Published by Authority.

FRIDAY, APRIL 3, 1885.

Lord Chamberlain's Office, St. James's Palace, March 24, 1885.

NOTICE is hereby given, that Her Majesty's Birthday will be kept on Saturday, the 6th of June next.

AT the Court at Windsor, the 26th day of March, 1885.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

THIS day Sir Edward Baldwin Malet, K.C.B., was, by Her Majesty's command, sworn of Her Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council, and took his place at the Board accordingly.

AT the Court at Windsor, the 26th day of March, 1885.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty.

Lord President.

Marquess of Hartington.

Lord Steward.

Earl Granville.

Sir H. Ponsonby.

Sir Edward Malet.

WHEREAS by the fourth section of the Act of the sixth year of the reign of King George the Fourth, chapter eighty-seven, intitled "An Act to regulate the Payment of Salaries and Allowances to British Consuls at Foreign Ports, and the Disbursements at such Ports for certain public purposes," it is, amongst other things, enacted that "it shall and may be lawful for all Consuls-General and Consuls appointed by His Majesty, and resident within the Dominions of any Sovereign, or any foreign State or Power in amity with His Majesty, to accept, take, and receive the several fees particularly mentioned in the Tables to this present Act annexed, for and in respect or on account of the several matters and things and official acts and deeds particularly mentioned in the said Schedules, and that it shall and may be lawful for His Majesty, by any Order or Orders to be by him made, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, from time to time, as occasion may require, to increase or diminish or wholly to abolish all or any of the fees aforesaid, and to establish and authorize the payment of any greater or smaller or new or additional fees or fee for or in respect of the several matters and things mentioned in the said Schedules, or any of them, or for or in respect of any other matters or things, or matter or thing, to be by any such Consul-General or Consul done or performed in the execution of such his office ;"

And whereas under the Foreign Jurisdiction Acts Her Majesty in Council has power to make, alter, and amend Orders in Council as in those Acts mentioned ;

And whereas by the Act of the twelfth and thirteenth of Her Majesty, chapter sixty-eight, entitled "An Act for facilitating the Marriage of British Subjects resident in foreign Countries," certain fees are prescribed to be taken by Consuls in respect of marriages ;

And whereas by two Orders in Council, dated respectively the 1st May, 1855, and the 27th July, 1863, and made under the authority of the first-mentioned Act, Tables of Consular Fees were established ;

And whereas it is expedient to establish new Tables of Consular Fees :

And whereas the Tables hereto annexed have been approved by the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury :

Now therefore, in pursuance of the before-mentioned Acts, it is hereby ordered by Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, as follows :—

1. This Order may be cited for all purposes as the Consular Fees Order in Council, 1885.

2. This Order shall come into operation in respect of each Consular jurisdiction on the first July, one thousand eight hundred and eighty-five, or at such later as in the case of any particular Consular jurisdiction, or part thereof, one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State by any general or particular instructions may from time to time direct.

3. The above-mentioned Orders in Council of 1855 and 1863 are hereby repealed as to all places to which this Order applies, but this repeal shall not revive any Table, provision, or Order in Council abolished or repealed by the said Orders, or affect any right or liability existing at the commencement of this Order in any place.

4. Such provisions of any Order in Council made under the Foreign Jurisdiction Acts as are inconsistent with anything in this Order, or in the Tables hereto annexed, shall be construed and have effect as if the provisions of this Order and of the said Tables were substituted for such first-mentioned provisions, and the fees herein prescribed may or shall be taken and shall be accounted for and applied accordingly.

5. This Order shall not extend to any place to which any Order in Council for the time being in force relating to Consular fees in China, Japan, or Corea extends.

6. The several fees set forth in the Tables annexed to this Order are hereby established, and the said Tables and the notes thereto shall be construed as part of this Order.

7. Fees authorized to be taken under or in accordance with this Order shall be taken, paid over, accounted for, and applied in such manner as one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, with the concurrence of the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury, from time to time directs, and shall not, except as may be permitted by any such direction, be retained or applied by a Consul for his own use.

8. In this Order the term "Consul" includes every person for the time being holding Her Majesty's Commission as a Consul-General, Consul, or Vice-Consul, or any Vice-Consul or Consular Agent duly appointed as such, and any person authorized to act in the absence of any such Consul-General, Consul, Vice-Consul, or Consular Agent; and the term "Consular jurisdiction" means and includes the district, place, or places for which a Consul (as herein defined), acts.

