

to or necessary for the purposes aforesaid, and it will vary or extinguish all rights and privileges which would interfere with the objects thereof, and provide for the winding up and dissolution of the Company.

The Bill will also, so far as may be necessary to effect the objects and purposes thereof, alter, amend, or repeal all or any of the powers and provisions of the Charing Cross and Waterloo Electric Railway Act, 1882, and all other Acts relating to the Company.

Printed copies of the Bill will, on or before the 20th day of December next, be deposited in the Private Bill Office of the House of Commons.

Dated this 13th day of November, 1884.

Burchell and Co., 5, the Sanctuary, Westminster, S.W., Solicitors for the Bill.

In Parliament.—Session 1885.

Huntingdon Corporation and Freemen's Arrangement.

(Investment of Purchase Moneys received from Companies, Corporations, and Persons; Application and Division of same; Vesting Freemen's Lands in Corporation as Trustees; Provisions as to Lammas and other Lands; Appointment of Committees, and as to Leasing, Sale, and Exchange of Lands; Appropriation of Rents and Profits; Extinguishment of Tithe Rent-Charges, &c., and Provision for same; Amendment of Acts; Expenses of Act, &c.)

NOTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made to Parliament in the ensuing Session for an Act to carry into effect the following, or some of the following, among other purposes, and to confer the following, or some of the following, among other powers (that is to say):—

To regulate the investment and application of certain moneys paid by the Great Northern and other railway companies, by the Huntingdon and Godmanchester Gas and Coke Company, Limited, the Huntingdon County Hospital Trustees, and other corporations and persons, to the Mayor, Aldermen, and Burgesses of the borough of Huntingdon (hereinafter called "the Corporation") in respect of certain rights of pasture and other rights in and over certain lands taken and purchased by such Railway, Gas and Coke Companies, and other corporations and persons, under the powers of their several Acts of Parliament relating to such companies and contracts entered into.

To make provision for payment to the Corporation, or retention by them for their own use, of the share or portion of the said money which has or may be agreed to be paid to them in respect of their rights or interests in the soil of such lands, and for regulating all other interests in the money, and the amounts to be paid, and indicating the persons entitled to participate in such moneys, and in the interest and dividends arising from the same.

To regulate the payments to be made and persons entitled to participate in the profits of lands belonging to the Corporation, or vested in them, over which the Freemen of the said borough have rights of pasturage or other rights, or in the proceeds of sale of such lands or the income arising therefrom; and also to make regulations as to the exercise of such rights of pasturage or other rights.

To vest in the Corporation, as trustees for sale or otherwise, all lands, interests in lands, rights of pasturage, easements, and other rights now belonging to, or held or enjoyed by, the Freemen of the borough of Huntingdon, which lands are usually known as the Views Common, the Mill

Common, and the Spring Common and are hereinafter collectively designated as the "Freemen's Lands."

To regulate the mode of depasturing or otherwise dealing with Freemen's lands, and certain Lammas lands situate in the respective parishes of St. John, All Saints, St. Mary, and St. Benedict, in the borough and county of Huntingdon.

To authorise and provide for the holding of meetings of Freemen, and regulation of same, and their proceedings, and the appointment of committees, and for granting such committees such powers, and regulating their proceedings.

To authorise the leasing of all or any of the Freemen's and Lammas lands, either in perpetuity or for any less term, or from year to year, or upon building leases, and to authorise the sale or exchange of the said lands, or any part or parts thereof, and also the sale, purchase, or exchange of any Lammas lands, and to authorise the investment of the proceeds of any such sale or lease in the purchase of other lands or otherwise.

To authorise an agreement between the Corporation and the said Freemen, or the committees representing the same for the time being, as to the share or portion of any moneys coming to their hands, to be paid to or retained by the Corporation for their right of soil or interest in the said lands, and for granting to the Corporation certain powers with respect to the same.

To provide for the extinguishment or redemption of certain tithes, tithe rent-charges, and moduses affecting the said lands, and for commuting the same or substituting annual payments in lieu thereof, and for securing the same.

To vary or extinguish all existing rights and privileges which would, or might, in any way prevent, or interfere with, or delay the accomplishment of any of the objects of the intended Act, and to confer other rights and privileges.

To alter, repeal, and vary, any Acts, charters, grants, customs, rights, and privileges, which directly or indirectly affect the Freemen's Lands or Lammas Lands, and which may be inconsistent or would interfere with the exercise of the powers and provisions of the intended Act.

And it is also intended to make provision for payment of the expenses incurred in the said application to Parliament, or in relation thereto, or in carrying the provisions of the said Act into effect, and to indemnify the Corporation from any liability in respect thereto.

Printed copies of the Bill will be deposited in the Private Bill Office of the House of Commons on or before the 20th day of December next.

Dated this 5th day of November, 1884.

Edward Maule, Town Clerk, Huntingdon.
Batten, Proffitt, and Scott, 32, Great George-street, Westminster, Parliamentary Agents.

Board of Trade.—Session 1885.

Shelley and Shepley Gas.
(Provisional Order).

Application for Provisional Order for Power to Shelley and Shepley Gas Light Company Limited to Maintain and Extend, &c., Existing Works; to Purchase Lands; to Supply Township of Shepley and Parts of Townships of Shelley, Cumberworth, and Denby, in the West Riding of the County of York, with Gas; to Levy Rates; to Define Existing and Raise Additional Capital; and for other Purposes.

NOTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made to the Board of Trade, by or on behalf of the Shelley and Shepley Gas Light Company Limited (hereinafter called "the