Published by Authority.

FRIDAY, JUNE 27, 1884.

Lord Chamberlain's Office, St. James's Palace,
June 24, 1884.

NOTICE is hereby given, that His Royal Highness The Prince of Wales will, by command of The Queen, hold Levees at St. James's Palace, on behalf of Her Majesty, on Monday, the 7th, and on Monday, the 14th of July next, at two o'clock.

It is The Queen's pleasure that Presentations to His Royal Highness at Levees shall be considered as equivalent to Presentations to Her Majesty.

REGULATIONS

TO BE OBSERVED AT THE QUEEN'S LEVEES TO BE HELD BY HIS ROYAL HIGHNESS THE PRINCE OF WALES, ON BEHALF OF HER MAJESTY, AT ST. JAMES'S PALACE.

By Her Majesty's Command,

The Noblemen and Gentlemen who propose to attend Her Majesty's Levees, at St. James's Palace, are requested to bring with them two large cards, with their names clearly written thereon, one to be left with The Queen's Page in attendance in the Corridor, and the other to be delivered to the Lord Chamberlain, who will announce the name to His Royal Highness.

PRESENTATIONS.

Any Nobleman or Gentleman who proposes to be presented, must leave at the Lord Chamberlain's Office, St. James's Palace, before twelve o'clock, two clear days before the Levee, a card with his name written thereon, and with the name of the Nobleman or Gentleman by whom he is to be presented. In order to carry out the existing regulations that no presentation can be made at a Levee excepting by a person actually attending that Levee, it is also necessary that an intimation from the Nobleman or Gentleman who is to make the presentation, of his intention to be present, should accompany the presentation card above referred to, which will be submitted to The Queen for Her Majesty's approbation. It is Her Majesty's command that no presentations shall be made at the Levee, except in accordance with the above regulations.

It is particularly requested, that in every case the names be very distinctly written upon the cards to be delivered to the Lord Chamberlain, in order that there may be no difficulty in announcing them to His Royal Highness.

The State Apartments will be open for the reception of Company coming to Court at half-past one o'clock.

KENMARE,

Lord Chamberlain.

AT the Court at Windsor, the 26th day of June, 1884.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by a Statute made and passed in a session of Parliament holden in the third and fourth years of the reign of King William the Fourth, intituled "An Act for the Appointment of Convenient Places for the holding of Assizes in England and Wales," it was enacted (amongst other things) that His Majesty, by and with the advice of His Most Honourable Privy Council, should have power from time to time to order and direct at what place or places in any county in England or Wales the Assizes and Sessions under the Commissions of gaol delivery and other Commissions for the despatch of civil and criminal business shall be holden, and to order and direct such Assizes and Sessions for the despatch of criminal and civil business to be holden at more than one place in the same county on the same circuit, and to order and direct the Assizes and Sessions under such Commissions for the despatch of criminal business to be holden for the whole county at one place, and for the despatch of civil business at one or more place or places in such county, on the same circuit: and further, to order and direct any special Commissions of oyer and terminer and gaol delivery to be holden at any one or more places in any such county; and further, that in case His Majesty, by and with the advice of His most Honourable Privy Council, should think fit to order and direct that the Assizes, or any special Commissions, should be holden at more than one place in any one county, it should be lawful for His Majesty, by and with the advice aforesaid, to divide any such county for the purposes of that Act; and to make rules and regulations touching the venue in all cases, civil and criminal, then pending or thereafter to be pending, and to be tried within any division of such county so to be made as aforesaid; and touching the liability and attendance of jurors, whether Grand Jurors, Special Jurors, or Common Jurors at the Assizes and Sessions as aforesaid, or at any Sessions under any special Commissions to be holden within
