Published by Authority.

FRIDAY, MAY 16, 1884.

Lord Chamberlain's Office, St. James's Palace, April 23, 1884.

NOTICE is hereby given, that Her Majesty's Birthday will be kept on Saturday, the 24th of May next.

Whitehall, May 16, 1884.

THE following Addresses and Resolutions of Condolence, on the occasion of the death of His Royal Highness Prince Leopold, Duke of Albany, K.G., have been transmitted to the Right Honourable Sir William Vernon Harcourt, Her Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for the Home Department, for presentation to the Queen, and have accordingly been presented by him to Her Majesty, who has been pleased to receive the same very graciously —

City of Manchester.

To the QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty.

May it please Your Majesty,

WE, the Mayor, Aldermen, and Citizens of the city of Manchester, desire to record our deep and sincere sympathy in the loss which Your Majesty has sustained by the grievous and unexpected death of your youngest son, His Royal Highness the Duke of Albany.

We call to mind the recent visit of His Royal Highness to Manchester, and the opportunity that visit afforded the citizens of Manchester of recognizing his public spirit and eminent abilities.

Although the loss of a son so able and gifted must be most severely felt, yet we trust that Your Majesty will find a solace in the remembrance of a life so well spent as to have endeared His Royal Highness to all classes of Your Majesty's subjects.

We take this opportunity of again assuring Your Majesty of our continued attachment to Your Majesty's Throne and Person.

Given under our Common Seal this second day of April, one thousand eight hundred and eighty-four.

*P. Goldschmidt, Mayor,
Jos. Heron, Town Clerk.*

THE ANIMALS ORDER OF 1884, SWINE- FEVER AMENDMENT.

AT the Council Chamber, Whitehall, the 16th
day of May, 1884.

By Her Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council.

PRESENT:

Lord President.
Mr. Dodson.

THE Lords and others of Her Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council, by virtue and in exercise of the powers in them vested under The Contagious Diseases (Animals) Act, 1878, and
of every other power enabling them in this behalf,
do order, and it is hereby ordered, as follows:

Slaughter in Swine-Fever.

1. Article 62 (Slaughter in Swine-Fever) of
The Animals Order of 1884 is hereby revoked;
and the following provisions of this Article shall be read in the place of that Article, and shall be deemed to be Article 62 of that Order (namely)—

62.—(1.) A Local Authority may, if they think fit,—

- (i.) Cause any swine affected with swine-fever to be slaughtered; or
- (ii.) Cause any swine being or having been in the same pig-sty or shed, or in contact with swine affected with swine-fever to be slaughtered.

(2.) The Local Authority shall, out of the local rate, pay compensation as follows for swine slaughtered under this Article:

- (a.) Where the pig slaughtered was affected with swine-fever, the compensation shall be one half of its value immediately before it became so affected, but so that the compensation do not in any such case exceed forty shillings.

(b.) In every other case the compensation
shall be the value of the pig immediately before it was slaughtered, but so that the compensation do not in any such case exceed four pounds.

General Saving.

2. Nothing in this Order shall be deemed to affect the past operation of the Article by this Order revoked, or affect the validity or invalidity
of anything done or suffered, or any right, title,
obligation or liability accrued under the said
Article before the date of this Order.

Short Title.

3. This Order may be cited as THE ANIMALS
ORDER OF 1884, SWINE-FEVER AMENDMENT.

POST OFFICE (MONEY ORDERS) ACTS,
1848 TO 1883.REGULATIONS MADE UNDER THE POST OFFICE
(MONEY ORDERS) ACTS, 1848 TO 1883.

WHEREAS under the authority of the Post Office (Money Orders) Acts, 1848 to 1883, certain Regulations, dated the 28th day of January, 1884, were made by me, the Right Honourable Henry Fawcett, Her Majesty's Postmaster-General, with the consent of the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury, in relation to the issue and payment of Postal Orders in the United Kingdom (including therein the Channel Islands and the Isle of Man), and in Gibraltar, and it was recited (inter alia) that it was intended that, on and after the 2nd day of June next, the postal service of Malta should cease to be conducted by officers of the Postmaster-General.

