It is The Queen's pleasure that Presentations to His Royal Highness at the Levees shall be considered as equivalent to Presentations to Her Majesty.

REGULATIONS

TO BE OBSERVED AT THE QUEEN'S LEVEES TO BE HELD BY HIS ROYAL HIGHNESS THE PRINCE OF WALES, ON BEHALF OF HER MAJESTY, AT ST. JAMES'S PALACE.

By Her Majesty's Command,

The Noblemen and Gentlemen who propose to attend Her Majesty's Levees, at St. James's Palace, are requested to bring with them two large cards, with their names clearly written thereon, one to be left with The Queen's Page in attendance in the Corridor, and the other to be delivered to the Lord Chamberlain, who will announce the name to His Royal Highness.

PRESENTATIONS.

Any Nobleman or Gentleman who proposes to be presented, must leave at the Lord Chamberlain's Office, St. James's Palace, before twelve o'clock, two clear days before the Levee, a card with his name written thereon, and with the name of the Nobleman or Gentleman by whom he is to be presented. In order to carry out the existing regulations that no presentation can be made at a Levee excepting by a person actually attending that Levee, it is also necessary that an intimation from the Nobleman or Gentleman who is to make the presentation, of his intention to be present, should accompany the presentation card above referred to, which will be submitted to The Queen for Her Majesty's approbation. It is Her Majesty's command that no presentations shall be made at Levees, except in accordance with the above regulations.

It is particularly requested, that in every case the names be very distinctly written upon the cards to be delivered to the Lord Chamberlain, in order that there may be no difficulty in announcing them to His Royal Highness.

The State Apartments will be open for the reception of Company coming to Court at half-past one o'clock. KENMARE, Lord Chamberlain.

DECLARATION respecting the Protocol of the 1st December, 1883, signed at Madrid on the 21st December, 1884, by Her Majesty's Minister and the Spanish Minister of State.

THE undersigned, Sir Robert Morier, K.C.B., Her Britannic Majesty's Envoy Extraordinary and Minister Plenipotentiary, and Don José de Elduayen, Marquis del Pazo de la Merced, His Catholic Majesty's Minister of State, having met at the Ministry of State, this 21st day of December, 1884, and being duly authorized thereto by their respective Governments, have agreed on the following Declaration:—

ARTICLE I.

The Government of His Catholic Majesty will present to the Cortes, as soon as they meet, a Bill empowering them to grant to Great Britain most-favoured-nation treatment in all that concerns commerce, navigation, and Consular rights and privileges.

The said grant of most-favoured-nation treatment shall, however, not be applicable in the Spanish Antilles.

The Bill shall contain a provision for its coming into operation as soon as Parliament shall have authorized the Government of Her Britannic Majesty to carry into effect the engagements stipulated in Article II.

ARTICLE II.

The Government of Her Britannic Majesty will continue as heretofore to grant to Spain most-favoured-nation treatment in all that concerns commerce, navigation, and Consular rights and privileges.

They will, in addition, apply to Parliament for the necessary authority to extend the lower half of the alcoholic scale from 26 to 30 degrees.

ARTICLE III.

The two Governments will submit to the sanction of their Legislatures, at the earliest date which their parliamentary usages allow, the Bills required for carrying into effect the engagements taken in the foregoing Articles.

ARTICLE IV.

The two Governments will endeavour, between now and the month of April next, being the earliest date at which the Government of Her Britannic Majesty can bring before Parliament the subject of the alcoholic scale, to come to an arrangement by means of which the Government of His Catholic Majesty would introduce into certain Articles of the Spanish tariff modifications removing the inconveniences from which British trade is suffering, and, on their part, Her Britannic Majesty's Government would make further modifications in the alcoholic scale of the British tariff, so as to meet the legitimate requirements of the Spanish trade.

ARTICLE V.

The engagements taken in this Declaration shall continue in force till the conclusion of the Definitive Treaty of Commerce, for the negotiation of which the Plenipotentiaries of the High Contracting Parties will meet at Madrid not later than the 1st April, 1886, unless some other date shall have been mutually agreed upon.

Should the negotiations for the Definitive Treaty not lead to any result, or should some arrangement, other than that recorded in the present Declaration, not be substituted for them, the High Contracting Parties shall, from and after the 30th June, 1887, have power to denounce the arrangement by giving notice a year beforehand.

ARTICLE VI.

The Protocol of the 1st December, 1883, shall remain in force until the engagements taken in the present Declaration shall have been carried into effect.

Done in duplicate at Madrid, this 21st day of December, 1884.
