TUESDAY, AUGUST 18, 1885.

Her Majesty's Most Gracious Speech, delivered by the Lords Commissioners, to both Houses of Parliament on Friday, August 14, 1885.

My Lords and Gentlemen,

I AM glad to be able to relieve you from the labours of a Session which has been protracted and eventful.

When you assembled in October last I informed you that an Expedition was advancing up the valley of the Nile for the relief of Khartoum. Three months later, with a deep sorrow, which was shared by all my people, I learnt that the Expedition had arrived too late, and that the heroic General Gordon and his companions had fallen. An endeavour, which was ineffectual, was made to reach Khartoum by constructing a railway from Suakin to Berber. My troops were ultimately withdrawn from the whole of the Eastern Soudan except Suakin, and from the Western Soudan down to Alashkert.

Although the objects of the Expedition have not been attained, I have great reason to be proud of the bravery and endurance which have been displayed by my soldiers and sailors, and of the skill with which they have been commanded.

I received with great pleasure loyal offers of military assistance in this campaign from my Colonies and from the native Princes in India, and a Contingent from the Colony of New South Wales served with distinction in the actions which took place on the coast of the Red Sea.

The death of the Mahdi will probably enable me to perform with less difficulty the duties towards the Ruler and people of Egypt which events have imposed upon me. I shall not relax in my efforts to place the government and good order of that country upon a firm foundation.

My relations with other Powers are of a friendly nature.

Difficulties which at one time were of an anxious character arose between my Government and that of Russia as to the limits of the territory of my ally, the Ameer of Afghanistan. Negotiations still continue, and will, I trust, lead, at an early period, to a satisfactory settlement.

The progress of events in South Africa has compelled me, in the interest of the native races, to take under my protection Bechuanaland and certain adjacent territories.

I am taking the necessary steps to place the north-western frontier of my Indian Empire in a condition of adequate defence, in the absence of which the prosperity and tranquillity of my Indian subjects are liable from time to time to be interrupted and disturbed.

Gentlemen of the House of Commons,

I thank you for the liberality with which, during the past year, you have provided for the Services of the country.

My Lords and Gentlemen,

I have had pleasure in giving my assent to a measure for enabling federal action in certain matters to be taken by the Colonies of Australia; to a much-needed amendment of the Criminal Law; and to a Bill for establishing a new Department for Scottish Affairs. I have also been glad to concur in a measure for increasing the number of occupying freeholders in Ireland.

I notice with sincere gratification that an endeavour has been made by a Bill, to which I have assented, to diminish the evils of overcrowding and of insanitary dwellings, which hinder so seriously the moral and material well-being of the labouring classes.

I regret to say that the depression which has so long prevailed in many important trades and in the agricultural and manufacturing industries of the country still continues. I have directed the issue of a Commission to inquire into the causes of it and to ascertain whether it can be alleviated by any legislative measures.

During the past Session your time has been principally occupied by the enlargement of the Electorate, and the extensive changes which you have, in consequence, made in the constitution of the House of Commons. I earnestly trust that these comprehensive measures may increase the efficiency of Parliament, and may add to the contentment of my people.

It is my purpose before long to seek their counsel by a dissolution of Parliament. I pray that the blessing of God may rest upon their extended liberties, and that the numbers who are called to the exercise of new powers will use them with the sobriety and discernment which for so long a period have marked the history of this nation.

Then a Commission for proroguing the Parliament was read; after which the Lord Chancellor said:

My Lords and Gentlemen,

By virtue of Her Majesty's Commission, under the Great Seal, to us and other Lords directed, and now read, we do, in Her Majesty's name, and in obedience to Her commands, prorogue this Parliament to Saturday, the thirty-first day of October next, to be then here holden; and this Parliament is accordingly prorogued to Saturday, the thirty-first day of October next.

AT the Court at Osborne House, Isle of Wight, the 12th day of August, 1885.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by the 11th section of the Volunteer Act, 1863, it is amongst other things enacted that "Her Majesty in Council may, from time to time, declare what is requisite to entitle a Volunteer to be deemed an Efficient Volunteer by an Order in Council defining for that purpose the extent of attendance at drill to be given by the Volunteers and the course of instruction to be gone through by him, and the degree of proficiency in drill and instruction to be attained by him and his Corps, such proficiency to be judged of by the Inspecting Officer at the Annual Inspection of the Corps, or otherwise as by Order in Council is from time to time directed; and that the draft of any scheme to be from time to time submitted to Her Majesty in Council for approval under the present section shall have been laid before both Houses of Parliament for one lunar month at least, either before or after, or partly before and partly after, the passing of this Act during the present or for the like period during any subsequent session of Parliament before such scheme receives the approval of Her Majesty in Council."