And the Right Honourable the Earl Granville, one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, is to give the necessary directions herein accordingly. C. L. Peel.

AT the Court at Windsor, the 26th day of March, 1885.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty.

Lord President.

Marquess of Hartington.

Lord Steward.

Earl Granville.

Sir H. Ponsonby.

Sir Edward Malet.

WHEREAS, by the fourth section of the Act of the sixth year of the reign of King George the Fourth, chapter eighty-seven, intituled "An Act to regulate the Payment of Salaries and Allowances to British Consuls at Foreign Ports, and the Disbursements at such Ports for certain public purposes," it is amongst other things enacted "That it shall and may be lawful for all Consuls-General and Consuls appointed by His Majesty, and resident within the dominions of any Sovereign or any foreign State or Power in amity with His Majesty, to accept, take, and receive the several fees particularly mentioned in the Tables to this present Act annexed, for and in respect or on account of the several matters and things and official acts and deeds particularly mentioned in the said schedules : and that it shall and may be lawful for His Majesty, by any Order or Orders to be by him made, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, from time to time as occasion may require, to increase or diminish or wholly to abolish all or any of the fees aforesaid, and to establish and authorize the payment of any greater or smaller or new or additional fees or fee for or in respect of the several matters and things mentioned in the said schedules, or any of them, or for or in respect of any other matters or things or matter or thing, to be by any such Consul-General or Consul done or performed in the execution of such his office ;”

And whereas under the Foreign Jurisdiction Acts, Her Majesty in Council has power to make, alter, and amend Orders in Council as in those Acts mentioned ;

And whereas by the Act of the 12th and 13th of Her Majesty, chapter 68, entitled “An Act for facilitating the Marriage of British Subjects resident in foreign Countries,” certain fees are prescribed to be taken by Consuls in respect of marriages ;

And whereas, by several Orders in Council, dated the 19th June, 1868, the 21st July, 1876, and the 14th February, 1883, provision was made with respect to Consular fees in China and Japan ;

And whereas it is expedient to establish new Tables of Consular fees in China, Japan, and Corea ;

And whereas the Tables hereto annexed have been approved by the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury ;

Now, therefore, in pursuance of the before-mentioned Acts, it is hereby ordered by Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, as follows :—

1. This Order may be cited for all purposes as “The China, Japan, and Corea (Consular Fees) Order in Council, 1885.”

2. This Order shall come into operation in respect of each Consular jurisdiction on the 1st July, 1885, or at such later date as in the case of any particular Consular jurisdiction, or part thereof, one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State by any general or particular instructions may from time to time direct.

3. This Order shall apply in all places to which the Orders in Council for the time being in force under the Foreign Jurisdiction Acts, and relating to China, Japan, and Corea, for the time being apply.

4. Such provisions of the said Orders in Council as relate to Consular fees to be taken in China, Japan, or Corea are hereby repealed as to all places to which this Order applies, but this repeal shall not revive any table, provision, or Order in Council abolished or repealed by the said Orders, or affect any right or liability existing at the commencement of this Order in any place.

5. Such provisions of any Order in Council made under the Foreign Jurisdiction Acts, and relating or applicable to China, Japan, or Corea, as are inconsistent with anything in this Order, or in the tables hereto annexed, shall be construed and have effect as if the provisions of this Order and of the said tables were substituted for such first-mentioned provisions, and the fees herein prescribed may or shall be taken, and shall be accounted for and applied accordingly.

6. The several fees set forth in the tables annexed to this Order are hereby established, and the said tables and the notes thereto shall be construed as part of this Order.

7. Fees authorized to be taken under or in accordance with this Order shall be taken, paid over, accounted for, and applied in such manner as one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, with the concurrence of the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury, from time to time directs, and shall not, except as may be permitted by any such directions, be retained or applied by a Consul for his own use.

8. In this Order the term “Consul” includes every person for the time being holding Her Majesty's Commission as a Consul-General, Consul, or Vice-Consul, or any Vice-Consul or Consular Agent duly appointed as such, and any person authorized to act in the absence of any such Consul-General, Consul, Vice-Consul, or Consular Agent ; and the term “Consular jurisdiction” means and includes the district, place, or places for which a Consul, as herein defined, acts.

