FRIDAY, OCTOBER 24, 1884.

Her Majesty's Most Gracious Speech, delivered by the Lords Commissioners to both Houses of Parliament on Thursday, October 23, 1884.

My Lords and Gentlemen,

I HAVE brought you together after a recess unusually short in order that you may be enabled at once to give your further consideration to the great subject of the Representation of the People in Parliament.

I continue to maintain relations of amity with all Foreign Powers.

The information received from the Soudan includes painful uncertainties; but the energy, courage, and resource conspicuously displayed by General Gordon in the successful defence of Khartoum, deserve my warm recognition.

The advance of my troops to Dongola has for its object the rescue and security of that gallant officer, and of those who have so faithfully co-operated with him.

In Egypt itself I am using my best endeavours to promote further improvement; and I have given my support to the Egyptian Government in the difficult financial position in which it has been left through the failure of the recent Conference.

I have to regret that circumstances have occurred on the south-western frontier of the Transvaal which demand my vigilant attention. In conjunction with the Government of the Cape Colony I am engaged in considering the means which may be required to secure the faithful observance of the Convention of the present year.

Papers on this subject will be presented to you at an early date.

Gentlemen of the House of Commons,

The operations in the Soudan will render it necessary to ask from you a further pecuniary provision.

My Lords and Gentlemen,

The Bill for the Extension of the Parliamentary Franchise will at once be introduced.

In conclusion, I humbly and most anxiously trust that the blessing of Almighty God may attend upon your labours.

Foreign Office, October 23, 1884.

9. Subject to the other provisions of this Order, the Code of Criminal Procedure and the other enactments relating to the administration of criminal justice in India for the time being applicable to Zanzibar, shall have effect as if Zanzibar were a district in the Presidency of Bombay, and the Judicial Assistant shall be deemed to be the Magistrate of the district, the Consul-General shall be deemed to be the Sessions Judge; the High Court of Judicature at Bombay (hereinafter called the High Court of Bombay) shall be deemed to be the High Court; and the powers both of the Governor-General in Council and of the Local Government under those enactments shall be exercisable by the Secretary of State, or, with his previous or subsequent assent, by the Governor-General of India in Council.

Commitments to High Court of Bombay.

10. When any person is committed to the High Court of Bombay for trial, the Consul-General may, under and in accordance with the provisions of section 4 of "The Foreign Jurisdiction Act, 1843," send him to Bombay for trial; and may, if he thinks fit, bind over such of the proper witnesses as are British subjects, or any of them, in their own recognizances, to appear and give evidence on the trial.

Offence of Smuggling.

11. If a British subject smuggles or imports into or exports from Zanzibar any goods whereon any duty is charged or payable to the Government of Zanzibar, with intent to evade payment of the duty, he shall be punished with imprisonment for a term which may extend to two months, or with fine which may extend to 1,000 rupees, or with both.

Manner and Place of Imprisonment.

12.—(a.) The Consul-General may, if he thinks fit, from time to time, by general order, prescribe the manner in which, and the places in Zanzibar at which, sentences of imprisonment are to be carried into execution.

(b.) The Consul-General may, if he thinks fit, in any case, by warrant signed by him, and sealed with his Consular Seal, cause an offender convicted and sentenced to imprisonment before a Criminal Court established under this Order to be sent and removed to, and imprisoned in, any place in Zanzibar.

13. Where an offender convicted before any Court established under this Order is sentenced to imprisonment, and the Consul-General, proceeding under section 5 of "The Foreign Jurisdiction Act, 1843," authority in that behalf being hereby given to him, considers it expedient that the sentence should be carried into effect within Her Majesty's dominions, and the offender is, accordingly, sent for imprisonment to a place in Her Majesty's dominions, the place shall be either Bombay, or a place in some other part of Her Majesty's dominions out of the United Kingdom, the Government whereof consents that offenders may be sent thither under this Article.

14.—(1.) In cases of murder or culpable homicide, if either the death or the criminal act which wholly or partly caused the death happened in Zanzibar, a Court acting under this Order shall have the like jurisdiction over any British subject who is charged either as a principal offender or as an abettor, as if both such criminal act and the death had happened in Zanzibar.

(2.) In the case of any crime committed on the high seas, or within the Admiralty jurisdiction, by any British subject who at the time of committing such crime was on board a British ship, or on board a foreign ship to which he did not belong, a Court acting under this Order shall have jurisdiction as if the crime had been committed within Zanzibar.

(3.) In cases tried under this Article no different sentence can be passed from the sentence which could be passed in England if the crime were tried there.

(4.) The foregoing provisions of this Article shall be deemed to be adaptations, for the purposes of this Order, and of "The Foreign Jurisdiction Act, 1878," of the following enactments described in the First Schedule to that Act (that is to say):—

"The Admiralty Offences (Colonial) Act, 1849."

"The Admiralty Offences (Colonial) Act, 1860."

"The Merchant Shipping Act, 1867," section 11.

And the said enactments shall, so far as they are repeated and adapted by this Article (but not further or otherwise), extend to Zanzibar.

15. "The Fugitive Offenders Act, 1881," shall apply to Zanzibar in the same manner as if it were a British possession, and for the purposes of Part II of the said Act, and of this Article, Zanzibar, British India, Natal and the Cape of Good Hope shall be deemed to be one group of British possessions, and the Consul-General shall, as regards any place within his jurisdiction, have the powers of a Governor or Superior Court of a British possession.

Security for Good Behaviour.

