NOTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made to the Board of Trade, on or before the 23rd day of December next, for a Provisional Order, pursuant to the Gas and Waterworks Facilities Act, 1870, to authorize and empower the Great Berkhamstead Waterworks Company Limited (hereinafter called the Undertakers), to maintain, continue, alter, improve, and renew the existing waterworks at Great Berkhamstead, in the parish of Berkhamstead St. Peter, otherwise Great Berkhamstead and Berkhamstead St. Mary, otherwise Northchurch, in the county of Hertford, and to supply water in and to the said parishes and places of Berkhamstead St. Peter and Northchurch, and to so much and such parts of the parishes of Bovingdon, Eddlesborough, Great Gaddesden, Little Gaddesden, and Hemel Hempstead, in the county of Hertford; and of Chesham, Ivinghoe, and Pitstone, in the county of Buckingham, as are respectively situated within a radius of three miles from Great Berkhamstead parish church.

The existing waterworks so intended to be maintained, continued, enlarged, and improved consist of:—

(a.) A well shaft or boring, with pumping station, pumping engines, and engine and boiler house, public bath house, and other works, buildings, and conveniences in connection therewith, situate on the site of a messuage or tenement and garden abutting upon the east side of the White Hart Inn and the north side of High-street, in the town of Berkhamstead, in the parish of Berkhamstead St. Peter, otherwise Great Berkhamstead, in the county of Hertford, containing a frontage to the north side of High-street aforesaid of twenty-five feet, or thereabouts, and a depth of one hundred yards or thereabouts.

(b.) A reservoir (No. 1), in the said parish of Berkhamstead St. Peter, situate on a piece of land (being portion of a field known as Kentish Croft) at King's Hill, abutting on the north-east side of the road leading from Cross Oak to King's Hill, and containing twenty-one and a quarter poles or thereabouts.

(c.) A reservoir (No. 2), situated on a piece of ground, formerly portion of a garden of the late Joseph Robinson, the remainder of such garden being occupied by William Paxton, and situated in the parish of Berkhamstead St. Peter, near to and approached from Grubb's-lane there.

(d.) A conduit, line of pipes, or pumping main commencing in High-street, in the town of Berkhamstead, at the pumping station (a) and terminating in the reservoir (No. 1), hereinbefore described.

(e.) A conduit, line of pipes, or pumping main commencing in the High-street, in the town of Berkhamstead, at the said pumping station (a), and terminating in the reservoir (No. 2), hereinbefore described.

Together with all needful goits, conduits, or pipes, channels, dams, weirs, sluices, pens, locks, engines, engine-houses, machinery, stand pipes, tanks, valves, hydrants, apparatus, walls, fences, and other works and conveniences connected with the beforementioned works or any of them.

The intended order will confer on the Undertakers the following, or some of the following, powers, viz.:—

To maintain, continue, use, alter, repair, and renew their existing waterworks and works connected therewith, and to make provision for the protection of the works, property, and water supply of the Undertakers, and for prohibiting the fouling or contamination of the water in any reservoirs, wells, or other works belonging to them, and the waste or misuse of water.

To lay down and maintain conduits, pipes, and other works, in, under, over, across, and, along, and to cross, break up, open, alter, divert, or temporarily stop up roads, footpaths, streets, pavements, bridges, public places, sewers, drains, streams, and water courses within the limits of supply.

To purchase and acquire by agreement, and hold lands, waters, and other hereditaments and property, and also to take grants of, or acquire easements in and over, lands, springs, streams, waters, and other hereditaments for the purposes of their undertaking.

To define and regulate the capital invested in the said works and undertaking, and to provide for the investment of additional capital therein, and to restrict the raising of money by shares and by borrowing.

The Order will authorize the Undertakers, and any local board, sanitary authority, company, bodies, and persons, either within or beyond the limits of supply to contract and agree for a supply of water, in bulk or otherwise, for any purpose whatsoever, and will enable such local boards, sanitary authorities, companies, bodies, and persons to appropriate and apply funds, and to raise additional funds by rates or otherwise for the purposes of any such contract or otherwise.

The Order will sanction and confirm or preserve, with or without modification, any contracts or agreements already made, or which prior to the confirmation of the Order may be made touching the aforesaid matters, or any of them.

And the Order will alter and enlarge or repeal the provisions of any Act of Parliament or charter which would interfere with its objects, and will incorporate all or some of the provisions of the Water Works Clauses Acts, 1847 and 1863, and such parts of the Railways Clauses Consolidation Act, 1845, as relate to the temporary occupation of lands and such other matters as may be deemed expedient, and will also confer upon the Undertakers the powers mentioned or referred to in the Gas and Water Works Facilities Act, 1870, and all other powers usually conferred upon water companies.

On or before the 30th day of November, 1884, a copy of this advertisement and a published map of the district, with the proposed limits for the supply of water shown thereon, will be deposited for public inspection with the Clerk of the Peace for the county of Hertford, at his office, at St. Albans, and with the Clerk of the Peace for the county of Buckingham, at his office, at Aylesbury, and also at the office of the Board of Trade, Whitehall, London.
