AT the Court at Balmoral, the 9th day of September, 1884.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty.

Earl of Fife.

Mr. Gladstone.

Sir Henry Ponsonby.

WHEREAS by an Act passed in the 37th year of Her Majesty's reign, chapter 88, intituled "The Slave Trade Act, 1873," it was, amongst other things, provided that, where any Treaty in relation to the Slave Trade is made after the passing of that Act, by or on behalf of Her Majesty with any Foreign State, Her Majesty may, by Order in Council, direct that as from such date, not being earlier than the date of the Treaty, as may be specified in the Order, such Treaty shall be deemed, and that thereupon (as from the said date, or, if no date should be specified, as from the date of such Order) such Treaty shall be deemed to be an existing Slave Trade Treaty within the meaning of the Act, and all the provisions of the Act should apply and be construed accordingly.

And whereas on the third day of June one thousand eight hundred and eighty-four, a Treaty for the suppression of the African Slave Trade was concluded between Her Majesty and His Majesty the King of Abyssinia, in the following terms, that is to say :

"HER Majesty the Queen of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, Empress of India, and His Majesty Johannis, made by the Almighty King of Sion, Negoosa Negust of Ethiopia and its dependencies, being desirous of prohibiting and perpetually abolishing the Slave Trade, they have agreed to conclude a Treaty for this purpose, which shall be binding on themselves, their heirs and successors ; and to that end Rear-Admiral Sir William Hewett, Commander-in-Chief of Her Majesty's ships-of-war in the East Indies, acting on the behalf of Her Majesty the Queen of Great Britain and Ireland, Empress of India, and His Majesty Johannis, Negoosa Negust of Ethiopia, acting on his own behalf, they have agreed upon and concluded the following Articles :—

"ARTICLE I.

"His Majesty the Negoosa Negust agrees to prohibit and to prevent, to the best of his ability, the buying and selling of slaves within his dominions.

"ARTICLE II.

"His Majesty the Negoosa Negust agrees to prohibit and to prevent, to the best of his ability, the import or export of slaves to or from his dominions.

"ARTICLE III.

"His Majesty the Negoosa Negust engages to protect, to the utmost of his power, all liberated slaves, and to punish severely any attempt to molest them, or to reduce them again to slavery.

"ARTICLE IV.

"Her Britannic Majesty has made Treaties with many Foreign States, by which it is permitted to Her officers to seize all ships belonging to such Foreign States engaged in the transport or conveyance of slaves upon the sea; and Her Majesty engages to liberate any subjects of His Majesty the Negoosa Negust who may be found detained as slaves in any ship captured by the officers of Her Majesty, and to take steps to send such subjects back to the dominions of His Majesty the Negoosa Negust.

"ARTICLE V.

"The present Treaty shall be ratified, and the ratification shall be forwarded to Adowa as soon as possible.

"In witness whereof, Rear-Admiral Sir William Hewett, on the behalf of Her Majesty the Queen of Great Britain and Ireland, Empress of India, and Johannis, Negoosa Negust of Ethiopia, on his own behalf, have signed the same, and (or) have affixed their seals to this Treaty, made at Adowa the 3rd day of June, 1884, corresponding to the 27th day of Goonvet, 1876.

And whereas it is expedient that the said Treaty should be brought within the operation of "The Slave Trade Act, 1873."

Now therefore, Her Majesty, by virtue and in exercise of the powers in this behalf as aforesaid, is pleased, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, to order, and it is hereby ordered, as follows:

The said Treaty hereinbefore recited shall, from the said third day of June, one thousand eight hundred and eighty-four, being the day of the date thereof, be deemed to have been and to be an existing Slave Trade Treaty within the meaning of "The Slave Trade Act, 1873."

And the Right Honourable the Earl Granville, one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, the Lords Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury, and the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty, are to give the necessary directions herein as to them may respectively appertain.

