PART III.—APPLICATION OF CERTAIN PORTIONS OF THE LAW OF BRITISH INDIA.

8.—(a.) Subject to the other provisions of this Order, and to any Treaties for the time being in force relating to Zanzibar, Her Majesty's criminal and civil jurisdiction in Zanzibar shall, so far as circumstances admit, be exercised on the principles of, and in conformity with, the enactments for the time being applicable as hereinafter mentioned of the Governor-General of India in Council, and of the Governor of Bombay in Council, and according to the course of procedure and practice observed by, and before, the Courts in the Presidency of Bombay beyond the limits of the ordinary original jurisdiction of the High Court of Judicature at Bombay according to their respective jurisdiction and authority, and so far as such enactments, procedure and practice are inapplicable, shall, so far as circumstances admit, be exercised under and in accordance with the common and statute law of England in force at the commencement of this Order.

The enactments relating to bankruptcy for the time being in force in the Presidency of Bombay.

(c.) Any other existing or future enactments of the Governor-General of India in Council or of the Governor of Bombay in Council, shall also be applicable to Zanzibar, but shall not come into operation until such times as may in the case of any of such enactments respectively be fixed by the Secretary of State.

(d.) For the purpose of facilitating the application of any such enactments as before-mentioned—

(i.) Any of the Courts established under this Order may construe any such enactment, with such alterations not affecting the substance, as may be necessary or proper to adapt the same to the matter before the Court ;

PART IV.—CRIMINAL MATTERS.

Application of the Code of Criminal Procedure.

9. Subject to the other provisions of this Order, the Code of Criminal Procedure and the other enactments relating to the administration of criminal justice in India for the time being applicable to Zanzibar, shall have effect as if Zanzibar were a district in the Presidency of Bombay, and the Judicial Assistant shall be deemed to be the Magistrate of the district, the Consul-General shall be deemed to be the Sessions Judge; the High Court of Judicature at Bombay (hereinafter called the High Court of Bombay) shall be deemed to be the High Court; and the powers both of the Governor-General in Council and of the Local Government under those enactments shall be exercisable by the Secretary of State, or, with his previous or subsequent assent, by the Governor-General of India in Council.

Commitments to High Court of Bombay.

10. When any person is committed to the High Court of Bombay for trial, the Consul-General may, under and in accordance with the provisions of section 4 of "The Foreign Jurisdiction Act, 1843," send him to Bombay for trial; and may, if he thinks fit, bind over such of the proper witnesses as are British subjects, or any of them, in their own recognizances, to appear and give evidence on the trial.

Offence of Smuggling.

11. If a British subject smuggles or imports into or exports from Zanzibar any goods whereon any duty is charged or payable to the Government of Zanzibar, with intent to evade payment of the duty, he shall be punished with imprisonment for a term which may extend to two months, or with fine which may extend to 1,000 rupees, or with both.

Manner and Place of Imprisonment.

12.—(a.) The Consul-General may, if he thinks fit, from time to time, by general order, prescribe the manner in which, and the places in Zanzibar at which, sentences of imprisonment are to be carried into execution.

(b.) The Consul-General may, if he thinks fit, in any case, by warrant signed by him, and sealed with his Consular Seal, cause an offender convicted and sentenced to imprisonment before a Criminal Court established under this Order to be sent and removed to, and imprisoned in, any place in Zanzibar.

13. Where an offender convicted before any Court established under this Order is sentenced to imprisonment, and the Consul-General, proceeding under section 5 of "The Foreign Jurisdiction Act, 1843," authority in that behalf being hereby given to him, considers it expedient that the sentence should be carried into effect within Her Majesty's dominions, and the offender is, accordingly, sent for imprisonment to a place in Her Majesty's dominions, the place shall be either Bombay, or a place in some other part of Her Majesty's dominions out of the United Kingdom, the Government whereof consents that offenders may be sent thither under this Article.

14.—(1.) In cases of murder or culpable homicide, if either the death or the criminal act which wholly or partly caused the death happened in Zanzibar, a Court acting under this Order shall have the like jurisdiction over any British subject who is charged either as a principal offender or as an abettor, as if both such criminal act and the death had happened in Zanzibar.

