INSTRUMENT substituting the New Church of Saint Godwald, within the New Parish of Saint Godwald, Finstall, in the County and Diocese of Worcester, for the Old Church thereof; hitherto being the Parish Church of the same New Parish.

To all to whom these presents shall come the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England send greeting:

WHEREAS a new church has lately been built within the new parish of Saint Godwald, Finstall, in the county of Worcester, and in the diocese of Worcester, and has been consecrated and dedicated to Saint Godwald.

And whereas the Right Reverend Henry, Bishop of the said Diocese of Worcester, and the Reverend Harcourt Aldham, Clerk in Holy Orders, Vicar of the parish of Stoke Prior, in the county and diocese aforesaid, and as such Vicar the patron of the vicarage of the said new parish of Saint Godwald, Finstall, and the Reverend Joseph Henry Bainbrigge, Vicar of the same new parish, have, by an instrument under their hands, bearing date on or about the sixth day of October, in the year one thousand eight hundred and eighty-four, certified to us, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, that it would be for the convenience of the said new parish of Saint Godwald, Finstall, that the said new church of

13. (1.) Where any document is presented for enrolment in the Register an entry shall forthwith be made in the margin thereof of the date, hour, and minute when the same was delivered at the office, and such document, and any other document required to be produced to the Registrar in connection therewith for the purposes of registration, shall immediately be examined in order to ascertain:—

- (a.) That all stamp duty payable in respect of the instrument required to be registered and of the memorial thereof (if any) has been duly paid.
- (b.) That the document to be enrolled is in conformity with the requirements of the Act and of these Rules.

(2.) If the Registrar be not satisfied that all such stamp duty has been duly paid, and that the document presented for enrolment is in conformity with the requirements of the Act and these rules, he shall object to receive the same for the purpose of registration, and shall forthwith give notice of such objection and of the grounds thereof to the person on whose behalf the registration is required to be made or his authorized agent, and such document shall be deemed accordingly to have been not received at the office for the purpose of registration.

(3.) In any such case as in the last subsection mentioned, the Registrar shall cause provisional entries to be made in the Book of Reference and in the Indexes in like form as though such entries were made for the purpose of registration, but with notes appended thereto, showing that such entries are merely provisional.

If, within one month after the date of such provisional registration, the Registrar is satisfied that his objection was not well founded, or if such objection shall at any time be declared by the Chancery Division of the High Court of Justice to have been not well founded under any proceedings commenced in respect thereof in the said Court within the said period of one month, notice whereof has within the said period been served upon the Registrar, the said provisional registration shall become valid registration and the date of such provisional registration shall be deemed for all purposes to be the date of registration, and thereupon the Registrar shall proceed as in other cases where a document is duly presented to him for enrolment in the Register.

Where any notice of such proceedings as aforesaid is served upon the Registrar, he shall forthwith cause a note thereof to be made opposite the said provisional entries.

If within the said period of one month the Registrar is not satisfied that his objection was not well founded and no such notice of proceedings in the said Court is served upon the Registrar as aforesaid, the Registrar shall at the expiration of the said period of one month strike out the said provisional entries, and the said provisional registration shall be cancelled accordingly.

(4.) If the Registrar is satisfied that all such stamp duty has been duly paid, and that the document presented for enrolment is in conformity with the requirements of the Act and these Rules, he shall proceed as follows:—

- (a.) He shall cause the proper entries to be made in the Book of Reference.
- (b.) He shall cause an entry to be made on the face of the said document of the volume, page, and number of the Register where the same is to be enrolled.
- (c.) In any case where, under the provisions of section nine of the Act, a certificate is required to be endorsed on any instrument immediately after the registration thereof, he shall cause such certificate to be duly indorsed accordingly.
- (d.) Subject to any provisions of these Rules authorizing the retention of documents and the transmission thereof by post, he shall, as soon as conveniently may be, cause all documents produced to him for the purpose of registration, but not required to be retained at the office for the purpose of enrolment, to be returned upon request to the person on whose behalf the registration is required to be made, or his authorized agent; provided that no such document shall be allowed to leave the office unless and until a proper receipt for such document (if required by the Registrar) has been duly given, and all fees in connection with such registration have been duly paid.
- (e.) He shall forthwith cause the proper entries to be made in the Index of Names and the Index of Lands.
- (f.) As soon as may be he shall cause the document presented for enrolment to be duly enrolled in the Register (by causing the same to be bound up therein as by these Rules directed), in such a manner that the volume, page, and number of the Register where such document is so enrolled, shall correspond with the entry made in the Book of Reference relating thereto.