C. L. Peel.

AT the Court at Balmoral, the 9th day of September, 1884.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by "The Merchant Shipping Act Amendment Act, 1862," it was enacted that, on and after the first day of June, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-three, or such later day as might be fixed for the purpose by Order in Council, the regulations contained in the Table marked C in the schedule to the said Act should come into operation and be of the same force as if they were enacted in the body of the said Act, but that Her Majesty might from time to time, on the joint recommendation of the Admiralty and the Board of Trade by Order in Council annul or modify any of the said regulations or make new regulations in addition thereto, or in substitution thereof; and that any alterations in, or additions to, such regulations, made in manner aforesaid, should be of the same force as the regulations in the said schedule;

And whereas by the same Act it was further provided that, whenever it should be made to appear to Her Majesty that the Government of any foreign country was willing that the regulations for preventing collisions contained in Table C in the schedule to the said Act, or such other regulations for preventing collisions as are for the time being in force under the said Act, should apply to the ships of such country when beyond the limits of British jurisdiction, Her Majesty might, by Order in Council, direct that such regulations should apply to the ships of the said foreign country, whether within British jurisdiction or not;

And whereas it was further provided by the said Act that, whenever an Order in Council had been issued applying any regulation made by, or in pursuance of, the said Act to the ships of any foreign country, such ships should in all cases arising in any British court be deemed to be subject to such regulation, and should, for the purpose of such regulation, be treated as if they were British ships;

And whereas by an Order in Council made in pursuance of the said recited Act, and dated the eleventh day of August, one thousand eight hundred and eighty-four, Her Majesty was pleased to direct that, on and after the first day of September, one thousand eight hundred and eighty-four, the regulations contained in the schedule thereto should so far as regards British ships and boats be substituted for the regulations then in force;

And whereas since the date of the above-named Order in Council, bearing date the eleventh day of August, one thousand eight hundred and eighty-four, it has been made to appear to Her Majesty that the Government of the French Republic are willing that the said regulations appended to the said Order, and to this Order, shall apply to French ships when beyond the limits of British jurisdiction.

Now, therefore, Her Majesty, by virtue of the power vested in Her by the said recited Act, and by and with the advice and consent of Her Privy Council, is pleased to direct that the said regulations appended to the said Order in Council bearing date the eleventh day of August, one thousand eight hundred and eighty-four, and to this Order, shall, from the date hereof apply to ships belonging to the said Republic of France, whether within British jurisdiction or not, and shall be substituted as regards French ships and boats for the regulations contained in the first schedule to the Order in Council of the fourteenth day of August, one thousand eight hundred and seventy-nine.

C. L. Peel.

SCHEDULE referred to in the foregoing Order.

REGULATIONS for preventing Collisions at Sea, which will be in force on and after the ninth day of September, one thousand eight hundred and eighty-four.

ART. 1. In the following rules every steam ship which is under sail and not under steam is to be considered a sailing ship; and every steam ship which is under steam, whether under sail or not, is to be considered a ship under steam.

Rules concerning Lights.

ART. 2. The lights mentioned in the following

Articles, numbered 3, 4, 5, 6, 7, 8, 9, 10, and 11, and no others, shall be carried in all weathers, from sunset to sunrise.

ART. 3. A seagoing steamship when under way shall carry—

(a.) On or in front of the foremast, at a height above the hull of not less than 20 feet, and if the breadth of the ship exceeds 20 feet then at a height above the hull not less than such breadth, a bright white light, so constructed as to show an uniform and unbroken light over an arc of the horizon of 20 points of the compass; so fixed as to throw the light 10 points on each side of the ship, viz., from right ahead to two points abaft the beam on either side; and of such a character as to be visible on a dark night, with a clear atmosphere, at a distance of at least five miles.

(b.) On the starboard side, a green light so constructed as to show an uniform and unbroken light over an arc of the horizon of 10 points of the compass; so fixed as to throw the light from right ahead to 2 points abaft the beam on the starboard side; and of such a character as to be visible on a dark night, with a clear atmosphere, at a distance of at least two miles.

