TUESDAY, DECEMBER 15, 1885.

AT the Court at Windsor, the 12th day of December, 1885.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

THIS day Sir Henry Charles Lopes, Knight,
Lord Justice of Appeal, was, by Her Majesty's command, sworn of Her Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council, and took his place at the Board accordingly.

AT the Court at Windsor, the 12th day of December, 1885.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

THIS day, the Right Honourable Stephen Woulfe Flanagan, was, by Her Majesty's command, sworn of Her Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council, and took his place at the Board accordingly.

AT the Court at Windsor, the 12th day of December, 1885.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS, by the four hundred and tenth
section of "The Merchant Shipping Act, 1854," it is enacted that, upon the completion of any new lighthouse (in which term are included floating and other lights exhibited for the guidance of ships) Her Majesty may, by Order in Council, fix such dues in respect thereof, to be paid by the master or owner of every ship which passes the same, or derives benefit therefrom, as Her Majesty may deem reasonable, and may from time to time alter the amount thereof; and that such dues shall be paid and collected in the same manner, by the same means, and subject to the same conditions, in, by and subject to which the light dues authorized to be levied by the said Act are paid and collected.

And whereas the Corporation of Trinity House, of Deptford Strond, are about to place a light-vessel off the Middle Cross Sand, near Yarmouth;

Now therefore, Her Majesty, in exercise of the powers vested in Her by the said recited Act, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, is pleased to direct that, from and after the date of the exhibition of the said light, there shall be paid in respect of the said light-vessel, for every ship, whether British or foreign, the toll of four-sixteenths of a penny per ton of the burden of every such ship for each time of passing or deriving benefit therefrom if on an oversea voyage, and one-sixteenth of a penny per ton if on a coasting voyage.

The said toll shall be levied by the Corporation of Trinity House of Deptford Strond, subject to the regulations and exemptions contained in the New Consolidated Tables of Light Dues sanctioned by Orders in Council dated, respectively, the twenty-fourth day of October, one thousand eight hundred and seventy, and the sixteenth day of May, one thousand eight hundred and seventy-one, and in an Order in Council dated the twenty-first day of February, one thousand eight hundred and seventy-four, and also in the special section of the Consolidated Tables sanctioned by Order in Council dated the sixth day of September, one thousand eight hundred and eighty, or to such other regulations and exemptions as may from time to time be duly sanctioned, and subject also to the gross abatement or discount of seventy per centum sanctioned in an Order in Council dated the fourth day of March, one thousand eight hundred and eighty-four, or to such other abatement or discount as may for the time being be in force.

AT the Court at Windsor, the 12th day of December, 1885.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS, by the four hundred and tenth
section of "The Merchant Shipping Act, 1854," it is enacted that, upon the completion of any new lighthouse, buoy, or beacon, Her Majesty may, by Order in Council, fix such dues in respect thereof, to be paid by the master or owner of every ship which passes the same, or derives benefit therefrom, as Her Majesty may deem reasonable, and may from time to time alter the amount thereof; and that such dues shall be paid and collected in the same manner, by the same means, and subject to the same conditions, in, by and subject to which the light dues authorized to be levied by the said Act are paid and collected:

And whereas the Commissioners of Irish Lights are about to place a new light-vessel near the Skulmartin Reef off the coast of the County Down and a light will shortly be exhibited therefrom:

Now, therefore, Her Majesty, in exercise of the powers vested in Her by the said recited Act, and by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, is pleased to direct that, from and after the exhibition of the said light, or from and after the time of the receipt of notice of such exhibition by the officers authorized to collect light dues, there shall be paid in respect thereof for every vessel, whether British or foreign, which shall enter or pass through the area defined by imaginary lines drawn from the Mull of Galloway to Donaghadee and from the Mull of Galloway to the Quinton Rock at the north side of the entrance to Lough Strangford a toll of three-sixteenths of a penny per ton of the burden of every such vessel for each time of passing or deriving benefit therefrom if on an oversea voyage, and one-sixteenth of a penny per ton of the burden of every such vessel for each time of passing or deriving benefit therefrom if on a coasting voyage.

The said tolls shall be levied subject to the regulations and exemptions contained in the new Consolidated Table of Light Duties sanctioned by Orders in Council dated respectively the twenty-fourth day of October, one thousand eight hundred and seventy, and the sixteenth day of May, one thousand eight hundred and seventy-one, and in the Order in Council dated the twenty-first day of February, one thousand eight hundred and seventy-four, and also in the special section of the Consolidated Tables prepared in pursuance of an Order in Council dated the sixth day of September, one thousand eight hundred and eighty, or to such other regulations and exemptions as may from time to time be duly sanctioned, and subject also to the gross abatement or discount of seventy per centum mentioned in an Order in Council dated the fourth day of March, one thousand eight hundred and eighty-four, or to such other abatement or discount as may for the time being be in force.

C. L. Peel.

AT the Court at Windsor, the 12th day of December, 1885.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act passed in the first session of the Parliament holden in the first and second years of the reign of Her present Majesty, intituled "An Act to abridge the holding of benefices in plurality, and to make better provision for the residence of the clergy," after reciting that "Whereas in some instances tithings, hamlets, chapelries, and other places or districts may be separated from the parishes or mother churches to which they belong, with great advantage, and places altogether extra-parochial may in some instances with advantage be annexed to parishes or districts to which they are contiguous, or be constituted separate parishes for ecclesiastical purposes," it is, amongst other things, enacted "That when with respect to his own diocese it shall appear to the Archbishop of the Province, or when the Bishop of any diocese shall represent to the said Archbishop that any such tithing, hamlet, chapelry, place or district within the diocese of such Archbishop, or the diocese of such Bishop, as the case may be, may be advantageously separated from any parish or mother church and either be constituted a separate benefice by itself or be united to any other parish to which it may be more conveniently annexed, or to any other adjoining tithing, hamlet, chapelry, place, or district, parochial or extra-parochial, so as to form a separate parish or benefice, or that any extra-parochial place may with advantage be annexed to any parish to which it is contiguous, or be constituted a separate parish for ecclesiastical purposes; and the said Archbishop or Bishop shall draw up a scheme in writing (the scheme of such Bishop to be transmitted to the said Archbishop for his consideration) describing the mode in which it appears to him that the alteration may best be effected, and how the changes consequent on such alteration in respect to ecclesiastical jurisdiction, glebe lands, tithes, rent-charges, and other ecclesiastical dues, rates, and payments, and in respect to patronage and rights to pews, may be made with justice to all parties interested; and if the patron or patrons of the benefice or benefices to be affected by such alteration shall consent in writing under his or their hands to such scheme, or to such modification thereof as the said Archbishop may approve, and the said Archbishop shall, on full consideration and enquiry, be satisfied with any such scheme, or modification thereof, and shall certify the same and such consent as aforesaid, by his report to Her Majesty in Council, it shall be lawful for Her Majesty in Council to make an Order for carrying such scheme, or modification thereof, as the case may be, into effect."

