In Parliament.—Session 1886.

Kensington Vestry.

(Compulsory Purchase of Lands for Parochial Purposes; Power to Vestry to Borrow Money; Amendment of Acts.)

NOTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made to Parliament in the ensuing session by the Vestry of the parish of St. Mary Abbot, otherwise St. Mary Abbots, Kensington, in the county of Middlesex (hereinafter referred to as "the Vestry") for an Act (hereinafter called "the intended Act") for the following purposes, or some of them, that is to say:—

To empower the Vestry to purchase and take by compulsion or agreement certain lands and property situate within the parish of St. Mary Abbot, otherwise St. Mary Abbots, Kensington, in the county of Middlesex, for the purpose of a dépôt and for the erection of destructors and other machinery for the destruction by combustion or otherwise of and for the treatment of mud, dust, and refuse of streets, and dust, cinders, and other waste materials of houses and tenements collected by or on behalf of the Vestry within the said parish of Kensington, and for other parochial purposes.

The lands to be purchased and taken as aforesaid comprise an area of four acres or thereabouts, and are bounded on the north by properties on the south side of and abutting on Mary-place, on the east by Pottery-lane, on the west by properties situate on the east side of and abutting on St. Clement's-road, and on the south by properties situate on the north side of and abutting on William-street, and are shown and defined on the plans to be deposited as hereinafter mentioned.

To appropriate for the purposes of a recreation ground so much of the lands and property to be acquired under the powers of the intended Act as may not be required for the purposes aforesaid, and to exercise all such powers with reference thereto as may be incidental to or necessary for the powers or objects of the intended Act.

To enable the Vestry to raise money by borrowing or otherwise for the purposes of the intended Act, and to apply the same thereto, and