16. Where a British subject is convicted of an offence, the Court before which he is convicted may, if it thinks fit, require him to give security to the satisfaction of the Court for his future good behaviour; and for that purpose may, if it thinks fit, cause him to come or be brought before the Court.

Deportation.

17.—(a.) If a British subject required by an order under the last preceding Article of this Order, or under the Law relating to Criminal Procedure for the time being in force, to give security for good behaviour or for keeping the peace, fails to do so, the Court making the order may, if it thinks fit, order that he be deported from Zanzibar to a place to be named by the Consul-General.

(b.) The Court, on making an order of deportation, shall forthwith report to the Consul-General the order and the grounds thereof.

(c.) Thereupon the person ordered to be deported shall, if the Consul-General thinks fit, be, as soon as practicable, and in the case of a person convicted, either after execution of the sentence, or while it is in course of execution, removed in custody, under the warrant of the Consul-General, to the place named in the warrant.

(d.) The place shall be either Bombay or a place in some other part of Her Majesty's dominions out of the United Kingdom, the Government whereof consents to the reception therein of persons deported under this Order.

(e.) The Court, on making an order of deportation, may, if it thinks fit, order the person to be deported to pay all or any part of the expenses of his deportation, to be fixed by the Court in the order. Subject thereto, the expenses of deportation shall be defrayed as the Secretary of State, with the concurrence of the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury, directs.

(f.) The Consul-General shall forthwith report to the Secretary of State every order of deportation made under this Order, and the grounds thereof, and the proceedings thereunder.

(g.) If a person deported under this Order returns to Zanzibar without permission in writing of the Consul-General or Secretary of State, he shall be punished with imprisonment for a term which may extend to two months, or with fine which may extend to 1,000 rupees, or with both.

(h.) He shall also be liable to be forthwith again deported under the original or a new order and a fresh warrant of the Consul-General.

Criminal Appeals to Bombay.

18.—(a.) Where a person entitled to appeal to the High Court of Bombay from any judgment or order passed in the exercise of criminal jurisdiction under this Order desires so to appeal, he shall present his petition of appeal to the Court which passed the judgment or order; and the petition shall with all practicable speed be transmitted by or through the Consul-General to the High Court, with certified copies of the charge (if any) and proceedings, of all documentary evidence admitted or tendered, of the depositions, of the notes of the oral testimony, and of the judgment or order, and any argument on the petition of appeal that the appellant desires to submit to the High Court.

19. The Court against whose judgment or order the appeal is preferred shall postpone the execution of the sentence pending the appeal; and shall, if necessary, commit the person convicted to prison for safe custody, or detain him in prison for safe custody, or shall admit him to bail, and may take security, by recognizance, deposit of money, or otherwise, for his payment of any fine.

Process of Removal or Deportation.

20.—(a.) Where, under this Order, a person is to be sent, or removed, or deported, from Zanzibar, he shall, by warrant of the Consul-General, under his hand and seal, be detained, if necessary, in custody, or in prison, until a fit opportunity for his removal or deportation occurs, and then be put on board one of Her Majesty's vessels of war, or, if none is available, then on board some other British or other fit vessel.

(b.) The warrant of the Consul-General shall be sufficient authority to the person to whom it is directed or delivered for execution, and to the Commander or master of the vessel, to receive and detain the person therein named, in the manner therein prescribed, and to send or remove and carry him to the place therein named, according to the warrant.

(c.) In case of sending or removal for any purpose other than deportation, the warrant of the Consul-General shall be issued in duplicate, and the person executing it shall, as soon as practicable after his arrival at the place therein named, deliver, according to the warrant, with one of the duplicates of the warrant, to a constable or proper officer of police or keeper of a prison, or other proper authority or person there, the person named in the warrant, to be produced on the order of the proper Court or authority there, or to be otherwise dealt with according to law.

PART V.—CIVIL MATTERS.

Application of Enactments relating to Civil Matters.

21. Subject to the other provisions of this Order, the Code of Civil Procedure, "The Bombay Civil Courts Act, 1869," "The Indian Succession Act," and the other enactments relating to the administration of civil justice and to bankruptcy for the time applicable to Zanzibar, shall have effect as if Zanzibar were a zila or district in the Presidency of Bombay: the Consul-General shall be deemed to be the District Judge of the district, and his Court the District Court or Principal Civil Court of Original Jurisdiction in the district, and the Court authorized to hear appeals from the decisions of the District Court; and the powers, both of the Governor-General in Council and the Local Government, under those enactments, shall be exercisable by the Secretary of State, or with his previous or subsequent assent by the Governor-General of India in Council.

"If a British subject shall become bankrupt in the dominions of His Highness the Sultan of Muscat, the British Consul or Resident Agent shall take possession of all the property of such bankrupt, and shall give it up to his creditors, to be divided amongst them. This having been done, the bankrupt shall be entitled to a full discharge of his creditors, and he shall not at any time afterwards be required to make up his deficiency, nor shall any property he may afterwards acquire be considered liable for that purpose. But the British Consul or Resident Agent shall use his endeavours to obtain, for the benefit of the creditors, any property of the bankrupt in another country, and to ascertain that everything possessed by the bankrupt at the time when he became insolvent has been given up without reserve."

The Courts established under this Order shall, in the exercise of bankruptcy jurisdiction, observe and execute the provisions of that Article.

Proceedings on Death.

23.—(a.) The Consul-General shall endeavour to obtain, as early as may be, notice of the deaths of all British subjects dying in Zanzibar leaving property to be administered, and all such information as may serve to guide him with respect to the securing and administration of their property.