And the Right Honourable the Earl Granville, one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, is to give the necessary directions herein accordingly. C. L. Peel.

AT the Court at Windsor, the 26th day of March, 1885.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Right Honourable Sir William Vernon Harcourt, one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, after giving to the Incumbents and the Churchwardens of the parishes hereinafter mentioned ten days' previous notice of his intention to make such representation, has, under the provisions of an Act passed in the session of Parliament held in the sixteenth and seventeenth years of Her Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to amend the laws concerning the burial of the dead in England beyond the limits of the Metropolis, and to amend the Act concerning the burial of the dead in the Metropolis," made a representation stating that, for the protection of the public health, no new burial-ground should be opened in the undermentioned parishes without the previous consent of one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, and that burials should be discontinued therein, with the following modifications, viz.:—

STAPLEFORD.—Forthwith and entirely in the parish church of Stapleford, in the county of Cambridge; and also in the churchyard except as follows:—

(a.) In such vaults and wholly walled graves as are now existing in the churchyard burials may be allowed on condition that every coffin buried therein be separately enclosed by stonework or brickwork properly cemented.

(b.) In such earthen graves now existing in the churchyard as can be opened to the depth of five feet without exposing coffins or disturbing human remains burials may be allowed of so many of the following relations of those interred therein at the date of the Order, viz., widows and widowers as can be buried at or below that depth.

CAVENDISH.—Forthwith and entirely in the parish church of Cavendish, in the county of Suffolk; and also in the churchyard after the thirty-first December, one thousand eight hundred and eighty-five, except as follows:—

(a.) In such vaults as are now existing in the churchyard burials may be allowed on condition that every coffin buried therein be separately enclosed by stonework or brickwork properly cemented.

(b.) In such partly walled graves as are now existing in the churchyard, provided that the earth above them can be opened to the depth of five feet without exposing coffins or disturbing human remains, burials may be allowed of so many of the relations of those interred therein at the date of the Order as can be buried at or below that depth.

(c.) In such earthen graves now existing in the churchyard as can be opened to the depth of five feet without exposing coffins or disturbing human remains burials may be allowed of so many of the relations of those interred therein at the date of the Order as can be buried at or below that depth.

HANWELL.—Forthwith and entirely in the parish church of Hanwell, in the county of Middlesex; and also in the churchyard except as follows:—

(a.) In such vaults and wholly walled graves as are now existing in the churchyard burials may be allowed on condition that every coffin buried therein be separately enclosed by stonework or brickwork properly cemented.

(b.) In such earthen graves now existing in the churchyard as can be opened to the depth of five feet without exposing coffins or disturbing human remains burials may be allowed of so many of the relations of those interred therein at the date of the Order as can be buried at or below that depth.

HAREWOOD.—Forthwith and entirely in the parish church of Harewood, in the county of York; and also in the churchyard except as follows:—

(a.) In such vaults and wholly walled graves as are now existing in the churchyard (the existing family vault of the Earl of Harewood being for the purposes of the Order deemed to be a vault in the churchyard) burials may be allowed on condition that every coffin buried therein be separately enclosed by stonework or brickwork properly cemented.

(b.) In such partly walled graves as are now existing in the churchyard, provided that the earth above them can be opened to the depth of five feet without exposing coffins or disturbing human remains, burials may be allowed for so many of the relations of those interred therein at the date of the Order as can be buried at or below that depth.

(c.) In such earthen graves now existing in the churchyard as can be opened to the depth of five feet without exposing coffins or disturbing human remains burials may be allowed of so many of the relations of those interred therein at the date of the Order as can be buried at or below that depth.

Now, therefore, Her Majesty in Council is pleased hereby to give notice of such representation, and to order that the same be taken into consideration by a Committee of the Lords of Her Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council on the eleventh day of May next.

And Her Majesty is further pleased to direct that this Order be forthwith published in the London Gazette; and that copies thereof be affixed on the doors of the churches or chapels of, or on some conspicuous places within, the parishes affected by such representation, one month before the said eleventh day of May. C. L. Peel.

