*Board of Trade (Harbour Department),
Whitehall Gardens, December 19, 1884.*

THE Board of Trade have received through the Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs a Despatch from Her Majesty's Consul at Buenos Ayres, enclosing the following translation of a Notice respecting quarantine issued by the Sanitary Board at Buenos Ayres, viz. :—

Buenos Ayres, November 10, 1884.

In view of the outbreak of cholera in Paris, and of the increased danger that this event threatens on account of the manifold relations of that capital with the Ports of Western Europe, the National Health Board resolves :

1. To increase to four days the quarantine imposed upon arrivals from healthy ports on the French Atlantic seaboard.

2. To impose two days observation on arrivals from healthy ports in Germany, Belgium, Holland, Denmark, Sweden and Norway.

3. To maintain all previous Ordinances in force up to this date, in so far as they are in conformity with the present.

4. To close the port against arrivals from Nantes from the date of the appearance of cholera in that town.

5. This order to affect all ships sailing from the ports above specified after this date.

(Signed) PETER PARDO.
J. PORINO, Secretary.

By a further Notice, dattd 13th November, arrivals from healthy ports in Great Britain are included in paragraph 2 of the above notice.
