At the Court at Osborne, August 4, 1884.

THE Queen, as Sovereign of the Most Noble Order of the Garter, has been graciously pleased, by Letters Patent under Her Royal Sign Manual and the Great Seal of the Order, bearing date this day, to dispense with all the Statutes and regulations usually observed in regard to Installation, and to grant unto Her Majesty's grandson, His Royal Highness Prince George Frederick Ernest Albert (second son of His Royal Highness Albert Edward Prince of Wales, K.G.), Knight of the said Most Noble Order, and duly invested with the Ensigns thereof, full power and authority to exercise all rights and privileges belonging to a Knight Companion of the aforesaid Most Noble Order of the Garter, in as full and ample a manner as if His Royal Highness had been formally installed; any decree, rule, or usage to the contrary notwithstanding.

Her Majesty's Most Gracious Speech, delivered by the Lords Commissioners, to both Houses of Parliament on Thursday, August 14, 1884.

My Lords and Gentlemen,

THE satisfaction with which I ordinarily release you from discharging the duties of the Session is on the present occasion qualified by a sincere regret that an important part of your labours should have failed to result in a legislative enactment.

The most friendly intercourse continues to subsist between myself and all foreign Powers.

Diplomatic relations have been resumed with Mexico, and a preliminary agreement has been signed, providing for the negotiation of a new Treaty of Commerce and Navigation.

I have to lament the failure of the efforts which were made by the European Powers assembled in the recent Conference to devise means for restoring that equilibrium in the finances of Egypt which is so important an element in its well-being and good order.

I shall continue to fulfil with fidelity the duties which grow out of the presence of my troops in the valley of the Nile; and I trust that the special mission, which I have determined upon sending to that country, may materially aid me in considering what counsels to tender to the Egyptian Government, and what steps to adopt in connection therewith.

Imperial authority has been resumed in Basutoland, and as much progress made in the settlement of its affairs as I could reasonably have anticipated.

The Convention concluded with the delegates from the Transvaal has been ratified by the Volksraad.

I regret that the condition of Zululand, outside of the Reserve, continues to be disturbed.

Gentlemen of the House of Commons,

I thank you for the liberal provision which you have made to sustain the establishments of the country.

My Lords and Gentlemen,

I continue to view with unabated satisfaction the mitigation and diminution of agrarian crime in Ireland, and the substantial improvement in the condition of its people.

I acknowledge with thankfulness the favourable season, and the prospect it affords of an alleviation of the pressure which has so long and so severely affected the agricultural industry of the country.

I have had pleasure in giving my assent to the Act for lightening the burden of the National Debt, by the Conversion of Stock, the Act for the Repression of Corrupt Practices at Municipal Elections, the Act relating to the Contagious Diseases of Animals imported from abroad, and the Act for the extension of the hours of Polling in Boroughs.

It is my design again at an early period to draw your attention, as I have done during the Session now expiring, to the great subject of the Representation of the People.

I rejoice to observe amidst the numerous indications of the interest generally felt in this subject, constant proofs of loyalty to the Throne and respect for the law. These indications inspire me with a full belief that a great national aim will on this, as on many other occasions, be pursued with order and moderation, the best securities for such a settlement as may, under the blessing of Divine Providence, conduce to the happiness and liberties of the people and the strength of the Empire.

Then a Commission for proroguing the Parliament was read; after which the Lord Chancellor said:

My Lords and Gentlemen,

By virtue of Her Majesty's Commission, under the Great Seal, to us and other Lords directed, and now read, we do, in Her Majesty's name, and in obedience to Her commands, prorogue this Parliament to Monday, the fifteenth day of September next, to be then here holden; and this Parliament is accordingly prorogued to Monday, the fifteenth day of September next.

"perpetual curacy and benefice, and the minister thereof, duly nominated and licensed thereto, and his successors, shall be a body politic and corporate, with perpetual succession, and may receive and take to himself and his successors all such lands, tenements, tithes, rent-charges, and hereditaments as shall be granted unto him or them, and such perpetual curate shall thenceforth have, within the limits of the district parish formed under the Church Building Acts for the church of such perpetual curacy, sole and exclusive cure of souls, and shall not in anywise be subject to the control or interference of the Incumbent or Incumbents of the benefice or benefices to be affected by such Order, if he or they shall have consented to such Order as aforesaid."

"And whereas for the purpose of providing a further endowment for the said proposed district the said Arthur Douglas Wagner has contributed a sum of one thousand two hundred and fifty pounds, four pounds per centum debenture stock of the Lancashire and Yorkshire Railway Company and has transferred the same into our name in the books of the same Company to be held in trust by us for and as a further permanent endowment for the minister or incumbent for the time being of the said proposed district or new parish the amount of the annual interest and dividends to accrue due on account of the said sum of stock to be receivable by the said minister or incumbent for the time being when he shall have been licensed according to the provisions of the said Act.

"And whereas the said yearly rent-charge of one hundred and fifty pounds has been so given granted and conveyed as aforesaid and the said sum of one thousand two hundred and fifty pounds four pounds per centum debenture stock of the Lancashire and Yorkshire Railway Company aforesaid has been so provided as aforesaid upon the understanding that (such arrangement appearing to us to be expedient) the whole right of patronage of the said proposed district and when such district shall have become a new parish then of the said new parish and of the nomination of the minister or incumbent thereof should be assigned in the manner herein-after recommended and proposed.

"Now therefore with the consent of the Right Reverend Richard Bishop of the said diocese of Chichester (in testimony whereof he has signed and sealed this scheme) we the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners humbly recommend and propose that all that part of the said parish of Buxted which is described in the schedule hereunder written all which part together with the boundaries thereof is delineated and set forth on the map or plan hereunto annexed shall upon and from the day of the date of the publication in the London Gazette of any Order of Your Majesty in Council ratifying this scheme become and be constituted a separate district for spiritual purposes and that the same shall be named 'The District of Saint Mary Buxted.'

"And we further recommend and propose that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any other measures relating to the matters aforesaid or any of them in accordance with the provisions of the said Act or of any other Act of Parliament.

"The SCHEDULE to which the foregoing Scheme has reference.

"The District of Saint Mary Buxted being:—
