

with such variations, modifications, and exceptions as may be thought expedient, all or some of the provisions of, amongst other Acts, "The Lands Clauses Consolidation Acts, 1845, 1860, and 1869," "The Harbours, Docks, and Piers Clauses Act, 1847," and also such parts of "The Railways Clauses Consolidation Act, 1845," relating to roads and the temporary occupation of lands, and other matters, as may be deemed expedient, and to exempt the Local Board and their works and Undertakings under the Bill from some of the provisions of the above-mentioned Acts, or some or one of them.

15. To alter, extend, amend, or repeal, so far as may be necessary or expedient for the purposes of the Bill, the provisions or some of the provisions of the Acts and Orders relating to the piers and works of the Local Board, that is to say, 10 Geo. 4, cap. 49, 5 & 6 Wm. 4, cap. 90; The Southend Local Board Act, 1875; The Pier and Harbour Orders Confirmation Act, 1878, No. 1 (so far as the same relates to The Southend Piers Order, 1878); The Pier and Harbour Orders Confirmation Act, 1882, No. 1 (so far as the same relates to the Southend Piers Order, 1882); and all other Acts and Orders relating to the Local Board and their district, and all Acts relating to the Great Eastern Railway Company, or which may relate to or be in any way affected by any of the objects and purposes of the Bill.

And notice is hereby further given, that

On or before the 30th day of November instant plans and sections showing the lines, situation, and levels of the works proposed to be authorised by the Bill, and plans of the lands, houses, and other property which may be taken compulsorily by or under the powers of the Bill, together with books of reference to such plans, and a copy of this Notice as published in the London Gazette, will be deposited for public inspection with the Clerk of the Peace for the county of Essex, at his office at Chelmsford, and with the respective parish clerks of the said parishes of Prittlewell and Southchurch, at their respective residences, and in the case of any extra-parochial place with the parish clerk of some parish immediately adjoining thereto, at his residence; and

On or before the 21st day of December next, printed copies of the Bill for effecting the objects aforesaid will be deposited in the Private Bill Office of the House of Commons.
Dated this 13th day of November, 1885.

In Parliament.—Session 1886.

Nuneaton Gas.

(Dissolution and Re-incorporation of Nuneaton Gas Light and Coke Company, Limited; Arrangement and Increase of Capital; Continuance and Maintenance of Gas Works; Defining Limits of Supply; Manufacture and Supply of Gas, &c.; Agreements with Local Authorities and others; Rates, Rents, and Charges; Powers respecting Land; Incorporation and Amendment of Acts.)

NOTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made to Parliament in the next Session by the Nuneaton Gas Light and Coke Company Limited (hereinafter referred to as "the original Company") for an Act for the following purposes, or some of them, viz.:

1. To dissolve the original Company, and to annul and declare void their existing deed of settlement, and to incorporate into a Company

(hereinafter referred to as "the new Company") the proprietors of the original Company, or some of them, with or without other persons and Corporations.

2. To vest in the new Company all the undertaking, lands, gas works, erections, buildings, estate real and personal, mains, pipes, stock, plant, rights, powers, privileges, easements, contracts, agreements, licenses and benefits of licenses, moneys, credits, and property, which at any time prior to the passing of the intended Act may be vested in, or belong to, or be occupied or enjoyed by, the original Company, or any trustee or trustees on their behalf; and to authorise and require the new Company to adopt, perform, and discharge all the liabilities, obligations, claims, and demands of or upon the original Company.

3. To declare, define, and regulate the undertaking, capital, and borrowing powers, and to make provision for the regulation and management of the affairs and proceedings of the new Company, and to capitalise, or convert into capital, moneys raised or expended by the original Company for the purposes of their undertaking, and of their undivided profits or otherwise, and to authorise the new Company to exercise all or any of the powers of the original Company with reference to the raising of capital and to raise further money by the creation and issue of shares or stock (ordinary or preferential, or both), and by borrowing on mortgage, and to create and issue debenture stock, and alter, fix, and regulate the voting and other rights and privileges of the shareholders.

4. To confer upon the new Company the powers, or some of the powers, and to enable them to carry into effect the objects, or some of the objects following, that is to say:—

5. To continue, maintain, alter, improve, and renew, or to discontinue the present gas and other works of the original Company, and to continue, maintain, alter, improve, and renew, or to discontinue other works for the manufacture and storage of gas, and for the conversion or utilisation and disposal of materials used in and about the manufacture of gas, and of residual products resulting from such manufacture, upon lands hereinafter described, belonging to the original Company, on a portion of which the works of that Company are situate, viz.: certain lands, houses, and hereditaments in the parish of Nuneaton, in the County of Warwick, bounded on the North by Abbey Street, Nuneaton, and property belonging to the Poor Law Guardians of Nuneaton Union and to George Sidwell and John Bostock; on the east by land belonging to John Bostock, the representatives of John Grove, deceased, and by land and houses belonging to John Sands; on the south by land belonging to John Sands, Arbury Road, and the Primitive Methodist Chapel; and on the west by the footroad leading from Arbury-road to Abbey-street, recently formed in substitution for the former footpath from the northern side of Arbury-road, through the Gas Company's property to Abbey-street, at the Bull's Head Inn, and by the Primitive Methodist Chapel, and property belonging to George Sidwell; and upon those lands to manufacture and store gas, and to manufacture, convert, utilise, and distribute such materials and residual products as aforesaid, and also to erect houses and other buildings.

6. To hold the lands, houses, and hereditaments hereinbefore described, and to purchase or take, by agreement or on lease, other lands,
