FRIDAY, SEPTEMBER 4, 1885.

Whitehall, September 4, 1885.

THE following Addresses and Resolutions of Congratulation on the occasion of the Marriage of Her Royal Highness Princess Beatrice with His Royal Highness Prince Henry of Battenberg, K.G., have been transmitted to the Right Honourable Sir Richard Assheton Cross, Her Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for the Home Department, for presentation to the Queen, and have accordingly been presented by him to Her Majesty, who has been pleased to receive the same very graciously :—

To the QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty.

May it please Your Majesty,

We, Your Majesty's most loyal and dutiful subjects, the Mayor, Aldermen, and Citizens of the city of York, in Council assembled, humbly desire to approach Your Majesty with the expression of our hearty congratulations on the happy union of Your Majesty's youngest and beloved daughter, the Princess Beatrice, with His Royal Highness the Prince Henry Maurice of Battenberg, a union which we earnestly pray may prove a source of increasing happiness both to Your Majesty and their Royal Highnesses.

We also take this opportunity of again renewing the expressions of our deep attachment to Your Majesty's person and Throne, and that Your Majesty may long be spared to reign over a loyal and contented people.

Given under our Common Seal the 28th day of July, 1885. Jno. Close, Mayor.

Whitehall, August 29, 1885.

THE Queen, taking into Her Royal consideration that, on the twenty-third day of July last, it was resolved by the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament assembled, that Frederick Henry, now Earl of Lauderdale, Major in the Bengal Staff Corps, had made out his claim and was entitled to the dignities of Earl of Lauderdale, Viscount of Lauderdale, Viscount Maitland, Lord Thirlestane, and Lord Thirlestane and Boltoun, in succession to his cousin, Charles, Earl of Lauderdale, who died unmarried and without issue, on the twelfth day of August, one thousand eight hundred and eighty-four, and that according to the ordinary rules of honour the brother of the said Frederick Henry, Earl of Lauderdale, cannot enjoy that place and precedence which would have been due to him had his father, Major-General Frederick Colthurst Maitland, survived the said Charles, Earl of Lauderdale, and succeeded to the title and dignity of Earl of Lauderdale, Her Majesty has been graciously pleased to ordain and declare that George Thomas Maitland, Esquire, Major in the Bengal Staff Corps, the brother of the said Frederick Henry, now Earl of Lauderdale, shall henceforth have, hold, and enjoy the same title, place, pre-eminence and precedence as if his late father had survived and succeeded to the title and dignity of Earl of Lauderdale:

And to command that the said order and declaration be registered in Her Majesty's College of Arms.

Whitehall, August 29, 1885.

THE Queen has been pleased to grant unto Joseph Sebag, of East Cliffe Lodge, in the parish of St. Lawrence, Ramsgate, in the county of Kent, and of Westbourne-terrace, in the parish of St. John, Paddington, in the county of Middlesex, Esquire, one of Her Majesty's Commissioners for executing the Lieutenancy in and for the City of London, Her Royal licence and authority that he and his issue may, out of respect to the memory of his maternal uncle, Sir Moses Montefiore, late of East Cliffe Lodge aforesaid, Baronet, deceased, take and henceforth use the surname of Montefiore, in addition to and after that of Sebag, and that he and they may bear the arms of Montefiore; such arms being first duly exemplified according to the laws of arms, and recorded in the College of Arms, otherwise the said Royal licence and permission to be void and of none effect:

And to command that the said Royal concession and declaration be registered in Her Majesty's said College of Arms.

Whitehall, September 3, 1885.

THE Queen has been pleased to order a Congé d'Élire to pass the Great Seal empowering the Dean and Chapter of the Cathedral Church of Salisbury to elect a Bishop of that See, the same being void by the death of the Right Reverend Father in God Doctor George Moberly, late Bishop thereof; and Her Majesty has been pleased to recommend to the said Dean and Chapter the Reverend John Wordsworth, M.A., Canon of the Cathedral Church of Rochester, and Oriel Professor of the Interpretation of Holy Scripture in the University of Oxford, to be by them elected Bishop of the said See of Salisbury.

NOTICE is hereby given, that the Court Reliance (No. 5568) of the Audenshaw and Denton District of the Ancient Order of Foresters' Friendly Society, Register No. 5816, held at the Mechanics' Insitution, Church-street, Ashton-under-Lyne, in the county of Lancaster, is dissolved by instrument, registered at this office, the 1st day of September, 1885, unless within three months from the date of the Gazette in which this advertisement appears, proceedings be commenced by a member or other person interested in or having any claim on the funds of the Society to set aside such dissolution, and the same be set aside accordingly.