(2.) In the case of any crime committed on the high seas, or within the Admiralty jurisdiction, by any British subject who at the time of committing such crime was on board a British ship, or on board a foreign ship to which he did not belong, a Court acting under this Order shall have jurisdiction as if the crime had been committed within Zanzibar.

(3.) In cases tried under this Article no different sentence can be passed from the sentence which could be passed in England if the crime were tried there.

(4.) The foregoing provisions of this Article shall be deemed to be adaptations, for the purposes of this Order, and of "The Foreign Jurisdiction Act, 1878," of the following enactments described in the First Schedule to that Act (that is to say):—

"The Admiralty Offences (Colonial) Act, 1849."

"The Admiralty Offences (Colonial) Act, 1860."

"The Merchant Shipping Act, 1867," section 11.

And the said enactments shall, so far as they are repeated and adapted by this Article (but not further or otherwise), extend to Zanzibar.

15. "The Fugitive Offenders Act, 1881," shall apply to Zanzibar in the same manner as if it were a British possession, and for the purposes of Part II of the said Act, and of this Article, Zanzibar, British India, Natal and the Cape of Good Hope shall be deemed to be one group of British possessions, and the Consul-General shall, as regards any place within his jurisdiction, have the powers of a Governor or Superior Court of a British possession.

Security for Good Behaviour.

16. Where a British subject is convicted of an offence, the Court before which he is convicted may, if it thinks fit, require him to give security to the satisfaction of the Court for his future good behaviour; and for that purpose may, if it thinks fit, cause him to come or be brought before the Court.

Deportation.

17.—(a.) If a British subject required by an order under the last preceding Article of this Order, or under the Law relating to Criminal Procedure for the time being in force, to give security for good behaviour or for keeping the peace, fails to do so, the Court making the order may, if it thinks fit, order that he be deported from Zanzibar to a place to be named by the Consul-General.

(b.) The Court, on making an order of deportation, shall forthwith report to the Consul-General the order and the grounds thereof.

(c.) Thereupon the person ordered to be deported shall, if the Consul-General thinks fit, be, as soon as practicable, and in the case of a person convicted, either after execution of the sentence, or while it is in course of execution, removed in custody, under the warrant of the Consul-General, to the place named in the warrant.

(d.) The place shall be either Bombay or a place in some other part of Her Majesty's dominions out of the United Kingdom, the Government whereof consents to the reception therein of persons deported under this Order.

(e.) The Court, on making an order of deportation, may, if it thinks fit, order the person to be deported to pay all or any part of the expenses of his deportation, to be fixed by the Court in the order. Subject thereto, the expenses of deportation shall be defrayed as the Secretary of State, with the concurrence of the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury, directs.

(f.) The Consul-General shall forthwith report to the Secretary of State every order of deportation made under this Order, and the grounds thereof, and the proceedings thereunder.

(g.) If a person deported under this Order returns to Zanzibar without permission in writing of the Consul-General or Secretary of State, he shall be punished with imprisonment for a term which may extend to two months, or with fine which may extend to 1,000 rupees, or with both.

(h.) He shall also be liable to be forthwith again deported under the original or a new order and a fresh warrant of the Consul-General.

Criminal Appeals to Bombay.

18.—(a.) Where a person entitled to appeal to the High Court of Bombay from any judgment or order passed in the exercise of criminal jurisdiction under this Order desires so to appeal, he shall present his petition of appeal to the Court which passed the judgment or order; and the petition shall with all practicable speed be transmitted by or through the Consul-General to the High Court, with certified copies of the charge (if any) and proceedings, of all documentary evidence admitted or tendered, of the depositions, of the notes of the oral testimony, and of the judgment or order, and any argument on the petition of appeal that the appellant desires to submit to the High Court.

19. The Court against whose judgment or order the appeal is preferred shall postpone the execution of the sentence pending the appeal; and shall, if necessary, commit the person convicted to prison for safe custody, or detain him in prison for safe custody, or shall admit him to bail, and may take security, by recognizance, deposit of money, or otherwise, for his payment of any fine.

Process of Removal or Deportation.

