

promenade, and other purposes, in the parish of Dovercourt, in the County of Essex, and on the foreshore and bed of the sea adjoining that parish, such pier commencing at a point on the Marine Parade, Dovercourt, nearly opposite the front of the Cliff Hotel, and thence extending seaward in a south-easterly direction across the foreshore and into the sea, for a distance of 900 yards or thereabouts.

To erect turnstiles, toll-houses, baths, saloons, pavilions, and waiting, refreshment, and other rooms, with all necessary and proper conveniences and appliances upon the intended pier and works, and on the land to be acquired for the purposes thereof, with suitable approaches thereto.

To purchase, take on lease or otherwise acquire by agreement, the lands or hereditaments necessary for the construction of the said pier and other works, and the approaches thereto.

To demand, take, and recover tolls, rents, dues and charges upon or in respect of the use of the said pier, and accommodation and conveniences connected therewith, from all persons using the same, and in respect of all vessels using the pier, and from passengers and luggage embarked or disembarked at or from the pier, and from time to time to alter such tolls, rates, dues and charges, to confer, vary, or extinguish exemptions therefrom, and to compound and agree with any person or persons with respect to the periodical or other payment of tolls, rates, dues and charges, and to confer, vary, or extinguish other rights and privileges.

To make bye-laws, rules, and regulations for the management, use, and protection of the pier, works, and property, and the control and regulation of vessels, persons, goods and vehicles using the same, and the conduct of officers and servants, and to impose penalties for the breach or non-observance of any such bye-laws, rules and regulations.

To vary or extinguish any existing regulation, right or privilege, as to the use or enjoyment by any Corporation, Commissioners, person or persons of so much of the sea-beach and foreshore, and the land adjoining thereto, as may be occupied by, or be necessary for, the said pier, works, and approaches.

To incorporate with the Provisional Order the whole or parts of "The Harbours, Docks and Piers Clauses Act, 1847," and such of the provisions of "The Lands Clauses Consolidation Acts, 1845, 1860 and 1869," as relate to the purchase of land by agreement, and to confer upon the promoters the powers and facilities contained in "The General Pier and Harbour Act, 1861," and "The General Pier and Harbour Act, 1861, Amendment Act," and such other powers and provisions as may be deemed necessary.

To empower the promoters to lease or let the whole or any part of the undertaking, or the tolls, rates, and duties to be levied in respect thereof, to any person or persons willing to take a lease thereof.

And notice is hereby given, that on or before the 30th day of November instant, plans and sections of the proposed pier and works, and a copy of this notice as published in the "London Gazette," will be deposited with the Clerk of the Peace for the county of Essex, at his office at Chelmsford, at the Custom House at Harwich, and at the Board of Trade, Whitehall, London.

Printed copies of the Draft Provisional Order will, on or before the 23rd December next, be deposited at the office of the Board of Trade aforesaid, and on and after that date printed copies thereof will be furnished at the price of one shilling each, to all persons applying for the same, at the office of the undersigned Solicitors and Parliamentary Agent.

All Companies, Corporations, and persons desirous of making any representation to the Board of Trade, or of bringing before that Board any objection respecting the application for the Provisional Order, may do so by letter, addressed to the Assistant Secretary of the Harbour Department of the said Board, on or before the 15th day of January, 1886; and a copy of such representation or objection must at the same time be sent to the agent for the Promoters, and the objectors or their agents are to state to the Board of Trade that this has been done.

Dated this 19th day of November, 1885.

Lynmouth Promenade, Pier and Lift.

(Application for Provisional Order for Powers to erect a Pier at Lynmouth, with a Road and Promenade; and to levy Tolls, &c.)

NOTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made to the Board of Trade, on or before the 23rd day of December next, by Thomas Hewitt and John Heywood, to make a Provisional Order, pursuant to "The General Pier and Harbour Act, 1861," and "The General Pier and Harbour Act, 1861, Amendment Act," and to confer on the Company the following powers, that is to say:—

To construct and maintain a road, promenade, or approach, and also a pier and landing-place, with all proper works, toll-houses, toll-gates, and other conveniences connected therewith, for the embarking and landing of passengers, and for other purposes, at Lynmouth, in the county of Devon, commencing, as to the road, promenade, or approach, at a point on the mainland 25 feet northward from the corner of the house by the jetty, and extending westwardly for a distance of 2,880 feet, or thereabouts, and as to the pier and landing-place, commencing at the end of the said road, promenade, or landing-place, and extending seaward for a distance of 335 feet, or thereabouts.

A lift or hoist in connection therewith for the convenience of persons using the pier or landing-place, and of others.

To purchase, take on lease, or otherwise, lands or hereditaments necessary for the construction of the said pier, hoist, and works.

To levy tolls, rates, and duties upon or in respect of the use of such promenade, pier, hoist, and works, to confer, vary, or extinguish exemption from the payment of such tolls, rates, or duties, and to confer, vary, or extinguish other rights and privileges.

And notice is hereby further given, that on or before the 30th day of November instant, plans and sections of the proposed pier, hoist, and works, and a copy of this notice as published in the London Gazette, will be deposited with the Clerk of the Peace for the county of Devon, at his office at Exeter, at the Custom-house, Barnstaple, and at the office of the Board of Trade, Whitehall-gardens, London.

On and after the 23rd day of December next, printed copies of the proposed Provisional Order will be furnished, at the price of one shilling each, to all persons applying for the same, at the office of the undersigned.

Dated this 20th day of November, 1885.

H. R. T. Alexander, 27, Ely-place, London, E.C., Solicitor for the intended Order.