(c.) On the port side, a red light, so constructed as to show an uniform and unbroken light over an arc of the horizon of 10 points of the compass; so fixed as to throw the light from right ahead to 2 points abaft the beam on the port side; and of such a character as to be visible on a dark night, with a clear atmosphere, at a distance of at least two miles.

(d.) The said green and red side lights shall be fitted with inboard screens projecting at least three feet forward from the light, so as to prevent these lights from being seen across the bow.

ART. 4. A steam ship, when towing another ship, shall, in addition to her side lights carry two bright white lights in a vertical line one over the other, not less than three feet apart, so as to distinguish her from other steam ships. Each of these lights shall be of the same construction and character, and shall be carried in the same position as the white light which other steam ships are required to carry.

ART. 5. (a.) A ship, whether a steam ship or a sailing ship, which from any accident is not under command, shall at night carry, in the same position as the white light which steam ships are required to carry, and, if a steam ship, in place of that light, three red lights in globular lanterns, each not less than 10 inches in diameter, in a vertical line one over the other, not less than three feet apart, and of such a character as to be visible, on a dark night, with a clear atmosphere, at a distance of at least two miles; and shall by day carry in a vertical line one over the other, not less than three feet apart, in front of but not lower than her foremast head, three black balls or shapes, each two feet in diameter.

(b.) A ship, whether a steam ship or a sailing ship, employed in laying or in picking up a telegraph cable, shall at night carry, in the same position as the white light which steam ships are required to carry, and, if a steam ship, in place of that light, three lights in globular lanterns, each not less than 10 inches in diameter, in a vertical line over one another, not less than 6 feet apart; the highest and lowest of these lights shall be red, and the middle light shall be white, and they shall be of such a character that the red lights shall be visible at the same distance as the white light. By day she shall carry in a vertical line one over the other, not less than six feet apart, in front of but not lower than her foremast head, three shapes not less than 2 feet in diameter, of which the top and bottom shall be globular in shape and red in colour, and the middle one diamond in shape and white.

(c.) The ships referred to in this Article, when not making any way through the water, shall not carry the side lights, but when making way shall carry them.

(d.) The lights and shapes required to be shown by this Article are to be taken by other ships as signals that the ship showing them is not under command, and cannot therefore get out of the way. The signals to be made by ships in distress and requiring assistance are contained in Article 27.

ART. 6. A sailing ship under way, or being towed shall carry the same lights as are provided by Article 3 for a steam ship under way, with the exception of the white light, which she shall never carry.

ART. 7. Whenever, as in the case of small vessels during bad weather, the green and red side lights cannot be fixed, these lights shall be kept on deck, on their respective sides of the vessel, ready for use; and shall on the approach of or to other vessels, be exhibited on their respective sides in sufficient time to prevent collision, in such manner as to make them most visible, and so that the green light shall not be seen on the port side nor the red light on the starboard side.

To make the use of these portable lights more certain and easy, the lanterns containing them shall each be painted outside with the colour of the light they respectively contain, and shall be provided with proper screens.

ART. 8. A ship, whether a steam ship or a sailing ship, when at anchor, shall carry, where it can best be seen, but at a height not exceeding 20 feet above the hull, a white light, in a globular lantern of not less than eight inches in diameter, and so constructed as to show a clear uniform and unbroken light visible all round the horizon, at a distance of at least one mile.

ART. 9. A pilot vessel, when engaged on her station on pilotage duty, shall not carry the lights required for other vessels, but shall carry a white light at the masthead, visible all round the horizon, and shall also exhibit a flare-up light or flare-up lights at short intervals, which shall never exceed fifteen minutes.

A pilot vessel, when not engaged on her station on pilotage duty, shall carry lights similar to those of other ships.