(b.) On receiving notice of the death of such a person, the Consul-General shall put up a notice thereof at his Office, and shall keep the same there until probate or administration is granted, or, where it appears to the Consul-General that probate or administration will not be applied for, or cannot be granted, for such time as he thinks fit.

(c.) The Consul-General shall, where the circumstances of the case appear to him so to require, as soon as may be, take possession of the property in Zanzibar of the deceased, or put it under his seal (in either case, if the nature of the property or other circumstances so require, making an inventory), and so keep it until it can be dealt with according to law.

(d.) All expenses incurred on behalf of the Consul-General in so doing shall be the first charge on the property of the deceased, and the Consul-General shall, by sale of part of that property, or otherwise, provide for the discharge of these expenses.

(e.) The Consul-General may, by an order under his hand, delegate to any officer subordinate to him the exercise of the powers and performance of the duties conferred and imposed on the Consul-General by this Article.

(f.) The Consul-General, or any officer or person acting under this Article, shall not be responsible for anything done in good faith in execution, or intended execution, of this section.

24. If a person named executor in a will, and to the establishment of whose title, as such, it is necessary to obtain probate of that will, takes possession of, and administers or otherwise deals with, any part of the property of the deceased, and does not obtain probate within one month after the death, or after the termination of any proceeding respecting probate or administration, he shall be liable to be punished with fine, which may extend to 1,000 rupees.

25. If any person, other than the person named executor, or the administrator, or a person entitled to represent the deceased without obtaining probate or letters of administration, or an officer of the Consulate, takes possession of and administers, or otherwise deals with, any part of the property of the deceased, he shall, as soon as practicable, notify the fact and the circumstances to the Consul-General, and shall furnish to the Consul-General all such information as the Consul-General requires, and shall conform to any directions of the Consul-General in relation to the custody, disposal, or transmission of the property, or the proceeds thereof, and, in case of any contravention of this Article, he shall be liable to be punished with fine, which may extend to 1,000 rupees.

26.—(1.) When the peculiar circumstances of the case appear to a Court having jurisdiction to grant letters of administration so to require, for reasons recorded in its proceedings, the Court may, if it thinks fit, of its own motion, or otherwise, grant letters of administration to an officer of the Court.

(2.) The officer so appointed shall act under the direction of the Court, and shall be indemnified thereby.

(3.) He shall publish such notices, if any, as the Court thinks fit, in Zanzibar, Bombay, the United Kingdom, and elsewhere.

(4.) The Court shall require and compel him to file, in the proper office of the Court, his accounts of his administration, at intervals, not exceeding three months; and shall forthwith examine them, and report thereon to the Consul-General.

(5.) The accounts shall be audited under the direction of the Consul-General.

(6.) All expenses incurred in behalf of the Court in execution of this Article shall be the first charge on the estate of the deceased in Zanzibar; and the Court shall, by the sale of that estate, or otherwise, provide for the discharge of those expenses.

27.—(a.) Where any person entitled to appeal to the High Court of Bombay from any decree or order made in the exercise of civil jurisdiction under this Order desires so to appeal, he shall present his Memorandum of Appeal to the Court which made the decree or order, and subject to the provisions hereinafter contained, that Court shall receive the same for transmission to the High Court in manner hereinafter provided.

(b.) The appellant shall give security to the satisfaction of the Consul-General, and to such amount as the Consul-General thinks reasonable, for prosecution of the appeal, and for payment of any costs that may be ordered by the High Court of Bombay on the appeal to be paid by the appellant to any person.

(c.) The appellant shall pay into the proper office of the Court which passed the decree or order such sum as the Consul-General thinks reasonable, to defray the expense of the making up and transmission to the High Court of Bombay of the record.

28. The appellant may, with his Memorandum of Appeal, file any argument which he desires to submit to the High Court of Bombay in support of the appeal.

29.—(a.) The Memorandum of Appeal and the argument (if any) shall be served on such persons as respondents as the Court in which they are filed directs.

(b.) A respondent may, within seven days after service, file in that Court such arguments as he desires to submit to the High Court of Bombay against the appeal.

(c.) Copies thereof shall be furnished by the Court in which they are filed to such persons as the Court thinks fit.

30.—(a.) On the expiration of the time for the respondent filing his argument, the Court shall, without the application of any party, make up and send to the Consul-General the record of appeal, which shall consist of the Memorandum of Appeal and the arguments (if any), and certified copies of the following, namely, the plaint, written statements (if any), all proceedings, all written and documentary evidence admitted or tendered, the notes of the oral evidence, the Judgment, and the decree or order.

(b.) The several pieces shall be fastened together consecutively numbered, and the whole shall be secured by the seal of the Consul-General, and be forthwith forwarded by him to the High Court of Bombay.

(c.) The Consul-General may, if for special reasons he thinks fit, send any portion of the documentary evidence in original to the High Court.

PART VI.—VICE-ADMIRALTY.

31. The Consul-General shall, for and within Zanzibar, and for vessels and persons coming within Zanzibar, and in regard to vessels captured on suspicion of being engaged in the Slave Trade, have all such jurisdiction as for the time being ordinarily belongs to Courts of Vice-Admiralty in Her Majesty's possessions abroad.

PART VII.—ZANZIBAR AND FOREIGN SUBJECTS AND TRIBUNALS

Zanzibar Subjects.

32.—(a.) It being provided by Article V of the Convention of Commerce between Her Majesty the Queen and His Highness the Imaum of Muscat, signed at Zanzibar, 31st May, 1839 (among other things), as follows:—

“When differences arise between a subject of the dominions of His Highness the Sultan of Muscat and a British subject, if the former is the complainant the cause shall be heard by the British Consul or Resident Agent, who shall administer justice thereupon.”

