No. 17. An aqueduct, conduit, or line of pipes, wholly in the parishes of East Farleigh and East Barming, commencing in the parish of East Farleigh, in and out of a spring in the field numbered 50 on the said map, at a point about 130 feet south-east from the southern corner of the said bridge, thence crossing under the River Medway, and terminating in the parish of East Barming by a junction with Work No. 11, at a point therein about 55 feet eastward of the north end of the said bridge.

No. 18. A covered service reservoir (Reservoir No. 2) wholly in the said parish of East Barming, situate in the north-west corner of a field belonging or reputed to belong to the Company, and in the occupation of Stephen Coppard, and abutting on the west side of the road leading from East Farleigh to Aylesford, and near to the County Lunatic Asylum.

No. 19. An aqueduct, conduit, or line of pipes, wholly in the parishes of East Barming and Maidstone, commencing in the parish of East Barming, in and out of the south-east side of the Reservoir No. 2, and terminating in the parish of Maidstone by a junction with the existing main pipe of the Company near to the Fountain Inn.

No. 20. All cuts, adits, culverts, drains, sluices, engines, pumps, tanks, pools, cisterns, approaches, works, and appliances subsidiary to the said proposed works or necessary or convenient for, or in relation to the collecting, conveying, appropriating and using the waters of the said springs.

2. To enable the Company to collect, divert, take, use, and appropriate for the purposes of the said new works, and of their undertaking, all such springs and waters as will or may be interrupted by the proposed works, or as may be found under any lands for the time being, belonging to the Company, or in or over or in respect of which they have any easement, and particularly the several springs hereinbefore mentioned, all which now flow into the River Medway.

3. To enable the Company to deviate from the lines and levels shown on the deposited plans and sections to any extent defined in the Bill.

4. To authorise the Company to lay down and maintain pipes and apparatus in, over and across, and for that purpose to break up, alter, divert, stop up, and interfere with streets, roads, lanes, rivers, watercourses, streams, railways, tramways, sewers, drains, pipes, and telegraph apparatus.

5. To enable the Company to acquire compulsorily and by agreement, and to hold lands, easements, water, and property for the purposes of the Bill, and also in addition thereto, so to acquire the following lands (that is to say): certain lands in the said parish of Boxley, belonging or reputed to belong to the said Trustees of the Right Honourable the Earl of Aylesford, and in the occupation of the said James William Bensted, bounded on the north-west partly by the said road leading from "The Pilgrim's-road" to Sandling and partly by Boarley Cottages, on the south-east by an imaginary line drawn parallel with and at a distance of 760 yards south-east of the said road, on the north-east by the said Pilgrim's-road, and on the south-west by an imaginary line drawn parallel with and at a distance of about 820 yards south-west of the said road, and certain lands in the parish of East Barming, belonging or reputed to belong to and in the occupation of Friend William Samson, bounded on the north by the line of the South-Eastern Railway Company, on the east and south by land of the said Maidstone Waterworks Company, and on the west by an occupation road leading from the River Medway to Scraeces Farm.

6. To enable the Company to apply their existing funds and any moneys which they have still power to raise to the purposes or any of the purposes of the Bill, and for the like purposes, and for the general purposes of their authorised undertaking, to raise additional capital by the creation and issue of new ordinary and preference Shares and Stock, and by borrowing, or partly by one mode, and partly by another.

7. The Bill will vary and extinguish all existing rights and privileges which would interfere with any of the objects of the Bill, and will confer upon the Company all such other rights and privileges as may be necessary for any purposes of the Bill, and will amend, enlarge, and repeal the necessary powers and provisions of "The Maidstone Waterworks Act, 1860," "The Maidstone Waterworks Act, 1863," "The Maidstone Water Order, 1873," "The Maidstone Water Order, 1874," "The Maidstone Water Order, 1879," and the Maidstone Waterworks Act, 1882," and any other Act or Order relating directly or indirectly to the Company.

8. The Bill will incorporate with itself, with or without variation, the necessary provisions of "The Companies Clauses Consolidation Act, 1845," "The Companies Clauses Act, 1863," "The Companies Clauses Act, 1869," "The Lands Clauses Acts, 1845, 1860, and 1869," and "The Waterworks Clauses Acts, 1847 and 1863," and also such parts of "The Railways Clauses Consolidation Act, 1845," as relate to roads and the temporary occupation of lands.

Plans and sections in duplicate describing the lines, situation, and levels of the proposed works, and the lands, houses, and other property, in or through which they will be made, and duplicate plans showing the lands, houses, and other property which may be taken under the powers of the Bill for other purposes, together with a book of reference to such plans, containing the names of the owners and lessees or reputed owners and lessees, and of the occupiers of such lands, houses, and other property, and a copy of this notice, will, on or before the 29th day of November instant, be deposited for public inspection with the Clerk of the Peace for the County of Kent, at his office at Maidstone, and on or before the same day, a copy of so much of the said plans and sections and book of reference as relates to each parish, in or through which the intended works will be made, or in which any lands, houses, and other property are intended to be taken, and a copy of this notice will be