And whereas Richard Lord Bishop of Chichester hath, pursuant to the enactment aforesaid, represented in a writing dated the tenth day of July, one thousand eight hundred and eighty-five, to the Right Honourable Edward White Archbishop of Canterbury, as follows:—

"To the Most Reverend Edward White Lord Archbishop of the Province of Canterbury.

"I the Right Reverend Richard Lord Bishop of Chichester do hereby represent to your Grace:

"That there are in the county of Sussex, and my diocese of Chichester the rectory and parish church of Woolbeding, the rectory and parish church of Stedham, and the rectory and parish church of Linch, the limits and boundaries of the said parishes respectively being well-known and defined.

"That at the northern portion of the said parish of Linch and immediately abutting on one side thereof lies a certain contiguous part of the parish of Woolbeding (being a detached portion of the said last-mentioned parish). And that at another portion of the said parish of Linch, called Woodman's Green, and immediately abutting on one side thereof, lies another certain contiguous part of the said parish of Woolbeding.

"That at the said portions of the said parish of Linch and immediately abutting on the western side thereof and on the western side of the said contiguous parts of the said parish of Woolbeding lies a certain contiguous part of the said parish of Stedham.

"That the parish of Woolbeding, the parish of Stedham and the parish of Linch are respectively set forth upon the plan which accompanies this memorial, and that on such plan the parish of Woolbeding is coloured part brown and part pink, the parish of Stedham is coloured part yellow and part green and the parish of Linch is coloured blue, such parts of the said parish of Woolbeding as lie contiguous as aforesaid to the said parish of Linch are the parts thereof coloured pink, and that part of the said parish of Stedham as lies contiguous as aforesaid to the said parish of Linch is the part thereof coloured green.

"That according to the last census the population of the said parish of Linch is 115 persons, the population of the said parish of Woolbeding is 398 persons, the population of the said parish of Stedham is 565 persons, the population of those portions of the said parish of Woolbeding which lie contiguous as aforesaid upon the said parish of Linch is 156 persons and the population of that portion of the parish of Stedham which lies contiguous as aforesaid upon the said parish of Linch and upon the said portions of the said parish of Woolbeding is 52 persons.

"That the parish church of Linch is conveniently situate for and adapted to the accommodation of the inhabitants of the said contiguous places being parts of the said parish of Woolbeding, the most distant part of the same being $1\frac{1}{2}$ miles more or less from the said parish church of Linch and approached by a good highway.

"That the same parish church of Linch is also conveniently situate for and adapted to the accommodation of the inhabitants of the said contiguous place being part of the said parish of Stedham, the most distant part of the same being 2 miles more or less from the said parish church of Linch and also approached by a good highway.

"That good roads lead from all parts of the said several contiguous places to the parish church of Linch.

"That it does not appear that any of the inhabitants or landowners of the said contiguous places within the said parish of Woolbeding possess any legal right by faculty or otherwise to the exclusive right of any pews or sittings in the parish church of Woolbeding or in the parish church of Linch.

"That it does not appear that any of the inhabitants or landowners of the said contiguous place within the said parish of Stedham possess any legal rights by faculty or otherwise to the exclusive right of any pews or sittings in the parish church of Stedham or in the parish church of Linch.

"That the patronage of the said rectory and parish church of Woolbeding belongs to the Right Honourable Diana Harriet Louisa Lady Lanerton of Woolbeding House, Widow, the patronage of the said rectory and parish church of Stedham belongs to Annie Esther Scrimgeour of Wispers, Midhurst, Widow, and the patronage of the said rectory and parish church of Linch belongs to the Right Honourable Charles George Earl of Egmont of Cowdrey Park.

"That the rector of the said rectory and parish church of Woolbeding is the Reverend William Richard Wood Stephens, the rector of the said rectory and parish church of Stedham is the Reverend Robert Cooke Bull, and the rector of the said rectory and parish church of Linch is the Reverend Henry Godwin Billingham.

"That it appears to me that the said contiguous parts of the said parish of Woolbeding may under the provisions of the Act of Parliament passed in the session holden in the first and second years of the reign of Her present Majesty, cap. 106, be advantageously separated from the said parish of Woolbeding and be united to and be deemed part and parcel of the rectory and parish of Linch for ecclesiastical purposes.

"That it also appears to me that the said contiguous part of the said parish of Stedham may under the provisions of the same statute be advantageously separated from the said parish of Stedham and be united to and be deemed part and parcel of the rectory and parish of Linch for ecclesiastical purposes.

"That pursuant to the directions contained in the twenty-sixth section of the said Act of Parliament I have drawn up a scheme in writing appended to this representation describing the mode in which it appears to me that the alterations above proposed may best be effected, and I do submit the same to your Grace together with the consents in writing of the Right Honourable Diana Harriet Louisa Lady Lanerton, the patroness of the said rectory and parish church of Woolbeding, of Annie Esther Scrimgeour, Widow, the patroness of the said rectory and parish church of Stedham, of the Right Honourable Charles George Earl of Egmont, the patron of the said rectory and parish church of Linch, of the Reverend William Richard Wood Stephens as the rector of the said rectory and parish church of Woolbeding, of the Reverend Robert Cooke Bull as rector of the said rectory and parish church of Stedham, and of the Reverend Henry Godwin Billingham as rector of the said rectory and parish church of Linch, to the intent that your Grace may, if after full consideration and enquiry you should be satisfied with the said scheme, certify the same and such consents by your report to Her Majesty in Council.

"Given under my hand the tenth day of July one thousand eight hundred and eighty-five.

"R. Cicestr."

And whereas the scheme and consents referred to in the said representation are as follows:—

"The SCHEME above referred to.

"That there shall be separated from the said rectory and parish church of Woolbeding and be united to and be deemed part and parcel of the rectory of Linch for ecclesiastical purposes.

"Firstly.—All that detached portion of the parish of Woolbeding (being the northern portion thereof) and which said detached portion is entirely separated from the remainder of the said parish of Woolbeding by a portion of the parish of Linch.

"Secondly.—All that portion of the said parish of Woolbeding bounded on the north and north-east by the said portion of the said parish of Linch, on the east by the parishes of Fernhurst and Easebourne on the south by an imaginary line starting from a boundary stone marked W. on the boundary line between the said parishes of Woolbeding and Easebourne thence passing westwards immediately south of the farmhouse known as Pigeon Hill Farm and south of the site of Linch parsonage at points marked by boundary stones and ending at a boundary stone marked WS. where the said imaginary line crosses the boundary of the parishes of Woolbeding and Stedham and on the west by the said parish of Stedham.

"All which said portions of the said parish of Woolbeding are comprised within the plan hereto annexed and are thereon coloured pink.

"That there shall be also separated from the said rectory and parish church of Stedham and be united to and be deemed part and parcel of the rectory of Linch for ecclesiastical purposes.