And whereas it is deemed expedient that the Order in Council bearing date the thirty-first day of July, one thousand eight hundred and eighty, declaring what is requisite to entitle a Volunteer to be deemed an Efficient Volunteer be varied so far as it relates to the Forms of Certificates of Efficiency annexed.

And whereas new Forms of Certificates of Efficiency to provide for the Engineer Volunteer Corps (Submarine Miners), and a new Form of Certificate of Efficiency to provide for the 1st Oxfordshire (Oxford University) Rifle Volunteer Corps, 2nd Cambridgeshire (Cambridge University) Rifle Volunteer Corps, and 2nd Bucks (Eton College) Rifle Volunteer Corps, and a new Form of Certificate of Efficiency to provide for the Volunteer Medical Staff Corps, were, on or before the twenty-fifth June, one thousand eight hundred and eighty-five, laid before both Houses of Parliament in the words mentioned and set forth in the schedule to this Order annexed, and, one lunar month having elapsed since that time, the said amendment of the said scheme hath this day been submitted to Her Majesty for Her approval thereof:

Now therefore, Her Majesty having this day taken the said amendment into consideration, doth, in pursuance and exercise of the power in Her Majesty by the said Act of Parliament in that behalf vested, and by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, hereby vary the Order in Council of the thirty-first day of July, one thousand eight hundred and eighty, and doth declare Her Royal approval of the Forms of Certificates of Efficiency referred to.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN’s Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the thirty-third and thirty-fourth years of Her Majesty, and of the Acts therein mentioned, that is to say the Act of the third and fourth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and thirteen, and the Act of the fourth and fifth years of Her Majesty, chapter thirty-nine, and the Act of the thirty-first and thirty-second years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and fourteen, duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a scheme, bearing date the eleventh day of June, in the year one thousand eight hundred and eighty-five, in the words and figures following, that is to say:—

“We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the thirty-third and thirty-fourth years of Your Majesty, chapter thirty-nine, and of the Acts therein mentioned, that is to say, the Act of the third and fourth years of Your Majesty, chapter one hundred and thirteen, and the Act of the fourth and fifth years of Your Majesty, chapter thirty-nine, and the Act of the thirty-first and thirty-second years of Your Majesty, chapter one hundred and fourteen, have prepared and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council the following scheme for effecting a transfer of the ownership of the advowson or perpetual right of patronage of and presentation to the benefice of Wreham with Wretton in the county of Norfolk and in the diocese of Norwich ; which is a benefice consisting of the church and cure of the parish of Wereham (otherwise Wyrham) and the church and cure of the parish of Wretton (otherwise Wrotton) the same being united together into one benefice.

"Whereas the advowson or perpetual right of patronage of and presentation to the said benefice of Wereham with Wretton is vested in Henry Pemberton Leach, of Number 10 Lancaster-place, in the city of Westminster, Solicitor, for an estate of inheritance in fee simple, free from incumbrances.

"And whereas the said Henry Pemberton Leach is desirous that the whole advowson or perpetual right of patronage of and presentation to the said benefice of Wereham with Wretton now vested in him as aforesaid should be transferred to and be vested in the Bishop for the time being of the said diocese of Norwich.

"And whereas the Honourable and Right Reverend John Thomas now Bishop of the said diocese of Norwich is willing to accept such transfer, and in token of such his willingness and also in token that the same transfer has that consent of the Bishop which by the Acts in the hereinbefore mentioned Act recited or by some or one of them is made necessary he the said John Thomas Bishop of the said diocese of Norwich has executed this scheme as herein-after mentioned.

"And whereas a certain augmentation of the income of the said benefice of Wereham with Wretton has to our satisfaction been made, with a view to and in consideration of the transfer of patronage aforesaid.

"And whereas it appears to us that the transfer of the patronage of the said benefice of Wereham with Wretton which is hereinbefore mentioned and hereinafter recommended and proposed will, under the circumstances aforesaid tend to make better provision for the cure of souls in each of the two parishes in or in respect of which the right of patronage or advowson so recommended and proposed to be transferred as aforesaid arises or exists, that is to say, in the said parish of Wereham and in the said parish of Wretton.