ART. 10. Open boats and fishing vessels of less than 20 tons net registered tonnage, when under way and when not having their nets, trawls, dredges, or lines in the water, shall not be obliged to carry the coloured side lights; but every such boat and vessel shall in lieu thereof have ready at hand a lantern with a green glass on the one side and a red glass on the other side, and on approaching to or being approached by another vessel such lantern shall be exhibited in sufficient time to prevent collision, so that the green light shall not be seen on the port side nor the red light on the starboard side.

The following portion of this Article applies only to fishing vessels and boats when in the sea off the coast of Europe lying north of Cape Finisterre:—

(a.) All fishing vessels and fishing boats of 20 tons net registered tonnage, or upwards, when under way and when not required by the following regulations in this Article to carry and show the lights therein named, shall carry and show the same lights as other vessels under way.

- (b.) All vessels when engaged in fishing with drift nets shall exhibit two white lights from any part of the vessel where they can be best seen. Such lights shall be placed so that the vertical distance between them shall be not less than 6 feet and not more than 10 feet; and so that the horizontal distance between them measured in a line with the keel of the vessel shall be not less than 5 feet and not more than 10 feet. The lower of these two lights shall be the more forward, and both of them shall be of such a character, and contained in lanterns of such construction as to show all round the horizon, on a dark night with a clear atmosphere, for a distance of not less than three miles.
- (c.) A vessel employed in line fishing with her lines out shall carry the same lights as a vessel when engaged in fishing with drift nets.
- (d.) If a vessel when fishing becomes stationary in consequence of her gear getting fast to a rock or other obstruction, she shall show the light and make the fog signal for a vessel at anchor.
- (e.) Fishing vessels and open boats may at any time use a flare-up in addition to the lights which they are by this Article required to carry and show. All flare-up lights exhibited by a vessel when trawling, dredging, or fishing with any kind of drag net shall be shown at the after part of the vessel, excepting that, if the vessel is hanging by the stern to her trawl, dredge, or drag net, they shall be exhibited from the bow.
- (f.) Every fishing vessel and every open boat when at anchor between sunset and sunrise shall exhibit a white light visible all round the horizon at a distance of at least one mile.
- (g.) In fog, mist, or falling snow, a drift net vessel attached to her nets and a vessel when trawling, dredging, or fishing with any kind of drag net, and a vessel employed in line fishing with her lines out, shall at intervals of not more than two minutes make a blast with her fog horn and ring her bell alternately.

ART. 11. A ship which is being overtaken by another shall show from her stern to such last-mentioned ship, a white light or a flare-up light.

Sound Signals for Fog, &c.

ART. 12. A steam ship shall be provided with a steam whistle or other efficient steam sound signal, so placed that the sound may not be intercepted by any obstructions, and with an efficient fog horn to be sounded by a bellows or other mechanical means, and also with an efficient bell.* A sailing ship shall be provided with a similar fog horn and bell.

In fog, mist, or falling snow, whether by day or night, the signals described in this Article shall be used as follows; that is to say,

- (a.) A steam ship under way shall make with her steam whistle, or other steam sound signal, at intervals of not more than two minutes, a prolonged blast.
- (b.) A sailing ship under way shall make with her fog horn, at intervals of not more than two minutes, when on the starboard tack one blast, when on the port tack two blasts in succession, and when with the wind abaft the beam three blasts in succession.

- (c.) A steam ship and a sailing ship, when not under way shall, at intervals of not more than two minutes, ring the bell.

Speed of Ships to be moderate in Fog, &c.

ART. 13. Every ship, whether a sailing ship or steam ship, shall, in a fog, mist, or falling snow, go at a moderate speed.

Steering and Sailing Rules.

ART. 14. When two sailing ships are approaching one another, so as to involve risk of collision, one of them shall keep out of the way of the other, as follows, viz. :—

- (a.) A ship which is running free shall keep out of the way of a ship which is close-hauled.
- (b.) A ship which is close-hauled on the port tack shall keep out of the way of a ship which is close-hauled on the starboard tack.
- (c.) When both are running free with the wind on different sides, the ship which has the wind on the port side shall keep out of the way of the other.
- (d.) When both are running free with the wind on the same side, the ship which is to windward shall keep out of the way of the ship which is to leeward.
- (e.) A ship which has the wind aft shall keep out of the way of the other ship.