"All that portion of the said parish of Stedham bounded on the north and north-west by the county of Southampton on the north-east and east by a portion of the said parish of Linch by the before named detached portion of the said parish of Woolbeding by another portion of the said parish of Linch and by another portion of the said parish of Woolbeding on the south by an imaginary line starting from the before-mentioned boundary stone marked W.S. where the said line crosses the boundary of the said parishes of Woolbeding and Stedham thence passing north-westwards across Stedham Marsh and ending at a boundary stone marked S. on the boundary line between the said parish of Stedham and the parish of Iping and on the west by the said parish of Iping.

All which said portion of the said parish of Stedham is comprised within the plan hereto annexed and is thereon coloured green.

"That the said detached and separated portions of the said parish of Woolbeding and the said separated portion of the said parish of Stedham shall respectively be subject to the same ecclesiastical jurisdiction as the said rectory of Linch and the incumbent of Linch shall have exclusive cure of souls within the limits of the same.

"That there shall be assigned and attached to the said rectory and parish of Linch the yearly sum of thirty-one pounds and eighteen shillings part of the rent-charge of two hundred and eighty pounds per annum given in lieu of the tithes of the lands within the said parish of Woolbeding under the provisions of the Act for the Commutation of Tithes in England and Wales, such yearly sum of thirty-one pounds and eighteen shillings being composed of the several sums assessed upon the lands comprised in the following schedule :—

And whereas the said scheme hath been transmitted by the said Bishop to the said Archbishop for his consideration.

And whereas the said Archbishop being satisfied with the said scheme hath certified the same, and the consents aforesaid, to Her Majesty in Council, by his report dated the twenty-eighth day of October, one thousand eight hundred and eighty-five, which said report is in the words and figures following:—

"To the QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

"We the undersigned Edward White Archbishop of the Province of Canterbury do hereby report to Your Majesty in Council.

"That the Right Reverend Richard Lord Bishop of Chichester has represented unto us (amongst other things).

"That there are in the county of Sussex and diocese of Chichester the rectory and parish church of Woolbeding the rectory and parish church of Stedham and the rectory and parish church of Linch.

"That it appears to the said Lord Bishop that parts of the said parish of Woolbeding and a part of the said parish of Stedham may be advantageously separated from those parishes respectively and be united for ecclesiastical purposes to the said parish of Linch.

"That the said Lord Bishop has drawn up a scheme in writing describing the mode in which it appears to him the proposed alteration may best be effected and how the changes consequent upon such alteration in respect to ecclesiastical jurisdiction tithe rent-charges and other ecclesiastical dues and payments may be made with justice to all parties interested which scheme together with the consents thereto in writing of the patrons and incumbents of the said benefices to be affected have been transmitted by the said Lord Bishop to us for our consideration.

"The representation and scheme of the said Lord Bishop and the consents before referred to are hereunto annexed.

"And we the said Archbishop being on full consideration and inquiry satisfied with the said scheme do hereby pursuant to the Act of the first and second years of Your Majesty's reign chapter 106, certify the same and such consents as aforesaid to Your Majesty in Council to the intent that Your Majesty in Council may in case Your Majesty in Council shall think fit so to do make and issue an Order for carrying the said scheme into effect.

"As witness our hand this twenty-eighth day of October one thousand eight hundred and eighty-five.

"Edw. Cantuar."

Now therefore Her Majesty in Council, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased to order, as it is hereby ordered, that the said scheme be carried into effect.

C. L. Peel.

AT the Court at Windsor, the 12th day of December, 1885.

And whereas the said scheme hath been transmitted by the said Bishop to the said Archbishop for his consideration.

And whereas the said Archbishop being satisfied with the said scheme hath certified the same, and the consents aforesaid, to Her Majesty in Council, by his report dated the thirty-first day of October, one thousand eight hundred and eighty-five, which said report is in the words following :—

“ To the QUEEN’s Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

“ We the undersigned William by Divine Providence Lord Archbishop of York do hereby certify to Your Majesty in Council :—

“ That the Right Reverend Joseph Barber, Lord Bishop of Durham has represented to us that it appears to him that the place or district known as Station Town more particularly described in the scheme hereto annexed, in the parish of Monk Hesleden in the county and diocese of Durham may be advantageously separated from that parish and be annexed to the parish of Wingate in the same county and diocese for ecclesiastical purposes.

“ That the said Lord Bishop has drawn up a representation and scheme in writing and has transmitted the same to us for our consideration describing the mode in which it appears to him that the separation and annexation may be best effected with justice to all parties.

“ That the patrons and incumbents of the two benefices of Monk Hesleden and Wingate are consenting parties to the scheme hereunto annexed.

“ The representation and scheme of the said Lord Bishop of Durham with the consents of the patrons and incumbents are hereunto annexed.

“ That the said Archbishop being on full consideration and enquiry fully satisfied with such scheme doth hereby certify the same and such consents as aforesaid to the intent that Your Majesty in Council may in case Your Majesty in Council shall think fit so to do make an Order for carrying such scheme into effect.

“ As witness our hand this thirty-first day of October one thousand eight hundred and eighty-five and in the twenty-third year of our translation.
“ W. Ebor.”

Now therefore Her Majesty in Council, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased to Order, as it is hereby ordered, that the said scheme be carried into effect. C. L. Peel.

AT the Court at Windsor, the 12th day of December, 1885.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN’s Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act passed in the first session of the Parliament holden in the first and second years of the reign of Her present Majesty, intituled “ An Act to abridge the holding “ of benefices in plurality, and to make better “ provision for the residence of the clergy,” after reciting that “ Whereas in some instances tithings, “ hamlets, chapeltries, and other places or districts “ may be separated from the parishes or mother “ churches to which they belong, with great “ advantage, and places altogether extra-parochial “ may in some instances with advantage be annexed “ to parishes or districts to which they are contiguous, or be constituted separate parishes for “ ecclesiastical purposes,” it is, amongst other things, enacted, “ That when with respect to his “ own diocese it shall appear to the Archbishop “ of the Province, or when the Bishop of any

“ diocese shall represent to the said Archbishop “ that any such tithing, hamlet, chapelry, place, or “ district within the diocese of such Archbishop, “ or the diocese of such Bishop, as the case may “ be, may be advantageously separated from any “ parish or mother church, and either be constituted a separate benefice by itself or be united “ to any other parish to which it may be more “ conveniently annexed, or to any other adjoining “ tithing, hamlet, chapelry, place, or district, “ parochial or extra-parochial, so as to form a “ separate parish or benefice, or that any extra-parochial place may with advantage be annexed “ to any parish to which it is contiguous, or be “ constituted a separate parish for ecclesiastical “ purposes ; and the said Archbishop or Bishop “ shall draw up a scheme in writing (the scheme “ of such Bishop to be transmitted to the said “ Archbishop for his consideration) describing the “ mode in which it appears to him that the alteration may best be effected, and how the changes “ consequent on such alteration in respect to “ ecclesiastical jurisdiction, glebe lands, tithes, “ rent-charges, and other ecclesiastical dues, rates, “ and payments, and in respect to patronage and “ rights to pews, may be made with justice to all “ parties interested ; and if the patron or patrons “ of the benefice or benefices to be affected by “ such alteration shall consent in writing under “ his or their hands to such scheme, or to such “ modification thereof as the said Archbishop may “ approve, and the said Archbishop shall, on full “ consideration and inquiry, be satisfied with any “ such scheme, or modification thereof, and shall “ certify the same and such consent as aforesaid, “ by his report to Her Majesty in Council, it “ shall be lawful for Her Majesty in Council to “ make an Order for carrying such scheme, or “ modification thereof, as the case may be, into “ effect.”

