KENMARE,

Lord Chamberlain.

AT the Court at Windsor, the 26th day of June, 1884.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by a Statute made and passed in a session of Parliament holden in the third and fourth years of the reign of King William the Fourth, intituled "An Act for the Appointment of Convenient Places for the holding of Assizes in England and Wales," it was enacted (amongst other things) that His Majesty, by and with the advice of His Most Honourable Privy Council, should have power from time to time to order and direct at what place or places in any county in England or Wales the Assizes and Sessions under the Commissions of gaol delivery and other Commissions for the despatch of civil and criminal business shall be holden, and to order and direct such Assizes and Sessions for the despatch of criminal and civil business to be holden at more than one place in the same county on the same circuit, and to order and direct the Assizes and Sessions under such Commissions for the despatch of criminal business to be holden for the whole county at one place, and for the despatch of civil business at one or more place or places in such county, on the same circuit: and further, to order and direct any special Commissions of oyer and terminer and gaol delivery to be holden at any one or more places in any such county; and further, that in case His Majesty, by and with the advice of His most Honourable Privy Council, should think fit to order and direct that the Assizes, or any special Commissions, should be holden at more than one place in any one county, it should be lawful for His Majesty, by and with the advice aforesaid, to divide any such county for the purposes of that Act; and to make rules and regulations touching the venue in all cases, civil and criminal, then pending or thereafter to be pending, and to be tried within any division of such county so to be made as aforesaid; and touching the liability and attendance of jurors, whether Grand Jurors, Special Jurors, or Common Jurors at the Assizes and Sessions as aforesaid, or at any Sessions under any special Commissions to be holden within any such division, and touching the use of any house of correction, or prison, as a common gaol, and the government and keeping thereof, and touching the alterations of any Commissions, writs, precepts, or other proceedings whatsoever for carrying into effect the purposes of that Act; and touching any other matters that might be requisite for carrying into effect the purposes of that Act; and that all such rules and regulations should be of the like force and effect as if the same had been made by the authority of Parliament, and should be notified in the London Gazette, or in such other manner as His Majesty, by and with the advice of His Most Honourable Privy Council should think fit to direct.

And whereas by the 23rd section of the Supreme Court of Judicature Act, 1875, it is enacted (amongst other things) that Her Majesty may at any time after the passing of that Act, and from time to time by Order in Council provide in such manner, and subject to such regulations as to Her Majesty may seem meet, for all or any of the following matters:—

- (1.) For the discontinuance, either temporarily or permanently, wholly or partially, of any existing circuit and the formation of any new circuit by the union of any counties or parts of counties, or partly in one way and partly in the other, or by the constitution of any county or part of a county to be a circuit by itself, and in particular for the issue of Commissions for the discharge of civil and criminal business in the county of Surrey to the Judges appointed to sit for the trial by jury of causes and issues in Middlesex, or London, or any of them; and
- (2.) For the appointment of the place or places at which Assizes are to be holden on any circuit; and
- (3.) For altering by such authority and in such manner as may be specified in the Order the day appointed for holding the Assizes at any place on any circuit in any case where by reason of the pressure of business or other unforeseen cause, it is expedient to alter the same; and
- (4.) For the regulation so far as may be necessary for carrying into effect any Order under this section of the venue in all cases, civil and criminal, triable on any circuit or elsewhere;

And that Her Majesty may from time to time by Order in Council alter, add to, or amend any Order in Council made in pursuance of this section, and in making any Order under this section may give any directions which it appears to Her Majesty to be desirable to give for the purpose of giving full effect to such Order.

And whereas at a meeting of the Judges of the Supreme Court of Judicature, duly assembled at Her Majesty's Royal Courts of Justice on the 10th day of June, 1884, pursuant to the 75th section of the Supreme Court of Judicature Act, 1873, it was (amongst things) resolved as follows:—

- (1.) "That at a convenient time before the commencement of any Assizes the Judges who are to go the circuits, shall meet together, and shall at such meeting by mutual arrangement and common consent fix the Commission days for the several Assize towns on all the circuits and arrange them so that if possible no more than ten Judges shall be absent from London at the same time.
- (2.) "That the Commission days both for the summer and the winter Assizes shall be arranged as nearly as possible according to the specimen scheme annexed to these resolutions.

