THE following Address of the General Assembly of the Church of Scotland, having been transmitted by John Campbell, Earl of Aberdeen, to the Right Honourable Sir William Vernon Harcourt, one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, has been by him presented to the Queen, which Address Her Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously:—

May it please Your Majesty,

We heartily unite in Your Majesty's prayer, that the blessing of Almighty God may rest on our labours, and that by His grace our deliberations, conducted in a spirit of wisdom and prudence, may promote the cause of the Protestant Religion, and forward the improvement of the moral and spiritual condition of Your Majesty's faithful subjects in Scotland.

Having already experienced many proofs of the ability, courtesy, and dignity, wherewith the Right Honourable John Campbell, Earl of Aberdeen, discharges the duties of Your Majesty's Commissioner, we are much gratified that he has been again called to represent Your Most Gracious Majesty in this Assembly.

We have received with feelings of lively gratitude Your Majesty's munificent gift of two thousand pounds, to be employed in the promotion of religion in the Highlands and Islands of Scotland. We shall make every effort to apply this sum in such a manner as may best promote the useful objects which Your Majesty has so warmly at heart.

That the God and Father of our Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ may long spare Your Majesty to rule over us, and that Your Majesty, Your children, and Your children's children may enjoy all the blessings of this life, and everlasting happiness in the life to come, is the earnest prayer of,

May it please Your Majesty, Your Majesty's most faithful and loving subjects, the Ministers and Elders of the Church of Scotland met in this General Assembly. Signed in our name, in our presence, and at our appointment by

Experimental Fog-Signal on Fair Isle.

WITH reference to Notice to Mariners, No. 29, of 21st February, 1885, on the intended establishment, on trial, for a period of about six months, of a rocket fog-signal on Fair Isle:—

The Commissioners of Northern Lighthouses have given further notice, dated 13th May, 1885, that the following signal has been established, and is in operation:—

A rocket will be fired every ten minutes, during fog or thick snow showers. These rockets will explode with a loud report at the height of about 800 feet above the sea.

Two sizes of rockets are intended to be used,—the smaller, with 4-oz. charges, will be used during fogs when the weather is calm; the larger, with 12-oz. charges, when the weather is thick and stormy, or during heavy snow showers.

NOTE.—The establishment of this fog-signal for the above-mentioned period is experimental merely, and mariners are cautioned that they must not depend upon the certainty of hearing the warning signal when used, as the rockets are to be fired from the centre of the isle, which is about three miles long in a north and south direction, with a greatest breadth of  $1\frac{1}{2}$  miles.
