THE NEW FOREST (SWINE-FEVER) No. 2 ORDER OF 1884.

AT the Council Chamber, Whitehall, the 26th day of November, 1884.

By Her Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council.

PRESENT:

Lord President.

Mr. Trevelyan.

THE Lords and others of Her Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council, by virtue and in exercise of the powers in them vested under The Contagious Diseases (Animals) Act, 1878, and of every other power enabling them in this behalf, do order, and it is hereby ordered, as follows:

Short Title.

1. This Order may be cited as THE NEW FOREST (SWINE-FEVER) NO. 2 ORDER OF 1884.

Commencement and Duration.

2. This Order shall commence and take effect from and immediately after the thirtieth day of November, one thousand eight hundred and eighty-four, and shall continue in force until the Privy Council otherwise order.

Interpretation.

3. In this Order—

The Act of 1878 means The Contagious Diseases (Animals) Act, 1878.

The New Forest means the New Forest within the perambulation of the New Forest, in the county of Southampton.

Other terms have the same meaning as in The Animals Order of 1884.

Restriction on Movement.

4. No pig shall be moved out of or through the New Forest except as expressly authorized by this Order.

Movement of Swine out of the New Forest.

5. Swine may be moved out of such parts of the New Forest as are not comprised within a Swine-Fever Infected Place or a Swine-Fever Infected Circle or a Swine-Fever Infected Area with a movement licence of the Local Authority of the District in or into which the swine are to be moved on such conditions, if any, as the Local Authority granting the licence think expedient.

Movement of Swine through the New Forest.

6. Swine not affected with swine-fever may be moved through the New Forest by railway, without untrucking.

Granting of Movement Licences.

7.—(1.) A Local Authority may, if they think fit, withhold a movement licence in any case where the movement of the swine proposed to be moved would be in their judgment inexpedient or improper.

(2.) No licence for movement of a pig granted under this Order shall be available if granted by the owner of the pig to be moved or by his agent, or by the owner or consignee or other person selling the pig, or by the purchaser thereof or by his agent, or by the occupier of the farm or premises from or to which the pig is to be moved.

Production of Licences; Names and Addresses.

8.—(1.) Every person in charge of swine being moved, where under this Order a movement licence may be necessary, shall, on demand of a Verderer of the New Forest, or of an officer of the Verderers of the New Forest, or of the Deputy Surveyor of the New Forest or any officer acting under him, or of a Justice, or of a Constable, or of an Inspector or other officer of a Local Authority, produce and show to him the movement licence, if any, authorizing the movement, and shall allow it to be read and a copy of or extract from it to be taken by the person to whom it is produced.

(2.) Every person so in charge shall, on demand as aforesaid, give his name and address to the person so authorized under this Article to demand the movement licence.

Offences.

9.—(1.) If a pig is moved in contravention of this Order, or of the conditions of a movement licence thereunder, the owner of the pig, and the person for the time being in charge thereof, and the person causing, directing, or permitting the movement, and the person moving or conveying the pig, and the consignee or other person receiving or keeping it, knowing it to have been moved in contravention as aforesaid, shall, each according to and in respect of his own acts and defaults, be deemed guilty of an offence against the Act of 1878.

(2.) If a person in charge of swine being moved, where under this Order a movement licence is necessary, on demand made under this Order, fails to give his true name and address, or gives a false name or address, he shall be deemed guilty of an offence against the Act of 1878.
