In Parliament—Session 1886.

Alliance British and Foreign Life and Fire
Assurance Company.

(Cancelling Deed of Settlement; Incorporating Company under the Companies Clauses Consolidation Act, 1845, under the name of the Alliance Assurance Company, with power to carry on such businesses as are hereinafter mentioned; Power to Purchase other Insurance Companies; Investment; Capital; Bye-laws; Incorporation of Acts; Repeal and Amendment of Acts.)

NOTICE is hereby given that the Alliance British and Foreign Life and Fire Assurance Company intend to apply to Parliament in the ensuing Session for leave to bring in a Bill for the following, or some of the following (among other) purposes, that is to say:—

1. To annul the Deed of Settlement of the said Company, dated the 4th day of August, 1824, and every other deed, instrument, and resolution under which the said Company are carrying on, or are empowered to carry on business.

2. To incorporate the Company by the name of "The Alliance Assurance Company," and to vest in the Company so incorporated all the property and powers of the Alliance British and Foreign Life and Fire Assurance Company; and to authorize the Company so incorporated to grant or effect assurances on lives and survivorships, to grant or effect benefit policies, accident policies, and endowments for infants; to grant or effect assurances against loss or damage by fire, lightning, and explosion; and generally to grant or effect all such other assurances as may be effected according to law; and to effect re-insurances with other companies, and to purchase and sell annuities, either for lives or otherwise, and to purchase and sell reversionary and other estates and interests in real and personal property; to purchase, or to acquire shares or other interest in, other Insurance Companies; and to appoint, remunerate, and pay all such officials, bankers, agents, and servants as the Directors of the Company from time to time think expedient; and to prescribe their several powers, duties, and privileges.

3. To repeal all or some of the provisions of the Local and Personal Acts 5 George IV, chapter 137, intituled "An Act for enabling the Alliance

British and Foreign Life and Fire Assurance Company to sue and be sued in the name of the chairman for the time being or of any other member of the Company," 4 William IV, chapter 36, intituled "An Act to enable The Suffolk and General County Insurance Office to sue and be sued in the name of one of their Treasurers or of any of their Directors, and for other purposes relating thereto," and "The Suffolk Alliance Life and Fire Assurance Company Act, 1850."

4. To apply to the Company and their capital, Directors, officers, and servants all or some of the provisions of the Companies Clauses Consolidation Act, 1845, and of the Companies Clauses Acts, 1863 and 1869, with such alterations, amendments, and additions as may be deemed necessary or expedient.

5. To confer on the Company power to lay out and invest, and, if thought fit, in the names of Trustees, all or any of the funds of the Company in and upon such securities and investments as may be sanctioned by the Bill; and to purchase and hold lands, and to confirm to the Company or their Trustees any lands already acquired by them or on their behalf.

6. To vary the denomination of the shares of the Company, and to make other provisions as to the capital of the Company, and the shares into which it is divided, and calls thereon, and the votes of shareholders; and to provide for the declaration of dividends and application of profits.

7. To enable the Board of Directors to appoint Local Boards or Committees, and to make such rules and regulations relating thereto as they shall think proper.

8. To make provision for the due signing of policies and other documents at home and abroad; and for the evidence of title of persons claiming to be entitled to the moneys secured by any policy; and for the discharge of the Company on such receipts being given as provided by the Bill.

9. To make provisions as to the number, qualification, remuneration, and powers of the Directors and Auditors of the Company; and to enable the Directors of the Company from time to time to make bye-laws, rules, and regulations with respect to the business of the Company and the conduct thereof.

10. The Bill will vary and extinguish all rights and privileges which would interfere with any of its objects, and will confer other rights and privileges, and will incorporate with itself by reference or in extenso all or some of the provisions of the Companies Clauses Consolidation Act, 1845, and of the Companies Clauses Acts, 1863 and 1869; and will repeal or consolidate, or re-enact with alterations, the provisions of the Acts 5 George IV, chapter 137, 4 William IV, chapter 36, and 13 Victoria, chapter 1, and any other Act relating directly or indirectly to the Company, or to the Suffolk Alliance Life and Fire Assurance Company, or will alter or amend those Acts, and will or may re-enact all or some of the provisions of the Company's deed of settlement.

Printed copies of the proposed Bill will be deposited in the Private Bill Office of the House of Commons, on or before the 21st day of December next.

Dated this 19th day of November, 1885.