Every such cause shall in Zanzibar be heard by a Court established under this Order.

(b.) The High Court of Bombay shall not exercise jurisdiction in any such suit; but where a decree or order in any such suit has been passed by any officer subordinate to the Consul-General, the Consul-General may call for the proceedings, and pass thereon such order as he may think fit; and any order so passed by him shall be final.

Foreigners.

33.—(a.) Where a foreigner desires to bring, in a Court established under this Order, a suit against a British subject, or a British subject desires to bring, in such a Court, a suit against a foreigner, not being a subject of a Mahomedan Power, the Court shall entertain the same, and shall hear and determine it.

(b.) Provided that the foreigner first obtains and files in the proper office of the Court the consent, in writing, of the competent authority (if any) on behalf of his own nation, to his submitting, and that he does submit, to the jurisdiction of the Court, and, if required by the Court, gives security to the satisfaction of the Court, and to such reasonable amount as the Court thinks fit, by deposit or otherwise, to pay fees, costs, and damages, and abide by, and perform, the decision to be given by the Court or on appeal.

(c.) A cross-suit shall not be brought in the Court against a plaintiff, being a foreigner, who has submitted to the jurisdiction, by a defendant, without leave of the Court first obtained.

(d.) The Court, before giving leave, may require proof from the defendant that his claim arises out of the matter in dispute, and that there is reasonable ground for it, and that it is not made for vexation or delay.

(e.) Nothing in this Article shall prevent the defendant from bringing, in the Court, against the foreigner, after the termination of the suit in which the foreigner is plaintiff, any suit which the defendant might have brought in the Court against the foreigner if no provision restraining cross-suits had been inserted in this Order.

(f.) Where a foreigner obtains, in a Court established under this Order, an order against a defendant being a British subject, and in another suit that defendant is plaintiff and the foreigner is defendant, the Court may, if it thinks fit, on the application of the British subject, stay the enforcement of the order pending that other suit, and may set off any amount ordered to be paid by one party in one suit against any amount ordered to be paid by the other party in the other suit.

(g.) Where a plaintiff, being a foreigner, obtains an order, in a Court established under this Order, against two or more defendants, being British subjects, jointly, and in another suit one of them is a plaintiff and the foreigner is defendant, the Court may, if it thinks fit, on the application of the British subject, stay the enforcement of the order pending that other suit, and may set off any amount ordered to be paid by one party in one suit against any amount ordered to be paid by the other party in the other suit, without prejudice to the right of the British subject to obtain contribution from his co-defendants under the joint liability.

(h.) Where a foreigner is co-plaintiff in a suit with a British subject who is in Zanzibar, it shall not be necessary for the foreigner to give security under this Article as regards fees and costs, unless the Court so directs; but the co-plaintiff British subject shall be responsible for all fees and costs.

Zanzibar or Foreign Tribunal.

34.—(a.) Where it is proved that the attendance of a British subject to give evidence, or for any other purpose connected with the administration of Justice is required before a Zanzibar or foreign Court, the Consul-General may, if he thinks fit, in a case and in circumstances in which he would, if acting in his judicial capacity, require the attendance of that person before himself, order that he do attend as required.

(b.) If the person ordered to attend, having reasonable notice of the time and place at which he is required to attend, fails to attend accordingly, and does not satisfactorily excuse his failure, he shall, independently of any other liability, be liable to be punished with imprisonment for a term which may extend to two months, or with fine which may extend to 1,000 rupees, or with both.

35. If a British subject—

(i.) Wilfully obstructs, by act or threat, a Zanzibar or foreign Court in the performance of its duty; or

(ii.) Within or close to the room or place where such a Court is sitting wilfully misbehaves in a violent, threatening, or disrespectful manner, to the disturbance of the Court or to the intimidation of suitors or others resorting to the Court; or

(iii.) Wilfully insults any member or officer of such a Court in his going to, or returning from, any place of sitting or office of the Court;

He shall, on conviction before a competent Court of Criminal Jurisdiction, be liable to be punished with imprisonment for a term which may extend to two months, or with fine which may extend to 1,000 rupees, or with both.

Zanzibar Subjects: Foreigners: Arbitration.

36.—(a.) Every agreement for reference to arbitration between a British subject, on the one hand, and a Zanzibar subject or a foreigner, on the other hand, may, on the application of any party, be filed for execution in the proper office of a Court established under this Order.

(b.) The Court shall thereupon have authority to enforce the agreement and the award made thereunder, and to control and regulate the proceedings before and after the award, in such manner and on such terms as the Court may think fit.

(c.) Provided that the Zanzibar subject or foreigner first obtains and files, in the proper office of the Court, the consent, in writing, of the competent authority (if any), on behalf of his own nation, to his submitting, and that he does submit to the jurisdiction of the Court, and, if required by the Court, gives security to the satisfaction of the Court, and to such reasonable amount as the Court thinks fit, by deposit or otherwise, to pay fees, damages, costs, and expenses, and abide by and perform the award.

False Evidence.

37. If a British subject wilfully gives false evidence in a proceeding before a Zanzibar or foreign Court, or in an arbitration between a British subject, on the one hand, and a Zanzibar subject or foreigner, on the other hand, he shall on conviction before a competent Court of Criminal Jurisdiction, be liable to be punished with imprisonment for a term which may extend to two months, or with fine which may extend to 1,000 rupees, or with both. Nothing in this Article shall exempt a person from liability to any greater or other punishment, but so that he be not twice punished for the same offence.

