THE Board of Trade have received through the Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs a copy of a Decree relating to quarantine recently issued by the Italian Government, of which the following is a translation:—

ART. 1. Vessels coming from the port of Toulon, whatever be the date of their leaving it, shall be subjected to the following treatment:—

Ten days of observation if they have had a clean passage of more than ten days.

Fifteen days of observation if they have had a clean passage of less than ten days.

Twenty days of rigorous quarantine if during the passage they have had cases of cholera or the least suspicion of that disease amongst those on board.

ART. 2. Vessels which have left other ports of the French coast of the Mediterranean after the 20th instant, will, on their arrival in the kingdom, be subjected to the following treatment:—

Five days of observation if they have had a clean passage of more than ten days.

Seven days of observation if they have had a clean passage of less than ten days.

Twenty days of rigorous quarantine if during the passage they have had cases of cholera or the least suspicion of that disease amongst those on board.

ART. 3. Vessels coming from the port of Toulon, besides being subjected to quarantine of observation, may be sent to a lazaret to undergo the same, in cases where the port of arrival has no safe anchorage in a perfectly isolated place.

Vessels subjected to rigorous quarantine must be immediately sent to a lazaret.

ART. 4. In cases of quarantine of observation the hygienic measures of disinfection indicated by Art. 133 of the Ministerial Instructions of the 26th December, 1871, must be taken; and, in cases of rigorous quarantine, the disembarkation at the lazaret of susceptible goods of the 1st Class and their disinfection will be obligatory.

Until further orders the importation by sea or land from France of rags or unwashed old cloths is forbidden.