20.—(a.) Where, under this Order, a person is to be sent, or removed, or deported, from Zanzibar, he shall, by warrant of the Consul-General, under his hand and seal, be detained, if necessary, in custody, or in prison, until a fit opportunity for his removal or deportation occurs, and then be put on board one of Her Majesty's vessels of war, or, if none is available, then on board some other British or other fit vessel.

(b.) The warrant of the Consul-General shall be sufficient authority to the person to whom it is directed or delivered for execution, and to the Commander or master of the vessel, to receive and detain the person therein named, in the manner therein prescribed, and to send or remove and carry him to the place therein named, according to the warrant.

(c.) In case of sending or removal for any purpose other than deportation, the warrant of the Consul-General shall be issued in duplicate, and the person executing it shall, as soon as practicable after his arrival at the place therein named, deliver, according to the warrant, with one of the duplicates of the warrant, to a constable or proper officer of police or keeper of a prison, or other proper authority or person there, the person named in the warrant, to be produced on the order of the proper Court or authority there, or to be otherwise dealt with according to law.

PART V.—CIVIL MATTERS.

Application of Enactments relating to Civil Matters.

21. Subject to the other provisions of this Order, the Code of Civil Procedure, "The Bombay Civil Courts Act, 1869," "The Indian Succession Act," and the other enactments relating to the administration of civil justice and to bankruptcy for the time applicable to Zanzibar, shall have effect as if Zanzibar were a zila or district in the Presidency of Bombay: the Consul-General shall be deemed to be the District Judge of the district, and his Court the District Court or Principal Civil Court of Original Jurisdiction in the district; the High Court of Bombay shall be deemed to be the highest Civil Court of Appeal for the district, and the Court authorized to hear appeals from the decisions of the District Court; and the powers, both of the Governor-General in Council and the Local Government, under those enactments, shall be exercisable by the Secretary of State, or with his previous or subsequent assent by the Governor-General of India in Council.

Bankruptcy.

22. It being provided by Article VII of the Convention of Commerce between Her Majesty the Queen and His Highness the Imam of Muscat, signed at Zanzibar, 31st May, 1839 (among other things), as follows:—

"If a British subject shall become bankrupt in the dominions of His Highness the Sultan of Muscat, the British Consul or Resident Agent shall take possession of all the property of such bankrupt, and shall give it up to his creditors, to be divided amongst them. This having been done, the bankrupt shall be entitled to a full discharge of his creditors, and he shall not at any time afterwards be required to make up his deficiency, nor shall any property he may afterwards acquire be considered liable for that purpose. But the British Consul or Resident Agent shall use his endeavours to obtain, for the benefit of the creditors, any property of the bankrupt in another country, and to ascertain that everything possessed by the bankrupt at the time when he became insolvent has been given up without reserve."

The Courts established under this Order shall, in the exercise of bankruptcy jurisdiction, observe and execute the provisions of that Article.

Proceedings on Death.

23.—(a.) The Consul-General shall endeavour to obtain, as early as may be, notice of the deaths of all British subjects dying in Zanzibar leaving property to be administered, and all such information as may serve to guide him with respect to the securing and administration of their property.

(b.) On receiving notice of the death of such a person, the Consul-General shall put up a notice thereof at his Office, and shall keep the same there until probate or administration is granted, or, where it appears to the Consul-General that probate or administration will not be applied for, or cannot be granted, for such time as he thinks fit.

(c.) The Consul-General shall, where the circumstances of the case appear to him so to require, as soon as may be, take possession of the property in Zanzibar of the deceased, or put it under his seal (in either case, if the nature of the property or other circumstances so require, making an inventory), and so keep it until it can be dealt with according to law.

(d.) All expenses incurred on behalf of the Consul-General in so doing shall be the first charge on the property of the deceased, and the Consul-General shall, by sale of part of that property, or otherwise, provide for the discharge of these expenses.

(e.) The Consul-General may, by an order under his hand, delegate to any officer subordinate to him the exercise of the powers and performance of the duties conferred and imposed on the Consul-General by this Article.

(f.) The Consul-General, or any officer or person acting under this Article, shall not be responsible for anything done in good faith in execution, or intended execution, of this section.

