

the powers of the Company under the Act of 1883, to raise money by shares or stock, or by borrowing on Mortgage or Debenture Stock.

To enable the Company to raise further money for the general purposes of their undertaking (including payment of interest due or to become due in respect of any Debentures or Debenture Stock of the Company already created or issued, or to be hereafter created or issued under the powers of any former Act or of the Bill) by the creation and issue of new Shares or Stock, Ordinary or Preferential, or both, and by borrowing on mortgage, or by the creation and issue of Debenture or other Stock (hereinafter referred to as "The new Shares, Mortgages, or Stock") to be issued in such manner as the Company may from time to time determine, or as may be prescribed by the Bill, and to declare, define, and regulate the rights and priorities inter se of the several classes of Stock, Shares, Mortgages, and Debenture Stocks (including the new Shares, Mortgages, or Stock) of the Company.

And the Bill will vary and extinguish all rights and privileges which would impede or interfere, or be inconsistent with its objects, and will confer other rights and privileges.

And it is intended, so far as may be necessary or expedient for the purposes of the Bill, to amend, repeal, alter, or extend the provisions, or some of the provisions, of the several local and personal Acts following, or some of them, that is to say:—The Act of 1880, the Act of 1882, the Act of 1883; 47 and 48 Vic., caps. 71 and 254; 48 and 49 Vic., cap. 82, and all or any other Act or Acts relating to the Company.

Printed copies of the intended Bill will be deposited in the Private Bill Office of the House of Commons on or before the 21st day of December next.

Dated this 18th day of November, 1885.