And whereas since the making of the said Regulations it has become necessary to continue for a further period, on and after the 2nd day of June next, the conduct of the postal service at Malta by officers of the Postmaster-General, and it is therefore expedient to extend the said Regulations to the issue and payment of Postal Orders in that Island.

Now, therefore, I, the said Henry Fawcett, Her Majesty's Postmaster-General, in pursuance of the said Acts, and of all other powers enabling me in this behalf, with the consent of the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury, do hereby order as follows:—

1. The said Regulations shall, until the repeal hereof, be read and construed as if the words "or Malta" were inserted in the said Regulations after the words "or in Gibraltar" wherever such last-mentioned words occur in the said Regulations.

In witness whereof I, the said Henry Fawcett, Her Majesty's Postmaster-General, have hereunto set my hand this 13th day of May, 1884.

Henry Fawcett.

We, the undersigned, being two of the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury, do hereby signify the consent of the said Commissioners to the above Regulations.

Charles C. Cotes.

R. W. Duff.

GENERAL Order of the Local Government Board: Suspension in part of General Order: Medical Officer's Fees.

Horsham Union.

To the Guardians of the Poor of the Horsham Union, in the county of Sussex;—

And to all others whom it may concern.

WHEREAS the Poor Law Commissioners, by a General Order bearing date the twenty-fourth day of July, one thousand eight hundred and forty-seven, made certain rules and regulations relating to the administration of relief to the Poor within certain Unions, including the said Horsham Union; and by Article 182 of the said Order provision was made for the payment of special fees to Medical Officers in certain cases;

And whereas it is expedient to suspend, as hereinafter mentioned, the operation of the Article above mentioned as respects the Medical Officer for the Workhouse of the said Union:

Now, therefore, We, the Local Government Board, in pursuance of the powers given to Us by the Statutes in that behalf, hereby suspend the operation, with respect to the Medical Officer for the Workhouse of the said Horsham Union, of Article 182 of the above-cited Order, until We,

by an Order under Our Seal of Office, otherwise direct.

Given under the Seal of Office of the Local Government Board, this fourteenth day of May, in the year one thousand eight hundred and eighty-four.

Civil Service Commission, May 16, 1884.

THE Civil Service Commissioners hereby give notice, that the following Regulations have been approved by the Lords Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury, viz. :—

SPECIAL REGULATIONS (Supplementary to the General Regulations issued 8th April, 1872, and amended by subsequent notices in the London Gazette), respecting Open Competitive Examinations for the situation of Assistant in the Herbarium, Royal Gardens, Kew, in the Department of Her Majesty's Works, &c.

N.B.—These Regulations are liable to alteration.

I. The Examination will be in the following subjects, viz. :—

1. Handwriting.
2. Orthography.
3. Arithmetic (Elementary).
4. Elements of Systematic and Structural Botany.
5. The naming of plants by the British Flora.

NOTE.—Candidates will be required to show what preliminary training or technical education they have undergone to qualify themselves for a situation of this nature, and they must satisfy the Civil Service Commissioners that they possess the special qualifications necessary for the office. These include manual skill and neat-handedness in preserving, arranging, and ticketing specimens of plants, and in displaying their parts for study ;—some practice in the use of the microscope ;—and quickness and accuracy of eye in comparing and discriminating between species and varieties of plants, in both the Herbarium and Garden. On these points the Commissioners will ask for a report from the Director of Kew Gardens.

II. Candidates failing in any of the above-named subjects will not be eligible.

III. A fee will be required from every Candidate attending an Examination, according to the scale laid down under the Order in Council of 22nd March, 1879, by notice in the London Gazette of 29th April, 1881.

IV. No Candidate will be eligible whose age on the first day of the Examination is less than 18 or more than 30.

The Civil Service Commissioners further give notice that an Open Competitive Examination for the situation of Assistant in the Herbarium, Royal Gardens, Kew, in the Department of Her Majesty's Works, &c., will be held in London, on Wednesday, the 25th June, 1884, and following days, under the above Regulations.

The number of situations to be filled will be the number vacant at the time of the Examination. The number now vacant is one.

No person will be admitted to compete from whom the Secretary, Civil Service Commission, has not received, on or before the 16th June, an "application" in the handwriting of the Candidate on a prescribed form, which may be obtained from the Secretary at once.