"Now therefore with the consent of the said Henry Pemberton Leach (in testimony whereof he has signed and sealed this scheme) and with the consent of the said John Thomas Bishop of the said diocese of Norwich (in testimony whereof he has signed this scheme and sealed the same with his episcopal seal) we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, humbly recommend and propose that upon and from the day of the date of the publication in the London Gazette of any Order of Your Majesty in Council ratifying this scheme, and without any conveyance or assurance in the law other than such duly gazetted Order, the whole advowson or perpetual right of patronage of and presentation to the said benefice of Wereham with Wretton, now vested in him the said Henry Pemberton Leach as aforesaid shall be transferred from him the said Henry Pemberton Leach and from his heirs and assigns to the said John Thomas, Bishop of the said diocese of Norwich, and his successors Bishops of the same diocese, and shall thereupon and thenceforth become and be absolutely vested in and shall and may from time to time be exercised by the said John Thomas Bishop of the said diocese of Norwich and by his successors Bishops of the same diocese for ever.

"And we further recommend and propose that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any further or other measures relating to the matters aforesaid or any of them in accordance with the provisions of the said Acts or of any of them or of any other Act of Parliament."

And whereas the said scheme has been approved by Her Majesty in Council ; now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Acts ; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said diocese of Norwich.

C. L. Peel.

At the Court at Osborne House, Isle of Wight, the 12th day of August, 1885.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the sixth and seventh years of His late Majesty, King William the Fourth, chapter seventy-seven, and of the Act of the fifth and sixth years of Her present Majesty, chapter twenty-six, duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a scheme, bearing date the twenty-third day of July, in the year one thousand eight hundred and eighty-five, in the words and figures following, that is to say:—

“We the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England in pursuance of the Act of the sixth and seventh years of His late Majesty King William the Fourth chapter seventy-seven and of the Act of the fifth and sixth years of Your Majesty chapter twenty-six have prepared and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council the following scheme for providing the Bishop of the diocese of Lincoln with a more convenient house of residence.

“Whereas the messuage or dwelling-house and premises known as Riseholme Palace with the lands and appurtenances thereto belonging and hereinafter more particularly described situate in the parish of Riseholme in the said county of Lincoln is at present the episcopal residence of the Bishop of the said diocese of Lincoln.

“And whereas it has been represented to us by the Right Reverend Edward now Bishop of the said diocese of Lincoln and it has been made to appear to us that the said house and premises is inconveniently situate and is expensive and otherwise undesirable for use as such episcopal residence.

“And whereas the said Edward Bishop of the diocese of Lincoln has undertaken that if the sale of the said house and premises known as Riseholme Palace as aforesaid hereinafter recommended and proposed should not produce an amount sufficient to secure the means necessary for providing another more convenient and suitable episcopal residence for himself and his successors in the same See he will concur with us in seeking for the authority of an Order of Your Majesty in Council for the raising by way of mortgage of the revenues of the said See of such a further sum of money as will be in our opinion requisite for providing another suitable episcopal residence.

And whereas under the circumstances hereinbefore set forth it appears to us to be expedient and likely to conduce to the permanent benefit of the said See of Lincoln that the sale of the said palace or house and premises at Riseholme with the lands and appurtenances thereto belonging should be effected in the manner hereinafter recommended and proposed.

“Now therefore with the consent of the said Edward Bishop of Lincoln (in testimony of which consent he has signed this scheme and sealed the same with his episcopal seal) we the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England humbly recommend and propose as follows that is to say :

“That the said Bishop be authorized and empowered to sell by private contract or by tender or by public auction as to him the said Bishop with our consent shall seem most expedient (or if it shall so seem expedient in one of the said three ways after the others or any of them shall have been attempted) for such price or prices in all and at such time or times as shall be approved by us and to transfer and convey to any purchaser or purchasers by an assurance or assurances to be made in manner and form approved by us the said Commissioners under our common seal the whole estate right title and interest of him the said Edward Bishop of Lincoln and of his successors of in and to the said house and premises known as the episcopal palace or residence at Riseholme aforesaid with the lands hereditaments and appurtenances thereto belonging as the same are now vested in him and as the same are more particularly described in the schedule to this scheme annexed and that all monies received by or on account of the said Bishop upon or in respect of any sale or sales of the said house and premises known as Riseholme Palace and the lands and hereditaments and appurtenances thereto belonging or of any part thereof shall be by him the said Bishop paid over to us the said Commissioners and shall be held by us and be applied for the purposes and in manner next hereinafter mentioned by the said Bishop but with and subject to our approval and at such times and in such manner as shall appear to us to be expedient that is to say firstly in defraying all costs charges and expenses of and incident to the sale of the said episcopal palace or residence at Riseholme as aforesaid, and secondly in defraying the cost of providing in such manner and at such time as shall be approved by us the said Commissioners another episcopal residence with the appurtenances which shall be within the city of Lincoln.