AT the Court at Windsor, the 26th day of March, 1885.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act passed in the Session of Parliament held in the eighteenth and nineteenth years of Her Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act further to amend the laws concerning the burial of the dead in England," it is, amongst other things, enacted that it shall be lawful for Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, from time to time to postpone the time appointed by any Order in Council for the discontinuance of burials, or otherwise to vary any Order in Council made under any of the Acts recited in the said Act, or under the said Act (whether the time thereby appointed for the discontinuance of burials thereunder, or other operation of such Order, shall or shall not have arrived), as to Her Majesty, with such advice as aforesaid, may seem fit:

And whereas Orders in Council have been made directing the discontinuance of burials in the churchyards hereinafter mentioned from the time specified in such Orders; and whereas it seems fit to Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, that the time for discontinuing burials in the said churchyards be postponed:

Now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice aforesaid, is pleased to order, and it is hereby ordered, that the time for the discontinuance of burials in such churchyards be postponed as follows, viz.:

In the parish churchyard of Over Peover, in the county of Chester, to the thirtieth day of September, one thousand eight hundred and eighty-five.

In the parish churchyard of Towcester, in the county of Northampton, to the thirtieth day of June, one thousand eight hundred and eighty-five.

In the parish churchyard of Northfleet, in the county of Kent, to the thirtieth day of June, one thousand eight hundred and eighty-five.

In the churchyard of Broseley, in the county of Salop, to the thirtieth day of June, one thousand eight hundred and eighty-five.

WE, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, acting in pursuance of the Act of the twenty-ninth and thirtieth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and eleven, section five, do hereby grant and convey to the Incumbent of the vicarage of Saint Breward, in the county of Cornwall, and in the diocese of Truro, and to his successors, Incumbents of the same vicarage, all that annual sum or payment of four pounds seventeen shillings and three pence, heretofore payable by the Incumbent for the time being of the said vicarage of Saint Breward, in respect of certain land tax of like amount redeemed by the Dean and Chapter of Exeter under a certificate of contract bearing date the eighteenth day of January, in the year one thousand eight hundred and five, which said annual sum or payment has lately been receivable by us, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, to have and to hold the said annual sum or payment of four pounds seventeen shillings and three pence, to the use of the said Incumbent and his successors for ever: Provided always, that the Incumbent for the time being of the same vicarage shall be entitled to receive from us, or on our account, the net amount of the said annual sum or payment expressed to be hereby granted for and in respect of the period intervening between the twenty-ninth day of September, in the year one thousand eight hundred and eighty-three, and the date of the publication of these presents in the London Gazette.

In witness whereof, we have hereunto set our common seal, this twenty-sixth day of March, in the year one thousand eight hundred and eighty-five.

(L.S.)

WE, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, acting in pursuance of the Act of the twenty-ninth and thirtieth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and eleven, section five, and of "The Ecclesiastical Commissioners (Fen Chapels) Act, 1875," section two, do hereby, subject as hereinafter mentioned, grant to the Incumbent of the consolidated chapelry and benefice (hereinafter called the benefice) of East Ville with Mid Ville, in the county of Lincoln, and in the diocese of Lincoln, and to his successors, Incumbents of the same benefice, one yearly sum or stipend of eighty pounds, such yearly sum or stipend to be payable out of the common fund under our control, and to be calculated as from the tenth day of March, in the year one thousand eight hundred and eighty-five, and to be receivable in equal half-yearly portions, on the first day of May and on the first day of November in each and every year: Provided always, that if at any time lands, tithes, or other hereditaments sufficient, in our opinion, to produce the said yearly sum or stipend, or any part thereof, shall be annexed by us to the said benefice, in substitution for such yearly sum or stipend, or for such part thereof, our liability for the payment of such yearly sum or stipend, or of such part thereof, as the case may be, shall thereupon and thereafter cease and determine.

In witness whereof, we have hereunto set our common seal, this twenty-sixth day of March, in the year one thousand eight hundred and eighty-five.

(L.S.)

