

and ninth years of Your Majesty chapter seventy of the Act of the fourteenth and fifteenth years of Your Majesty chapter ninety-seven of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Your Majesty chapter fifty-five and of the Act of the thirty-fourth and thirty-fifth years of Your Majesty chapter eighty-two have prepared and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council the following representation as to the assignment of a consolidated chapelry to the consecrated church of Saint Andrew situate at Tudhoe Grange in the parish of Tudhoe in the county of Durham and in the diocese of Durham.

"Whereas at certain extremities of the said parish of Tudhoe and of the new parish of Saint Paul Spennymoor in the county and diocese aforesaid which said extremities lie contiguous one to another and are described in the schedule hereunder written there is collected together a population which is situate at a distance from the several churches of such parish and new parish respectively.

"And whereas it appears to us to be expedient that such contiguous portions of the said parish of Tudhoe and of the said new parish of Saint Paul Spennymoor should be formed into a consolidated chapelry for all ecclesiastical purposes and that the same should be assigned to the said church of Saint Andrew situate at Tudhoe Grange as aforesaid.

"Now, therefore, with the consent of the Right Reverend Joseph Barber, Bishop of the said diocese of Durham as such Bishop (in testimony whereof he the said Bishop has signed and sealed this representation) and with the consent of the Dean and Chapter of the cathedral church of Durham, the patrons both of the vicarage of the said parish of Tudhoe and also of the vicarage of the said new parish of Saint Paul Spennymoor (in testimony whereof they the said Dean and Chapter have set their corporate seal to this representation) we the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England humbly represent that it would in our opinion be expedient that all those contiguous portions of the said parish of Tudhoe and of the said new parish of Saint Paul Spennymoor which are described in the schedule hereunder written all which portions together with the boundaries thereof are delineated and set forth on the map or plan hereunto annexed should be united and formed into one consolidated chapelry for the said church of Saint Andrew situate at Tudhoe Grange as aforesaid and that the same should be named 'The Consolidated Chapelry of Saint Andrew Tudhoe Grange.'

"The SCHEDULE to which the foregoing Representation has reference.

"The Consolidated Chapelry of Saint Andrew Tudhoe Grange comprising:—

"All that portion of the parish of Tudhoe in the county of Durham and in the diocese of Durham and also all that contiguous portion of the new parish of Saint Paul Spennymoor in the same county and diocese which said portions are comprised within and are bounded by an imaginary line commencing upon the boundary which divides the said parish of Tudhoe from the new parish of Ferryhill in the county and diocese aforesaid at the point where the boundary dividing the township of Merrington from the township of Ferryhill strikes the northern side of the line of the Byers Green Branch of the North-Eastern Railway and extending thence northward along the said township boundary for a distance of seven chains or thereabouts to a point at Low Spennymoor at or near to the junction of Green-lane with the road leading from Low Spennymoor aforesaid to Tudhoe where the same township boundary joins the boundary dividing the original parish of Merrington from the original parish of Brancepeth and extending thence that is from the last-described point first northward and then north-westward along the middle of the last-described road for a distance of one mile and five chains or thereabouts to its junction with the public footpath leading to Spennymoor and extending thence south-westward along the middle of the said footpath for a distance of nearly one mile (thereby passing through Cow Pasture Wood and crossing the boundary in the middle of the stream called Valley Burn which boundary divides the said parish of Tudhoe from the new parish of Saint Paul Spennymoor aforesaid) to the point at Spennymoor where the same footpath joins Villiers-street and continuing thence still south-eastward along the middle of the last-named street for a distance of three and-a-half chains or thereabouts to its junction with George-street and extending thence north-eastward along the middle of the last-named street for a distance of two and a half chains or thereabouts to its junction with Duncombe-street and extending thence south-eastward along the middle of the last-named street for a distance of six chains or thereabouts to its junction with High-street Spennymoor and with Thomas-street and extending thence south-eastward across the said High-street and along the middle of Thomas-street aforesaid for a distance of five chains or thereabouts to a point at the south-eastern end of the last-named street upon the fence forming the northern boundary of the buildings and premises known as the Spennymoor and Tudhoe Gas Works, and extending thence first north-eastward then north-westward and then again north-eastward along the said fence for a distance of three chains or thereabouts to a point at the north-eastern end of the same fence upon the boundary which divides the said new parish of Saint Paul, Spennymoor, from the parish of Tudhoe aforesaid, and extending thence southward along the last-mentioned boundary for a distance of ten and a half chains or thereabouts (thereby crossing the line of the Byers Green Branch of the North-Eastern Railway aforesaid) to the point at the south-eastern angle of the Spennymoor and Tudhoe Gasworks aforesaid where the said last-mentioned boundary joins the boundary which divides the said parish of Tudhoe from the parish of Merrington aforesaid, and extending thence first southward then eastward and then north-eastward along the last-mentioned boundary for a distance of sixty-three chains or thereabouts (thereby passing along the southern end of the houses called or known as Merrington-terrace) to the point where the said last-mentioned boundary joins the boundary dividing the said parish of Tudhoe from the new parish of Ferryhill aforesaid, and extending thence northward along the last-mentioned boundary for a distance of ten chains or thereabouts (thereby crossing the line of the Binchester Colliery Railway, and also crossing the line of the said Byers Green Branch of the North-Eastern Railway aforesaid) to the first described point on the northern side of the last-named branch line of railway at which point the said imaginary line commenced."

And whereas the said representation has been approved by Her Majesty in Council; now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said representation, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the