And whereas Thomas Legh, Lord Bishop of St. Albans, hath, pursuant to the enactment aforesaid, represented in a writing, dated the twenty-eighth day of October, one thousand eight hundred and eighty-five, to the Right Honourable Edward White, Archbishop of Canterbury, as follows :—

“ To the Right Honourable and Most Reverend Father in God Edward White by Divine Providence Lord Archbishop of the Province of Canterbury Primate of All England and Metropolitan.

“ I Thomas Legh by Divine permission Bishop of Saint Albans do in pursuance of the 26th section of the Act of Parliament of the 1st and 2nd years of the reign of Her present Majesty cap. 106 hereby represent to your Grace that there is in the county of Hertford and my diocese of Saint Albans the rectory of Elstree the parish whereof contains according to the census of 1881 a population of 662.

“ In the same county and diocese is the vicarage of Aldenham the parish whereof lies adjoining to the parish of Elstree aforesaid and contains according to the census of 1881 a population of 1353.

“ That a portion of the said parish of Aldenham lying to the south-east of the stream known as Tykes Water and the western bank of the Grand Junction Canal Company’s Aldenham Reservoir and containing an area of two hundred and fifty-eight acres or thereabouts (of which fifty-eight acres are water) is contiguous to the parish of Elstree and in immediate proximity to the church of that parish and the houses in such portion form part of the town of Elstree whilst they are at a distance of about four miles from the parish church of Aldenham.

"That it appears to me that the said portion of the parish of Aldenham hereinbefore described may under the provisions of the said Act of the 1st and 2nd Victoria chapter 106 and of the Act of the 2nd and 3rd years of the same reign chapter 49 be advantageously separated from the said parish of Aldenham and united to the said parish of Elstree.

"That the Right Honourable Hardinge Stanley Baron Halsbury Lord High Chancellor of Great Britain is in right of Her Majesty the Queen the patron of the rectory of Elstree and that Henry Hucks Gibbs of Aldenham House in the county of Hertford, Esquire is the patron of the vicarage of Aldenham aforesaid.

"That the Reverend Thomas Bedford is the present incumbent of the benefice of Elstree and the Reverend Kenneth Francis Gibbs is the present incumbent of the benefice of Aldenham.

"That pursuant to the directions contained in the 26th section of the first-mentioned Act of Parliament I the said Bishop have drawn up a scheme in writing appended to this representation describing the district of the parish of Aldenham so as aforesaid proposed to be annexed to the parish of Elstree and the mode in which it appears to me that the alteration hereinbefore proposed may be best effected and how the changes consequent thereon in respect to ecclesiastical jurisdiction dues and payments may be made with justice to all parties interested. And I do hereby submit the same to your Grace together with the consents in writing of the said patrons and incumbents respectively and in case you shall on full consideration and enquiry be satisfied therewith I request that your Grace will be pleased to certify the same and the consents aforesaid by your report to Her Majesty in Council.

"Given under my hand this twenty-eighth day of October one thousand eight hundred and eighty-five. "T. L. St. Albans."

And whereas the scheme and consents referred to in the said representation are as follows:—

"The SCHEME referred to in the foregoing Representation.

"It is proposed to separate a district from the parish of Aldenham and unite such district for ecclesiastical purposes to the parish of Elstree.

"It is further proposed that the boundaries of such district shall be as follows:—

"The boundary starts from Medburn Bridge on the high-road known as Watling-street and continues in a south-westerly direction along the centre of the stream known as Tykes Water to the point where it falls into the Aldenham Reservoir of the Grand Junction Canal Company thence in a generally southerly direction along the boundary between certain fields heretofore the glebe lands of the rectory of Aldenham but now the property of Henry Hucks Gibbs Esq. and the lands of the said Company forming the western bank of the Aldenham Reservoir to the point (south of the road leading from Elstree to Caldecott Hill and Bushey) where the parish boundary of Aldenham crosses the southern portion of the said reservoir thence along the said parish boundary to Medburn Bridge aforesaid.

"That such district shall accordingly consist of the lands numbered on the ordnance map of the parish of Aldenham 535 to 538, 654 to 658, 662 to 675, and 680 to 709 and coloured pink on the plan hereto annexed.

"That the incumbent of the benefice of Elstree shall have the sole and exclusive cure of souls within the said district.

"That the parishioners of such district shall be exonerated from all liability to repair the parish church of Aldenham but shall be liable to the repairs of the parish church of Elstree.

"That the fees for marriages churchings and burials and other ecclesiastical dues offerings and emoluments arising from the said district shall henceforth belong to the incumbent of the benefice of Elstree aforesaid.

"CONSENT.

"We the Right Honourable Hardinge Stanley Baron Halsbury Lord High Chancellor of Great Britain being on behalf of Her Majesty the Queen the patron or person entitled to present to the benefice of Elstree in the county of Hertford and diocese of Saint Albans in case the same were now vacant and the Reverend Thomas Bedford Clerk incumbent of the said benefice and Henry Hucks Gibbs of Aldenham House in the said county of Hertford Esq. the patron and person entitled to present to the benefice of Aldenham in the same county and diocese if the same were now vacant and the Reverend Kenneth Francis Gibbs Clerk incumbent of the same benefice do hereby respectively signify to your Grace our several consents to the scheme above proposed for separating a district from the parish of Aldenham and annexing the same to the parish of Elstree.

"In testimony whereof we have hereunto set our hands this first day of October one thousand eight hundred and eighty-five.

"Halsbury, C.

"Thos. Bedford.

"Henry Hucks Gibbs.

"Kenneth F. Gibbs."

And whereas the said scheme hath been transmitted by the said Bishop to the said Archbishop for his consideration.

And whereas the said Archbishop being satisfied with the said scheme, hath certified the same, and the consents aforesaid, to Her Majesty in Council, by his report, dated the eleventh day of November, one thousand eight hundred and eighty-five, which said report is in the words and figures following:—

"To the QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

"We the undersigned Edward White Archbishop of the Province of Canterbury do hereby report to Your Majesty in Council:—

"That the Right Reverend Thomas Legh Lord Bishop of Saint Albans has represented unto us (amongst other things)

"That there is in the county of Hertford and diocese of Saint Albans the rectory of Elstree the parish whereof contains a population of 662.

"That in the same county and diocese is the vicarage of Aldenham the parish whereof lies adjoining to the parish of Elstree aforesaid and contains a population of 1,353.

