

footpath leading from Carlisle to the Carlisle Cemetery, thence westward along the south side of the said footpath to the north-east corner of the Carlisle Cemetery, thence westward along the north wall of the Carlisle Cemetery to the north-west corner of the said cemetery adjoining the road leading from Carlisle to the village of Dalston, thence in a straight line in a north-western direction to the present south-western extremity of the city of Carlisle at the point where the road from Kell Houses to Carlisle joins the road from Carlisle to Wigton, thence along the present city boundary to the said south-eastern extremity of the Holme Head Bay.

On the westernly side of the existing city.

(e) So much of the township of Caldewgate, in the parish of St. Mary, Carlisle, in the county of Cumberland, as is comprised in the following limits, viz :—

Commencing at the present south-western extremity of the City of Carlisle, at the point where the road from Kell Houses to Carlisle joins the road from Carlisle to Wigton, and proceeding thence in a straight line in a north-western direction to the point where the road from the village of Kirkandrews-on-Eden to Carlisle joins the road from Carlisle to Moorhouse, thence northward in a straight line to the River Eden at the present north-western extremity of the City of Carlisle, thence along the present city boundary to the said junction of the road from Kell Houses to Carlisle with the road from Carlisle to Wigton.

and which said parts intended to be added to the existing city are hereinafter called "the added districts."

8. To annex the added districts to the adjacent existing wards, or to alter and re-arrange the boundaries of the wards of the existing or extended city with or without altering the present number of wards, or to provide for the determining of the boundaries of such wards by one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State or otherwise as may be provided by the Bill.

9. To apportion the councillors of the city among the altered wards, and to provide for the election, time of going out of office, and the rotation of the aldermen and councillors, and to alter the time of going out of office, and rotation of the aldermen and councillors; or to make provision in the Bill for the doing and determining of the aforesaid matters, and to make all such other provisions with reference to the matters aforesaid as may be necessary or expedient, or the Bill may contain.

10. To provide for the deposit of a map or maps of the extended city and wards, and to make certified copies of, or extracts from, such maps, evidence in all Courts of Justice, to authorise and fix the charges to be made for inspection, copies of or extracts from such plans.

11. To extend and apply to and throughout the extended city, with or without alteration or variation as may be defined in the Bill, or prescribed by Parliament, all or some of the powers, rights, privileges, jurisdiction, authorities, and duties of the Corporation, acting in execution of the Municipal Corporations Acts, the Public Health Acts, and the Acts for the time being affecting the Corporation, as a municipal body and a sanitary authority respectively, and all the special Acts and Orders relating to the Corporation, and of their officers, clerks, and servants, and of the City Courts of Record and Quarter Sessions, and of the Justices of the Peace, Recorder, Clerk of the Peace, Coroner, and constables of the existing city, and to make applicable to the extended city all grants, enactments, bye-laws, regulations, and orders in force within or applicable to the existing city; also if deemed necessary or desirable to confer upon the owners of property and residents within the extended city all such rights of voting and other franchises, rights, and privileges, and exemptions, as are now vested in or enjoyed by the citizens, owners of property, and residents of or within the existing city.

12. To vest in the Corporation for the benefit of the extended city all estates, property, funds, revenues, rights, and privileges vested in the Corporation for the benefit of the existing city, but subject to the liabilities affecting the same.

13. To exempt lands, houses, hereditaments, and property within the added districts from all county, police, sewer, highway, and other rates to be made by, and from the jurisdiction of the Justices of the Peace and any Coroner for the county of Cumberland, and of the Guardians of the Poor of the Carlisle Union, acting as the Rural Sanitary Authority in relation to that part of the Union of which they are the Rural Sanitary Authority, and of any Highway Board, or surveyors of highways, School Board, School Attendance Committee, or other authority exercising jurisdiction within the added districts and to transfer to the Corporation all property, real and personal of those bodies or persons respectively within such added districts, but subject to the debts and liabilities affecting the same, and if deemed expedient to repeal or abolish all or any of the bye-laws and regulations made by the said bodies and persons respectively.

14. To extend the jurisdiction of the School Board of the existing city throughout the extended city and to abolish the jurisdiction of the Stanwix School Board, and of any other School Board or school attendance committee within the added districts, and to make all other necessary arrangements for giving effect to the purposes and requirements of the Education Act, 1870, and the Acts amending the same with respect to the extended city, and to provide that all or any bye-laws and regulations made by the School Board of the existing city in force shall be in force within the extended city to the exclusion of any other bye-laws and regulations.

15. To make further and better provision for detecting and preventing the spread of contagious and infectious diseases, and requiring notice of such diseases and of infected premises to be given to the Corporation, and to enable the Corporation to provide and maintain hospitals and nurses, and to provide temporary accommodation and medical treatment for persons suffering from such diseases or infected persons; to secure the removal and isolation of such persons; to charge and recover the cost of removal of such persons and their treatment and maintenance while isolated or removed; to close schools and places of public resort, and buildings and shops for the sale of milk and other consumable articles and clothing; to prevent the sale of such articles and clothing from, and the letting or occupation of infected premises; to require cow-keepers and vendors of milk and others to furnish lists of their customers; and persons engaged in washing or mangling clothes to furnish lists of the owners of such clothes; to compel the disinfection of buildings and of persons liable to communicate contagion or infection, and the disinfection or destruction of infected articles and clothing; for the inspection of farmhouses, dairies, cowsheds, and milkshops beyond the city; for pre-