PART VIII.—REGISTRATION OF BRITISH SUBJECTS.

38.—(a.) Every resident British subject, being of the age of 21 years or upwards, or being married, or a widower, or widow, though under that age, shall, unless already registered, register himself at the Consular Office for the local area within which he is resident.

(b.) Every British subject as aforesaid, not resident, arriving at a place in Zanzibar where there is a Consular Office, unless borne on the muster-roll of a British vessel there arriving, shall, within one month after arrival, register himself or herself at the Consular Office. But this provision shall not be deemed to require any person to register himself oftener than once in a year, reckoned from the 1st January.

(c.) The registration of a man shall, nevertheless, comprise the registration of his wife, if living with him; and

(d.) The registration of the head, male or female, of a family shall be deemed to comprise the registration of all females being his relatives, in whatever degree, living under the same roof with him at the time of his registration.

(e.) The Consular officer shall give to each person registered by him a certificate of registration, signed by him, and sealed with his Consular seal.

(f.) The name of a wife, if her registration is comprised in her husband's shall, unless in any case the Consul-General sees good reason to the contrary, be indorsed on the husband's certificate.

(g.) The names and descriptions of females, whose registration is comprised in that of the head of the family, shall, unless in any case the Consul-General sees good reason to the contrary, be indorsed on the certificate of the head of the family.

(h.) Every person shall, on every registration of himself, pay a fee of such amount as the Secretary of State from time to time appoints.

(i.) The amount of the fee either may be uniform for all persons, or may vary according to the position and circumstances or different classes, as the Secretary of State from time to time thinks fit, but shall not in any case exceed 2 rupees and 8 annas.

(j.) Every person by this Order required to register himself, shall, unless excused by the Consular officer, or unless such person is a woman who, by the custom of the class to which she belongs, is prevented from appearing in public, attend personally for that purpose at the Consular Office on each occasion of registration.

(h.) If any person fails to comply with the provisions of this Order respecting registration, and does not satisfactorily excuse his failure, the Courts constituted and officers appointed under this Order may, in any case in which they think fit, decline to recognize him as a British subject.

PART IX.—PROCEDURE.

Rules of Procedure.

The Consul-General may, from time to time, with the approval of the Secretary of State and concurrence of the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury, make rules imposing fees leviable in respect of any proceedings in, or processes issued out of, any Court established under this Order, and in respect of the registration of any instrument under this Order, provided that the scales of such fees have been sanctioned by the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury.

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by section 5 of the Merchant Seamen (Payment of Wages and Rating) Act, 1880, it is provided that where a ship is about to arrive, is arriving, or has arrived at the end of her voyage, every person, not being in Her Majesty's Service, or not being duly authorized by law for the purpose, who—

(a) Goes on board the ship without the permission of the master, before the seamen lawfully leave the ship at the end of their engagement, or are discharged (whichever last happens), or

(b) Being on board the ship, remains there after being warned to leave by the master, or by a police officer, or by any officer of the Board of Trade, or of the Customs, shall for every such offence be liable on summary conviction to a fine not exceeding twenty pounds, or, at the discretion of the Court to imprisonment for any term not exceeding six months, and the master of the ship or any officer of the Board of Trade may take him into custody, and deliver him up forthwith to a constable, to be taken before a Court or Magistrate capable of taking cognizance of the offence, and dealt with according to law.

And whereas by section 6 of the said Act it is further provided that whenever it is made to appear to Her Majesty—

(1.) That the Government of any foreign country has provided that unauthorized persons going on board of British ships which are about to arrive or have arrived within its territorial jurisdiction shall be subject to provisions similar to the provisions contained in the last preceding section as applicable to persons going on board British ships at the end of their voyages; and

(2.) That the Government of such foreign country is desirous that the provisions of the said section shall apply to unauthorized persons going on board of ships belonging to such foreign country within the limits of British territorial jurisdiction:

Her Majesty may by Order in Council declare that the provisions of the said last preceding section shall apply to the ships of such country; and thereupon so long as the Order remains in force those provisions shall apply and have effect as if the ships of such country were British ships arriving, about to arrive, or which had arrived at the end of their voyage.

And whereas it has been made to appear to Her Majesty—

(1.) That the Government of Austro-Hungary has provided that unauthorized persons going on board of British ships which are about to arrive, or have arrived within its territorial jurisdiction, shall be subject to provisions similar to the provisions contained in the said herein first recited section as applicable to persons going on board British ships at the end of their voyages; and

C. L. Peel.

AT the Court at Balmoral, the 17th day of October, 1884.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by "The Merchant Shipping Act Amendment Act, 1862," it is enacted, that whenever it is made to appear to Her Majesty that the rules concerning the measurement of tonnage of merchant ships for the time being in force under the principal Act have been adopted by the Government of any Foreign Country, and are in force in that country, it shall be lawful for Her Majesty by Order in Council to direct that the ships of such foreign country shall be deemed to be of the tonnage denoted in their certificates of registry or other national papers, and thereupon it shall no longer be necessary for such ships to be remeasured in any port or place in Her Majesty's dominions, but such ships shall be deemed to be of the tonnage denoted in their certificates of registry, or other papers, in the same manner, to the same extent, and for the same purpose, in, to, and for which the tonnage denoted in the certificates of registry of British ships is to be deemed the tonnage of such ships:

And whereas it has been made to appear to Her Majesty that the rules concerning the measurement of tonnage of merchant ships now in force under "The Merchant Shipping Act, 1854," have been adopted by the Government of His Majesty the King of the Belgians, with the exception of a slight difference in the mode of estimating the allowance for engine room, and such rules are now in force in that country, having come into operation on the first day of January, one thousand eight hundred and eighty-four :

Her Majesty is hereby pleased, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, to direct as follows ;—

1. As regards sailing ships, that merchant sailing ships belonging to Belgium, the measurement whereof on or after the said first day of January, one thousand eight hundred and eighty-four, shall have been ascertained and denoted in the certificates of registry, or other national papers, of such sailing ships, testified by the dates thereof, shall be deemed to be of the tonnage denoted in such certificates of registry, or other national papers, in the same manner, and to the same extent, and for the same purpose, in to and for which the tonnage denoted in the certificates of registry of British sailing ships is deemed to be the tonnage of such ships.