- (3.) "That in order to enable the Judges, so far as may be possible, to leave no cause untried at any place on any circuit, one of the Judges in London (in accordance with a rotation to be settled for that purpose) shall, on request of the Judge or Judges on any circuit, proceed to any place on such circuit in aid of such Judge or Judges for such time as may be necessary.
- (4.) "That when any Judge has been absent from London on circuit for 35 days he shall be entitled, on his request, to be relieved by a Judge from London of the same division, according to a rotation to be settled for that purpose, and to take the place of such Judge in London.
- (5.) "That the Assizes at Manchester and Liverpool shall be fixed as nearly as possible according to the specimen scheme annexed to these resolutions.
- (6.) "That greater facilities be given by Rules of Court for the trial of Manchester and Liverpool witness causes in the Chancery Division at those places by Judges from London.
- (7.) "That in order to facilitate the Circuit business the Judges humbly recommend Her Majesty, if Her Majesty shall so please, to place the names of all the Judges of the Supreme Court in every Commission.
- (8.) "That the Judges humbly recommend to Her Majesty, if Her Majesty shall so please, by Order in Council to enable a Judge on circuit if he shall think it necessary in order to enable the business at any particular place to be concluded, or for other good cause, to postpone the Commission day at any place or places; and that whenever a Judge shall thus postpone a Commission day, he shall immediately inform the Lord Chancellor of his having so done, and of the particulars of the reason why he has so done.
- (9.) "That the Judges humbly recommend Her Majesty, if Her Majesty shall so please, by Order in Council to abrogate the necessity of reading in Court the Proclamation against vice and immorality, and to direct that the Commissions of Assize be opened by producing them on the first day of the Assizes at each place in Court, and by the officer of the Court shortly stating that the Judges present at the Assizes are thereby with others appointed to hold the Assizes."

And whereas it is expedient to make the provisions hereinafter contained as to the matters aforesaid, and also as to the holding of Assizes in and for the county of Surrey;

Now, therefore, Her Majesty by and with the advice of Her Most Honourable Privy Council, having taken into consideration the matters aforesaid, under and by virtue of the authority aforesaid, and of all or any other statutes, laws, powers, and authorities enabling Her in that behalf, is pleased to order and it is hereby ordered accordingly as follows:—

1. The places at which Assizes are to be holden for the discharge of civil and criminal business at the Winter and Summer Assizes shall for the future be those named in the first and second Schedules to this Order.

2. The Commission days for the said several places on all the circuits for the Winter and Summer Assizes to be hereafter holden, shall, so far as may be practicable and the business to be done may allow, be fixed in accordance with the scheme for Summer Assizes set out in the first schedule hereto (with the changes necessary to adapt the same to the Winter Assizes) and shall, so far as may be practicable and the business to be done may allow, be arranged so that no more than ten Judges shall be absent from London at the same time; and such Commission days shall be so fixed and arranged by common consent and mutual arrangement of all the Judges on the rota to go the said Assizes respectively, at a convenient period before the said Assizes, at meetings of such Judges to be convened for that purpose.

3. Assizes shall be held at Manchester and Liverpool at times to be fixed, as far as may be practicable and the business to be done may allow, in accordance with the scheme in the second Schedule hereto, for the Summer and Winter Assizes by the Judges at meetings as in the last paragraph referred to, and for the Spring and Autumn Assizes by the Judges appointed to hold the same. But the Summer Assizes at Manchester and Liverpool for the current year shall be holden at such periods after the date of this Order as the Judges at any such meeting as aforesaid may fix or may have fixed at any meeting held before the date of this Order.

4. Sittings under Commissions of Assize shall be held at Liverpool and Manchester for the trial of witness causes entered in the Chancery Division of the High Court of Justice at such times and under such conditions and regulations as may be fixed by Rules of the Supreme Court.

5. The town of Kingston-upon-Thames shall from and after the date of this Order cease to be a place where Assizes are to be holden in and for the county of Surrey.

