Board of Trade.—Session 1886.

Mevagissey Harbour.

(Application to the Board of Trade for a Provisional Order for Power to erect additional Piers and Works at Mevagissey, in the County of Cornwall; to Purchase and Lease Lands; Alteration and Variation of Tolls, Rates, and Duties; further Borrowing Powers; Extension of Period for and variation of manner of Repayment of Loans; Reduction of Quorum of Trustees; Alteration of Qualification and Term of Office of Trustees and Qualification of their Electors, Alteration and Repeal of Orders.)

NOTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made by the Trustees of Mevagissey Harbour (hereinafter called "the Trustees") to the Board of Trade for a Provisional Order, pursuant to the General Pier and Harbour Act, 1861, and the General Pier and Harbour Act, 1861, Amendment Act, for the following purposes, or any of them (that is to say)—

To empower the Trustees, in lieu of the works authorised by the Mevagissey Harbour Order, 1865, or some of them, to construct the following works, that is to say—

A breakwater, commencing at the point commonly called Point Stuccomb, and extending a distance of 425 feet from low water mark of an ordinary spring tide at the said point, and running in the direction of 29 degrees east of true north.

An excavation of the cliff above high water mark, for a distance of about 700 feet along the western side of the harbour, commencing at the commencement of the said breakwater at Stuccomb Point, and running in a westerly direction from that point, to form an approach to the said breakwater.

A roadway, 360 feet in length, commencing at the western end of the above described excavation, and extending in a westerly direction to the wharf of the present Western Pier, near the doorway commonly called the "quay door."

An extension of the eastern end of the present Northern Wharf for about 165 feet, so as to connect it with the wharf of the present Eastern Pier.

A sea groyne or breakwater, commencing at the eastern end of the present Eastern Pier, adjoining the Gurnets, and extending a distance of 480 feet in the direction of 96 degrees east of true north, to the rock commonly known as the Black Rock.

With all proper works, approaches, landing places, and other conveniences connected therewith, for the embarking and landing thereat passengers, animals, goods, and minerals, the whole of which proposed works will be situate in the town and parish of Mevagissey, in the county of Cornwall, and in the sea or English Channel adjoining the same.

To empower the Trustees to appropriate or purchase, take on lease, or otherwise acquire and to hold lands and properties, to extinguish all rights of common and other rights in and over such lands, to repeal, amend, and alter the Mevagissey Harbour Order, 1865, to alter and vary the existing tolls, rates, and duties, to confer, vary, and extinguish any exemption from tolls, rates, or duties, or any other right or privilege, to authorise the borrowing of additional moneys and charging the same upon the tolls, rates, and duties, and to alter and extend the time and manner limited for the repayment of such borrowed moneys, to reduce the number necessary for a quorum at meetings of the trustees, to repeal, alter, and amend the provisions for election of trustees and of their tenure of office, and for the qualification of such trustees, and for the qualification of the electors of elected trustees, to vary, alter, or extinguish all rights and privileges which are inconsistent with, or which might in any way impede or interfere with the objects of the intended Order, and to confer other rights and privileges.

And notice is hereby further given, that on or before the 30th day of November, 1885, proper plans and sections of the proposed breakwaters and works, and a copy of this notice, as published in the London Gazette, will be deposited for public inspection with the Clerk of the Peace for the county of Cornwall, at his office at Bodmin; at the Custom-house of the port of Fowey; and at the Board of Trade, Whitehall-gardens, in the county of Middlesex.

And notice is hereby further given, that, on and after the 23rd day of December, printed copies of the proposed Provisional Order will be furnished at the price of 1s. each, to all persons applying for the same at the offices of the solicitors undermentioned.
