And whereas the said scheme or representation has been approved by Her Majesty in Council: now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme or representation and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Acts; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said diocese of Manchester.

C. L. Peel.

AT the Court at Windsor, the 19th day of May, 1884.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the thirty-third and thirty-fourth years of Her Majesty, chapter thirty-nine, and of the Acts therein mentioned, that is to say of the Act of the third and fourth years of Her Majesty chapter one hundred and thirteen of the Act of the fourth and fifth years of Her Majesty chapter thirty-nine and of the Act of the thirty-first and thirty-second years of Her Majesty chapter one hundred and fourteen, duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a scheme, bearing date the first day of May, in the year one thousand eight hundred and eighty-four, in the words following, that is to say:—

“We the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England in pursuance of the Act of the thirty-third and thirty-fourth years of Your Majesty chapter thirty-nine and of the Acts therein mentioned that is to say the Act of the third and fourth years of Your Majesty chapter one hundred and thirteen the Act of the fourth and fifth years of Your Majesty chapter thirty-nine and the Act of the thirty-first and thirty-second years of Your Majesty chapter one hundred and fourteen have prepared and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council the following scheme for effecting a transfer (if and so far only as a transfer is needed) of the ownership of the advowson or perpetual right of patronage of and presentation to the church and cure (hereinafter called the said benefice) of Cockington in the county of Devon and in the diocese of Exeter.

“Whereas the said benefice of Cockington is a district chapelry and new parish and the limits of the said district chapelry and new parish as defined by the Order of Your Majesty in Council creating the same (which Order is dated the nineteenth day of December one thousand eight hundred and eighty-one and was published in the London Gazette of the twenty-third day of the same month), are co-extensive with the limits of the parochial chapelry and civil parish of Cockington which parochial chapelry and civil parish was prior to and up to the date of the same Order united with the parochial chapelry of Tormohun in the said county of Devon and diocese of Exeter as one benefice.

“And whereas Richard Mallock of Cockington Court in the said parochial chapelry of Cockington, Esquire, and his predecessors in estate have aforesaid been accustomed as patrons of the united benefice of Tormohun and Cockington to present thereto Clerks each of whom was thereupon admitted as incumbent of the same benefice.

“And whereas upon and in consequence of the passing of the said Order of Your Majesty in Council dated the nineteenth day of December, one thousand eight hundred and eighty-one as aforesaid whereby the said benefice of Cockington was in effect separated from the said parochial chapelry of Tormohun doubts have arisen as to whether the patronage and right of presentation or nomination to the said benefice of Cockington is still vested in the said Richard Mallock as aforesaid or whether on the contrary the same may have become vested in and exercisable by the vicar of the benefice (that is to say of the said parochial chapelry) of Tormohun and his successors.

“And whereas the said Richard Mallock has out of his own private resources made considerable additions by way of augmentation to the endowment of the said benefice of Cockington under the belief and impression that the patronage of and right of presentation to the same benefice was well vested in himself and his heirs and assigns and the said Richard Mallock is desirous to make further augmentations of similar character of the endowment of the same benefice and in particular is now ready to secure for the benefit thereof a capital sum of one hundred and fifty pounds cash and the said last-mentioned benefaction has been accordingly paid over to us upon the faith and understanding that all doubt as to the patronage of the said benefice being well vested in him the said Richard Mallock and his heirs and assigns shall be removed and that to that end, we the said Commissioners shall lay before Your Majesty in Council the present scheme.

“And whereas the Right Reverend Frederick now Bishop of the said diocese of Exeter acting as Bishop of the diocese whose consent as such is by the Acts in the hereinbefore firstly mentioned Act recited or by some or one of them made necessary and the Reverend Edward Becher Prince, Clerk in Holy Orders now incumbent of the benefice of Tormohun have each of them on behalf of himself and his successors consented to the arrangement as to the advowson or perpetual right of patronage of and presentation to the said benefice of Cockington which is hereinbefore described and hereinafter proposed to be effected and each of them the said Bishop and incumbent hath accordingly executed this scheme as herein-after mentioned.

“Now therefore with the consent of the said Frederick Bishop of Exeter and of the said Edward Becher Prince Incumbent of Tormohun (in testimony whereof the said Bishop hath signed this scheme and sealed the same with his episcopal seal and the said Edward Becher Prince hath also signed and sealed this scheme) we the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England humbly recommend and propose that upon and from the day of the date of the publication in the London Gazette of any Order of Your Majesty in Council ratifying this scheme and without any conveyance or assurance in the law other than such duly gazetted Order the whole advowson or perpetual right of patronage of and presentation to the said benefice of Cockington shall if and in so far as the same is now vested in the incumbent of the said benefice of Tormohun be transferred from such incumbent and his successors incumbents of the same benefice to and shall thereupon and thenceforth become and be absolutely vested in and shall and may from time to time be exercised solely by the said Richard Mallock and his heirs and assigns for ever.

“And we further recommend and propose that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from