24. If a person named executor in a will, and to the establishment of whose title, as such, it is necessary to obtain probate of that will, takes possession of, and administers or otherwise deals with, any part of the property of the deceased, and does not obtain probate within one month after the death, or after the termination of any proceeding respecting probate or administration, he shall be liable to be punished with fine, which may extend to 1,000 rupees.

25. If any person, other than the person named executor, or the administrator, or a person entitled to represent the deceased without obtaining probate or letters of administration, or an officer of the Consulate, takes possession of and administers, or otherwise deals with, any part of the property of the deceased, he shall, as soon as practicable, notify the fact and the circumstances to the Consul-General, and shall furnish to the Consul-General all such information as the Consul-General requires, and shall conform to any directions of the Consul-General in relation to the custody, disposal, or transmission of the property, or the proceeds thereof, and, in case of any contravention of this Article, he shall be liable to be punished with fine, which may extend to 1,000 rupees.

26.—(1.) When the peculiar circumstances of the case appear to a Court having jurisdiction to grant letters of administration so to require, for reasons recorded in its proceedings, the Court may, if it thinks fit, of its own motion, or otherwise, grant letters of administration to an officer of the Court.

(2.) The officer so appointed shall act under the direction of the Court, and shall be indemnified thereby.

(3.) He shall publish such notices, if any, as the Court thinks fit, in Zanzibar, Bombay, the United Kingdom, and elsewhere.

(4.) The Court shall require and compel him to file, in the proper office of the Court, his accounts of his administration, at intervals, not exceeding three months; and shall forthwith examine them, and report thereon to the Consul-General.

(5.) The accounts shall be audited under the direction of the Consul-General.

(6.) All expenses incurred in behalf of the Court in execution of this Article shall be the first charge on the estate of the deceased in Zanzibar; and the Court shall, by the sale of that estate, or otherwise, provide for the discharge of those expenses.

Civil Appeals to Bombay.

27.—(a.) Where any person entitled to appeal to the High Court of Bombay from any decree or order made in the exercise of civil jurisdiction under this Order desires so to appeal, he shall present his Memorandum of Appeal to the Court which made the decree or order, and subject to the provisions hereinafter contained, that Court shall receive the same for transmission to the High Court in manner hereinafter provided.

(b.) The appellant shall give security to the satisfaction of the Consul-General, and to such amount as the Consul-General thinks reasonable, for prosecution of the appeal, and for payment of any costs that may be ordered by the High Court of Bombay on the appeal to be paid by the appellant to any person.

(c.) The appellant shall pay into the proper office of the Court which passed the decree or order such sum as the Consul-General thinks reasonable, to defray the expense of the making up and transmission to the High Court of Bombay of the record.

28. The appellant may, with his Memorandum of Appeal, file any argument which he desires to submit to the High Court of Bombay in support of the appeal.

29.—(a.) The Memorandum of Appeal and the argument (if any) shall be served on such persons as respondents as the Court in which they are filed directs.

(b.) A respondent may, within seven days after service, file in that Court such arguments as he desires to submit to the High Court of Bombay against the appeal.

(c.) Copies thereof shall be furnished by the Court in which they are filed to such persons as the Court thinks fit.

30.—(a.) On the expiration of the time for the respondent filing his argument, the Court shall, without the application of any party, make up and send to the Consul-General the record of appeal, which shall consist of the Memorandum of Appeal and the arguments (if any), and certified copies of the following, namely, the plaint, written statements (if any), all proceedings, all written and documentary evidence admitted or tendered, the notes of the oral evidence, the Judgment, and the decree or order.

(b.) The several pieces shall be fastened together consecutively numbered, and the whole shall be secured by the seal of the Consul-General, and be forthwith forwarded by him to the High Court of Bombay.

(c.) The Consul-General may, if for special reasons he thinks fit, send any portion of the documentary evidence in original to the High Court.

PART VI.—VICE-ADMIRALTY.

31. The Consul-General shall, for and within Zanzibar, and for vessels and persons coming within Zanzibar, and in regard to vessels captured on suspicion of being engaged in the Slave Trade, have all such jurisdiction as for the time being ordinarily belongs to Courts of Vice-Admiralty in Her Majesty's possessions abroad.

PART VII.—ZANZIBAR AND FOREIGN SUBJECTS AND TRIBUNALS.

Zanzibar Subjects.

