

four, in the words and figures following, that is to say:—

“We the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England acting under the provisions of the Act of the seventh and eighth years of Your Majesty chapter ninety-four of the Act of the thirteenth and fourteenth years of Your Majesty, chapter ninety-four and of the Act of the thirty-second and thirty-third years of Your Majesty chapter ninety-four have prepared and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council the following scheme or representation for altering the boundaries of the new parish of Saint John Ealing Dean in the county of Middlesex, and in the diocese of London.

“Whereas by the authority of an Order of Your Majesty in Council bearing date the twenty-third day of October in the year one thousand eight hundred and seventy-six and published in the London Gazette upon the twenty-seventh day of the same month certain contiguous portions of the new parish of Christ Church Ealing and of the parish of Ealing both in the county and diocese aforesaid were assigned as a consolidated chapelry to the consecrated church of Saint John situate at Ealing Dean in the new parish of Christ Church Ealing aforesaid and the same consolidated chapelry was named ‘The Consolidated Chapelry of Saint John Ealing Dean.’

“And whereas the said consolidated chapelry of Saint John Ealing Dean has under the provisions of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Your Majesty chapter one hundred and four become a new parish of the character contemplated by that Act, and by the Act of the sixth and seventh years of Your Majesty chapter thirty-seven, and by the said above-mentioned Act of the thirty-second and thirty-third years of Your Majesty chapter ninety-four.

“And whereas it has been represented to us and it appears to us to be expedient that the boundaries of the said new parish of Saint John Ealing Dean should be altered by way of extension so that they shall include certain additional portions of the said parish of Ealing and of the new parish of Christ Church Ealing aforesaid.

“Now therefore with the consent of the Right Honourable and Right Reverend John Bishop of the said diocese of London (in testimony whereof he has signed and sealed this scheme or representation) we the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners humbly represent recommend and propose that from and after the day of the date of the publication in the London Gazette of any Order of Your Majesty in Council ratifying this scheme or representation the boundaries of the said new parish of Saint John Ealing Dean shall be altered by way of extension so that they shall include all that portion of the said parish of Ealing and also all that portion of the said new parish of Christ Church Ealing which said portions are described in the schedule hereunder written and are delineated and set forth upon the map or plan hereunto appended and are thereon coloured respectively pink and green and that from and after the day of the same date and without any assurance in the law other than such duly gazetted Order the said portions of the parish of Ealing and of the new parish of Christ Church Ealing, so to be included as aforesaid shall become and be and form part of the said new parish of Saint John Ealing Dean.

“And we further represent recommend and propose that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from representing recommending and proposing any other measures relating to the matters aforesaid or any of them in accordance with the provisions of the hereinbefore mentioned Acts or of any of them or of any other Act of Parliament.

“The SCHEDULE to which the foregoing Scheme or Representation has reference.

“The territory to be annexed to the new parish of Saint John Ealing Dean in the county of Middlesex and in the diocese of London being:—

“I. All that portion of the parish of Ealing in the said county and diocese wherein the present incumbent of such parish still possesses the exclusive cure of souls which is bounded on the north-east and on the south-east by an imaginary line commencing upon the boundary which divides the said new parish of Saint John Ealing Dean from the parish of Ealing aforesaid at a point on or near to the northern side of the present course of Mattock-lane opposite to a boundary-stone inscribed ‘E. D. St. J. N. P. 1884 No. 1,’ and placed on the southern side of the said lane at the northern end of the wall or fence forming the western boundary of the garden attached to Chapel House and extending thence that is from the said point on or near to the northern side of Mattock-lane aforesaid to and along the said wall or fence in a direction first southward then south-westward and then again southward for a distance of three chains or thereabouts to its junction with the wall or fence which forms the southern boundary of the said garden and extending thence eastward along the last-described wall or fence for a distance of thirty links or thereabouts to its junction with the wall or fence forming the western boundary of the park or grounds attached to the Manor House and extending thence first southward then south-westward and then south-eastward along the last-described wall or fence for a distance of twenty-two and a-half chains or thereabouts to its junction with the north-western boundary of the Ealing Public Recreation Ground and extending thence generally south-westward along the said north-western boundary of the said recreation ground for a distance of thirty-two and a half chains or thereabouts (thereby passing along the south-eastern sides of the closes numbered respectively 419, 418, 417 and 416 upon the map of the Ordnance Survey of the parish of Ealing on the $\frac{1}{2500}$ scale, published in the year one thousand eight hundred and eighty-one, and upon the map hereunto annexed), to the point where the said north-western boundary of the recreation ground joins the south-western boundary of the same ground and extending thence southward along the last-mentioned boundary for a distance of four chains or thereabouts (thereby passing along the eastern side of the close numbered 412 upon the said maps) to the point where the said last-mentioned boundary joins the fence dividing the close numbered 412 as aforesaid from the close numbered 477 upon the said maps and extending thence westward along the last-described fence for a distance of five chains or thereabouts to a boundary-stone inscribed ‘E. D. St. J. N. P. 1844. No. 2’ and placed at the western end of the same fence on the eastern side of Northfield-lane and extending thence first westward to and then southward along the middle of the last-named lane for a distance of twelve and a half chains or thereabouts to the centre of the bridge which carries the same lane over the line of the Hounslow and Metropolitan District Railway and extending thence south-westward along the middle of the said line of railway for a distance of twenty-seven and a half chains or thereabouts to the boundary which divides the said parish of Ealing from the parish of Hanwell in the county and diocese aforesaid; all which said hereinbefore described portion of the parish