Edward W. Brabrook, acting as Chief Registrar of Friendly Societies.
28, Abingdon-street, Westminster,
the 1st day of September, 1885.

The Bristol and Portishead Pier and Railway Company.
Portishead Dock Undertaking.

PURSUANT to an Order of the Chancery Division of the High Court of Justice, dated the 12th day of August, 1885, and made in the matter of the Portishead Dock Undertaking,
No. 25508.

1885, P., No. 1989, notice is hereby given, that in exercise of the powers contained in the Bristol Dock Act, 1884, the Bristol and Portishead Pier and Railway Company have sold and transferred their dock undertaking to the Mayor, Aldermen, and Burgesses of the city of Bristol, and the Bristol and Portishead Pier and Railway Company are proceeding to wind up the affairs of their said dock undertaking and distribute the assets thereof, in accordance with the provisions of the said Act. And further take notice, that all persons having any charge, lien, or incumbrance, other than a rent-charge, affecting the said dock undertaking, or the undertaking of the Portishead Warehouse Company, or having any claim against the Bristol and Portishead Pier and Railway Company or the Portishead Warehouse Company, in respect of the said dock and warehouse undertakings, or either of them, are, within six months from the first insertion of this notice, to send in particulars, in writing, of their claims or demands, addressed to me the undersigned, Secretary of the Bristol and Portishead Pier and Railway Company, in order that the same may be satisfied and discharged. And notice is hereby further given, that as provided by the 4th sub-section of the 24th section of the said Bristol Dock Act, 1884, all claims and demands whatsoever in this notice and the said sub-section referred to, of which the Bristol and Portishead Pier and Railway Company shall not have received notice, in writing, within the said period of six months shall, as against such Company, be barred, and the rights of all persons therein or thereunder shall, as against such Company, absolutely cease and determine.—Dated this 14th day of August, 1885.

J. F. R. Daniel, 70, Queen-square, Bristol,
Secretary to the Bristol and Portishead
Pier and Railway Company.

In the Matter of Proceedings for Liquidation by Arrangement or Composition with Creditors, instituted by William Fletcher, residing at Silsden, in the county of York, and carrying on business as a Coal and Lime Merchant, at the Midland Railway Stations, at Bradford and Shipley, both in the said county of York, under the style of W. Fletcher and Co.

THE creditors of the above-named William Fletcher; who have not already proved their debts, are required, on or before the 14th day of September, 1885, to send their names and addresses, and the particulars of their debts or claims, to me, the undersigned, Joseph Samuel Colefax, of Daily Telegraph-buildings, Market-street, Bradford, in the county of York, Chartered Accountant, the Trustee under the liquidation, or in default thereof they will be excluded from the benefit of the Dividend proposed to be declared.—Dated this 1st day of September, 1885.

J. S. COLEFAX, Trustee.

Declaration of Dividend under a Petition, dated the 27th day of February, 1868, against John Hamilton Phillips, for the last four months residing in a furnished house, No. 2, Milverton-villas, Knowle, in the county of Warwick, out of business and employment, previously and for about eighteen months of Villa-road, Handsworth, in the county of Stafford, part of the time out of business and employment, and during the other part being a Commercial Traveller, a Bankrupt.

NOTICE is hereby given, that a Dividend of 20s. in the pound with interest at the rate of £4 per cent. per annum from the 27th day of February, 1868, to the 24th day of July, 1885, is now payable to the creditors who have proved, and that warrants for the same may be received by those legally entitled, at my offices, situate and being No. 112, Colmore-row, Birmingham, on Tuesday, the 8th day of September, 1885, between the hours of ten and twelve o'clock in the forenoon. The bills of exchange and securities, if any, exhibited on the proof of debt must be produced to me before the warrant for the amount due can be received. Executors and administrators of deceased creditors will be required to produce the probate of the will or letters of administration under which they claim.—Dated the 1st day of September, 1885.

SYDNEY MITCHELL, Official Assignee.

The Bankruptcy Act, 1869.

In the High Court of Justice, in Bankruptcy.

In the Matter of William Butcher, formerly of the Grosvenor Hotel, Pimlico, in the county of Middlesex, and now of the Imperial Hotel, Holborn Viaduct, in the city of London, Gentleman, a Bankrupt.

