Whitehall Gardens, October 4, 1884.*

THE Board of Trade have received through the Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs a copy of a Despatch from Her Majesty's Consul at Genoa, from which the following is an extract, viz:—

This port and the shore of the whole "Circondario" of Genoa are officially declared infected with cholera, and foul bills of health are issued.

Vessels from this port and shore are subjected on arrival at all non-infected Italian ports to the treatment decreed by Decree No. 20 of the 2nd instant, namely, ten days quarantine if no sickness on board, and twenty-one days if otherwise.

Vessels from places infected with cholera and with foul bills of health shall, until further orders, be admitted to free pratique, provided no sickness has manifested itself on board during the journey.

(H. 7604.)

*Board of Trade (Harbour Department),
Whitehall Gardens, October 3, 1884.*

THE Board of Trade have received through the Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs a copy of a Despatch from Her Majesty's Representative at Rome, transmitting a Notice issued by the Italian Government, of which the following is a translation:—

ORDINANCE OF MARITIME HEALTH, No. 25.

In consequence of the outbreak of cholera in Genoa and adjacent communes, the Minister of the Interior, decrees:—

ART. 1. The preventive treatment ordered in Ordinance No. 20 of the 5th instant, shall be applied to ships from this day forth quitting the ports and landings comprised within the shores of the neighbourhood of Genoa.

ART. 2. Both on the above shores and on those mentioned in Ordinances Nos. 16, 22, and 24 of the 23rd August and 7th and 22nd September, respectively, vessels arriving from places declared foul on account of cholera shall, until new orders, receive free pratique if they have had no illness on the voyage.

For the Minister,
Rome, September 25, 1884. MORANA.

(H. 7626.)

City of Coventry.

The Tramways Act, 1870.

NOTICE is hereby given, that the Council of the City of Coventry, at a Meeting of such Council, held on the 23rd day of September, 1884, made the following Bye-laws under section 46 of the Tramways Act, 1870:—

1. For the purpose of these Bye-laws and Regulations the term "car" shall mean any engine or carriage using any tramway laid down within the said city, and the terms "driver" and "conductor" shall respectively mean the driver and conductor or other person having charge of an engine or car.

2. The driver of every car shall cause the same to be driven at a speed of not less than four miles an hour on the average, and not exceeding eight miles an hour.

3. The driver of every car shall so drive the same that it shall not follow a preceding car at a less distance than 100 yards.

4. Subject to the requirements of Bye-laws Nos. 3 and 5, the driver or conductor of a car shall stop the same for the purpose of setting down or taking up passengers, when required, by any passenger desiring to leave the car, or by any person desirous of travelling by the car, for whom there is room, and to whose admission no valid objection can be made: Provided that nothing in this Bye-law shall require a car to be stopped on any gradient steeper than 1 in 25.

5. Except at a passing place or a terminus, and except, as provided in Bye-law 5 made by the Board of Trade on the 6th day of September, 1884, no car shall be stopped at the intersection or junction of two or more streets or roads, nor within ten yards of a car on an adjoining line of rails.

6. The driver of a car, on coming in sight of a vehicle standing or travelling on any part of the road so as not to leave sufficient space for the car to pass, shall sound his whistle as a warning to the person in charge of such vehicle, and that person shall, with reasonable despatch, cause such vehicle to be removed so as not to obstruct the car.

7. No person shall in any way wilfully impede or interfere with the traffic on the tramways, nor shall any driver or conductor needlessly cause interruption to the ordinary road traffic.

8. Every driver, conductor, or other person offending against any of these Bye-laws and Regulations shall be liable to a penalty not exceeding forty shillings for each offence, and not exceeding for any continuing offence ten shillings for every day during which the offence continues.