ART. 15. If two ships under steam are meeting end on, or nearly end on, so as to involve risk of collision, each shall alter her course to starboard, so that each may pass on the port side of the other.

This Article only applies to cases where ships are meeting end on, or nearly end on, in such a manner as to involve risk of collision, and does not apply to two ships which must, if both keep on their respective courses, pass clear of each other.

The only cases to which it does apply are, when each of the two ships is end on, or nearly end on, to the other; in other words, to cases in which, by day, each ship sees the masts of the other in a line, or nearly in a line, with her own; and by night, to cases in which each ship is in such a position as to see both the side lights of the other.

It does not apply by day to cases in which a ship sees another ahead crossing her own course; or by night, to cases where the red light of one ship is opposed to the red light of the other, or where the green light of one ship is opposed to the green light of the other or where a red light without a green light, or a green light without a red light, is seen ahead, or where both green and red lights are seen anywhere but ahead.

ART. 16. If two ships under steam are crossing, so as to involve risk of collision, the ship which has the other on her own starboard side shall keep out of the way of the other.

ART. 17. If two ships, one of which is a sailing ship, and the other a steam ship, are proceeding in such directions as to involve risk of collision, the steam ship shall keep out of the way of the sailing ship.

ART. 18. Every steam ship, when approaching another ship, so as to involve risk of collision, shall slacken her speed or stop and reverse, if necessary.

ART. 19. In taking any course authorised or required by these Regulations, a steam ship under way may indicate that course to any other ship which she has in sight by the following signals on her steam whistle, viz. :—

* In all cases where the regulations require a bell to be used, a drum will be substituted on board Turkish vessels.

One short blast to mean "I am directing my course to starboard":

Two short blasts to mean "I am directing my course to port":

Three short blasts to mean "I am going full speed astern."

The use of these signals is optional; but if they are used, the course of the ship must be in accordance with the signal made.

ART. 20. Notwithstanding anything contained in any preceding Article, every ship, whether a sailing ship or a steam ship, overtaking any other, shall keep out of the way of the overtaken ship.

ART. 21. In narrow channels every steam ship shall, when it is safe and practicable, keep to that side of the fairway or mid-channel which lies on the starboard side of such ship.

ART. 22. Where by the above rules one of two ships is to keep out of the way, the other shall keep her course.

ART. 23. In obeying and construing these rules due regard shall be had to all dangers of navigation; and to any special circumstances which may render a departure from the above rules necessary in order to avoid immediate danger.

No Ship, under any circumstances, to neglect proper Precautions.

ART. 24. Nothing in these rules shall exonerate any ship, or the owner, or master, or crew thereof, from the consequences of any neglect to carry lights or signals, or of any neglect to keep a proper look-out, or of the neglect of any precaution which may be required by the ordinary practice of seamen, or by the special circumstances of the case.

Reservation of Rules for Harbours and Inland Navigation.

ART. 25. Nothing in these rules shall interfere with the operation of a special rule, duly made by local authority, relative to the navigation of any harbour, river, or inland navigation.

Special Lights for Squadrons and Convoys.

ART. 26. Nothing in these rules shall interfere with the operation of any special rules made by the Government of any nation with respect to additional station and signal lights for two or more ships of war or for ships sailing under convoy.

ART. 27. When a ship is in distress and requires assistance from other ships or from the shore, the following shall be the signals to be used or displayed by her, either together or separately, that is to say:—

In the daytime—

1. A gun fired at intervals of about a minute.
2. The International Code signal of distress indicated by N C;
3. The distant signal, consisting of a square flag, having either above or below it a ball or anything resembling a ball.