2. As regards steam ships, that merchant ships belonging to Belgium which are propelled by steam or any other power requiring engine room, the measurement whereof on or after the said first day of January, one thousand eight hundred and eighty-four, shall have been ascertained and denoted in the certificates of registry, or other national papers of such steam ships, testified by the dates thereof, shall be deemed to be of the tonnage denoted in such certificates of registry, or other national papers, in the same manner, and to the same extent, and for the same purpose, in to and for which the tonnage denoted in the certificates of registry of British ships is deemed to be the tonnage of such ships, provided, nevertheless, that, if the owner or master of any such steam ship desires the deduction for engine room in such ship to be estimated under the rules for engine room measurement and deduction applicable to British ships, instead of under the Belgian rules, the engine room shall be measured, and the deductions calculated, according to the British rules.

C. L. Peel.

AT the Court at Balmoral, the 17th day of October, 1884.

PRESENT.

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act of the 41st year of His late Majesty George III, chapter 86 (Local and Personal), the Master Pilots and Seamen of the Trinity House of Newcastle-upon-Tyne, hereinafter called the Newcastle Trinity House, were authorized for the maintenance of the two lighthouses at North Shields to levy certain dues on shipping entering or leaving the Port of Newcastle :

And whereas by an Order in Council dated the sixth November, one thousand eight hundred and eighty-three, approving an indenture made the eleventh October, one thousand eight hundred and eighty-three, the said dues were transferred (with certain exceptions) upon the terms set forth in the schedule appended to the same Order to the Tyne Improvement Commissioners :

And whereas by a supplemental indenture, dated the eleventh October, one thousand eight hundred and eighty-three, the said Newcastle Trinity House had transferred to the said Commissioners the lighthouses, and other sea marks named therein, with all rights, powers, and privileges belonging to, or exerciseable by, the said Trinity House in connection therewith :

And whereas by the 46th section of "The Merchant Shipping Act Amendment Act, 1862," it is enacted that, if any lighthouse, buoy, or beacon is erected, or placed, or reconstructed, repaired, or replaced by any local authority having jurisdiction in the matter of lighthouses, buoys, or beacons, Her Majesty may, on the application of the said local authority, by Order in Council fix such dues to be paid to the said local authority in respect of every ship which enters the port or harbour under the jurisdiction of such local authority, or the estuary wherein such lighthouse, buoy, or beacon is situate, and which passes the said lighthouse, buoy, or beacon, and derives benefit therefrom, as Her Majesty may deem reasonable :

And whereas by "The Tyne Improvement Act, 1872," section 8, it is enacted that the Tyne Improvement Commissioners may, with the consent of the Corporation of Trinity House of Deptford Strond, from time to time place, and, so long as they see fit, maintain guiding lights, and other marks for the greater safety of vessels using the port, defraying the expense of such placing and maintenance out of the Tyne Improvement Fund :

And whereas the said Tyne Improvement Commissioners, being the local authority for the public harbour of the River Tyne, propose for the better guidance of navigation to alter the position of the leading lights into the harbour, and have obtained the approval of the Corporation of Trinity House to such alteration :

And whereas it has been made to appear to Her Majesty that it is expedient that the dues authorized by the said Act of 41 George III, to be levied in respect of the existing lighthouses and lights should be continued in respect of the lighthouses and lights proposed to be substituted therefor, and the local authority have applied for sanction to such continuance.

Now, therefore, Her Majesty, in exercise of the powers vested in Her by the said Acts, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, is pleased to direct that the dues leviable under the said Act of the 41st year of His late Majesty George III in respect of the high and low lighthouses and lights at North Shields shall be leviable in respect of the new lighthouses and lights now proposed to be substituted for the same, and also in respect of such other lighthouses and lights, whatever their site, as it may be found necessary to erect in their stead hereafter.

"into one benefice, the said Archbishop of the Province shall inquire into the circumstances of the case; and if on such enquiry it shall appear to him that such union may be usefully made, and will not be of inconvenient extent, and that the patron or patrons of the said benefices, sinecure rectory or rectories, vicarage or vicarages respectively, is or are consenting thereto, such consent being signified in writing under the hands of such patron or patrons, the said Archbishop shall, six weeks before certifying such inquiry and consent to Her Majesty as herein-after directed, cause with respect to his own diocese, a statement in writing of the facts, and in other cases a copy in writing of the aforesaid representation to be affixed on or near the principal outer door of the church, or in some public and conspicuous place in each of such benefices, sinecure rectories, or vicarages, with notice to any person or persons interested, that he, she, or they, may, within such six weeks, show cause in writing under his, her, or their hand or hands, to the said Archbishop, against such union; and if no sufficient cause be shown within such time, the said Archbishop shall certify the inquiry and consent aforesaid to Her Majesty in Council, and thereupon it shall be lawful for Her Majesty in Council to make and issue an Order or Orders for uniting such benefices, sinecure rectory or rectories, vicarage or vicarages, into one benefice, with cure of souls, for ecclesiastical purposes only; and it shall be lawful for Her Majesty in Council to give directions for regulating the course and succession in which the patrons, if there be more than one patron, shall present or nominate to such united benefice, from time to time, as the same shall become vacant."

