We, the Lords Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury, in exercise of the powers conferred on us by the 14th section of the Post Office (Parcels) Act, 1882, and of all other powers enabling us in this behalf, do by this Warrant, made on the recommendation of the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Customs and of Her Majesty's Postmaster-General (testified by their respectively signing the same), order, direct, and declare as follows:—

1. Every parcel posted in British India and intended to be delivered at any place in the United Kingdom, and every parcel posted in the United Kingdom and intended to be delivered in British India, shall be accompanied by, or have affixed to it, a declaration of such kind, and stating the contents of the parcel in such manner and form, and with such other particulars as the Commissioners of Customs and the Postmaster-General may prescribe.

2. Every parcel shall either at the port of departure from or arrival in the United Kingdom as the case may be or at such other place as the Commissioners of Customs and the Postmaster-General shall direct, be produced by an officer appointed in that behalf by the Postmaster-General to the proper officer of Customs, and if the officer of Customs require it shall thereupon be opened by the officer of the Post Office who is hereby empowered and authorized to open the same for Customs examination; and in any case where the contents of a parcel are found not to agree with the declaration which accompanies or is affixed to it, such parcel and all its contents shall be deemed to be goods dealt with contrary to the Customs Acts, and shall be sent to the Queen's Warehouse at the Custom House, London, or to such other place as the Commissioners of Customs may appoint for that purpose.

And whereas it is expedient to empower the said Guardians to appoint a competent person or persons to examine the stores at the Workhouse belonging to the said Union, and to perform the other duties hereinafter set forth;

Provided nevertheless, that the Guardians may, if they think fit, with Our assent appoint a person or persons to discharge the duties hereby prescribed for the Stocktaker, for a limited period only.

ARTICLE V.—The Stocktaker shall, on the day next after the termination of each quarter, and at any other time when required by the Guardians to do so, examine the stores at the Workhouse and compare the same with the quantities of stock remaining in store as shown by the entries in the proper columns in the accounts termed respectively the "Quarterly Balance of the Provisions Account" and the "Quarterly Balance of the Necessaries and Miscellaneous Account."

SCHEME made by the Local Government Board under the Municipal Corporations Act, 1883 :—

Town and Port of Seaford.

Local Government District of Seaford.

To the Bailiff, Jurats, and Freemen of the Town and Port of Seaford, in the County of Sussex ;—

To the Seaford Local Board, being the Sanitary Authority for the Urban Sanitary District of Seaford, in the said County ;—

“(b.) All property of any corporation in the place which is dissolved by this Act, or of any person as member or officer thereof, or of any court or judge whose jurisdiction is abolished by this Act, shall be applied for the public benefit of the inhabitants of the place in such manner as may be for the time being provided by a Scheme of the Charity Commissioners, or, in a case where a Scheme is made by the Local Government Board, by that Scheme, and shall vest in such persons or body corporate as may be specified in such Scheme.

And whereas by Section 7 of the said Act, it is enacted as follows :—

“Where any part of any of the places mentioned in any of the Schedules to this Act is comprised in the District of any Local Board or Improvement Commissioners whether established before or after the passing of this Act, and Her Majesty is not pleased to grant a Charter to such place, the Local Government Board, after such local inquiry as they think expedient, may, at any time before any Corporation becomes abolished by this Act, make such Scheme as might be made by the Committee of Council under Part Eleven of the Municipal Corporations Act, 1882.”

And whereas Seaford is a place named in the First Schedule to the Municipal Corporations Act, 1883, and it is not intended to petition Her Majesty for the grant of a Charter of Incorporation for such place ;

And whereas the said Bailiff, Jurats, and Freemen of the Town and Port of Seaford, are a body corporate under and by virtue of certain Royal or other Charters, and are in this Order referred to as “the Corporation” ;

the Statutes in that behalf, hereby Order as follows :—

Provided that the Local Board may, with Our consent but not otherwise, from time to time let on lease, sell, or exchange any lands and sell and convert any stocks and any personal property vested in them under this Order, and all premiums on leases and proceeds of sales or conversions shall be invested or applied in such manner for the advantage of the District of the Local Board as We may, by Order, from time to time direct.

Provided also that the investments mentioned in the Schedule to this Order shall immediately after the commencement of this Scheme, be transferred from the names of the persons who now hold the same in trust into the name of the Seaford Local Board.

ARTICLE III. All liabilities which immediately before the commencement of this Scheme attached to and were enforceable against the Corporation or the property thereof, shall attach to and be enforceable against the Local Board so far only as the property vested in it under Article II may extend to satisfy such liabilities, and no further.

ARTICLE IV. Any investigation, legal proceedings, or remedy in respect of any debt, liability, penalty, or forfeiture due to or incurred by or on behalf of the Corporation before the commencement of this Scheme may be continued, prosecuted, or enforced by or against the Local Board so far only as the property vested in it under Article II may extend and no further.

MONTROSE HARBOUR.

(1.) Scurdy Ness Light—Intended Alteration in Character.

THE Commissioners of Northern Lighthouses have given notice, dated 23rd March, 1885, that it is intended to make the following alteration in the character of the light on Scurdy Ness, south side of entrance to Montrose Harbour; and that during the alteration a provisional light of the same character as the present light, but of less power, will be exhibited.

The light, after being altered, will be an intermittent white light, the periods of light being thirty seconds, and the periods of darkness thirty seconds.

The above alteration will be completed about the beginning of the month of May, 1885, and the new light will be exhibited about that time. Further notice, however, of the exact date of exhibition will be previously given.

SCOTLAND—NORTH-EAST COAST.

(2.) Wick—Harbour Lights and Signals.

The Wick and Pulteney Harbours Trustees have given notice, dated 10th March, 1885, that in future the following lights and signals will be exhibited at Pulteney Harbour and in Wick Bay:—

A fixed red light, elevated 37 feet above high water, is shown from a lighthouse at the extremity of the north pier, being the leading light to the harbour entrance.

A fixed green light, elevated 41 feet above high water, is shown from a lighthouse westward of the outer harbour. This light, kept open northward of the above red leading light, leads clear of the wreck of the ruined breakwater on the south shore of Wick Bay.

Two fixed white lights, elevated 20 and 28 feet respectively, are shown at the outer end of the new works during the extension of the south pier.

When it is dangerous to enter Wick Bay at night, a fixed green light is exhibited from the pilot's look-out house on south head, and the two fixed lights on the new works are not exhibited. At such times, during the day, three black balls are shown from the flagstaff on the tower of the look-out house.

A black ball, hoisted on the south quay flagstaff, indicates that the harbour entrance is casually blocked or closed.
