(PLEURO-PNEUMONIA.)

AT the Council Chamber, Whitehall, the 15th day of November, 1884.

By Her Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council.

THE Lords and others of Her Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council, by virtue and in exercise of the powers in them vested under The Contagious Diseases (Animals) Act, 1878, and of every other power enabling them in this behalf, do order, and it is hereby ordered, as follows :

1. The following Place (namely),—The farm of Pollo, in the parish of Kilmuir Easter, in the county of Ross, in the occupation of George Grant, together with that piece of ground in the parish of Kilmuir Easter bounded on the north by the county-road from Alness to Parkhill, on the east by the county-road from Barbaraville to Scotsburn, on the west by the East March of the farm of Delny, and on the south by the North March of the said farm of Pollo,—which was declared by Order of Council dated the first day of September, one thousand eight hundred and eighty-four, to be a Place infected with pleuro-pneumonia, is hereby declared to be free from pleuro-pneumonia, and that Place shall, as from the commencement of this Order, cease to be a Place infected with pleuro-pneumonia.

2. This Order shall take effect from and immediately after the sixteenth day of November, one thousand eight hundred and eighty-four.