“And we further recommend and propose that so soon as the last-mentioned new episcopal residence shall have been provided the said Edward, Bishop of Lincoln or other the Bishop of Lincoln for the time being shall at his personal charge and expense insure and keep insured from loss or damage by fire the same residence with its out-buildings and appurtenances such insurance being effected in one of the public offices of assurance in London or Westminster for a sum of not less than ten thousand pounds. And that such Bishop shall within fourteen days after any premium for such insurance shall have become payable deliver to us the receipt for the same and that in case of any loss or damage by fire to the said house any and every sum of money receivable under such insurance shall become and be payable and be paid to and deposited with us in trust to be applied and we recommend and propose that the same together with any interest and accumulations thereof shall be applied by us towards the rebuilding or repairing and reinstating of the said residence or of any part thereof which may have so suffered loss and damage in such manner as shall be determined on by us with the concurrence of the Bishop of Lincoln for the time being.

“And we further recommend and proposed that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any other measures relating to the matters aforesaid or any of them in conformity with the provisions of the said Acts or of either of them or of any other Act or Acts of Parliament.

“The SCHEDULE to which the foregoing Scheme has reference.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the third and fourth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and thirteen, of the Act of the sixth and seventh years of Her Majesty, chapter thirty-seven, of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and four, and of the Act of the twenty-third and twenty-fourth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and twenty-four, duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a scheme, bearing date the sixteenth day of July, in the year one thousand eight hundred and eighty-five, in the words and figures following, that is to say:—

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England in pursuance of the Act of the third and fourth years of Your Majesty chapter one hundred and thirteen of the Act of the sixth and seventh years of Your Majesty chapter thirty-seven of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Your Majesty chapter one hundred and four and of the Act of the twenty-third and twenty-fourth years of Your Majesty chapter one hundred and twenty-four have prepared and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council the following scheme for constituting a separate district for spiritual purposes to be taken out of the new parish of Saint Clement Kensington in the county of Middlesex and in the diocese of London.

"Whereas it has been made to appear to us that it would promote the interests of religion that the particular part of the said new parish of Saint Clement Kensington which is hereinafter mentioned and described should be constituted a separate district in manner hereinafter set forth.

"And whereas there is not at present within the limits of the said proposed district any consecrated church or chapel in use for the purposes of Divine worship.

"And whereas certain portions of the said new parish of Saint Clement Kensington which sometime formed part of the parish of Hammersmith in the county and diocese aforesaid are included within the limits of the said proposed district.

"And whereas certain hereditaments and premises situate within the limits of the said parish of Hammersmith have become vested in us under the provisions of and for the purposes of the hereinbefore mentioned Acts or of some or one of them and we have in respect of such hereditaments and premises agreed to make and pay out of the common fund created by the firstly hereinbefore mentioned Act to the minister of the district hereinafter recommended to be constituted so soon as a minister shall have been appointed and licensed in accordance with the provisions of the secondly hereinbefore mentioned Act and to his successors a grant of two hundred pounds per annum.

"And whereas such grant will be made by an instrument to be executed by us under our common seal in accordance with the provisions of the Act of the twenty-ninth and thirtieth years of Your Majesty chapter one hundred and eleven.

"And whereas certain well disposed persons have contributed and paid to the credit of our account at the Bank of England a sum of three thousand pounds sterling to be applied in and towards the provision of a church for the district hereinafter recommended to be constituted.

"And whereas the said sum of three thousand pounds sterling has been so contributed and paid to us as aforesaid upon the understanding and condition that (such arrangement appearing to us to be expedient) we should recommend and propose to Your Majesty in Council that the whole right of patronage of the said proposed district and of the nomination of the minister thereto or (as the case may be) of the incumbent of the new parish which such district will or may hereafter become should be assigned in the manner hereinafter mentioned.