Requisitions for Official Searches.

14. Every requisition for an official search for any instrument registered or enrolled either before, or after the commencement of the Act, shall be signed by, or on behalf of, the person requiring the said search to be made.

The Registrar shall cause a Certificate of the result of the search made and signed by him and sealed with the seal of the Registry, to be given to the person requiring the same, and a duplicate thereof shall be bound up in the Record of Official Searches, and preserved at the Register Office.

Affidavits of Discharge of Mortgages, &c.

(a.) The name, residence, and description of the deponent.

(b.) A list setting forth every document having reference to the creation or assignment of such mortgage, lien, or charge, which has been enrolled in the Register, and against which it is desired that entries referring to such affidavit shall be made, and the volume, page, and number of the Register where each such document is so enrolled.

(c.) The names of all the parishes in which any lands affected by such mortgage, lien, or charge are situate.

(d.) The name and description of the residence and occupation of every person who immediately before the satisfaction or discharge of such mortgage, lien, or charge was entitled to the benefit thereof, and a statement that to the best of the knowledge and belief of the deponent no other person was entitled to the benefit thereof.

(e.) A statement of the fact that such mortgage, lien, or charge has been satisfied or discharged, setting forth the manner in which and the date when such satisfaction or discharge was effected.

Every such affidavit shall be deemed to be an affidavit made under the Act in order to be registered under the Act.

- (3.) A consent in writing to the enrolment of such affidavit signed by every person named in the affidavit as being entitled to the benefit of such mortgage, lien, or charge (every such signature being verified by the oath of some credible witness) shall be produced to the Registrar at the time when the affidavit of discharge is presented, and where such mortgage, lien, or charge was originally created by deed or other writing, the original of such deed or writing, with an entry thereon, showing that such mortgage, lien, or charge is cancelled, shall be produced to the Registrar at the time when the affidavit of discharge is presented. Provided that where such original deed or writing cannot be so produced by reason of its having been lost or destroyed, a statutory declaration made by the person who would lawfully be entitled to the custody of such deed or writing, if such mortgage, lien, or charge, were not satisfied or discharged, stating that such deed or writing has been lost or destroyed, shall be produced to the Registrar in lieu thereof.

- (4.) If the Registrar is not satisfied that the requirements of this rule have been duly complied with, he shall refuse to receive the affidavit of discharge for enrolment, and shall forthwith give notice of such refusal and of the grounds thereof to the person by whom such affidavit is presented, or his authorised agent.
- (5.) If the Registrar is satisfied that the requirements of this rule have been duly complied with, he shall receive the said affidavit for enrolment, and shall cause entries to be made thereon of the date when such affidavit was received for the purpose of enrolment, and of the volume, page, and number where the same is to be enrolled, and such affidavit shall be enrolled in the Register accordingly. The Registrar shall also forthwith cause an entry to be made in the margin of every document set forth in the list of enrolled documents contained in such affidavit, stating that such affidavit has been enrolled in the Register and the place of such enrolment, and the date when such affidavit was received for the purposes thereof.

Removing and Cancelling of Caveats.

16. Where a Caveat has been enrolled in the Register and such Caveat is thereafter cancelled or discharged, an affidavit of discharge thereof may be enrolled in the Register; and the provisions of Rule 15 shall, so far as practicable, apply to such affidavit of discharge.

SCHEDULE.

FORMS.

[NOTE.—By Rule 6, the following Forms are to be used in all matters to which they refer or are capable of being applied or adapted, with such alterations and additions as are necessary to meet the circumstances of each case.

In filling in the Forms, it must be carefully remembered that by the Act "parish" is defined to mean any parish, township, or place, for which a separate Poor Rate can be made. In the great majority of the cases this will be a township. The word "township" has accordingly been used throughout the Forms instead of the word "parish," but where the lands are situate not in a township but in some other kind of "parish," the Form will require amending in this particular.]