"That a portion of the said parish of Aldenham lying to the south-east of the stream known as Tykes Water and on the western bank of the Grand Junction Canal Company's Aldenham Reservoir and containing an area of two hundred and fifty-eight acres or thereabouts (of which fifty-eight acres are water) is contiguous to the parish of Elstree and in immediate proximity to the church of that parish and the houses in such portion form part of the town of Elstree whilst they are at a distance of about four miles from the parish church of Aldenham.

"That it appears to the said Lord Bishop that the said portion of the said parish of Aldenham may under the provisions of the Act of the first and second years of Your Majesty chapter 106 and of the second and third years of Your Majesty chapter 49 be advantageously separated from the said parish of Aldenham and united to the said parish of Elstree.

"That the said Lord Bishop has drawn up a scheme in writing describing the mode in which it appears to him the proposed alteration may best be effected and how the changes consequent upon such alteration in respect to ecclesiastical jurisdiction dues and payments may be made with justice to all parties interested which scheme together with the consents thereto in writing of the patrons and incumbents of the benefices to be affected has been transmitted by the said Lord Bishop to us for our consideration.

"The representation and scheme of the said Lord Bishop and the consents before referred to are hereunto annexed.

"And we the said Archbishop being on full consideration and inquiry satisfied with the said scheme do hereby pursuant to the Act of the first and second years of Your Majesty's reign chapter 106 certify the same and such consents as aforesaid to Your Majesty in Council to the intent that Your Majesty in Council may in case Your Majesty in Council shall think fit so to do make and issue an Order for carrying the said scheme into effect.

"As witness our hands this eleventh day of November one thousand eight hundred and eighty-five.

"Edw. Cantuar."

Now therefore Her Majesty in Council, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased to order, as it is hereby ordered, that the said scheme be carried into effect.

C. L. Peel.

AT the Court at Windsor, the 12th day of December, 1885.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the eighth and ninth years of Her Majesty, chapter seventy; of the Act of the fourteenth and fifteenth years of Her Majesty, chapter ninety-seven; of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Her Majesty, chapter fifty-five; and of the Act of the thirty-fourth and thirty-fifth years of Her Majesty, chapter eighty-two; duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a representation, bearing date the twenty-third day of July, in the year one thousand eight hundred and eighty-five, in the words and figures following; that is to say:—

"We the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England in pursuance of the Act of the eighth and ninth years of Your Majesty chapter seventy, of the Act of the fourteenth and fifteenth years of Your Majesty chapter ninety-seven, of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Your Majesty chapter fifty-five, and of the Act of the thirty-fourth and thirty-fifth years of Your Majesty chapter eighty-two have prepared and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council the following representation as to the assignment of a consolidated chapelry to the consecrated church of Saint Chad, situate at Everton in the parish of Walton-on-the-Hill in the county of Lancaster and in the diocese of Liverpool.

"Whereas at certain extremities of the said parish of Walton-on-the-Hill and of the new parish (sometime district chapelry) of Saint Cuthbert Everton within the original limits of the aforesaid parish of Walton-on-the-Hill which said extremities lie contiguous one to another and are described in the schedule hereunder written there is collected together a population which is situate at a distance from the several churches of such parish and new parish respectively.

"And whereas it appears to us to be expedient that such contiguous portions of the said parish of Walton-on-the-Hill, and of the said new parish of Saint Cuthbert Everton should be formed into a consolidated chapelry for all ecclesiastical purposes and that the same should be assigned to the said church of Saint Chad situate at Everton as aforesaid.

"Now therefore with the consent of the Right Reverend John Charles Bishop of the said diocese of Liverpool as such Bishop and with the consent of Eleanor Lucy de Falbe of Luton Hoo Park in the county of Bedford, wife of His Excellency Christian Frederick de Falbe, His Danish Majesty's Envoy Extraordinary and Minister Plenipotentiary and with the consent of the Reverend James Gerard Leigh, Clerk in Holy Orders Rector of the rectory of the said parish of Walton-on-the-Hill, and of John Frederick Leigh of Walton-on-the-Hill, Gentleman the said Eleanor Lucy de Falbe being the patron of the said rectory of the parish of Walton-on-the-Hill aforesaid and the said James Gerard Leigh, and the said John Frederick Leigh being joint patrons of the vicarage of the same parish and with the consents of the Reverend William Carus ex-Canon Residentiary of the Cathedral Church of Winchester, of the Reverend William Cadman, a Canon Residentiary of the Cathedral Church of Canterbury, of the Reverend George Edward Tate Vicar or Incumbent of the vicarage of the new parish of Saint Mary Kippington in the county of Kent, of the Reverend Field Flowers Goe Rector or Incumbent of the rectory of the parish of Saint George Bloomsbury in the county of Middlesex, and of the Very Reverend Robert Payne Smith, Doctor in Divinity, Dean of the said Cathedral Church of Canterbury aforesaid as the patrons of the vicarage of the said new parish of Saint Cuthbert Everton (in testimony whereof they the said consenting parties have respectively signed and sealed this representation) we the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England humbly represent that it would in our opinion be expedient that all those contiguous portions of the said parish of Walton-on-the-Hill and of the said new parish of Saint Cuthbert Everton which are described in the schedule hereunder written all which portions together with the boundaries thereof are delineated and set forth on the map or plan hereunto annexed should be united and formed into one consolidated chapelry for the said church of Saint Chad situate at Everton as aforesaid and that the same should be named 'The Consolidated Chapelry of Saint Chad, Everton.'

"We therefore humbly pray that Your Majesty will be graciously pleased to take the premises into Your Royal consideration and to make such Order in respect thereto as to Your Majesty in Your Royal wisdom shall seem meet.

"The SCHEDULE to which the foregoing Representation has reference.

"The Consolidated Chapelry of Saint Chad Everton comprising:—

1. "All that portion of the parish of Walton-on-the-Hill in the county of Lancaster and in the diocese of Liverpool wherein the present incumbent of such parish still possesses the exclusive cure of souls and wherein the church of Saint

Chad Everton is situate, which said portion of such parish is for all ecclesiastical purposes isolated and detached being bounded upon all sides as follows, that is to say, upon the south by the district chapelry of Saint George Everton in the county and diocese aforesaid, upon the west, and upon the greater part of the north, by the district chapelry of Saint Mary Kirkdale in the same county and diocese, and upon the remaining part of the north, and upon the east, by the hereinafter described portion of the new parish of Saint Cuthbert Everton in the county and diocese aforesaid.

2. "And also all that contiguous portion of the said new parish of Saint Cuthbert Everton which is bounded upon the east by an imaginary line commencing upon the boundary which divides the said new parish of Saint Cuthbert Everton from the district chapelry of Saint George Everton aforesaid at the point where Calder-street joins Beacon-lane and extending thence northward along the middle of the said lane for a distance of eleven chains or thereabouts to its junction with Robson-street, with Walton Breck-road, with Sleepers Hill, and with Blossington-road and extending thence north-eastward along the middle of the last-named road for a further distance of eleven chains or thereabouts to a point at the junction of the same road with Anfield-road upon the boundary which divides the said new parish of Saint Cuthbert Everton from the main body of the parish of Walton-on-the-Hill aforesaid.