32.—(a.) It being provided by Article V of the Convention of Commerce between Her Majesty the Queen and His Highness the Imaum of Muscat, signed at Zanzibar, 31st May, 1839 (among other things), as follows :—

“When differences arise between a subject of the dominions of His Highness the Sultan of Muscat and a British subject, if the former is the complainant the cause shall be heard by the British Consul or Resident Agent, who shall administer justice thereupon.”

Every such cause shall in Zanzibar be heard by a Court established under this Order.

(b.) The High Court of Bombay shall not exercise jurisdiction in any such suit; but where a decree or order in any such suit has been passed by any officer subordinate to the Consul-General, the Consul-General may call for the proceedings, and pass thereon such order as he may think fit; and any order so passed by him shall be final.

Foreigners.

33.—(a.) Where a foreigner desires to bring, in a Court established under this Order, a suit against a British subject, or a British subject desires to bring, in such a Court, a suit against a foreigner, not being a subject of a Mahommedan Power, the Court shall entertain the same, and shall hear and determine it.

(b.) Provided that the foreigner first obtains and files in the proper office of the Court the consent, in writing, of the competent authority (if any) on behalf of his own nation, to his submitting, and that he does submit, to the jurisdiction of the Court, and, if required by the Court, gives security to the satisfaction of the Court, and to such reasonable amount as the Court thinks fit, by deposit or otherwise, to pay fees, costs, and damages, and abide by, and perform, the decision to be given by the Court or on appeal.

(c.) A cross-suit shall not be brought in the Court against a plaintiff, being a foreigner, who has submitted to the jurisdiction, by a defendant, without leave of the Court first obtained.

(d.) The Court, before giving leave, may require proof from the defendant that his claim arises out of the matter in dispute, and that there is reasonable ground for it, and that it is not made for vexation or delay.

(e.) Nothing in this Article shall prevent the defendant from bringing, in the Court, against the foreigner, after the termination of the suit in which the foreigner is plaintiff, any suit which the defendant might have brought in the Court against the foreigner if no provision restraining cross-suits had been inserted in this Order.

(f.) Where a foreigner obtains, in a Court established under this Order, an order against a defendant being a British subject, and in another suit that defendant is plaintiff and the foreigner is defendant, the Court may, if it thinks fit, on the application of the British subject, stay the enforcement of the order pending that other suit, and may set off any amount ordered to be paid by one party in one suit against any amount ordered to be paid by the other party in the other suit.

(g.) Where a plaintiff, being a foreigner, obtains an order, in a Court established under this Order, against two or more defendants, being British subjects, jointly, and in another suit one of them is a plaintiff and the foreigner is defendant, the Court may, if it thinks fit, on the application of the British subject, stay the enforcement of the order pending that other suit, and may set off any amount ordered to be paid by one party in one suit against any amount ordered to be paid by the other party in the other suit, without prejudice to the right of the British subject to obtain contribution from his co-defendants under the joint liability.

(h.) Where a foreigner is co-plaintiff in a suit with a British subject who is in Zanzibar, it shall not be necessary for the foreigner to give security under this Article as regards fees and costs, unless the Court so directs; but the co-plaintiff British subject shall be responsible for all fees and costs.

Zanzibar or Foreign Tribunal.

34.—(a.) Where it is proved that the attendance of a British subject to give evidence, or for any other purpose connected with the administration of Justice is required before a Zanzibar or foreign Court, the Consul-General may, if he thinks fit, in a case and in circumstances in which he would, if acting in his judicial capacity, require the attendance of that person before himself, order that he do attend as required.

(b.) If the person ordered to attend, having reasonable notice of the time and place at which he is required to attend, fails to attend accordingly, and does not satisfactorily excuse his failure, he shall, independently of any other liability, be liable to be punished with imprisonment for a term which may extend to two months, or with fine which may extend to 1,000 rupees, or with both.

35. If a British subject—

(i.) Wilfully obstructs, by act or threat, a Zanzibar or foreign Court in the performance of its duty; or

(ii.) Within or close to the room or place where such a Court is sitting wilfully misbehaves in a violent, threatening, or disrespectful manner, to the disturbance of the Court or to the intimidation of suitors or others resorting to the Court; or

(iii.) Wilfully insults any member or officer of such a Court in his going to, or returning from, any place of sitting or office of the Court; He shall, on conviction before a competent Court of Criminal Jurisdiction, be liable to be punished with imprisonment for a term which may extend to two months, or with fine which may extend to 1,000 rupees, or with both.

