

General Post Office, February 10, 1885.

THE Postmaster-General, with the concurrence of the Lords Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury, hereby gives notice that the notice in the London Gazette of 26th September, 1879, relating to the employment of Letter Carrier, is hereby cancelled, and the following notice substituted:—

The Postmaster-General, with the concurrence of the Lords Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury, hereby gives notice that the following situation or employment is, to the extent in this notice specified, added to Schedule B of the Order in Council dated 4th June, 1870, viz.:

The situation or employment of Postman, of whatever grade or description—

1. During any period not exceeding six months after the occurrence of a vacancy;

2. During such time as it is allowed to be filled by the substitute of a Postman allowed to be absent from duty—

(a.) On alternate or other periodically recurring Sundays.

(b.) On leave, special duty, or sickness.

Civil Service Commission, February 13, 1885.

THE Civil Service Commissioners hereby give notice, that on the 24th March, 1885, and following days, an Open Competitive Examination for the situation of Assistant Surveyor in the Royal Engineer Department of the War Office will be held in London, Edinburgh, and Dublin, under the Regulations dated 7th April, 1883 (and published in the London Gazette of the 13th of that month),

A Preliminary Examination will be held in London, Edinburgh, and Dublin on the 13th March, 1885.

The number of situations to be filled will be the number vacant at the time of the Examination.

No person will be admitted to Examination from whom the Secretary of the Civil Service Commission, has not received, on or before the 4th March, an application in the Candidate's own handwriting on a prescribed form, which may be obtained from the Secretary at once.

WE, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, acting in pursuance of the Act of the twenty-ninth and thirtieth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and eleven, section five, do hereby grant and convey to the Incumbent of the consolidated chapelry and benefice (hereinafter called the benefice) of Saint Matthew, Ealing Common, in the county of Middlesex, and in the diocese of London, and to his successors, Incumbents of the same benefice, all that piece or parcel of land and hereditaments, together with the appurtenances thereunto belonging, particularly described in the schedule hereunto annexed, and now vested in us under and by virtue of a certain deed of conveyance which bears date the seventh day of February, in the year one thousand eight hundred and eighty-three, and is intended to be deposited in the registry of the said diocese of London, together with this instrument, immediately after the publication of the latter in the London Gazette: To have and to hold the said piece or parcel of land and hereditaments, with their appurtenances, to the use of the said Incumbent and his successors forever: Provided always, that the Incumbent for the time being of the same benefice shall be entitled to receive from us, or on our account, the net amount of the rents, profits, and proceeds of the said piece or parcel of land and hereditaments for and in respect of the period intervening between the seventh day of February, in the year one thousand eight hundred and eighty-three, and the date of the publication of these presents in the London Gazette.

In witness whereof, we have hereunto set our common seal, this fifth day of February, in the year one thousand eight hundred and eighty-five.

Schedule.

All that piece or parcel of land containing one thousand two hundred and seventeen square yards, or thereabouts, situate in the consolidated chapelry of Saint Matthew, Ealing Common, within the original limits of the parish of Saint Mary, Ealing, in the county of Middlesex, being formerly part of a close called Bell Field, numbered 1324, on the tithe commutation map of the aforesaid parish, all which piece or parcel of land is bounded towards the south-west by North Common-road, and on or towards the south-east by the site of the church of the said consolidated chapelry of Saint Matthew, Ealing Common, and is more particularly delineated on the plan hereunto annexed and is thereon coloured green.

WE, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, acting in pursuance of the Act of the twenty-ninth and thirtieth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and eleven, sections five and eleven, do hereby, grant to the Incumbent of the consolidated chapelry and benefice (hereinafter called the benefice) of Saint Matthew, Ealing Common, in the county of Middlesex, and in the diocese of London, and to his successors, Incumbents of the same benefice, one yearly sum or stipend of two hundred pounds, such yearly sum or stipend to be payable out of the common fund under our control, and to be calculated as from the second day of January, in the year one thousand eight hundred and eighty-five, and to be receivable in equal half-yearly portions, on the first day of May and on the first day of November in each and every year: And we do also hereby grant and appropriate out of our said common fund to the said benefice of Saint Matthew, Ealing Common, one capital sum of one thousand and five hundred pounds sterling, to be applicable towards defraying the cost of providing a parsonage or house of residence for the said benefice, according to plans and a specification approved or to be approved by us, such capital sum, or the balance thereof unapplied to such purpose, to remain in the meantime in our hands at interest after the rate of two pounds and ten shillings per centum per annum, and such interest to be paid to the Incumbent for the time being of the said benefice of Saint Matthew, Ealing Common: Provided always, that if at any time lands, tithes, or other hereditaments sufficient, in our opinion, to produce the said yearly sum or stipend of two hundred pounds, or any part thereof, shall be annexed by us to the said benefice, in substitution for such yearly sum or stipend, or for such part thereof, our liability for the payment of such yearly sum or stipend, or of such part thereof, as the case may be, shall thereupon and thereafter cease and determine.

In witness whereof, we have hereunto set our common seal, this fifth day of February, in the year one thousand eight hundred and eighty-five.