WE, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, acting in pursuance of the Act of the twenty-ninth and thirtieth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and eleven, section five, do hereby, subject as hereinafter mentioned, grant to the Incumbent of the vicarage or benefice of Hints, in the county of Stafford, and in the diocese of Lichfield, and to his successors, Incumbents of the same vicarage or benefice, one yearly sum or stipend of one hundred and twenty pounds, such yearly sum or stipend to be payable out of the common fund under our control, and to be calculated as from the ninth day of August, in the year one thousand eight hundred and eighty-four, and to be receivable in equal half-yearly portions, on the first day of May and on the first day of November in each and every year: Provided always, that the said yearly sum or stipend of one hundred and twenty pounds, herein expressed to be granted to the Incumbent for the time being of the said vicarage or benefice of Hints, shall be, and be taken to be, in lieu of and in full substitution for the several annual sums amounting in the aggregate to one hundred and twenty pounds, heretofore payable by us, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners, subject to certain conditions, to the lately united benefice of Weeford-with-Hints, under the authority of certain Orders of Her Majesty in Council, to wit, an Order of Her Majesty in Council, dated the third day of February, in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-four, and published in the London Gazette on the fifth day of the same month, an Order of Her Majesty in Council, dated the seventh day of August, in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-five, and published in the London Gazette on the following day, and an Order of Her Majesty in Council, dated the ninth day of August, in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-six, and published in the London Gazette on the following day: And provided also, that if at any time lands, tithes, or other hereditaments sufficient, in our opinion, to produce the said yearly sum or stipend of one hundred and twenty pounds, herein granted to the said vicarage or benefice of Hints, or any part thereof, shall be annexed by us to the said vicarage or benefice of Hints, in substitution for such lastly-mentioned yearly sum or stipend, or for such part thereof, our liability for the payment of the same yearly sum or stipend, or of such part thereof, as the case may be, shall thereupon and thereafter cease and determine.

In witness whereof, we have hereunto set our common seal, this twenty-sixth day of March, in the year one thousand eight hundred and eighty-five.

(L.S.)

WE, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, acting in pursuance of the Act of the twenty-ninth and thirtieth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and eleven, section five, do hereby, subject as hereinafter mentioned, grant to the Incumbent of the consolidated chapelry and benefice (hereinafter called the benefice) of Saint Thomas, Bury, within the original limits of the parish of Bury, in the county of Lancaster, and in the diocese of Manchester, and to his successors, Incumbents of the same benefice, one yearly sum or stipend of eighty-two pounds, such yearly sum or stipend to be payable out of the common fund under our control, and to be calculated as from the first day of May, in the year one thousand eight hundred and eighty-four, and to be receivable in equal half-yearly portions, on the first day of May and on the first day of November in each and every year: Provided always, that upon and from the date of the avoidance of the rectory of the said parish of Bury by the Reverend Edward James Geoffrey Hornby, the present Incumbent of the same rectory, our liability for the payment of such yearly sum or stipend, or of any part thereof, shall thereupon and thereafter cease and determine.

In witness whereof, we have hereunto set our common seal, this twenty-sixth day of March, in the year one thousand eight hundred and eighty-five.

WE, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, acting in pursuance of the Act of the twenty-ninth and thirtieth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and eleven, section five, do hereby, subject as hereinafter mentioned, grant to the Incumbent of the rectory of Holcombe, within the original limits of the parish of Bury, in the county of Lancaster, and in the diocese of Manchester, and to his successors, Incumbents of the same rectory, one yearly sum or stipend of one hundred and thirty-eight pounds, such yearly sum or stipend to be payable out of the common fund under our control, and to be calculated as from the first day of May, in the year one thousand eight hundred and eighty-four, and to be receivable in equal half-yearly portions, on the first day of May and on the first day of November in each and every year: Provided always, that upon and from the date of the avoidance of the rectory of the said parish of Bury by the Reverend Edward James Geoffrey Hornby, the present Incumbent of the lastly-mentioned rectory, our liability for the payment of such yearly sum or stipend, or of any part thereof, shall thereupon and thereafter cease and determine.

In witness whereof, we have hereunto set our common seal, this twenty-sixth day of March, in the year one thousand eight hundred and eighty-five.

(L.S.)

WE, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, acting in pursuance of the Act of the twenty-ninth and thirtieth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and eleven, sections five and eleven, do hereby, subject as hereinafter mentioned, grant and appropriate out of our common fund to the vicarage of Patcham, in the county of Sussex, and in the diocese of Chichester, one capital sum of two hundred and fifty pounds sterling, to be applicable towards defraying the cost of providing stables in connection with the parsonage or house of residence belonging to the said vicarage, according to plans and a specification approved or to be approved by us, such capital sum, or the balance thereof unapplied to such purpose, to remain in the meantime in our hands at interest after the rate of two pounds and ten shillings per centum per annum, and such interest to be paid to the Incumbent for the time being of the said vicarage of Patcham: Provided always, that the said capital sum of two hundred and fifty pounds sterling, expressed to be hereby granted and appropriated to the said vicarage of Patcham, shall be and be taken to be in lieu of and in substitution for a portion amounting to eight pounds six shillings and eight pence of the yearly sum or stipend of nine pounds thirteen shillings and four pence, heretofore payable by us, the said Commissioners, to the Incumbent for the time being of the said vicarage of Patcham, under the authority of an instrument sealed by us, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, on the sixteenth day of July, in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-eight, and published in the London Gazette on the twenty-fourth day of the same month and year.

