Board of Trade.—Session 1886.

Saint Ives Harbour.

(Constitution of Harbour Authority, and Transfer to them of Property and Liabilities of St. Ives Harbour Commissioners; Extension of Smeaton's Pier and other Harbour Works; Purchase of Lands; Tolls; Provisions as to Management and Regulation of Harbour; Licensing Pilots, &c.; Borrowing Powers; Agreements with and Contribution of Funds by Great Western Railway Company; Amendment of Acts, &c.)

NOTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made to the Board of Trade by or on behalf of the mayor, aldermen, and burgesses of the borough of St. Ives, in the county of Cornwall (hereinafter referred to as "the Corporation"), for a Provisional Order for the following or some of the following purposes (that is to say)—

1. To constitute the Corporation the Harbour Authority for the harbour of St. Ives (hereinafter referred to as "the Harbour").

2. To transfer to and vest in, or to provide for the transfer to and vesting in the Corporation the undertaking, harbour, piers, works, property, rights, powers, privileges, and authorities of the St. Ives Harbour Commissioners (hereinafter called "the Commissioners"), and to provide for the discharge or extinction of the debts and liabilities of the Commissioners, and the winding-up of their affairs, and the dissolution of the Commissioners.

3. To authorise the Corporation and the holders (including trustees, executors, and administrators) of mortgages, bonds, or other securities of the Commissioners, to enter into and carry into effect agreements and arrangements for, or with respect to, the terms and conditions on which such mortgages, bonds, or other securities shall be cancelled or surrendered, and to sanction, confirm, and give effect to any agreement or arrangement made, or to be made, with respect to any such matter.

4. To authorise the Corporation to make and maintain in the parish and borough of St. Ives, in the county of Cornwall, and in the bed and shore of the sea, an extension in a true southerly direction, or thereabouts, for a distance of about 300 feet of the existing pier in the harbour known as Smeaton's Pier.

5. To empower the Corporation from time to time to execute in the said parish of St. Ives, and on the foreshore and bed of the sea adjacent thereto, such works, and do such things as may be necessary or considered advisable.

(a.) For removing the present accumulation, and to prevent the future accumulation of sand or other material in the harbour, or on the foreshore thereof, and for that purpose (amongst other things) to re-open and enlarge the culvert or waterway now or formerly running in a true north-eastwardly direction or thereabouts, and situate immediately to the northward of the inner or shore end of Smeaton's Pier, and to construct a "heading" or driftway therefrom in a true south-easterly direction or thereabouts to the foreshore, midway between the Smeaton Pier and the wooden pier hereafter mentioned, and

(b.) For strengthening the existing wooden pier near the Castle Rocks.

6. To dredge, scour, deepen, and cleanse the harbour and the approaches thereto, and the bed and shores and foreshore thereof and adjacent thereto, and to buy, hire, or provide all such dredgers and other machinery and plant as may be necessary for any such purpose.

7. To extend and define the limits of the harbour, so as to include the harbour as defined by the "Saint Ives Harbour Act, 1853," and all the foreshore thereof.

8. To authorise the Corporation to exercise the following powers, or some of them (that is to say), to purchase by agreement and hold, sell, demise, let, and exchange lands, houses, tenements, and hereditaments, and to purchase or extinguish all rights of way and easements in, through, under, or over all lands and hereditaments required for the purposes of the Order, to deviate from the lines and levels of the intended works, as shown on the plans and sections hereinafter mentioned, to levy tolls, rates, duties, and charges upon or in respect of the harbour, and all or any of the existing and intended works, buildings, and conveniences, to alter existing tolls, rates, duties, and charges, and to confer, vary, or extinguish exemptions from payment of tolls, rates, duties, and charges, to let on lease or otherwise any of their tolls, rates, duties, charges, works, or property, to make, alter, vary, and rescind bye-laws, rules, and regulations for the management, working, use, regulation, and protection of their harbour works and property, and the regulation and control of vessels, persons, animals, goods, and vehicles using, frequenting, or resorting to the same, and the conduct of officers and servants of the Corporation, and to impose penalties for the breach or non-observance of any such bye-laws, rules, and regulations, and to appoint and remove harbour-masters, pier-masters, meters, weighers, and other officers and servants, and to license pilots and boatmen, and the Order will define the limits within which the powers of such harbour-masters, pier-masters, meters, weighers, officers, and servants may be exercised, and will prescribe the period at which the rights of the Corporation to demand and levy tolls, rates, duties, and charges shall accrue and shall be exerciseable.

9. To authorise the Corporation to raise additional funds for all or any of the purposes of the Order, by borrowing on the security of their harbour, piers, and works, and of the tolls, rates, and duties now leviable, or to be levied or created by, or to arise under the powers of the Order, or by bonds or debenture stock charged on the said tolls, rates, and duties, or by all or any of the aforesaid means, and to make provision for the repayment of the sums borrowed or raised under the Order, and to define and declare the funds, revenues, and property liable to such debts, and upon which the same shall attach or be charged.

10. To extend and apply to the intended works, or some of them, and to incorporate with or to re-enact in the Order all or some of the provisions of the Acts and Order relating to the harbour, and to confer upon the Corporation all such powers, rights, authorities, and privileges which are or may become necessary or expedient for carrying the powers of the Order into execution; to vary and extinguish all powers, rights, autho-
