

WHEREAS a new church has lately been built within the parish of Warburton, in the county of Chester, and in the diocese of Chester, and has been consecrated and dedicated to Saint Werburg.

And whereas the Right Reverend William, Bishop of the said diocese of Chester, and Rowland Eyles Egerton-Warburton, of Arley Hall, near Northwich, in the said county of Chester, the patron of the rectory of the said parish of Warburton, and the Reverend Geoffrey Egerton-Warburton, Incumbent of the same rectory, have, by an instrument under their hands, bearing date on or about the twelfth day of February, in the year one thousand eight hundred and eighty-five, certified to us, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, that it would be for the convenience of the said parish of Warburton, that the said new church of Saint Werburg, situate within such parish, should be substituted for the old parish church (the dedication whereof is uncertain) of the same parish.

Now, therefore, we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in exercise and execution of the power or authority in that behalf contained in the Act of the eighth and ninth years of Her present Majesty, chapter seventy, and in the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Her said Majesty, chapter fifty-five, and of all other powers or authorities in anywise enabling us in the same behalf, do, by this instrument under our common seal, with the consents (testified as hereinafter mentioned) of the said William, Bishop of the said diocese of Chester, and of the said Rowland Eyles Egerton-Warburton and Geoffrey Egerton-Warburton, hereby declare that the said new church of Saint Werburg, situate within the said parish of Warburton, and duly consecrated as aforesaid, shall be, and the same is hereby, substituted for the said old parish church of the same parish, and that such new church shall henceforth be the parish church of the said parish of Warburton, in lieu of the said old parish church of the same parish, as fully in all respects as if the said new church of Saint Werburg, so hereby substituted, had been originally the parish church of the same parish.

And we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in further pursuance and exercise of the powers and authorities aforesaid, and with such consents as aforesaid (testified as hereinafter mentioned), do hereby transfer all the endowments, emoluments, and rights of or belonging to the said old parish church of the said parish of Warburton, or of or belonging to the Rector or Incumbent thereof to the said new church of Saint Werburg (now being by virtue of these presents, the parish church of the said parish of Warburton), and to the Rector or Incumbent thereof, and his successors for ever.

In witness whereof to these presents we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, have set our common seal, and the said William, Bishop of the said diocese of Chester, has set his hand and affixed his episcopal seal, and the said Rowland Eyles Egerton-Warburton and Geoffrey Egerton-Warburton have respectively set their hands and affixed their seals this twenty-sixth day of February, in the year one thousand eight hundred and eighty-five.
