

undertakings with all the powers and authorities of the vendors in the Company, and for enabling the vendors, or either of them, to accept and hold shares or stock or other securities of the Company.

To provide, if need be, for the discharge of the debts and liabilities of the vendors, or either of them, the distribution of their assets amongst the persons entitled thereto, and the winding up and dissolution of the Companies above-named, or either of them.

To confer upon the Company for the purpose of supplying water the same powers of laying and maintaining mains, pipes, and apparatus in streets and roads laid out or made, but not dedicated to the public as they from time to time possess in respect of public roads.

To limit, and so far as necessary, to vary the heights to which the Company are or may be bound to deliver water, and to vary or amend section 44 of the Waterworks Clauses Act, 1847, so far as that section is applicable to the Company, or their undertaking, and to make special provision with respect to communication pipes to be laid by the Company.

To enable the Company for all or any of the purposes of the Bill to apply their corporate funds and revenues, and for those purposes and for the general purposes of their undertaking to raise further money by the creation and issue of new shares or stock (ordinary or preferential, or both), and debenture stock, and by borrowing on mortgage, or otherwise.

To authorize the Company to supply water by meter, and to sell water meters, fittings, and other apparatus, or to let water meters on hire, and to execute and do any services in respect of such fittings and apparatus.

To make special provision for the protection of the waterworks property and water supply of the Company, and for the prevention of waste, and for defining and regulating such supply, and the uses to which the same may be put, and for the preventing of frauds on the Company, and for imposing penalties in respect of all or any such matters.

To empower the Company to enter into agreements for any of the aforesaid objects, and if thought fit to confirm and give effect to any such agreements.

To change the name of the Company.

To alter or provide for the alteration of the number and to make provision with respect to the qualification, and the nomination, appointment, retirement, and rotation of Directors of the Company.

To extend and apply to the existing undertaking of the Company the provisions, or some of the provisions, of the Waterworks Clauses Act, 1863, with or without modification.

To vary or extinguish all rights and privileges which would in any way interfere with the objects of the Bill, and to confer other rights and privileges.

The Bill will or may alter, amend, enlarge, or repeal so far as may be necessary or expedient for any of the purposes of the Bill the provisions, or some of the provisions of the Caterham Spring Water Company's Act, 1862, the Caterham Water Order, 1873, and the Caterham Spring Water Company's Act, 1881, and any other Act or Order relating to the Company.

Printed copies of the intended Bill will be deposited in the Private Bill Office of the House of