John Edmund Hutter, of 29, Mincing-lane, in the city of London, Gentleman, has been appointed Trustee of the property of the bankrupt. The Court has appointed the Public Examination of the bankrupt to take place at the High Court of Justice in Bankruptcy, 34, Lincoln's-inn-fields, in the county of Middlesex, on the 4th day of November, 1885, at eleven o'clock in the forenoon. All persons having in their possession any of the effects of the bankrupt must deliver them to the trustee, and all debts due to the bankrupt must be paid to the trustee. Creditors who have not yet proved their debts must forward their proofs of debts to the trustee.—Dated this 1st day of September, 1885.

In the County Court of Yorkshire, holden at Bradford.

A Second and Final Dividend is intended to be declared in the matter of Robert Ernst Scharlach, of 12, Cunliffe-villas, Bradford, in the county of York, and Archibald Christie, of 9, Selborne-grove, Bradford aforesaid, carrying on business in copartnership under the style or firm of Scharlach, Christie, and Co., at 3, Norfolk-street, Bradford aforesaid, and at Brazennose-buildings, Cumberland-street, in the city of Manchester, as Shipping Merchants, adjudicated bankrupts on the 7th day of December, 1883. Creditors who have not proved their debts by the 14th day of September, 1885, will be excluded.—Dated this 1st day of September, 1885.

J. S. Colefax, Trustee.

In Bankruptcy. No. 32 of 1885.

Re Harry S. Barlow.

Ex parte John Duncan Carmichael and Thomas Carmichael, Creditors.

In the Matter of a Bankruptcy Notice issued on the 14th day of August, 1885.

To Harry S. Barlow, of Heath House, Bromley, in the county of Kent.

TAKE notice, that a Bankruptcy Notice has been issued against you by this Court at the instance of John Duncan Carmichael and Thomas Carmichael, of 13, Copthall-court, in the city of London, formerly carrying on business in copartnership as Stockbrokers, under the style or firm of Carmichael Brothers, and the Court has ordered that the publication of this notice in the London Gazette and in the Bromley Telegraph newspapers shall be deemed to be service of the said Bankruptcy Notice upon you; and further take notice, that the Court has ordered that the time for you to comply with the requirements of the said Bankruptcy Notice be extended to fourteen days from the insertion of this notice in the London Gazette. And that (if you have a counterclaim, set off, or cross demand which equals or exceeds the amount claimed by John Duncan Carmichael and Thomas Carmichael in respect of the Judgment obtained by them, and which you could not set up in the action in which the said Judgment was obtained) the time for you to apply to the Court to set aside the said Bankruptcy Notice by filing with the Registrar an affidavit to the above effect, be extended to ten days from the insertion of this notice in the London Gazette. The Bankruptcy Notice can be inspected by you on application at this Court.—Dated 2nd September, 1885.

In the County Court of Durham, holden at Durham.

In Bankruptcy. No. 7 of 1885.

1. The first part of the document discusses the importance of maintaining accurate records of all transactions. It emphasizes that this is crucial for ensuring the integrity of the financial statements and for providing a clear audit trail. The text notes that any discrepancies or errors in the records can lead to significant complications during an audit and may result in the disallowance of certain expenses.

2. The second part of the document outlines the specific requirements for record-keeping. It states that all receipts, invoices, and other supporting documents must be retained for a minimum of three years. Furthermore, it is required that these records be organized in a systematic and accessible manner, such as by date or by category, to facilitate the audit process. The document also mentions that digital records are acceptable, provided they are secure and can be easily retrieved.

3. The third part of the document provides guidance on how to handle common situations that may arise during the record-keeping process. For example, it addresses the issue of lost receipts, suggesting that a copy of the receipt should be made and kept as evidence. It also discusses the proper way to handle cash transactions, which should be recorded in a separate log and supported by bank statements or other verifiable records. The text concludes by reminding the reader that thorough and accurate record-keeping is not only a legal requirement but also a best practice for sound financial management.

4. The fourth part of the document discusses the consequences of non-compliance with the record-keeping requirements. It states that failure to maintain adequate records can result in the denial of tax deductions and credits, which can significantly impact the taxpayer's financial position. Additionally, it may lead to the imposition of penalties and interest charges. The document also notes that in severe cases, it could result in the revocation of the taxpayer's right to file returns and claim refunds.

5. The fifth and final part of the document offers practical advice on how to avoid these consequences. It suggests that taxpayers should establish a routine for reviewing and organizing their records on a regular basis. It also recommends using reliable record-keeping systems and software to minimize the risk of errors and omissions. Finally, the document encourages taxpayers to seek professional advice if they are unsure about any aspect of the record-keeping requirements.