AT the Court at Windsor, the 29th day of November, 1884.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of an Act of the sixth and seventh years of Your Majesty chapter thirty-seven sections six and eight, duly prepared and lay before Her Majesty in Council a scheme, bearing date the thirtieth day of October, in the year one thousand eight hundred and eighty-four, in the words following, that is to say:—

“ We the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England in pursuance of an Act of the sixth and seventh years of Your Majesty, chapter thirty-seven, sections six and eight, have prepared and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council, the following scheme for authorizing the sale and disposal of certain property formerly belonging to the sinecure rectory of Ashbury in the county of Berks and now vested in us.

“ Whereas under and by virtue of the provisions of the Act of the third and fourth years of Your Majesty, chapter one hundred and thirteen, the said rectory, which at the passing of the said Act, was vacant, became suppressed and the lands tithes and hereditaments constituting the endowment thereof became upon the passing of the said Act absolutely vested in us, for the purposes and subject to the provisions applicable to other hereditaments vested in us.

“ And whereas the lands tithes and hereditaments which so became vested in us as aforesaid are now in our possession, and are not subject to any outstanding lease or grant, but part of the same are on account of their character or situation unsuitable or inconvenient to be held or applied for the purposes for which estates vested in us are applicable under the Acts by which our proceedings are governed.

“ And whereas with a view to the advantageous appropriation of the said lands, tithes and hereditaments or of the proceeds thereof, for the ultimate improvement of our common fund, it is expedient that the said lands tithes and hereditaments or such part or parts thereof as we shall at any time and from time to time think fit, should be sold or disposed of and accordingly that we should be empowered to dispose of our interest in such lands tithes and hereditaments, or in any part or parts thereof, in such manner as shall appear to us advisable.

“ Now therefore we humbly recommend and propose that we may be authorized and empowered, by instrument or instruments in writing, duly executed according to law, from time to time to sell or dispose of and duly to convey, according to the provisions of the said Act of the sixth and seventh years of Your Majesty's reign, all or any of the said lands, tithes, and hereditaments, formerly belonging to the said rectory, and so vested in us as aforesaid, with their appurtenances, and all our estate right title and interest therein or in any part or parts thereof, unto and to the use of any person or persons desirous or willing to purchase the same, and his or their heirs, executors, administrators, or assigns, or otherwise as he or they shall direct or appoint, and for such consideration as shall upon due calculation and inquiry appear to us to be just and reasonable, it being our intention to invest the proceeds thereof from time to time as occasion may arise, in the purchase of other lands, tithes, rent-charges, tenements, or hereditaments, or of some estate or interest therein, convenient to be held by us for the purposes of the Acts by which our proceedings are governed as aforesaid, and in the meantime to invest the said proceeds in some Government or Parliamentary Stock, or other public securities in England.

“And we further recommend and propose, that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any other measures relating to the matters aforesaid, or any of them, in accordance with the provisions of the said Act, or of any other Act of Parliament.”

And whereas the said scheme has been approved by Her Majesty in Council; now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Act; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said diocese of Oxford.

And whereas the Right Honourable and Most Reverend William, Archbishop of York, the patron in right of his See of the rectory of the said parish of Skelton-in-Cleveland, and the Reverend John Gardner, Clerk in Holy Orders, the Rector or Incumbent of the same parish, have, by an instrument under their hands, bearing date on or about the fourteenth day of October, in the year one thousand eight hundred and eighty-four, certified to us, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, that it would be for the convenience of the said parish of Skelton-in-Cleveland that the said new church of All Saints, situate within such parish, should be substituted for the old parish church (also dedicated to All Saints) of the same parish.