"All which said hereinbefore described portion of the new parish of Saint Cuthbert Everton aforesaid is bounded upon the remaining sides other than upon the east as aforesaid that is to say upon the north upon the west and upon the south as follows:—Upon the north by the main body of the parish of Walton-on-the-Hill aforesaid, upon the west partly by the district chapelry of Saint Mary Kirkdale aforesaid, and partly by the detached portion of the parish of Walton-on-the-Hill hereinbefore described, and upon the south by the district chapelry of Saint George Everton aforesaid."

And whereas the said representation has been approved by Her Majesty in Council; now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said representation, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Acts; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said diocese of Liverpool.

At the Court at Windsor, the 12th day of December, 1885.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the eighth and ninth years of Her Majesty, chapter seventy; of the Act of the fourteenth and fifteenth years of Her Majesty, chapter ninety-seven; of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Her Majesty, chapter fifty-five; and of the Act of the thirty-fourth and thirty-fifth years of Her Majesty, chapter eighty-two; duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a representation, bearing date the thirtieth day of July in the year one thousand eight hundred and eighty-five, in the words and figures following; that is to say:—

"We the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England in pursuance of the Act of the eighth and ninth years of Your Majesty chapter seventy of the Act of the fourteenth and fifteenth years of Your Majesty chapter ninety-seven of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Your Majesty chapter fifty-five and of the Act of the thirty-fourth and thirty-fifth years of Your Majesty chapter eighty-two have prepared and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council the following representation as to the assignment of a consolidated chapelry to the consecrated church of Saint Mark situate at Ford Devonport within the ancient parish of Stoke Damerel in the county of Devon and in the diocese of Exeter.

"Whereas at certain extremities of the said parish of Stoke Damerel, of the new parish (sometime district chapelry) of Saint Michael Devonport, of the new parish (sometime district) of Saint James Devonport (both which new parishes are within the original limits of the parish of Stoke Damerel aforesaid) and of the parish of Saint Andrew Plymouth, in the said county of Devon and in the said diocese of Exeter which said extremities lie contiguous one to another and are described in the schedule hereunder written, there is collected together a population which is situate at a distance from the several churches of such parishes and new parishes respectively.

"And whereas it appears to us to be expedient that such contiguous portions of the said parish of Stoke Damerel, of the said new parish of Saint Michael, Devonport, of the said new parish of Saint James Devonport, and of the said parish of Saint Andrew Plymouth, should be formed into a consolidated chapelry for all ecclesiastical purposes and that the same should be assigned to the said church of Saint Mark situate at Ford, as aforesaid.

"Now therefore with the consent of the Right Reverend Edward Henry Bishop of the said diocese of Exeter as such Bishop and also as the alternate patron in right of his See of the vicarage of the said new parish of Saint James Devonport, and with the consent of the Right Honourable Stafford Henry Earl of Iddesleigh the First Lord of Your Majesty's Treasury, acting as such First Lord, on behalf of Your Majesty as the other alternate patron (in right of the Crown) of the same vicarage, and with the consent of Sir John St. Aubyn of St. Michael's Mount in the county of Cornwall, Baronet, the patron of the rectory of the said parish of Stoke Damerel and with the consent of the Reverend William St. Aubyn, Clerk in Holy Orders, the rector or incumbent of the same rectory and as such rector or incumbent the patron of the vicarage of the said new parish Saint Michael Devonport, and with the consent of the Honourable and Right Reverend John Thomas now Bishop of the diocese of Norwich of Francis Augustus Bevan of number 54 Lombard-street in the city of London, Esquire, of the Reverend William Hagger Barlow of Oakfield, King's-road, Clapham Park, in the county of Surrey, Clerk in Holy Orders, of John Deacon, of number 20 Birch-lane, in the city of London, Esquire, and of the Reverend Sir John Laurie Emilius Bayley of number 14 Hyde Park-street in the county of Middlesex, Clerk in Holy Orders, and Baronet, the patrons of the vicarage of the said parish of Saint Andrew Plymouth (in testimony whereof they the said consenting parties have respectively signed and sealed this representation) we the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England humbly represent that it would in our opinion be expedient that all those contiguous portions of the said parish of Stoke Damerel, of the said new parish of Saint Michael Devonport of the said new parish of Saint James Devonport and of the said parish of Saint Andrew Plymouth which are described in the schedule hereunder written, all which portions together with the boundaries thereof are delineated and set forth on the map or plan hereunto annexed, should be united and formed into one consolidated chapelry for the said church of Saint Mark situate at Ford as aforesaid and that the same should be named 'The Consolidated Chapelry of Saint Mark, Ford, Devonport.'

"We therefore humbly pray that Your Majesty will be graciously pleased to take the premises into Your Royal consideration and to make such Order in respect thereto as to Your Majesty in Your Royal wisdom shall seem meet.

"The SCHEDULE to which the foregoing Representation has reference.