6. The Assizes to be holden at Guildford and Croydon in accordance with the provisions of this Order and the schedule hereto, shall be deemed to be for all purposes the Winter and Summer Assizes holden for the county of Surrey.

7. (a) The Winter and Summer Assizes holden under Commissions of gaol delivery and other Commissions for the despatch of civil and criminal business for the county of Warwick, heretofore holden at Warwick, shall hereafter be holden on the same circuit at Warwick and Birmingham, in the said county.

(b) The said county shall be divided for the purposes of carrying this Order into execution into two divisions, which shall respectively be called the "Warwick Division" and the "Birmingham Division."

(c) The said "Birmingham Division" shall include and consist of the whole of the district within the boundaries for the time being of the municipal borough of Birmingham, and the said "Warwick Division" shall include and consist of the whole of the rest of the county of Warwick.

(d) Her Majesty's prison at Warwick may be used in manner hereinafter mentioned as a common gaol or prison for the purpose of carrying this Order into effect so far as it relates to the said "Warwick Division" and Her Majesty's prison at Birmingham may be used in manner hereinafter appearing as a common gaol or prison for the purpose of carrying this Order into effect so far as it relates to the said "Birmingham Division." Any Justice or Justices of the Peace or Coroner may hereafter commit for safe custody or trial to the said prisons respectively any person duly charged with any offence triable at the Assizes in this paragraph referred to respectively. The Sheriff of the county of Warwick shall have over and in respect of persons so committed as aforesaid or sentenced or committed in execution at the said Assizes such and the like power, jurisdiction, liabilities, and duties as he may heretofore have had over or in respect of any person committed for safe custody or trial at Assizes holden for the whole county of Warwick, or sentenced or committed in execution at Assizes holden for the said whole county, and as if such person had been in a gaol or prison for the said whole county or in any other place. The governors or keepers of the said prisons shall respectively deliver or cause to be delivered to the Judges of Assize a calendar of all prisoners in custody for trial at Warwick and Birmingham respectively in the same way as if their prisons respectively had been prisons for the said whole county and the said prisoners were in custody for trial at Assizes to be holden for the said whole county.

(e) Hereafter in all cases of commitment for trial or of recognizances to appear and prosecute or give evidence or answer at the Assizes for any offence supposed to have been committed in the said "Warwick Division," such commitment shall be to Her Majesty's Prison at Warwick, and the recognizances shall be taken to appear and prosecute or give evidence or to appear in answer at the Assizes at Warwick as heretofore, and for any offence supposed to have been committed in the said "Birmingham Division" the commitment shall be to Her Majesty's Prison at Birmingham, and the recognizances shall be taken to appear and prosecute or give evidence or to appear and answer at the Assizes at Birmingham, unless the Justice or Justices of the Peace making any such commitment or taking such recognizances shall under the special circumstances of the case think fit to make such commitment for trial or take such recognizances to appear and prosecute or give evidence or to appear in answer at the Assizes to be holden in either of the said divisions, other than that in which the offence shall be supposed to have been committed, in which case such commitment shall be made and recognizances taken and such trial shall take place accordingly, but no statement as to special circumstances need appear in the Order of commitment or in any other document.

(f) Nothing in this Order shall affect any commitment made or recognizances taken before the date of this Order.

(g) All indictments for offences triable at the said Assizes supposed to have been committed in the said Warwick Division of the said county shall be preferred to the Grand Jury for the said county at Warwick, and all indictments for such offences supposed to have been committed in the said Birmingham Division of the said county shall be preferred to the Grand Jury of the said county at Birmingham, except in the cases of persons committed or held to bail under the special circumstances herein-before mentioned, or removed for trial by Order of a Court or Judge as herein-after provided, and except in the cases of persons heretofore committed for trial, in which cases indictments shall be preferred to the Grand Jury at Warwick or Birmingham to or at whichever of the said places such persons shall be or have been committed or held to bail to appear and all issues arising upon or out of any indictments shall be tried at whichever of the said places the same shall have been preferred; provided that any issues now joined or hereafter to be joined on any indictments already found at Assizes holden at Warwick shall be tried at Assizes holden at Warwick.

