*Lord Chamberlain's Office, St. James's Palace,
June 11, 1884.*

NOTICE is hereby given, that the State Apartments of Windsor Castle will be closed on and after Tuesday next, the 17th instant, until further orders.

Whitehall, June 11, 1884.

THE following Address of the General Assembly of the Church of Scotland, having been transmitted by John Campbell, Earl of Aberdeen, to the Right Honourable Sir William Vernon Harcourt, one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, has been by him presented to the Queen, which Address Her Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously:—

May it please your Majesty,

WE, Your Majesty's most loyal and dutiful subjects, the Ministers and Elders of the Church of Scotland now convened in General Assembly, beg most respectfully and gratefully to acknowledge Your Majesty's most gracious letter. It is with the highest satisfaction and pleasure that we again receive the assurance of Your Majesty's continued regard for the Church of Scotland, of Your confidence in her loyalty and attachment to Your Majesty's person, and of Your sympathy with the work in which she is engaged.

We feel greatly encouraged in this work by Your Majesty's gracious words, as well as by the many acts which manifest Your attachment to the National Church. We shall be animated thereby to renewed effort; and we hope, through the aid of God's grace, and by a due apprehension of our responsibility as Ministers of Christ, to prove ourselves faithful to our high calling and to fulfil Your Majesty's loving wish for the advancement of religion in the land, and for the promotion of the happiness of Your Majesty's subjects in Scotland.

We receive with lively gratitude Your Majesty's munificent gift of two thousand pounds for the advancement of religion in the Highlands and Islands of Scotland. It will be our earnest endeavour to apply this sum in such a manner as will further the benevolent objects which Your Majesty has so warmly at heart.

It is most pleasing to us that Your Majesty has again seen meet to appoint the Right Honourable John Campbell, Earl of Aberdeen, to represent Your Royal Person in this General Assembly. Bearing a name which will long hold a place in the grateful recollection of the Church of Scotland, esteemed so highly for his personal virtues, and having experienced his unwearied courtesy and kindness when formerly filling this high office, we rejoice in his appointment and thank Your Majesty for it.

Our deepest sympathies have been with Your Majesty and the Royal Family under the severe affliction which has recently visited Your Majesty's heart and home. The sudden and lamented death of His Royal Highness the Duke of Albany, in the midst of a life so full of promise, has been a sorrow to the whole land, and all mourn. We thank God for the signal support vouchsafed, under this heavy bereavement, to Your Majesty and the Duchess of Albany; and our fervent prayer is that the spirit of all consolation may rest abundantly on Your Majesty and on all the Members of the Royal House.

That the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, the giver of all good and perfect gifts, may in His great love, visit with His choicest blessings Your Majesty and all the Royal Family, strengthening Your Majesty for the performance of the duties of Your exalted station, comforting You in all Your sorrows, and at length receiving You into His Heavenly Kingdom is the earnest prayer of,

May it please Your Majesty, Your Majesty's most faithful and loyal subjects, the Ministers and Elders of the Church of Scotland met in this General Assembly.

Signed in our name, in our presence, and at our appointment by Peter Mackenzie, D.D., Moderator.

Board of Trade (Harbour Department).

Whitehall Gardens, June 12, 1884.

THE Board of Trade have received through the Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs a Despatch from Her Majesty's Consul at Baltimore, reporting that it has been decided that vessels entering the Chesapeake Bay from foreign ports will not be obliged to stop at the quarantine station at Cape Charles if bound for the Port of Baltimore.

Pilots have been instructed accordingly and will carry flags for hoisting on incoming vessels boarded outside the Capes, in order that the destination of such vessels may be known by the officers in charge of the Cape Charles quarantine station.

[The following Notification is substituted for that which appeared in last Tuesday's Gazette.]

Whitehall, June 7, 1884.

THE Secretary of State for the Home Department hereby gives notice that the Sunderland School Board Day Industrial School, at The Green, Bishopwearmouth, Sunderland, has been certified by him as fit to be a Day Industrial School for the purposes of the "Elementary Education Act, 1876," and the Order in Council of the 20th day of March, 1877.