And whereas the Lord Archbishop of Canterbury, pursuant to the provisions of the said Act, hath duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a certificate in writing, bearing date the thirtieth day of August, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and eighty-four, in the words following, that is to say:—

"To the QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

"We Edward White by Divine Providence Archbishop of Canterbury do hereby certify to Your Majesty in Council that it having appeared to us that the benefice (being a vicarage) of Thanington and the benefice (being a rectory) of Milton both in the county of Kent and within our diocese of Canterbury might with advantage to the interests of religion be united into one benefice we made enquiry into the circumstances of the case and on such enquiry it appeared to us—

"That such union might be usefully made and would not be of inconvenient extent.

"That the said benefices are contiguous.

"That the aggregate population of the parishes of Thanington and Milton according to the latest returns of population made under the authority of Parliament does not exceed four hundred and sixty-seven persons the population of the said parish of Thanington being four hundred and fifty-six and the population of the said parish of Milton being eleven.

"That there is a church belonging to each of the said benefices sufficient for the accommodation of the parishioners.

"That there is a house of residence belonging to the benefice of Thanington but there is no house of residence belonging to the benefice of Milton.

"That the net yearly value of the said benefice of Thanington is one hundred and seventy-eight pounds or thereabouts and the net yearly value of the said benefice of Milton is seventy-six pounds or thereabouts.

"That the patronage of the said benefice of Thanington belongs to the Archbishop of Canterbury for the time being in right of his Archbishoprick and the patronage of the said benefice of Milton which is now vacant belongs for this turn by reason of lapse to the Lord High Chancellor of Great Britain in right of the Crown and subject thereto to Matthew Bell of Bourne Park near Canterbury in the county of Kent Esquire.

"That the said Archbishop of Canterbury the Lord High Chancellor and Matthew Bell consent to the proposed union of the said benefices and that the course and succession in which the patrons shall present to the united benefice from time to time as the same shall become vacant shall be as follows that is to say that the first two turns out of every three turns shall belong to the Archbishop of Canterbury and his successors for ever and that every third turn shall belong to the said Matthew Bell his heirs and assigns for ever.

"That six weeks before certifying such enquiry and consents to your Majesty in Council we caused a statement in writing of the aforesaid facts to be affixed on the principal outer door of the parish church of each of the said benefices with notice to any person or persons interested that he she or they might within such six weeks show cause in writing under his her or their hand or hands to us the said Archbishop against such union. That no such cause has been shown. The consents in writing of the said patrons of the benefices and the copies of the statement of facts and notice so in each case affixed as aforesaid are hereto annexed.

"And we the said Archbishop do hereby certify the inquiry consents and matters aforesaid to Your Majesty in Council to the intent that Your Majesty in Council may in case Your Majesty in Council shall think fit so to do make and issue an Order for uniting the said two benefices into one benefice with cure of souls for ecclesiastical purposes only and declaring that the course and succession in which the respective patrons for the time being shall present or nominate to the united benefice from time to time as the same shall become vacant shall be as follows (that is to say) the first two turns or rights of presentation out of every three turns shall belong to the Archbishop of Canterbury and his successors for ever and that every third turn or right of presentation shall belong to the said Matthew Bell his heirs and assigns for ever.

"As witness our hand this thirtieth day of August in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and eighty-four.

"Edw. Cantuar."

Now therefore Her Majesty in Council, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased to order, as it is hereby ordered, that the vicarage of Thanington, situate in the county of Kent, and diocese of Canterbury, and the rectory of Milton, situate in the same county and diocese, shall be united into one benefice with cure of souls for ecclesiastical purposes only.

And Her Majesty in Council, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased to direct that the course and succession in which the respective patrons, for the time being, shall present, or nominate, to such united benefice, from time to time as the same shall become vacant, shall be as follows, that is to say:—The first two turns, or rights of presentation, out of every three turns

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the third and fourth years of Her Majesty chapter one hundred and thirteen and of the Act of the seventeenth and eighteenth years of Her Majesty chapter eighty-four duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a scheme, bearing date the seventh day of August, in the year one thousand eight hundred and eighty-four, in the words following, that is to say:—

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the third and fourth years of Your Majesty chapter one hundred and thirteen and of the Act of the seventeenth and eighteenth years of Your Majesty chapter eighty-four have prepared and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council the following scheme for apportioning the income of the benefice (being a rectory) of Ashby and Oby-with-Thirne, in the county of Norfolk and in the diocese of Norwich between that benefice and a certain other benefice namely the benefice (being a perpetual curacy or a vicarage) of Tunstall which said last-named benefice is also situate in the said county of Norfolk and in the said diocese of Norwich.

"Whereas the Bishop of the said diocese of Norwich is the patron in right of his See of the said benefice of Ashby and Oby-with-Thirne and also of the said benefice of Tunstall.

"And whereas it has been made to appear to us that the said benefice of Tunstall is at present insufficiently endowed and that the said benefice of Ashby and Oby-with-Thirne has endowments of such an amount as that after the charge hereinafter recommended and proposed to be made shall have been placed upon the same endowments the said benefice of Ashby and Oby-with-Thirne will still be sufficiently endowed.

