Moreton, 1885, H., No. 1490, John Robert Houghton, late of Derby, in the county of Derby, who went to sea as a Ship's Cook, on board the barque "Cerealia," on a voyage from Cardiff to the Mediterranean and Black Sea, and who has not been heard of since the 19th day of October, 1870, when he received his discharge from the said barque at Great Yarmouth, in the county of Norfolk, when on her return voyage, or the persons claiming to be next of kin according to the statutes for the distribution of intestates' estates of the said John Robert Houghton, if dead, or to be the legal personal representatives of such of the said next of kin as are now dead, are, by their Solicitors, on or before the 10th day of August, 1885, at twelve o'clock at noon, to come in and prove their claims at the chambers of Mr. Justice Chitty, at the Royal Courts of Justice, Strand, London, or in default thereof they will be peremptorily excluded from the benefit of the said Order. Tuesday, the 11th day of August, 1885, at eleven of the clock in the forenoon, at the said chambers, is appointed for hearing and adjudicating upon the claims.—Dated this 18th day of July, 1885.

PURSUANT to an Order of the Chancery Division of the High Court of Justice, made in the matter of the estate of James Bury, deceased, and in an action James Bury and others against Robert Smith and others, 1885, B., No. 528, the creditors of James Bury, late of Riversdale, Matlock Bath, in the parish of Matlock, in the county of Derby, Gentleman, who died on or about the 8th day of July, 1878, are, on or before the 1st day of September, 1885, to send by post, prepaid, to Edwin Gaunt, of Queen's-chambers, John Dalton-street, Manchester, in the county of Lancaster, the Solicitor of the defendant, Robert Smith, one of the executors of the deceased, their Christian names and surnames, addresses and descriptions, the full particulars of their claims, a statement of their accounts, and the nature of the securities (if any) held by them, or in default thereof they will be peremptorily excluded from the benefit of the said Order. Every creditor holding any security is to produce the same before Mr. Justice Chitty, at his chambers, the Royal Courts of Justice, London, on Tuesday, the 27th October, 1885, at eleven o'clock in the forenoon, being the time appointed for adjudicating on the claims.—Dated this 14th day of July, 1885.

PURSUANT to a Direction by the Honourable Mr. Justice Kay, made in the matter of the estate of Robert Fawcett, deceased, Whitteron v. Richardson, 1885, F., No. 321, John Newham Fawcett, who in the month of November, 1873, was lodging at the Royal Oak Hotel, in Knaresborough, in the county of York, Farmer, and who is an annuitant under the will of the said Robert Fawcett, late of Kirkhammerton, in the said county of York, Gentleman, deceased, is, by his Solicitor or otherwise, to come in and prove his claim to such annuity and the arrears due thereon at the chambers of the said Honourable Mr. Justice Kay, at the Royal Courts of Justice, London, Middlesex, on or before Wednesday, the 4th day of November, 1885, or in default thereof the said John Newham Fawcett will be taken to be dead, and the sum of money set apart to meet such annuity, together with the arrears thereof, will be dealt with as the said Judge shall direct. Wednesday, the 11th day of November, 1885, at twelve of the clock at noon, at the said chambers, is appointed for hearing and adjudicating upon the claim.—Dated this 14th day of July, 1885.

PURSUANT to a Judgment of the Chancery Division of the High Court of Justice, dated the 22nd day of November, 1884, made in the matter of the estate of Ann Ball, deceased, and in an action Kemp against the Governors of Christ's Hospital, the persons or either of them claiming to be next of kin according to the statutes for the distribution of intestates' estates of Ann Ball, late of 16, St. Paul's-place, Ball's-pond, Islington, in the county of Middlesex, who died on the 7th day of May, 1884, living at the time of her death or to be the legal personal representatives of such of the said next of kin as are now dead, are, by their Solicitors, on or before the 24th day of October, 1885, to come in and prove their claims at the Chambers of Mr. Justice Chitty, at the Royal Courts of Justice, or in default thereof they will be peremptorily excluded from the benefit of the said Judgment. Wednesday, the 4th day of November, 1885, at two of the clock in the afternoon, at the said Chambers, is appointed for hearing and adjudicating upon the claims.

N.B.—The said Ann Ball was a daughter of Thomas Ball, of Canonbury, in the county of Middlesex, Builder, and Eleanor Ball (formerly Merritt), his wife. The said Thomas Ball was a son of John Ball, formerly of Spilby and Boston, in the county of Lincoln, and Deborah Ball (formerly Cobb) his wife, and who were married in or about the year 1760. Bridget Ball, one of the children of the said John Ball, is supposed to have married one William Longley, and to have had issue Mottram Ball; another of such children married one Elizabeth Pickwood, and had issue Maria Ball; another of such children is believed to have married one Thomas Trevitt, and to have had issue several children, one of whom, John Lascelles Trevitt is believed to have married, and to have had issue.—Dated this 13th day of July, 1885.

JAMES DOWDALL, late of Everton, near Liverpool, by his will devised and bequeathed part of his real and personal estate upon trust for his daughter Mary Howell for life, and after her death for her children as in the will mentioned. The said Mary Howell was the wife of George Henry Howell, formerly of Liverpool. About the year 1850 the said George Henry Howell and Mary Howell went to New York, and afterwards to Barric, near Toronto, where the said Mary Howell died. It is believed that there was one child only of the said marriage, namely, Richard Howell, who was taken by his parents to America, and of whom nothing has been heard since 1857. The said share of the estate of the said James Dowdall is now represented by the sum of £832 11s. 5d. Consols in the books of the Court of Chancery of the County Palatine of Lancaster. By an Order of the said Court, dated the 5th day of May, 1885, it was ordered that the following enquiry be made by the Registrar, that is to say:—"An enquiry who are the persons legally and beneficially entitled, and in what shares and proportions to the said sum of £832 11s. 5d. Bank £3 per cent. Annuities and any dividends to accrue due on the said Bank Annuities." All persons claiming to be entitled to or interested in the said sum of £832 11s. 5d. Bank £3 per cent. Annuities are, by their Solicitors, on or before the 2nd day of November, 1885, to come in and prove their claims at the chambers of the Registrar of the Liverpool District of the said Court, situate at No. 9, Cook-street, in the city of Liverpool, or in default thereof they will be peremptorily excluded from the benefit of the said Order. Monday, the 30th day of November, 1885, at eleven o'clock in the forenoon, at the said chambers, is appointed for hearing and adjudicating upon the claims.—Dated this 13th day of July, 1885.

In the Matter of a Deed of Assignment for the Benefit of Creditors, executed on the 2nd April, 1885, by Henry Thomas Darlington, of Shrewsbury, in the county of Salop, Builder.

NOTICE is hereby given, that a First and Final Dividend is intended to be declared in the above matter. Creditors who do not send written particulars of their claims to the Trustee on or before the 5th day of August next, will be excluded from the Dividend.—Dated the 15th day of July, 1885.

WALTER W. NAUNTON, Market-square, Shrewsbury, Trustee.