Now, therefore, we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in exercise and execution of the power or authority in that behalf contained in the Act of the eighth and ninth years of Her present Majesty, chapter seventy, and in the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Her said Majesty, chapter fifty-five, and of all other powers or authorities in anywise enabling us in the same behalf, do, by this instrument under our common seal, with the consents (testified as hereinafter mentioned) of the said William, Archbishop of York, and of the said John Gardner, hereby declare that the said new church of All Saints, situate within the said parish of Skelton-in-Cleveland, and duly consecrated as aforesaid, shall be, and the same is hereby, substituted for the said old parish church (dedicated to All Saints as aforesaid) of the same parish, and that such new church shall henceforth be the parish church of the said parish of Skelton-in-Cleveland, in lieu of the said old parish church of All Saints as fully in all respects as if the said new church of All Saints, so hereby substituted, had been originally the parish church of the same parish.

And we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in further pursuance and exercise of the powers and authorities aforesaid, and with such consents as aforesaid (testified as hereinafter mentioned), do hereby transfer all the endowments, emoluments, and rights of or belonging to the said old parish church (dedicated to All Saints as aforesaid) of the said parish of Skelton-in-Cleveland, or of or belonging to the Rector or Incumbent thereof to the said new church of All Saints (now being, by virtue of these presents, the parish church of the said parish of Skelton-in-Cleveland), and to the Rector or Incumbent thereof, and his successors for ever.

NOTICE is hereby given, that the Local Board of Health for the district of Newton Heath, near the city of Manchester (hereinafter called "the Local Board"), intend, subject to the approval of the Board of Trade, by an indenture to be made between the said Local Board of the one part, and the Manchester Carriage and Tramways Company (hereinafter called "the Lessees"), of the other part, to demise unto the lessees the sole and exclusive right of user by them of the tramways next hereinafter mentioned, in the district of the Local Board, namely:—A tramway passing along Oldham-road, from the boundary of the city of Manchester at Miles Platting, and terminating at the boundary of the respective townships of Newton and Failsworth, near to the Bull's Head Public-house, excepting and reserving, nevertheless, the rights of the public over the roads or streets along or across which the said tramways pass, as provided by the Tramways Act, 1870; and also excepting and reserving unto the Local Board and their successors full right to use the said tramways for the purposes of the Local Board, as mentioned in the said lease. The term of the said lease is to be 21 years, to commence from the date of the said indenture. The rent reserved to be the clear sum of £350 per mile of each single line of tramway. The said lease is also to contain the covenants and conditions next hereinafter generally described, namely: A covenant by the lessees to pay the said rent by quarterly payments, as therein mentioned. Also a covenant to run at least two carriages each way, every morning and evening, for artificers, mechanics, and labourers, with their personal luggage or tools, not later than seven A.M. nor earlier than six P.M., at fares not exceeding one halfpenny per mile, but with a minimum fare of one penny. The Local Board not to require the said carriages to run until the Corporation of Manchester or the proprietors of the tramways of the said Corporation should run two such carriages along their tram lines, connected at the boundary of the city of Manchester with the lines of the Local Board, in which case the said carriages should be run in conjunction with the carriages on the Manchester tram lines. Also a covenant to use the said tramways for the conveyance of passengers and small parcels in connection with the Manchester Corporation Tramways, in Oldham-road, and the Failsworth Tramways, and not to run in connection with any other tramway or tramways than those lastly mentioned without the consent of the Local Board. And to run such carriages as should be used by the lessees on the Manchester Corporation Tramways connected with the lines of the Local Board's Tramways. And to observe all the Bye-laws and Regulations which the Local Board should, from time to time, make, as in the said lease mentioned and the general statutes affecting tramways. And also not to carry any goods, animals, or things other than passengers' luggage, as therein mentioned, and not to affix advertisements in carriages running on the said tramway, except with the consent of the Local Board, and not to run upon the said tramways any carriages other than vehicles approved by the Local Board, and to maintain the same in good order to the satisfaction of the Local Board, and not to use any other motive power than animal power, except with the consent of the Local Board. Also not to remove, destroy, or interfere with the said tramways. Also to be answerable for any trespass or damage other than reasonable wear and tear occasioned by the lessees, their servants, horses, or carriages, and to indemnify the Local Board therefrom. Also to forthwith give the Local Board notice if the tramways should be in decay, disrepair, dangerous, or defective, and to be responsible on failure to give such notice for all damages and accidents occasioned thereby, and to indemnify the Local Board therefrom.