(h) Any person not in custody against whom any bill of indictment shall hereafter be found at the Assizes at Warwick shall, if committed, be committed to Her Majesty's Prison at Warwick for trial at the Assizes to be holden at Warwick, or in case such bill of indictment be found at the Assizes at Birmingham such person shall be committed to Her Majesty's Prison at Birmingham for trial at the Assizes to be holden at Birmingham.

(i.) The Sheriff of the county of Warwick or his deputy, and the Clerk of the Crown for the said county or his deputy, shall attend at the Assizes at Birmingham as well as at Warwick, and all Justices of the Peace and Coroners bound by law to attend at the Assizes shall attend at the said Assizes at Warwick or Birmingham according as their usual place of residence may be in the said Warwick Division or Birmingham Division respectively; and such Justices and Coroners as have no residence in either of the said divisions shall attend at that one of the said places which shall be nearest to their usual place of residence, and all the Mayors, Stewards, and Bailiffs of liberties, hundreds, and wapentakes in the said Warwick Division shall attend at the Assizes at Warwick, and those in the Birmingham Division at the Assizes at Birmingham, and every Justice of the Peace shall certify his examinations, informations, inquisitions, bailments, and recognizances in respect of offences which under this Order are to be tried at the Assizes at Warwick to the Clerk of the Crown before or at the opening of the Court at Warwick, and in respect of offences which are to be tried at Birmingham before or at the opening of the Court at Birmingham.

(k.) The Sheriff of the county of Warwick shall summon a Grand Jury from and for the body of the said county, which shall attend at the Assizes at Warwick, and shall be sworn for the body of the whole county as heretofore, and another Grand Jury which shall attend at the Assizes at Birmingham and be sworn in like manner, which said two Grand Juries may consist in whole or in part of the same or different persons.

(l.) The precept issued by the Judges of Assize to the Sheriff of the said county of Warwick or other minister to whom belongs the return of the jurors for the trial of issues at the Assizes in and for the said county to summon jurors for the said Assizes for the trial of civil and criminal issues, and to summon special jurymen to try the special jury causes at such Assizes pursuant to the provisions of the Common Law Procedure Act, 1852, or any other Act or law shall direct the said Sheriff or other minister to summon such jurors and special jurymen respectively for the purposes aforesaid at the said Assizes at Warwick and Birmingham respectively, and the said Sheriff or other minister shall accordingly summon a competent number of men named in the jurors' book to serve on juries indiscriminately on the civil and criminal side at the Assizes at Warwick so as such number be not less than 48 nor more than 72, and also a competent number of the like persons to serve on juries indiscriminately as aforesaid at the Assizes at Birmingham, so as such number be not less than 48 nor more than 72; and the said Sheriff or other minister shall also summon a sufficient number of special jurymen, not exceeding 48 in all, for each place to try the special jury causes at each of the said Assizes at Warwick and Birmingham respectively, provided always that the Sheriff or other minister in summoning juries to attend at Warwick or Birmingham respectively shall have regard to the convenience of jurors in reference to their respective places of residence, provided also that the High Court of Justice or any Judge thereof, or the Judges named in the Commissions of oyer and terminer and other Commissions for the said county, may at any time direct a greater or less number to be summoned in any of the said cases, whereupon such greater or less number shall be summoned accordingly, and provided also that it shall be lawful for the High Court of Justice or any Judge thereof at any time to issue any further or other or special directions or orders to the said Sheriff or other minister as may be necessary.

(m.) Every person who shall have served as juror at any of the said Assizes shall have the like privilege and exemption by virtue of the County Juries Act, 1825, or any other Act, as if he had served at Assizes holden for the whole county, and all the powers and provisions of the said Act, the Common Law Procedure Act, 1852, and any other Act and law touching the summoning of juries, common and special, and the summoning of jurors to serve indiscriminately on the civil and criminal side and otherwise, shall be in force with respect to each of the said Assizes to be holden at Warwick and Birmingham respectively.