At night—

1. A gun fired at intervals of about a minute.
2. Flames on the ship (as from a burning tar barrel, oil barrel, &c.);
3. Rockets or shells throwing stars of any colour or description, fired one at a time, at short intervals.

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Acts of the thirty-third and thirty-fourth years of Her Majesty and of the Acts therein mentioned, that is to say, the Acts of the third and fourth years of Her Majesty chapter one hundred and thirteen, of the fourth and fifth years of Her Majesty chapter thirty-nine, and of the thirty-first and thirty-second years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and fourteen duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a scheme, bearing date the nineteenth day of June, in the year one thousand eight hundred and eighty-four, in the words following, that is to say:—

"We the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England in pursuance of the Act of the thirty-third and thirty-fourth years of Your Majesty chapter thirty-nine and of the Acts therein mentioned that is to say the Act of the third and fourth years of Your Majesty chapter one hundred and thirteen and the Act of the fourth and fifth years of Your Majesty chapter thirty-nine and the Act of the thirty-first and thirty-second years of Your Majesty chapter one hundred and fourteen have prepared and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council the following scheme for effecting the transfer of the ownership of the advowson or perpetual right of patronage of and presentation to the church and cure (hereinafter called the said benefice) of Woodhead in the county of Chester and in the diocese of Chester.

"Whereas the advowson or perpetual right of patronage of and presentation to the said benefice of Woodhead is vested for an estate in fee simple without incumbrances in the Right Honourable John Baron Tollemache of Helmingham in the county of Suffolk and his heirs and assigns.

"And whereas the said John Baron Tollemache is desirous that the whole advowson or perpetual right of patronage of and presentation to the said benefice of Woodhead now vested in him as aforesaid should be transferred to and vested in the Bishop for the time being of the said diocese of Chester.

"And whereas the Right Reverend William now Bishop of the said diocese of Chester is willing to accept such transfer and in token of such his willingness and also in token that the same transfer has that consent of the Bishop of the diocese which by the Acts in hereinbefore-mentioned Act recited or by some or one of them is made necessary he the said William Bishop of the said diocese of Chester has executed this scheme as hereinafter mentioned.

"And whereas the transfer of the patronage of the said benefice of Woodhead which is hereinbefore mentioned and hereinafter recommended and proposed will render the same benefice more eligible that it is at present for augmentation out of funds under our control and this circumstance will in our opinion tend to make better provision for the cure of souls in the parish or district in or in respect of which the right of patronage or advowson so recommended and proposed to be transferred as aforesaid arises or exists that is to say in the particular district or new parish of Woodhead.

"Now therefore with the consent of the said John Baron Tollemache (in testimony whereof he has signed and sealed this scheme) and with the consent of the said William Bishop of the said diocese of Chester (in testimony whereof he has signed this scheme and sealed the same with his episcopal seal) we the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England humbly recommend and propose that upon and from the day of the date of the publication in the London Gazette of any Order of Your Majesty in Council ratifying this scheme and without any conveyance or assurance in the law other than such duly gazetted Order the whole advowson or perpetual right of patronage of and presentation to the said benefice of Woodhead now vested in him the said John Baron Tollemache and his heirs and assigns as aforesaid shall be transferred from him and them to the said William Bishop of the said diocese of Chester and his successors Bishops of the same diocese and shall thereupon and thenceforth become and be absolutely vested in and shall and may from time to time be exercised by the said William Bishop of the said diocese of Chester and by his successors Bishops of the same diocese for ever.

"And we further recommend and propose that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any further or other measures relating to the matters aforesaid or any of them in accordance with the provisions of the said Acts or of any of them or of any other Act of Parliament."

And whereas the said scheme has been approved by Her Majesty in Council; now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said

Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Acts; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said diocese of Chester.

Board of Trade (Harbour Department),

Whitehall Gardens, September 15, 1884.

