

London Gazette pursuant to the said Acts; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said diocese of Durham.

C. L. Peel.

AT the Court at Windsor, the 19th day of May, 1884.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the fifty-ninth year of His Majesty King George the Third, chapter one hundred and thirty-four; of the Act of the second and third years of Her Majesty, chapter forty-nine; and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Her Majesty, chapter fifty-five, duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a representation, bearing date the third day of April, in the year one thousand eight hundred and eighty-four in the words following; that is to say:—

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the fifty-ninth year of His Majesty King George the Third, chapter one hundred and thirty-four; of the Act of the second and third years of Your Majesty, chapter forty-nine; and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Your Majesty, chapter fifty-five, have prepared, and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council, the following representation as to the assignment of a district chapelry to the consecrated church of Saint Andrew situate within the limits of the parish of Saint John Cardiff in the county of Glamorgan and in the diocese of Llandaff.

"Whereas it appears to us to be expedient that a district chapelry should be assigned to the said church of Saint Andrew situate within the limits of the parish of Saint John Cardiff aforesaid.

"Now therefore with the consent of the Right Reverend Richard Bishop of the said diocese of Llandaff (testified by his having signed and sealed this representation) we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners, humbly represent, that it would, in our opinion, be expedient that all that part of the said parish of Saint John Cardiff which is described in the schedule hereunder written, all which part, together with the boundaries thereof, is delineated and set forth on the map or plan hereunto annexed, should be assigned as a district chapelry to the said church of Saint Andrew situate within the limits of such parish as aforesaid, and that the same should be named 'The District Chapelry of Saint Andrew Cardiff.'

"And with the like consent of the said Richard Bishop of the said diocese of Llandaff (testified as aforesaid), we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners, further represent, that it appears to us to be expedient that banns of matrimony should be published, and that marriages, baptisms, churchings and burials should be solemnized or performed at the said church of Saint Andrew and that the fees to be received in respect of the publication of such banns and of the solemnization or performance of the said offices should be paid and belong to the minister of the same church for the time being: Provided always, that nothing herein contained shall be construed as expressing any intention on the part of us the said Commissioners to concur in or approve the taking of any fee for the performance of the said office of baptism or for the registration thereof."

"The SCHEDULE to which the foregoing Representation has reference.

"The District Chapelry of Saint Andrew, Cardiff, being:

"All that part of the parish of Saint John Cardiff in the county of Glamorgan and in the diocese of Llandaff which is bounded on the east on the south and on the west by an imaginary line commencing upon the boundary which divides the said parish of Saint John Cardiff from the parish of Roath in the county and diocese aforesaid at the centre of the bridge which carries Crwys-road over the line of the Rhymney Railway and extending thence southward along the middle of the said line of railway for a distance of sixty-one chains or thereabouts thereby passing through the Rhymney Railway Station to the centre of the bridge which carries the same line of railway over the street or road called or known as Crockherbtown and extending thence westward along the middle of the last-named street or road for a distance of fifteen chains or thereabouts, thereby passing under the line of the Taff Vale Railway, to the junction of the same street or road with the street or road called or known as Park-place and extending thence northward along the middle of the last-named street or road for a distance of thirty-eight chains or thereabouts, thereby passing along the eastern side of Cathays Park, to the point at the northern end of the same street or road on the south-western side of the line of the Taff Vale Railway aforesaid where the same street or road joins the footway which leads along the said south-western side of the same line of railway to Woodville-road and extending thence, that is, from the last-described point of junction, north-westward along the middle of the said footway for a distance of twelve chains or thereabouts to its junction with Woodville-road aforesaid and extending thence north-eastward along the middle of the last-named road for a distance of two and a half chains or thereabouts, thereby passing over the line of the Taff Vale Railway aforesaid, to the junction of the said Woodville-road with Senghennyd-road and with the road which leads past the houses called or known as Cathays-terrace to the Cardiff New Cemetery and extending thence northward along the middle of the last-mentioned road for a distance of thirty-six chains or thereabouts to the boundary at the junction of the same road with Crwys-road aforesaid which boundary divides the said parish of Saint John Cardiff from the parish of Roath aforesaid. All which said hereinbefore described part of the parish of Saint John Cardiff aforesaid is bounded upon the remaining side other than upon the east, the south and the west as aforesaid, that is to say, upon the north-west by the parish of Roath aforesaid."

And whereas the said representation has been approved by Her Majesty in Council; now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said representation, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Acts; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said diocese of Llandaff.