INSTRUMENT substituting the New Church, called Christ Church, for the Old Church of Saint Helen, within the Parish of Eston, in the County and Diocese of York.

To all to whom these presents shall come the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England send greeting :

WHEREAS a new church has lately been built within the parish of Eston, in the county of York, and in the diocese of York, and has been consecrated by the name of Christ Church.

And whereas the Right Honourable and Most Reverend William, Archbishop of York, Bishop of the said diocese of York, acting as such Bishop, and also as patron of the vicarage of the said parish of Eston, and the Reverend Charles Byron Wilcox, Incumbent of the same vicarage, have, by an instrument under their hands, bearing date on or about the thirtieth day of April, in the year one thousand eight hundred and eighty-four, certified to us, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, that it would be for the convenience of the said parish of Eston, that the said new church called Christ Church, situate within such parish, should be substituted for the old parish church (dedicated to Saint Helen) of the same parish.

Now, therefore, we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in exercise and execution of the power or authority in that behalf contained in the Act of the eighth and ninth years of Her present Majesty, chapter seventy, and in the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Her said Majesty, chapter fifty-five, and of all other powers or authorities in anywise enabling us in the same behalf, do, by this instrument under our common seal, with the consents (testified as hereinafter mentioned) of the said William, Archbishop of York, Bishop of the said diocese of York, and patron of the vicarage of the said parish of Eston as aforesaid, and of the said Charles Byron Wilcox, incumbent of the same vicarage as aforesaid, hereby declare that the said new church called Christ Church, situate within the said parish of Eston, and duly consecrated as aforesaid, shall be, and the same is hereby, substituted for the said old parish church (dedicated to Saint Helen as aforesaid) of the same parish, and that such new church shall henceforth be the parish church of the said parish of Eston, in lieu of the said old parish church of Saint Helen as fully in all respects as if the said new church called Christ Church so hereby substituted, had been originally the parish church of the same parish.

And we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in further pursuance and exercise of the powers and authorities aforesaid and with such consents as aforesaid (testified as hereinafter mentioned), do hereby transfer all the endowments, emoluments, and rights of or belonging to the said old parish church (dedicated to Saint Helen as aforesaid) of the said parish of Eston, or of or belonging to the vicar or incumbent thereof to the said new church called Christ Church (now being, by virtue of these presents, the parish church of the said parish of Eston), and to the vicar or incumbent thereof, and his successors for ever.

In witness whereof to these presents we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, have set our common seal, and the said William, Archbishop of York, Bishop of the said diocese of York, has set his hand and affixed his episcopal seal, and the said Charles Byron Wilcox has set his hand and affixed his seal this twenty-ninth day of May, in the year one thousand eight hundred and eighty-four.

V.R. By the Lieutenant-Governor.
 A PROCLAMATION.

Isle of Man to Wit.

WHEREAS by an Order dated the 25th day of September, 1883, made by the Lieutenant-Governor, by and with the advice and consent of two Members of the Council, under the powers contained in Section 2 of "The Cattle Diseases Prevention Act, 1865," it was directed that, in order to prevent the introduction of the disease commonly called the Foot-and-Mouth Disease amongst the animals in this Isle, no bull, cow, ox, heifer, steer, calf, sheep, swine, or goat should be imported into this Isle from and after the 1st day of October, 1883, from any place beyond the same, other than Scotland, Silloth and Whitehaven in England, and Belfast, Dundrum, and Greenore in Ireland:

And whereas it is deemed expedient to vary the said Order of the 25th day of September, 1883, so far as the same relates to Ireland, so as to admit of the importation of animals from any port thereof:

Now I, the said Lieutenant-Governor, do, therefore, by and with the advice and consent of two members of the Council, and in exercise of the powers given by the said Act, hereby order that the said Order in Council of the 25th day of September, 1883, so far as it relates to the prohibition of the importation of cattle from any port of Ireland, be, and the same is, hereby rescinded.

Given this 23rd day of May, 1884.