"The Consolidated Chapelry of Saint Mark, Ford, Devonport, being:—

"All that portion of the parish of Stoke Damerel, in the county of Devon and in the diocese of Exeter, wherein the present incumbent of such parish still possesses the exclusive cure of souls, and also all those contiguous portions of the new parish (sometime district chapelry) of Saint Michael Devonport of the new parish (sometime district) of Saint James Devonport (both within the original limits of the parish of Stoke Damerel aforesaid) and of the tithing or chapelry of Weston Peverill otherwise Penycross or Penny-cross in the parish of Saint Andrew Plymouth in the county and diocese aforesaid all which said portions of such cures are comprised within and are bounded by an imaginary line, commencing upon the boundary which divides the said parish of Stoke Damerel from the new parish of Saint Michael Devonport aforesaid at the centre of the bridge which carries Ford-lane over the stream called or known as Ford Leat and extending thence north-eastward along the middle of the said stream for a distance of twenty-eight chains or thereabouts to the centre of the bridge which carries the New Saltash-road over the same stream at which bridge the said New Saltash-road is joined by the Old Saltash-road and extending thence first northward and then north-westward along the middle of the last-named road for a distance of twenty-five chains or thereabouts to its junction with Bladderley-lane and extending thence north-eastward along the middle of the last-named lane for a distance of twenty-one and a half chains or thereabouts to a point upon the boundary which divides the said parish of Stoke Damerel from the tithing or chapelry of Weston Peverill otherwise Penycross or Penny-cross aforesaid and extending thence first north-westward and then westward along the last-mentioned boundary for a distance of sixty-four chains or thereabouts (thereby crossing the Old Saltash-road aforesaid) to a point in the middle of the New Saltash-road aforesaid and extending thence north-westward along the middle of the last-named road for a distance of ten and a half chains or thereabouts to a point at highwater mark on the shore at Westonmill Lake at the south-eastern end of the Camelshead Bridge which carries the same road across Westonmill Lake aforesaid upon the western boundary of the tithing or chapelry of Weston Peverill otherwise called or known as Penycross or Penny-cross aforesaid and extending thence alternately south-westward, south-eastward, westward, southward, and eastward, along the said highwater mark thereby following the eastern and southern shores of Westonmill Lake aforesaid the eastern shore of the Hamoaze and the northern shore of Keyham Lake (which said highwater mark forms in part the western boundary of the tithing or chapelry of Weston Peverill otherwise Penycross or Penny-cross aforesaid and in part the western boundary of the parish of Stoke Damerel aforesaid) to a point at the northern end of the bridge which carries the Saltash New-road over Keyham Lake aforesaid and extending thence southward along the middle of the last-mentioned bridge to a point at its southern end upon the boundary which divides the firstly hereinbefore described portion of the parish of Stoke Damerel aforesaid from the said new parish of Saint James Devonport and extending thence southward along the middle of the said Saltash New-road for a distance of seven and a half chains or thereabouts to a point opposite to the western end of the wall or fence which forms the southern boundary of the Devonport Gas Works and extending thence eastward to and along the said wall or fence for a distance of six chains or thereabouts to its eastern end and continuing thence in precisely the same direction that is to say eastward and in a straight line for a distance of eight chains or thereabouts to a point in the middle of the line of the Cornwall Railway upon the boundary which divides the said new parish of Saint James Devonport from the new parish of Saint Michael Devonport aforesaid and extending thence southward along the last-mentioned boundary for a distance of sixteen and a half chains or thereabouts (thereby following the middle of the said line of railway) to the centre of the bridge which carries Haddington-road over the same line of railway and extending thence eastward along the middle of the said road for a distance of fifteen and a half chains or thereabouts to its junction with the roads called or known respectively as Rocky Hill, Keppel-place, and Blockhouse-road, and continuing thence still eastward along the middle of the last-named road for a distance of sixteen chains or thereabouts to a point at its junction with Tavistock-street upon the boundary which divides the said new parish of Saint Michael Devonport from the parish of Stoke Damerel aforesaid and extending thence first eastward, then northward, and then north-westward, along the last-mentioned boundary for a distance of twenty-nine chains or thereabouts, (thereby following the middle of Tavistock-street aforesaid and of Ford-lane aforesaid) to the first described point at the centre of the bridge which carries the last-named lane over the stream called or known as Ford Leat as aforesaid at which point the said imaginary line commenced."

And whereas the said representation has been approved by Her Majesty in Council; now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said representation, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Acts; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said diocese of Exeter.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the eighth and ninth years of Her Majesty, chapter seventy; of the Act of the fourteenth and fifteenth years of Her Majesty, chapter ninety-seven; of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Her Majesty, chapter fifty-five; and of the Act of the thirty-fourth and thirty-fifth years of Her Majesty, chapter eighty-two; duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a representation, bearing date the sixth day of August, in the year one thousand eight hundred and eighty-five, in the words and figures following; that is to say:—

“We the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the eighth and ninth years of Your Majesty, chapter seventy, of the Act of the fourteenth and fifteenth years of Your Majesty, chapter ninety-seven, of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Your Majesty chapter fifty-five and of the Act of the thirty-fourth and thirty-fifth years of Your Majesty, chapter eighty-two, have prepared, and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council the following representation as to the assignment of a consolidated chapelry to the consecrated church of All Saints situate in Dalmeny-road, Tufnell Park, in the district parish of Saint John Upper Holloway in the county of Middlesex and in the diocese of London.

“Whereas at certain extremities of the said district parish of Saint John, Upper Holloway, and of the new parish (sometime consolidated chapelry) of Saint George Tufnell Park in the county and diocese aforesaid which said extremities lie contiguous one to another, and are described in the schedule hereunder written, there is collected together a population which is situate at a distance from the several churches of such district parish and new parish respectively.

“And whereas it appears to us to be expedient that such contiguous portions of the said district parish of Saint John Upper Holloway and of the said new parish of Saint George Tufnell Park should be formed into a consolidated chapelry for all ecclesiastical purposes, and that the same should be assigned to the said church of All Saints situate as aforesaid.

“Now, therefore, with the consent of the Right Honourable and Right Reverend Frederick, Bishop of the said diocese of London, as such Bishop with the consents of the Reverend Daniel Wilson of Number 9 Barnsbury-park, in the said county of Middlesex Clerk in Holy Orders, of the Reverend Charles Welland Edmonstone of Christ Church Vicarage, Crouch End, Hornsey, in the same county, Clerk in Holy Orders, of the Reverend William Hagger Barlow of Oakfield, King's-road, Clapham Park, in the county of Surrey, Clerk in Holy Orders, of the Venerable Robert Long, rector or incumbent of the rectory of Bishop Wearmouth in the diocese of Durham and Archdeacon of the Archdeaconry of Auckland in the same diocese, and of the Reverend Henry Woodhouse Dearden of Number 15 Pemberton-road, Upper Holloway, in the county of Middlesex aforesaid, Clerk in Holy Orders, as the patrons of the district parish of Saint John Upper Holloway aforesaid, and with the consents of the said Daniel Wilson, of the Right Reverend Edward Henry, Bishop of the diocese of Exeter, of the said Charles Welland Edmonstone, of Edward

Carleton Tufnell of No. 26 Lowndes-square in the said county of Middlesex Esquire, and of Thomas Robert Tufnell, of the Grove, Carshalton in the said county of Surrey Esquire, as the patrons of the new parish of Saint George Tufnell Park aforesaid (in testimony whereof they the said consenting parties have respectively signed and sealed this representation,) we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, humbly represent, that it would, in our opinion, be expedient that all those contiguous portions of the said district parish of Saint John Upper Holloway, and of the said new parish of Saint George, Tufnell Park, which are described in the schedule hereunder written, all which portions together with the boundaries thereof are delineated and set forth on the map or plan hereunto annexed, should be united and formed into one consolidated chapelry for the said church of All Saints situate as aforesaid, and that the same should be named ‘The Consolidated Chapelry of All Saints, Upper Holloway.’

“We, therefore, humbly pray that Your Majesty will be graciously pleased to take the premises into Your Royal consideration and to make such Order in respect thereto as to Your Majesty in Your Royal wisdom shall seem meet.

“The SCHEDULE to which the foregoing Representation has reference.