"And whereas the Honourable and Right Reverend John Thomas Bishop of the said diocese of Norwich has represented to us and we are of opinion that it is desirable that additional provision should be made for the cure of souls within the parish of Tunstall aforesaid by means of that apportionment of the income of the said benefice of Ashby and Oby-with-Thirne which is hereinafter recommended and proposed.

"And whereas each of the said two benefices of Ashby and Oby-with-Thirne and Tunstall is now full.

"Now therefore, with the consent of the Right Honourable and Most Reverend Edward White Archbishop of Canterbury acting as Archbishop of the Province within which each of the said two benefices is situate and with the consent of the said John Thomas Bishop of the said diocese of Norwich acting as such Bishop and also as the patron in right of his See of each of the said two benefices as aforesaid (in testimony whereof they the said consenting parties have respectively signed this scheme and sealed the same with their several episcopal seals) we the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners humbly recommend and propose that without any conveyance or assurance in the law other than this scheme and any duly gazetted Order of Your Majesty in Council ratifying the same and as from the day of the date at which the said benefice of Ashby and Oby-with-Thirne shall from whatsoever cause be next avoided all the tithe rent-charges glebe lands and all (if any) other the endowments which shall at the date of the next avoidance of the said benefice of Ashby and Oby-with-Thirne belong or which may thereafter belong to the same benefice, shall be charged and for ever thereafter be chargeable in favour of the incumbent for the time being of the said benefice of Tunstall with the annual sum or yearly charge hereinafter mentioned that is to say a clear annual sum or yearly charge of fifty pounds: the same annual sum or yearly charge of fifty pounds to be as from the day aforesaid due and payable to the incumbent of the said benefice of Tunstall, and the same annual sum or yearly charge to be apportionable between any outgoing incumbent of the benefice of Tunstall or his representatives on the one hand and his successor in the same incumbency on the other hand; and to be receivable by the incumbent in whose favour it is charged as aforesaid by equal half yearly payments on the first day of January and the first day of July in every year.

"And we further recommend and propose that the incumbent for the time being of the said benefice of Tunstall shall have the following powers for recovering the said rent-charge of fifty pounds per annum hereby proposed to be created in favour of the benefice of which he is incumbent as aforesaid (that is to say) power if and whenever any part of the said rent-charge shall at any time be unpaid for twenty-one days after any of the times appointed for the payment thereof (although there shall not have been any legal demand made thereof) to enter into the receipt of the endowments charged therewith or any part thereof and to receive and take the same until he shall thereby or otherwise be paid and satisfied the same rent-charge and the arrears thereof due at the time of such entry or afterwards to become due during his being in possession of the same premises together with all costs and expenses occasioned by the repayment thereof and for the purpose of collecting receiving and recovering such endowments or any of them to use exercise and enjoy all such powers and remedies for collecting recovering and enforcing payment thereof and of the annual sums payable for or towards the raising or making up the same as may be statutorily exercised or exercisable by him under the law then in force.

"Provided always that if at any time the incumbent for the time being of the said benefice of Ashby and Oby-with-Thirne shall by any deed duly executed by him under his hand and seal in accordance with the provisions of any statute in that behalf enabling him grant convey and annex to the said benefice of Tunstall any part or parts of the rectorial endowments belonging to the said benefice of Ashby and Oby-with-Thirne which shall in the opinion of the Bishop of Norwich for the time being be a just and fair equivalent or not less than equivalent for the said yearly charge of fifty pounds hereby proposed to be created as aforesaid then the same annual sum or yearly charge of fifty pounds shall thereupon and thenceforth cease and determine, and be no longer payable as hereinbefore recommended and proposed.

"And we further recommend and propose that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any other measures relating to the matters aforesaid or any of them in accordance with the provisions of the said Acts or of either of them or of any other Act of Parliament."

And whereas the said scheme has been approved by Her Majesty in Council; now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Acts; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the registrar of the said diocese of Norwich.

SOLDIERS' BALANCES UNCLAIMED.

IN pursuance of the "Regimental Debts Act, 1863," notice is hereby given, that Her Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for the War Department has available, for distribution amongst the Next of Kin or others entitled, the sum of money set opposite to the name of each of the deceased soldiers named in the list which is published with this notice in the London Gazette, and the "Army List," and is also to be seen at the Regimental Districts and at the Quarters of the several Staff Officers for the Pension Service throughout the United Kingdom.

Applications from persons supposing themselves entitled as Next of Kin should be addressed by letter to "The Under Secretary of State, War Office, London, S.W.," and marked outside "Soldier's Effects."

No application can be attended to which does not state the date and place of the soldier's birth, enlistment, and death, and the name of his regiment; his regimental number should also be stated if known.

Should these particulars furnished by the applicant not agree with the facts recorded on the War Office documents relating to the deceased soldier, the applicant will be so informed; but should they agree therewith, then within three calendar months the Secretary of State will furnish the applicant with the usual requirements needed for the proof of the alleged relationship.

The application must be authenticated by the signature of the applicant, and his name should be affixed in the presence of the clergyman, or one of the churchwardens of the parish, or a Justice of the Peace; the applicant's address, with the name of the post town, must also be clearly stated. No personal application can receive attention.

Further lists will from time to time be published, and therefore it will facilitate the applicant's inquiries to give the number and date of the notice in which the deceased soldier's name appeared.

By order of the said Principal Secretary,

RALPH THOMPSON.

NOTE.—A copy of this Notice is to be seen at the Regimental Districts and at the Quarters of the several Staff Officers for the Pension Service throughout the United Kingdom.
