

SUPPLEMENT
TO
The London Gazette

Of TUESDAY, the 22nd of JULY.

Published by Authority.

WEDNESDAY, JULY 23, 1884.

AT the Council Chamber, Whitehall, the 23rd day of July, 1884.

By Her Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council.

PRESENT:

Lord President.
Lord Advocate.

To all the Local Authorities in Scotland, under the Public Health (Scotland) Act, 1867, within whose District there is a Port or Harbour ;—

To the Medical Officers of Health of such Local Authorities ;—

To all Officers of Customs ;—

To all Masters of Ships ;—

And to all others whom it may concern.

WHEREAS Cholera is now prevalent at Marseilles and Toulon, in the Republic of France, and it is expedient, in order to prevent the spread of the disease, that rules and regulations should be made with reference to Ships having on board bales of Rags exported from either of those places and consigned to this country :

Now therefore, in exercise of the powers conferred upon them by Section 6 of the Act passed in the sixth year of His Majesty King George the Fourth, chapter seventy-eight, intituled "An Act to Repeal the several Laws relating to Quarantine, and to make other provisions in lieu thereof," and every other power enabling them in this behalf, the Lords of the Council do order, and it is hereby ordered, as follows :—

ARTICLE 1. In this Order—

The term "Ship" includes vessel or boat ;

The term "Officer of Customs" includes any person acting under the authority of the Commissioners of Customs ;

The term "Master" includes the officer or person for the time being in charge or command of a ship.

ARTICLE 2. From and after the date of this Order, no rags exported from Marseilles or Toulon shall be landed at any place in Scotland.

ARTICLE 3. No master of a ship having such rags on board, and no consignee of or other person having any control over such rags shall permit the same to be landed in contravention of this Order.

ARTICLE 4. If, in contravention of this Order, any such rags are landed it shall be the duty of the Local Authority to take proceedings against the persons who may be responsible for such landing ; and, unless the rags are immediately re-shipped, to cause the same to be destroyed, with such precautions as may be recommended by the Medical Officer of Health of the said Authority.