(n.) In all actions the venue is to be laid in the said county, with the addition of "Warwick Division," or "Birmingham Division," as the case may be, and issues arising therein shall be tried at Warwick or Birmingham accordingly, provided that in all cases where by law the venue is local the same shall be laid in the "Warwick Division" or the "Birmingham Division," according as the cause of action may have arisen in one or the other division. Provided nevertheless, that it shall be lawful for the High Court of Justice or any Judge thereof, if they or he shall think fit to change the venue from one division to the other, whether the cause of action be local or not. All actions where issue has been already before the date of this Order joined shall be tried at Warwick, unless the said Court, or a Judge thereof, shall otherwise order.

(o.) In all cases of indictments removed into the High Court of Justice by certiorari or otherwise, and in all cases of civil and criminal informations filed in the Queen's Bench Division of the said Court, triable at the said Assizes for offences alleged to have been committed, or matters alleged to have arisen, in the county of Warwick or otherwise triable therein, the trial of any issue or issues arising therein shall take place at the Assizes at Warwick, unless (in the case of indictments) the said High Court, or any Judge thereof, and (in the case of informations) the said Queen's Bench Division, or any Judge thereof, shall otherwise order.

(p.) The High Court of Justice, or any Judge thereof, or any Commissioner named in the Commissions of gaol delivery or oyer and terminer for the county of Warwick, may, if such Court, Judge, or Commissioner think fit, order and direct that the issue or issues upon any indictment found by either of the Grand Juries at Assizes at Warwick or Birmingham respectively shall be tried at any Assizes to be holden at either of the said places, and order and direct any prisoner or accused person to be brought up or appear, as the circumstances may require, at either of the said places, and may direct a writ of habeas corpus or issue any other necessary direction for the purpose. Provided that this power of changing the place of trial shall not apply to the case of any person heretofore committed for trial.

(q.) Every recognizance which shall be entered into to appear and prosecute or give evidence or to appear and answer, as the case may be, at the Assizes to be holden at Warwick or Birmingham shall, in case such order or direction as aforesaid shall have been made or given as aforesaid, be obligatory on the parties bound by such recognizance so as to compel them to appear and prosecute or give evidence or to appear and answer, as the case may be, and to do all things therein mentioned at the Assizes at which by such order the trial is to take place in like manner as if such recognizance had been originally entered into for appearing and prosecuting or giving evidence or appearing and answering or doing such other things at such last-mentioned place: Provided that one week's notice shall have been given either by serving the same personally upon the parties bound by such recognizance, or by leaving the same at the place of residence as of which such parties are described in such recognizances, of the change of the place of trial, and to appear at the place to which the trial has been changed: Provided also that the Court or Judge making such order for trial or removal as aforesaid shall cause the party applying for such order, whether he be the prosecuting party or the party charged, to enter into a recognizance in such sum and with or without sufficient sureties as such Court or Judge may direct, conditioned to give such notice as aforesaid to the parties bound by such recognizances.

(r.) The venue in all indictments and all informations shall (when necessary) be stated to be as of the County of Warwick with the addition of "Warwick Division" or "Birmingham Division," as the case may be.

8. Notwithstanding anything herein contained, but subject to the express directions of this Order, the district of the said "Birmingham Division" shall continue to be part of the County of Warwick.

9. In order to enable the Judges so far as may be possible to leave no cause untried at any place on any circuit, one of the Judges in London (in accordance with a rotation to be settled by the Judges for that purpose) shall, with the sanction of the Lord Chancellor, and on request of the Judge or Judges on any circuit, proceed to any place on such circuit in aid of such Judge or Judges for such time as may be necessary.

10. When any Judge has been absent from London on circuit for 35 days, he shall be entitled on his request to be relieved by a Judge from London of the same Division, according to a rotation to be settled by the Judges for that purpose, and to take the place of such Judge in London.

11. The two schedules hereto and the directions therein shall be taken as part of this Order, and shall be taken as model schemes to be followed as far as may be consistent with the requirements of the business of every occasion to which they have to be adapted.

12. The names of all the Judges of the Supreme Court shall be placed in every Commission, to the intent that the duties necessary to be performed by such Judges under each such Commission may be performed by one or more of such Judges at each place appointed for holding Assizes in conformity with the schedule to this Order.

