

To cross, divert, alter and stop up, whether temporarily or permanently, all streets, roads, highways, footways, railways, tramways, water-courses, drains, sewers, pipes, tubes and telegraphs, which it may be necessary so to cross, divert, alter or stop up for the purposes of the intended Act.

To empower the Company to levy and collect rents, rates, tolls, stallages, dues and charges in or in respect of the Markets, Market Places, Market Houses, Fairs, Buildings, and other works and conveniences to be established and regulated under the powers of the intended Act, and to confirm, vary, or extinguish exemptions from the payment thereof, and of any existing tolls, stallages, rates, and dues leviable within the said borough.

To enable the Company to purchase and acquire by agreement, or to take on lease with or without powers of purchasing the reversion thereof, and to provide for the transfer or lease to and vesting in them, of the market rights attached to or held, or enjoyed with the existing Cattle Market and Cattle Fairs in the said borough by charter or otherwise, and the rights, powers, privileges and authorities of the Mayor, Aldermen and Burgesses of the borough of Newark (hereinafter called the Corporation), and of the Lord of the Manor of Newark for such pecuniary or other consideration, and upon, under, and subject to such terms, conditions, stipulations and restrictions, and for such periods as have been or may be agreed upon between the Company and the Corporation, and the said Lord of the Manor, or as may be expressed in or provided for by or under the intended Act, and to authorise the said Lord of the Manor and all other necessary parties, to sell and transfer, or lease the said existing Market rights, powers and privileges accordingly, and to authorise the Company after such sale or transfer, or during such lease to them of the said rights, powers and privileges, to continue, maintain, carry on, and exercise the same respectively in respect of the New Markets and Fairs, as they may then be or as they may respectively be extended or amended by the intended Act.

To confirm with or without alteration or variation, and carry into effect a certain agreement dated the 27th day of September, 1884, and made between the Corporation of the first part, Joseph Gilstrap Branston of the second part, and Viscountess Ossington of the third part, and any other agreements which may have been or which may hereafter be made and entered into between or on behalf of the Company and the Corporation, and the said Lord of the Manor and others, with respect to the purchase and acquisition, or lease by the Company of the lands hereinbefore described, or of the existing Markets and Fairs, Market and other rights, powers and privileges, and to authorise the Company and the Corporation, and the said Lord of the Manor, and other parties interested, to enter into and carry into effect further agreements with reference to any such sale, lease or transfer, or otherwise in relation thereto, or to the objects and purposes of the intended Act.

To make provision as to the purchase by the Corporation, and the sale to them by the Company of the property, rights and powers of the Company, at such time and on such terms, and subject to such conditions, as may have been or may be agreed upon, or as may be prescribed or authorised by the intended Act.

To declare the limits of the intended Act to be the borough of Newark, and the adjoining parishes or places of Kelham, Averbham, Farndon, and Hawton, and the part of East Stoke parish recently added to the parish of Newark-upon-Trent, and the Newark Tolneys in the said parish of East Stoke, all in the county of Nottingham, and to prohibit the holding of any other Market or Fair within those limits, and to prohibit or restrict the sale or exhibition of cattle, horses, sheep, pigs, or other live stock, and of hay, straw, fodder and roots, within the said limits, except as may be authorised by the intended Act, elsewhere than in the Market, or Markets and Fairs, to be established under and in such manner as may be provided for by the intended Act, and to make provision, by bye-laws and otherwise, for the government and regulation of the said Markets and Fairs, and of persons using and frequenting the same, and for enforcing such prohibitions, restrictions, bye-laws and regulations, by penalties and otherwise.

To regulate the mode of, or prohibit the drawing or leading or conveyance of, cattle, horses, sheep, pigs, and other animals in or through any of the streets, roads or thoroughfares leading to the said intended Market.

To vary or extinguish all existing rights and privileges which would or might in any way prevent or hinder any of the objects of the intended Act being carried into full and complete effect, and to confer other rights and privileges.

To alter, amend, vary or repeal, so far as may be necessary for the purposes of the intended Act, all or some of the powers and provisions of the Local and Personal Act, 14 and 15 Vic., cap. 97, and any other Act or Acts relating to the borough of Newark, and of the several charters relating to the existing Markets and Fairs.

The intended Act will incorporate wholly or in part "The Lands Clauses Consolidation Acts, 1845, 1860, and 1869"; "The Markets and Fairs Clauses Act, 1847"; "The Companies Clauses Act, 1863"; and "The Companies Clauses Act, 1869," with such alterations and modifications as may be deemed necessary.

Printed copies of the intended Act will be deposited in the Private Bill Office of the House of Commons before the 21st day of December next.

Dated this 8th day of November, 1884.