"Now therefore, with the consent of the Right Honourable and Right Reverend Frederick, Bishop of the said diocese of London (in testimony whereof he has signed and sealed this scheme) we the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners humbly recommend and propose that all that part of the said new parish of Saint Clement Kensington which is described in the schedule hereunder written, all which part, together with the boundaries thereof, is delineated and set forth on the map or plan hereunto annexed, shall upon and from the day of the date of the publication in the London Gazette of any Order of Your Majesty in Council ratifying this scheme become and be constituted a separate district for spiritual purposes and that the same shall be named 'The District of the Holy Trinity, Latimer-road, Notting Hill.'

"And we further recommend and propose that the whole right of patronage of the said district so recommended to be constituted and of the nomination of the minister thereto, or (as the case may be), of the incumbent of the new parish which such district will or may hereafter become, shall, without any assurance in the law other than this scheme and any duly gazetted Order of Your Majesty in Council ratifying the same and upon and from the day of the date of the publication of such Order in the London Gazette as aforesaid, be assigned to and be absolutely vested in and shall and may from time to time be exercised jointly by the Very Reverend Henry Montagu Butler, Doctor in Divinity, now Dean of the Cathedral Church of the Holy and Indivisible Trinity in Gloucester, the Right Honourable Edward Stanhope of No. 23, Eccleston-square in the county of Middlesex a Member of the Commons House of Parliament, Henry Oliver Duncan Davidson of Harrow aforesaid Esq. the Reverend William Law Clerk in Holy Orders of No. 15, Maxilla-gardens, Notting Hill, in the said county of Middlesex and Robert Webber Monro of Oakfield Coombe Wood, Kingston Hill, in the county of Surrey Barrister-at-Law and their heirs and assigns for ever.

"And we further recommend and propose that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any other measures relating to the matters aforesaid or any of them in accordance with the provisions of the said Acts or of any of them or of any other Act of Parliament.

“The SCHEDULE to which the foregoing Scheme has reference.

“The District of the Holy Trinity Latimer-road, Notting Hill, being:—

“All that part of the new parish (sometime consolidated chapelry) of Saint Clement, Kensington, in the county of Middlesex and in the diocese of London, wherein the present incumbent of such new parish now possesses the exclusive cure of souls, which is bounded on the north by an imaginary line commencing at the point in the centre of the bridge which carries the line of the Hammersmith and City Branch of the Metropolitan Railway over Walmer-road where the boundary which divides the new parish of Saint Mark, Notting Hill, in the county and diocese aforesaid from the said new parish of Saint Clement, Kensington, joins the boundary dividing the last-named cure from the district chapelry of Saint Clement Notting Hill in the county and diocese aforesaid, and extending thence first north-westward then westward and then south-westward along the middle of the said Walmer-road for a distance of twenty-four and a half chains or thereabouts to its junction with Latimer-road and continuing thence still south-westward across the last-named road to the north-eastern end of the wall or fence which divides the house and premises known as No. 289 Latimer-road from the house and premises known as 287 Latimer-road, and continuing thence still south-westward along the said wall or fence to its south-western end on the north-eastern side of the line of the West London Junction Railway, and continuing thence still in the same direction and in a straight line to the boundary in the middle of the last-named line of railway which boundary divides the said new parish of Saint Clement Kensington from the district parish of Saint Stephen Hammersmith in the county and diocese aforesaid.

“All which said hereinbefore described part of the new parish of Saint Clement Kensington aforesaid is bounded upon the remaining sides other than upon the north as aforesaid, that is to say upon the west and upon the south-east as follows, upon the west by the said district parish of Saint Stephen Hammersmith, or in other words by the line of the West London Junction Railway aforesaid, and upon the south-east by the said district chapelry of Saint Clement, Notting Hill, or in other words by the line of the Hammersmith and City Branch of the Metropolitan Railway aforesaid.”

And whereas drafts of the said scheme have, in accordance with the provisions of the secondly hereinbefore mentioned Act, been transmitted to the patron and to the incumbent of the vicarage of the said new parish of Saint Clement, Kensington, out of which it is intended that the district recommended in such scheme to be constituted shall be taken, and such patron and incumbent have respectively signified their assent to such scheme:

And whereas the said scheme has been approved by Her Majesty in Council: now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Acts; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said diocese of London.