13. It shall be lawful for any Judge on circuit, if he shall think it necessary in order to enable the business at any particular place to be concluded, or for other good cause, to postpone the Commission day at any place or places, and whenever a Judge shall thus postpone the Commission day at any place or places, to any day later than the day (exclusive of Sundays and days of public rest) next after the day theretofore fixed by the Judges for the Commission day, he shall immediately inform the Lord Chancellor of his having so done, and of the particulars of the reason why he has so done, and in all cases he shall cause such public notice of the postponement to be given as the circumstances of the case admit.

14. Henceforth it shall not be necessary to read or proclaim in Court at any Assizes the Royal Proclamation against vice and immorality heretofore accustomed to be read or proclaimed, and it is hereby directed that the Commissions at all Assizes be opened by producing in Court the Commission or Commissions under which they are to be holden before the commencement of the business of the Assizes on the first day of the Assizes on which a Judge shall sit in Court at each place without reading them at length, and by the Officer of the Court shortly stating that the Judges or Judge present at the Assizes are, or is, thereby with others appointed to hold the Assizes.

15. The expressions "Summer Assizes" and "Winter Assizes" in this Order shall be construed as referring to the Assizes heretofore usually holden during the summer and winter respectively for the dispatch of both civil and criminal business under any Commissions of Oyer and Terminer, Gaol Delivery, Nisi Prius, or Assize and other Commissions, or any Commissions issued in lieu thereof under the Supreme Court of Judicature Acts, 1873 and 1875, or any Acts amending the same.

16. This Order may be amended, added to, or repealed by order in Council. C. L. Peel.

And whereas it is expedient to empower the said Guardians to appoint a competent person or persons to examine the stores at the Workhouse belonging to the said Union, and to perform the other duties hereinafter set forth ;

Now therefore, We, the Local Government Board, in pursuance of the powers given to Us by the Statutes in that behalf, hereby order as follows :—

Provided nevertheless, that the Guardians may, if they think fit, with the assent of the Local Government Board, appoint a person or persons, to discharge the duties hereby prescribed for the Stocktaker, for a limited period only.

ARTICLE V.—The Stocktaker shall, on the day next after the termination of each quarter, and at any other time when required by the Guardians to do so, examine the stores at the Workhouse and compare the same with the quantities of stock remaining in store as shown by the entries in the proper columns in the accounts termed respectively the “Quarterly Balance of the Provisions Account” and the “Quarterly Balance of the Necessaries and Miscellaneous Account.”

SOLDIERS' BALANCES UNCLAIMED.

IN pursuance of the "Regimental Debts Act, 1863," notice is hereby given, that Her Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for the War Department has available, for distribution amongst the Next of Kin or others entitled, the sum of money set opposite to the name of each of the deceased soldiers named in the list which is published with this notice in the London Gazette, and the "Army List," and is also to be seen at the Regimental Districts and at the Quarters of the several Staff Officers for the Pension Service throughout the United Kingdom.

Applications from persons supposing themselves entitled as Next of Kin should be addressed by letter to "The Under Secretary of State, War Office, London, S.W.," and marked outside "Soldier's Effects."

No application can be attended to which does not state the date and place of the soldier's birth, enlistment, and death, and the name of his regiment; his regimental number should also be stated if known.

Should these particulars furnished by the applicant not agree with the facts recorded on the War Office documents relating to the deceased soldier, the applicant will be so informed; but should they agree therewith, then within three calendar months the Secretary of State will furnish the applicant with the usual requirements needed for the proof of the alleged relationship.

The application must be authenticated by the signature of the applicant, and his name should be affixed in the presence of the clergyman, or one of the churchwardens of the parish, or a Justice of the Peace; the applicant's address, with the name of the post town, must also be clearly stated. No personal application can receive attention.

Further lists will from time to time be published, and therefore it will facilitate the applicant's inquiries to give the number and date of the notice in which the deceased soldier's name appeared.—EFFECTS 1883-4.

By order of the said Principal Secretary,

RALPH THOMPSON.

NOTE.—A copy of this Notice is to be seen at the Regimental Districts and at the Quarters of the several Staff Officers for the Pension Service throughout the United Kingdom.
