within the diocese of such Archbishop, or the diocese of such Bishop, as the case may be, may be advantageously separated from any parish or mother church and either be constituted a separate benefice by itself or be united to any other parish to which it may be more conveniently annexed, or to any other adjoining tithing, hamlet, chapelry, place, or district, parochial or extra-parochial, so as to form a separate parish or benefice, or that any extra-parochial place may with advantage be annexed to any parish to which it is contiguous, or be constituted a separate parish for ecclesiastical purposes; and the said Archbishop or Bishop shall draw up a scheme in writing (the scheme of such Bishop to be transmitted to the said Archbishop for his consideration) describing the mode in which it "appears to him that the alteration may best be effected, and how the changes consequent on such alteration in respect to ecclesiastical jurisdiction, glebe lands, tithes, rent-charges, and other ecclesiastical dues, rates, and payments, and in respect to patronage and rights to pews, may be made with justice to all parties interested; and if the patron or patrons of the benefice or benefices to be affected by such alteration shall consent in writing under his or their hands to such scheme, or to such modification thereof as the said Archbishop may approve, and the said Archbishop shall, on full consideration and enquiry, be satisfied with any such scheme, or modification thereof, and shall certify the same and such consent as aforesaid, by his report to Her Majesty in Council, it shall be lawful for Her Majesty in Council to make an Order for carrying such scheme, or modification thereof, as the case may be, into effect."

And whereas Anthony Wilson, Bishop of Rochester hath, pursuant to the enactment aforesaid, represented in a writing dated 5th February 1884 to the Right Honourable Edward White, Archbishop of Canterbury, as follows:—

"1. There is in the county of Kent in my diocese of Rochester the vicarage of Gillingham and Upberry with the ville or hamlet of Lydging the ecclesiastical portion of the parish whereof including the hamlet of Lydging otherwise Lidsing contains a population of 135 or thereabouts. The chapel of Lydging having become dilapidated for many years past and incapable of being again rendered fit for Divine service and having become dangerous has lately been taken down. The net annual value of the benefice of Gillingham and Upberry with the chapel of Lydging is four hundred and fifty pounds.

"2. In the same county and in your Grace's diocese of Canterbury is the vicarage of Bredhurst the parish whereof (including a portion of the ancient parish of Boxley which has been separated therefrom and annexed for ecclesiastical purposes to the said parish of Bredhurst) lies adjoining to the hamlet of Lydging otherwise Lidsing aforesaid and contains according to the census of one thousand eight hundred and eighty-one a population of three hundred. The net annual value of the benefice of Bredhurst is two hundred and sixty pounds and the rent arising from nine acres of glebe of the annual value of twenty pounds.

"3. A certain district of the said hamlet of Lydging otherwise Lidsing in which said district the site of the said chapel of Lydging is situate and which immediately adjoins the said parish of Bredhurst and contains a population of thirty-five persons or thereabouts lies at the distance of between four and five miles by the nearest road from the parish church of Gillingham but is within the distance of three-quarters of a mile or thereabouts from the parish church of Bredhurst.

"4. It appears to me that the said district may under the provisions of the said Act of the 1st and 2nd Vic. cap. 106 and of the Act of the 2nd and 3rd years of the same reign cap. 49 be advantageously separated from the said parish of Gillingham and united to the said parish of Bredhurst.

"5. Charles Leopold Samson of 31 Booth-street Manchester Esquire. Joseph Standley of Bury Lancashire Gentleman and John William Haslam of Stubbins Ramsbottom Lancashire Esquire are the patrons of the benefice of Gillingham and Upberry with the chapel of Lydging. The benefice of Bredhurst is in the patronage of the Lord Archbishop of Canterbury.

"6. The Reverend William Henry Robins is the present incumbent of the benefice of Gillingham and Upberry with the chapel of Lydging and the Reverend John Durst is the present incumbent of the benefice of Bredhurst.

"7. Pursuant to the directions contained in the 26th section of the first-mentioned Act of Parliament I the said Bishop have drawn up a scheme in writing appended to this representation describing the district of the hamlet of Lydging otherwise Lidsing as aforesaid proposed to be annexed to the parish of Bredhurst and the mode in which it appears to me the alterations may best be effected and how the changes consequent on such alteration in respect to ecclesiastical jurisdiction glebe lands tithe rent-charge and other ecclesiastical dues rates and payments and in respect of patronage and rights to pews may be made with justice to all parties interested. And I do hereby submit the same to your Grace together with the consent in writing of the said Charles Leopold Samson Joseph Standley and John William Haslam the patrons of the said vicarage of Gillingham and Upberry with the chapel of Lydging and of the said William Henry Robins and John Durst and in case you shall on full consideration and enquiry be satisfied therewith I request that your Grace will be pleased to certify the same and the consent of the respective patrons thereto by your report to Her Majesty in Council."

And whereas the said Scheme, drawn by the said Bishop of Rochester, is in the words and figures following:—

The SCHEME referred to in the foregoing Representation.

"It is proposed to separate a district of the hamlet of Lydging otherwise Lidsing from the parish of Gillingham to which it now belongs and to unite such district for ecclesiastical purposes to the adjoining parish of Bredhurst. That such district shall be subject to the same ecclesiastical jurisdiction as the said vicarage of Bredhurst. It is further proposed that the boundaries of the said district shall be as follows an imaginary line commencing from the south-eastern angle of the field nod. 59 on the map annexed to the apportionment of rent-charge in lieu of tithes within the ville or hamlet of Lidsing aforesaid and proceeding in a north-westerly direction to the south-eastern corner of the field nod. 62 on the said map thence along the north-eastern sides of the last-mentioned field and of the fields nod. 63 and 64 on the same map to the road leading from Boxley to Chatham thence along that road in a south-westerly direction until it reaches the south-western corner of the field nod. 65 on the same map thence in a westerly direction along an imaginary line drawn across the said road and the fields nod. 38 and 15 on the same map to the south-eastern corner of the inter mixed fields nod. 4 and 5 on the same map thence along the north-western side of the field nod. 12 on the said map to its western corner thence in a south-westerly direction along an imaginary line crossing the field nod. 11 on the same map to the boundary of Lidsing aforesaid at the junction of the lane leading to Westfield Sole with the road leading from Chatham to Bredhurst thence in an easterly direction along the boundary of the ville or hamlet of Lidsing to the point at which the boundary of the district commenced. Such district will accordingly consist of the lands which on the map annexed to the apportionment of rent-charge in lieu of tithes within the ville or hamlet of Lidsing aforesaid are marked with the numbers 11 (part) 12 13 14 15 (part) 38 (part) 39 to 58 (both inclusive) and 62 63 and 64 the said lands are delineated and coloured pink in the map hereto annexed.

"That the said vicarage of Gillingham and Upberry with the chapel of Lydging shall henceforth be styled 'The Vicarage of Gillingham and Upberry' only.

"That there shall be assigned and attached to the Vicarage of Bredhurst the yearly sum of twenty-two pounds eighteen shillings part of the rent-charge of ninety-nine pounds eight shillings per annum given in lieu of the ordinary tithes of the land within the ville or hamlet of Lidsing under the provisions of the Act for the commutation of tithes in England and Wales such yearly sum of twenty-two pounds eighteen shillings being composed of the several sums assessed upon the lands specified in the schedule hereunder written vizt.:—