In witness whereof, we have hereunto set our common seal, this twenty-sixth day of March, in the year one thousand eight hundred and eighty-five.

(L.S.)

WE, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in consideration of a benefaction, consisting of a certain house and premises which have been permanently secured to the vicarage of Earls Barton, in the county of Northampton, and in the diocese of Peterborough, as a new parsonage house for the same vicarage, do hereby, in pursuance of the Act of the twenty-ninth and thirtieth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and eleven, section five, grant to the Incumbent of the said vicarage of Earls Barton, and to his successors, to meet such benefaction, one yearly sum or stipend of fifty pounds, such yearly sum or stipend to be payable out of the common fund under our control, and to be calculated as from the day of the publication of these presents in the London Gazette, and to be receivable in equal half-yearly portions on the first day of May and on the first day of November in each and every year: Provided always, that if at any time lands, tithes, or other hereditaments sufficient, in our opinion, to produce the said yearly sum or stipend, or any part thereof, shall be annexed by us to the said vicarage in substitution for such yearly sum or stipend, or for such part thereof, our liability for the payment of such yearly sum or stipend, or of such part thereof, as the case may be, shall thereupon and thereafter cease and determine.

In witness whereof, we have hereunto set our common seal, this twenty-sixth day of March, in the year one thousand eight hundred and eighty-five.

(L.S.)

WE, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, acting in pursuance of the Act of the twenty-ninth and thirtieth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and eleven, sections five and eleven, do hereby grant and appropriate out of our common fund to the vicarage of Llandebie, in the county of Carmarthen, and in the diocese of Saint David's, one capital sum of one thousand four hundred and eighty pounds sterling, to be applicable towards defraying the cost of providing a new parsonage or house of residence for the said vicarage, according to plans and a specification approved or to be approved by us, such capital sum, or the balance thereof unapplied to such purpose, to remain in the meantime in our hands at interest after the rate of two pounds and ten shillings per centum per annum, and such interest to be paid to the Incumbent for the time being of the said vicarage of Llandebie.

In witness whereof, we have hereunto set our common seal, this twenty-sixth day of March, in the year one thousand eight hundred and eighty-five.

(L.S.)

WE, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, acting in pursuance of the Act of the twenty-ninth and thirtieth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and eleven, section five, do hereby grant and convey to the Incumbent of the vicarage of Saint Peter, Stockton-upon-Tees, in the county of Durham, and in the diocese of Durham, and to his successors, Incumbents of the same vicarage, all that piece or parcel of land and hereditaments, together with the appurtenances thereunto belonging, particularly described in the schedule hereunto annexed, and now vested in us under and by virtue of a deed of conveyance, dated the eleventh day of February, in the year one thousand eight hundred and eighty-five, and made between Matthew Varo Pearson, of Stockton-upon-Tees aforesaid, Plumber, of the first part, Eugene Edward Clephan, of Stockton-upon-Tees aforesaid, Architect, of the second part, and us, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners, of the third part, which said deed of conveyance is intended to be deposited in the Registry of the said diocese of Durham, together with this instrument, after the publication of the latter in the London Gazette: To have and to hold the said piece or parcel of land and hereditaments, together with the appurtenances thereunto belonging, to the use of the said Incumbent and his successors for ever: Provided always, that the Incumbent for the time being of the same vicarage shall be entitled to receive from us, or on our account, the net amount of the rents, profits, and proceeds of the said piece or parcel of land and hereditaments for and in respect of the period intervening between the said eleventh day of February, in the year one thousand eight hundred and eighty-five, and the date of the publication of these presents in the London Gazette.

In witness whereof, we have hereunto set our common seal, this twenty-sixth day of March, in the year one thousand eight hundred and eighty-five.

(L.S.)

Schedule.
