Fred. E. Johnson, Trustees.

The Bankruptcy Act, 1869.

In the High Court of Justice, in Bankruptcy.

In the Matter of Thomas Abbotts, of 80, Saltoun-road, Brixton, in the county of Surrey, Auctioneer and Estate Agent, a Bankrupt.

Before Mr. Registrar Murray.

UPON reading a report of the Trustee of the property of the bankrupt, dated the 26th day of January, 1884, reporting that the whole of the property of the bankrupt as disclosed by his statement of affairs, and as far as he and the Committee of Inspection had been able to discover, consisted of certain book debts, certain equities of redemption in certain leasehold properties at Merton, Surrey, certain furniture which is settled on his wife, and four shares in the London Advance Bank Limited, that the said book debts had been investigated by him and the Committee of Inspection, and were, in their joint opinion, of no value whatever; that the said leasehold properties were mortgaged to their full value; that the said London Advance Bank was in liquidation, and the said shares were worthless in the opinion of himself and the said Committee; that he had not been able to discover any other property or available assets, and that there was not in his opinion or that of the Committee any probability of any property or estate coming into his hands for the benefit of the creditors of the bankrupt, and upon reading the affidavit of Henry P'Anson Ward, sworn the 10th day of April, 1884, and upon reading the report of the Official Assignee, dated the 10th day of April, 1884, and upon hearing Mr. G. S. Warmington, Solicitor for the Trustee, and no creditor appearing to oppose, and the Court being satisfied from the report of the said Trustee that there is no property nor are there any assets available for the benefit of the creditors of the bankrupt, doth order and declare that the bankruptcy of the said Thomas Abbotts has closed.—Given under the Seal of the Court this 3rd day of May, 1884.

The Bankruptcy Act, 1869.

In the High Court of Justice, in Bankruptcy.

In the Matter of Edward Pritchard, trading as E. Pritchard and Co., of 155, Fenchurch-street, in the city of London, Tailor, a Bankrupt.

Before Mr. Registrar Hazlitt.

UPON reading a report of the Trustee of the property of the bankrupt, dated the 14th day of January, 1884, reporting that so much of the property of the bankrupt as can, according to the joint opinion of himself and the Committee of Inspection, thereunto annexed, in writing, under their hands been realized without needlessly protracting the bankruptcy has been realized, as shown by the statement thereunto annexed, and that a sufficient sum has not been realized to enable him to declare a dividend, now upon the application of Mr. Montagu, on behalf of the Trustee, and upon reading the report of the Official Assignee, dated 23rd April, 1884, and no creditor appearing to oppose, the Court being satisfied that so much of the property of the bankrupt as could be realized without needlessly protracting the bankruptcy has been realized, and that a sufficient sum