THE Board of Trade have received through the Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs a copy of a Despatch from Her Majesty's Consul at Tamatave, inclosing a Proclamation which has been issued by the French Rear-Admiral Commander-in-Chief at Madagascar, of which the following is a translation:—

FRENCH REPUBLIC.

GENERAL REGULATIONS of Sanitary Maritime Police at Tamatave and other ports of the Coast of Madagascar:—

ART. 1. All vessels arriving at Tamatave, Majunga, or other ports of the Coast of Madagascar where a French man-of-war is stationed, must be recognised by the Sanitary Authorities, and subjected to examination if those authorities think proper. The boats engaged in coast-fishing and those which navigate along the coast alone are exempted.

ART. 2. The presentation of a bill of health, on arriving in one of these ports, is obligatory, and it is of no use if it has been given more than 48 hours before departure. It must state what was the sanitary condition of the country from which the vessel arrives, and whether or not there existed there diseases against which sanitary precautions have to be taken. It must give the names of the vessel and of the captain, exact information regarding the tonnage, the nature of the cargo, the condition of the crew, the number of the passengers, as well as the sanitary and hygienic condition on board at the moment of departure.

On French territory, the bill of health is delivered and signed by the Local Authority at the port of departure.

In foreign countries it is delivered and viséd by the Consul, and, in the absence of any consular agent or local authority, by three persons of responsibility who take the risks of signature.

ART. 3. Every captain who arrives at Tamatave, Majunga, or other parts of Madagascar, is bound to prevent all communication and all unloading of his vessel, until she has been examined and allowed to pass.

The examination will be gone through one hour after the vessel has moored, except between six P.M. and seven A.M.; in any case French or foreign war-boats or steamers will be examined directly they arrive in the roadstead, if nothing prevents.

ART. 4. The captain must affirm on oath:—

1. That no one is ill on board, and that all his crew are in good health.
2. That he has lost no one during the voyage, nor where he has called.
3. That he has held no communication since his departure with any suspected vessel.
4. Whether he has called anywhere on the route and where, and when he left after calling.
5. Whether he has the same number of crew, and whether they are the original men.

NOTE.—The examining doctor (who must keep to windward of the vessel during the examination) may, if he thinks proper, insist on seeing the ship's papers, and on questioning under oath the crew and the passengers.

ART. 5. Ships provided with a bill of health are allowed to pass free, except under the following circumstances:—

1. When the vessel provided with a bill of health has had a breaking out of serious infectious disease, such as cholera, typhus, or small-pox during the voyage.
2. When the vessel, although furnished with a bill of health, and not having had any illness on board during the voyage, is yet in a condition which is dangerous to public health from the state of her cargo or her stowage.
3. When the vessel has communicated with an unhealthy vessel out at sea, or when she arrives from a port which is in free relation with a neighbouring place where an epidemic of a contagious character is raging.

4. When there are grave reasons for suspecting the good faith of the captain's statements with regard to the bill of health, or when the bill itself has been tampered with.

ART. 6. Any ship that arrives without a bill, with a bad bill, or under any of the conditions enumerated in the last Article, must undergo a quarantine which will be notified to the captain with as little delay as possible.

The duration of this quarantine will vary according to the nature of the case, and can be prolonged if necessary.

The quarantine will take place north of Point Tanio.

Every vessel in quarantine must carry the quarantine-flag; she can put out to sea, and in this case the bill of health will be returned, with a visa mentioning the conditions under which she leaves.

Vessels arriving at the moorings must keep at a distance of at least three cables from vessels in quarantine, and moor as much as possible to the windward side of them.

ART. 7. All public officers and agents of the authorities who are informed of infractions of these sanitary regulations are bound to take all means in their power to put an end to such breaches of the law.

ART. 8. All regulations of sanitary police previous to the present are cancelled.

ART. 9. The Director of the Port is charged with the execution of the present Decree.

On board the "Najade," Tamatave, July 25, 1884. The Rear-Admiral Commander-in-Chief, Miot.
