By the QUEEN.
A PROCLAMATION.

VICTORIA, R.

WHEREAS Our Parliament stands prorogued to the thirty-first day of October next. We, by and with the advice of Our Privy Council, hereby issue Our Royal Proclamation, and publish and declare that the said Parliament be further prorogued to Saturday, the fifth day of December, one thousand eight hundred and eighty-five.

Given at Our Court at Balmoral, this seventeenth day of September, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and eighty-five, and in the forty-ninth year of Our reign.

GOD save the QUEEN.

By the QUEEN.
A PROCLAMATION.

VICTORIA, R.

WHEREAS by Proclamation under Our Royal Sign Manual, bearing date the eighteenth day of February, in the forty-eighth year of Our reign, We did, for the weighty and lawful causes therein recited, order to be drawn out and embodied at such places as it was judged to be most convenient, such portion of the Militia of the United Kingdom as occasion required, and did further order that the same should be held ready to march to such parts within Our United Kingdom as might be judged proper. Our Will and Pleasure now is, and We do hereby direct, that the Right Honourable William Henry Smith, one of Our Principal Secretaries of State, with all convenient speed, do Order that portion of the said Militia of Our United Kingdom which was drawn out and embodied under the Proclamation before-mentioned, to be disembodied, and cause all the necessary and proper directions to be issued for returning the men of the said Militia, under the order of their Commanding Officers, to their respective parishes and places of abode, where they shall remain, subject to the same orders, directions, and engagements to which they were subject before they were drawn out and embodied as aforesaid.

Given at Our Court at Balmoral, this seventeenth day of September, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and eighty-five, and in the forty-ninth year of Our reign.

GOD save the QUEEN.

Privy Council Office, September 17, 1885.

THE following Scheme for the adjustment of the property, rights, liabilities, &c., of the existing Corporation of Saltash, and for other purposes, as settled by a Committee of the Lords of Her Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council, is published in pursuance of the Municipal Corporations Act, 1882:

"WHEREAS by the Municipal Corporations Act, 1882, it is enacted that where a petition for a charter of incorporation is referred to the Committee of Her Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council and it is proposed by the charter to extend the Municipal Corporations Acts to the municipal borough to be created by the charter, the said Committee of Council may settle a scheme for the purposes in the said Act named, and containing such provisions as are in the said Act particularised:

"And whereas certain inhabitant householders of the Poor Law Parish known as the Township and Chapelry of Saltash, have petitioned Her Majesty the Queen praying for the grant of a charter of incorporation:

"And whereas the said petition for a charter has been referred to the Committee of Council, and it is proposed to create the said district a municipal borough and to incorporate the inhabitants thereof, and by the charter to extend the Municipal Corporations Acts to the municipal borough to be created by the charter:

"And whereas Saltash is a place named in the schedule to the Municipal Corporations Act, 1883, and the area of the said place is not co-extensive with the area of the municipal borough proposed to be created by the said charter:

"And whereas by the Municipal Corporations Act, 1883, it is enacted that nothing in that Act shall prevent the application to any place of any charter applying the Municipal Corporations Acts which Her Majesty may be pleased to grant, or affect anything done in pursuance of those Acts or any scheme thereunder, and shall not affect the operation of any such charter, thing, or scheme, save that nothing in the said Acts or scheme shall authorise the establishment or continuance of any court for the trial of civil actions, and that nothing in that Act shall affect the right to the benefit of any charity, or shall alter or confer any power of altering the defined charitable purposes (if any) to which any property was by law applicable at the passing of that Act:

"And whereas the Mayor and Free Burgesses
