By Her Majesty's Command,

The Noblemen and Gentlemen who propose to attend Her Majesty's Levees, at St. James's Palace, are requested to bring with them two large cards, with their names clearly written thereon, one to be left with The Queen's Page in attendance in the Corridor, and the other to be delivered to the Lord Chamberlain, who will announce the name to His Royal Highness.

It is Her Majesty's command that no presentations shall be made at Levees, except in accordance with the above regulations.

It is particularly requested, that in every case he names be very distinctly written upon the cards to be delivered to the Lord Chamberlain, in order that there may be no difficulty in announcing them to His Royal Highness.

THE FOOT-AND-MOUTH DISEASE (SLAUGHTER) ORDER OF 1885.

AT the Council Chamber, Whitehall, the 13th day of February, 1885.

By Her Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council.

PRESENT :
Earl of Rosebery.
Mr. Trevelyan.

THE Lords and others of Her Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council, by virtue and in exercise of the powers in them vested under The Contagious Diseases (Animals) Act, 1878, and of every other power enabling them in this behalf, do order, and it is hereby ordered, as follows :

Revocation of Former Order.

1. The Foot-and-Mouth Disease (Slaughter) Order of 1884 is hereby from the date of this Order revoked : Provided that nothing in this Order shall invalidate or make unlawful anything done in pursuance of any Authority granted under the said Order or affect any right, title, obligation, or liability accrued thereunder before the date of this Order, or interfere with the institution or prosecution of any proceeding in respect of any offence committed against, or any penalty incurred under, the said Order hereby revoked.

Slaughter in Foot-and-Mouth Disease.

2. A Local Authority may, if they think fit, (a.) Cause any cattle, sheep, goats, or swine affected with foot-and-mouth disease to be slaughtered; or (b.) Cause any cattle, sheep, goats, or swine being or having been in the same shed or herd or flock or pig-sty, or in contact, with any animal affected with foot-and-mouth disease to be slaughtered.

(c.) Provided that if the owner of an animal gives notice in writing to the Local Authority, or their Inspector or other officer, that he objects to the animal being slaughtered, it shall not be lawful for the Local Authority to slaughter that animal except with the special authority of the Privy Council first obtained.

Compensation.

3. The Local Authority shall, out of the local rate, pay compensation as follows for cattle, sheep, goats, and swine slaughtered under this Order:

(a.) Where the animal slaughtered was affected with foot-and-mouth disease, the compensation shall be its value immediately before it became so affected:

4. The provisions of Section 30 of the Act of 1878 (General provisions relative to slaughter and compensation) shall apply to the case of an animal slaughtered under this Order.

Movement of Diseased or Suspected Animals for Slaughter.

5. Where the slaughter under this Order of diseased or suspected animals in a Foot-and-Mouth Disease Infected Place in the District of a Local Authority is impracticable or would be highly inconvenient, animals affected with or suspected of foot-and-mouth disease may, notwithstanding anything in The Animals Order of 1884, be moved out of a Foot-and-Mouth Disease Infected Place and Circle and Area on a highway or thoroughfare for the purpose of being slaughtered in manner and under the conditions following, and not otherwise:

(a.) The diseased or suspected animals shall be moved with a Licence of the Local Authority, to a slaughter-house in a float or cattle-van properly constructed so as to prevent contact of the diseased or suspected animals with other animals during the movement.

(b.) The diseased or suspected animals shall be moved to the slaughter-house in charge of an Inspector or other officer of the Local Authority; and the same officer shall enforce and superintend the immediate slaughter there of the animals, and shall forthwith report the fact of the slaughter to the Local Authority.

(c.) The float or cattle-van shall immediately after each occasion of use be cleansed and disinfected, by or under the superintendence of the same officer, in manner provided respecting vans by Article 103 of The Animals Order of 1884.

Nothing in this Article shall authorize the movement of an animal affected with or suspected of foot-and-mouth disease into the District of another Local Authority, without the previous consent in writing of that other Local Authority or a Licence in that behalf of the Privy Council.

Extent.

6. This Order extends to England and Wales and Scotland only.

Interpretation.

7. Terms in this Order have the same meaning as in The Animals Order of 1884.

INSTRUMENT substituting the New Church of Saint Augustine, within the New Parish of Northam, for the Old Church called Christ Church, within the same Parish, in the County of Southampton, and Diocese of Winchester.

To all to whom these presents shall come the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England send greeting:

WHEREAS a new church has lately been built within the new parish of Christ Church, Northam, in the county of Southampton, and in the diocese of Winchester, and has been consecrated and dedicated to Saint Augustine.

And whereas the Right Reverend Edward Harold, Bishop of the said diocese of Winchester, acting as such Bishop, and also as patron in right of his See of the vicarage of the said new parish of Christ Church, Northam, and the Reverend Henry Mitchinson Coverley Price, Incumbent of the same vicarage, have, by an instrument under their hands, bearing date on or about the ninth day of December, in the year one thousand eight hundred and eighty-four, certified to us, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, that it would be for the convenience of the said new parish of Christ Church, Northam, that the said new church of Saint Augustine, situate within such new parish, should be substituted for the old parish church, called Christ Church, of the same new parish.

Now, therefore, we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in exercise and execution of the power or authority in that behalf contained in the Act of the eighth and ninth years of Her present Majesty, chapter seventy, and in the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Her said Majesty, chapter fifty-five, and of all other powers or authorities in anywise enabling us in the same behalf, do, by this instrument under our common seal, with the consents (testified as hereinafter mentioned) of the said Edward Harold, Bishop of the said diocese of Winchester, and of the said Henry Mitchinson Coverley Price, hereby declare that the said new church of Saint Augustine, situate within the said new parish of Christ Church, Northam, and duly consecrated as aforesaid, shall be, and the same is hereby, substituted for the said old parish church (called Christ Church as aforesaid) of the same new parish, and that such new church shall henceforth be the parish church of the said new parish of Christ Church, Northam, in lieu of the said old parish church of the same, as fully in all respects as if the said new church of Saint Augustine, so hereby substituted, had been originally the parish church of the same new parish.

And we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in further pursuance and exercise of the powers and authorities aforesaid, and with such consents as aforesaid (testified as hereinafter mentioned), do hereby transfer all the endowments, emoluments, and rights of or belonging to the said old parish church (called Christ Church as aforesaid) of the said new parish of Christ Church, Northam, or of or belonging to the Vicar or Incumbent thereof to the said new church of Saint Augustine (now being by virtue of these presents, the parish church of the said new parish of Christ Church, Northam), and to the Vicar or Incumbent thereof, and his successors for ever.

In witness whereof to these presents we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, have set our common seal, and the said Edward Harold, Bishop of the said diocese of Winchester, has set his hand and affixed his episcopal seal, and the said Henry Mitchinson Coverley Price has set his hand and seal this twenty-ninth day of January, in the year one thousand eight hundred and eighty-five.
