At the Court at Windsor, the 9th day of July, 1885.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the eighth and ninth years of Her Majesty, chapter seventy; of the Act of the fourteenth and fifteenth years of Her Majesty, chapter ninety-seven; of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Her Majesty, chapter fifty-five; and of the Act of the thirty-fourth and thirty-fifth years of Her Majesty, chapter eighty-two; duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a representation, bearing date the eleventh day of June, in the year one thousand eight hundred and eighty-five, in the words and figures following; that is to say:—

“We the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England in pursuance of the Act of the eighth and ninth years of Your Majesty chapter seventy of the Act of the fourteenth and fifteenth years of Your Majesty chapter ninety-seven of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Your Majesty chapter fifty-five and of the Act of the thirty-fourth and thirty-fifth years of Your Majesty chapter eighty-two have prepared and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council the following representation as to the assignment of a consolidated chapelry to the consecrated church of Saint Andrew situate within the limits of the parish of Kingsbury in the county of Middlesex and in the Diocese of London.

“Whereas at certain extremities of the said parish of Kingsbury and of the parish of Willesden in the county and diocese aforesaid which said extremities lie contiguous one to another and are described in the schedule hereunder written there is collected together a population which is situated at a distance from the several churches of such respective parishes.

“And whereas it appears to us to be expedient that such contiguous portions of the said parish of Kingsbury and of the said parish of Willesden should be formed into a consolidated chapelry for all ecclesiastical purposes and that the same should be assigned to the said church of Saint Andrew situate within the limits of the parish of Kingsbury as aforesaid.

“Now therefore with the consent of the Right Honourable and Right Reverend Frederick Bishop of the said diocese of London (in testimony whereof he the said Bishop has signed and sealed this representation) and with the consent of the Dean and Chapter of the Cathedral Church of Saint Paul in London the patrons both of the vicarage of the said parish of Kingsbury and also of the vicarage of the said parish of Willesden (in testimony whereof they the said Dean and Chapter have affixed their corporate or capitular seal to this representation), we the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England humbly represent that it would in our opinion be expedient that all those contiguous portions of the said parish of Kingsbury and of the said parish of Willesden which are described in the schedule hereunder written all which portions together with the boundaries thereof are delineated and set forth on the map or plan hereunto annexed should be united and formed into one consolidated chapelry for the said church of Saint Andrew situate within the limits of the parish of Kingsbury as aforesaid and that the same should be named ‘The Consolidated Chapelry of Neasden-cum-Kingsbury.’

“We therefore humbly pray that Your Majesty will be graciously pleased to take the premises into Your Royal consideration and to make such Order in respect thereto as to Your Majesty in Your Royal wisdom shall seem meet.

“The SCHEDULE to which the foregoing Representation has reference.

“The Consolidated Chapelry of Neasden-cum-Kingsbury being:—

“I. All that portion of the parish of Kingsbury in the county of Middlesex and in the diocese of London which is bounded on the north by an imaginary line commencing at the point in Woodlane where the boundary which divides the said parish of Kingsbury from the parish of Hendon in the county and diocese aforesaid diverges from such lane in a south-easterly direction the said point being near to the junction of the same lane with the church path leading to the church of Saint Andrew Kingsbury and extending then first north-westward and then westward along the middle of last-named lane for a distance of thirty-three chains or thereabouts to its junction with Churchlane and extending thence northward along the middle of the last-named lane for a distance of two chains or thereabouts to its junction on the northern side of Fryent Farmhouse with the public footpath which leads into the road called or known as Salmon-street and extending thence, that is, from the last-described point of junction westward along the middle of the said footpath for a distance of nineteen chains or thereabouts