“The Consolidated Chapelry of All Saints, Upper Holloway, comprising:—

“All that portion of the district parish of Saint John Upper Holloway in the county of Middlesex and in the diocese of London and also all that contiguous portion of the new parish (sometime consolidated chapelry) of Saint George Tufnell Park in the county and diocese aforesaid which said portions of such cures are together comprised within and are bounded by an imaginary line commencing upon the boundary which divides the said district parish of Saint John Upper Holloway from the new parish, of Saint Paul Upper Holloway in the county and diocese aforesaid at the junction of Kingdown-road with Holloway-road, and extending thence north-westward along the middle of the last-named road for a distance of nine chains or thereabouts to its junction with Cromwell-road and extending thence south-westward along the middle of the last-named road for a distance of ten and a half chains or thereabouts to its junction with the street called Milton-grove, and extending thence north-westward along the middle of the said street for a distance of three chains or thereabouts to its junction with Hampden-road and extending thence south-westward along the middle of the last-named road for a distance of one and a half chains or thereabouts to its present south-western end and extending thence north-westward and in a direct line for a distance of four and a half chains or thereabouts (thereby crossing certain yards or sidings occupied by the Great Eastern Railway Company and by the Midland Railway Company respectively) to a point in the middle of the line of the Tottenham and Hampstead Junction Railway and extending thence south-westward along the middle of the said line of railway for a distance of twenty-two chains or thereabouts (thereby following in part the boundary which divides the said district parish of Saint John Upper Holloway from the new parish of Saint George Tufnell Park aforesaid) to a point opposite to the middle of the north-western end of Huddleston-road, and extending thence south-eastward to and along the middle of the last-named road for a distance of thirteen chains or thereabouts to its junction with Tufnell Park-road, and extending thence eastward along the middle of the last-named road for a distance of eight and a half chains or thereabouts to its junction with Campdale-road and extending thence north-westward along the middle of the last-named road for a distance of four chains or thereabouts to a point, at its junction with Mercer's-road, upon the boundary which divides the said new parish of Saint George Tufnell Park from the district parish of Saint John Upper Holloway aforesaid, and extending thence first eastward and then north-eastward along the last-mentioned boundary for a distance of thirty-three chains or thereabouts (thereby following the course of Mercer's-road aforesaid) to the point, at the junction of such road with the Holloway-road as aforesaid, where the said last-mentioned boundary joins the boundary which divides the said district parish of Saint John Upper Holloway from the new parish of Saint Paul Upper Holloway as aforesaid and extending thence north-westward along the last-mentioned boundary for a distance of twelve chains or thereabouts, thereby following the middle of the said Holloway-road, to the first described point at the junction of the same road with Kingdown-road as aforesaid, at which point the said imaginary line commenced."

And whereas the said representation has been approved by Her Majesty in Council; now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said representation, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Acts; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said diocese of London.

"Now therefore with the consent of the Right Reverend Anthony Wilson, Bishop of the said diocese of Rochester as such Bishop, with the consents of the Honourable and Right Reverend John Thomas Bishop of Norwich, of Francis Augustus Bevan of Number 54 Lombard-street in the city of London Banker, of the Reverend William Hagger Barlow of Oakfield, King's-road, Clapham Park in the said county of Surrey Clerk in Holy Orders, of John Deacon of Number 20 Birch-lane, in the said city of London Banker, and of the Reverend Sir John Robert Laurie Emilius Bayley of No. 14 Hyde Park-street, in the county of Middlesex Clerk in Holy Orders and Baronet, the patrons of the rectory of the said parish of Saint Mary Magdalen Bermondsey, and with the consent of the Reverend Charles D'Aguilar Lawrence, Clerk in Holy Orders, the rector or incumbent of the same rectory, and as such rector or incumbent, the patron of the vicarage of the new parish of Saint James Bermondsey aforesaid, (in testimony whereof they the said consenting parties have respectively signed and sealed this representation) we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England humbly represent that it would, in our opinion, be expedient that all those contiguous portions of the said parish of Saint Mary Magdalen Bermondsey, and of the said new parish of Saint James Bermondsey which are described in the schedule hereunder written all which portions, together with the boundaries thereof are delineated and set forth on the map or plan hereunto annexed, should be united and formed into one consolidated chapelry for the said church of Saint Luke, situate in Grange-road as aforesaid, and that the same should be named 'The Consolidated Chapelry of Saint Luke, Grange-road, Bermondsey.'

"We therefore humbly pray that Your Majesty will be graciously pleased to take the premises into Your Royal consideration and to make such Order in respect thereto as to Your Majesty in Your Royal wisdom shall seem meet.

"The SCHEDULE to which the foregoing Representation has reference.

"The Consolidated Chapelry of Saint Luke, Grange-road, Bermondsey being:—

"All that portion of the parish of Saint Mary Magdalen Bermondsey in the county of Surrey and in the diocese of Rochester wherein the present incumbent of such parish now possesses the exclusive cure of souls, and also all that contiguous portion of the new parish of Saint James Bermondsey in the county and diocese aforesaid which said portions of such parish and of such new parish are together comprised within and are bounded by an imaginary line commencing upon the boundary which divides the said new parish from the parish aforesaid at the junction of Spa-road, with Grange-road and extending thence north-westward along the middle of the last-named road for a distance of nine chains or thereabouts to its junction with Crimscoth-street and extending thence south-westward along the middle of the last-named street for a distance of ten chains or thereabouts to its junction with the road called or known as Willow-walk, and extending thence north-westward along the middle of the last-named road for a distance of three and a half chains or thereabouts to its junction with the street or road called or known as Page's-walk, and extending thence south-westward along the middle of the last-named street or road for a distance of twelve chains or thereabouts to a point upon the boundary which divides the said parish of Saint Mary Magdalen Bermondsey from the new parish of Saint Mary Southwark in the county and diocese aforesaid and extending thence south-eastward along the last-mentioned boundary for a distance of twenty-seven chains or thereabouts (thereby passing along the south-western side of the Bricklayers' Arms Railway Station Goods Depot) to the point in the middle of Upper Grange-road where the said last-mentioned boundary joins the boundary which divides the said parish of Saint Mary Magdalen Bermondsey from the consolidated chapelry of Saint Philip Camberwell in the county and diocese aforesaid, and extending thence north-eastward along the last-mentioned boundary for a distance of seven chains and a half or thereabouts thereby following the middle of Upper Grange-road aforesaid to the point at the centre of the bridge which carries the same road over the line of the South-Eastern Railway where the same boundary joins the boundary dividing the said parish of Saint Mary Magdalen Bermondsey from the new parish of Saint Anne Bermondsey in the county and diocese aforesaid and continuing thence still north-eastward along the last-mentioned boundary for a distance of seventeen and a half chains or thereabouts, thereby continuing to follow the middle of Upper Grange-road aforesaid, to the point where the said Upper Grange-road joins Grange-road aforesaid and Southwark Park-road and where the said last-mentioned boundary joins the boundary which divides the said new parish of Saint Anne Bermondsey from the new parish of Saint James Bermondsey aforesaid, and extending thence first south-eastward and then eastward along the last-mentioned boundary for a distance of nineteen and a half-chains or thereabouts, thereby following the middle of Southwark Park-road aforesaid, to the junction of such road with Rouel-road and extending thence northward along the middle of the last-named road for a distance of nineteen and a half-chains or thereabouts to its junction with Spa-road aforesaid and extending thence westward along the middle of the last-named road for a distance of twenty-two chains or thereabouts, thereby following (for the distance between Neckinger-road and Grange-road aforesaid) the boundary which divides the said new parish of Saint James Bermondsey from the parish of Saint Mary Magdalen Bermondsey aforesaid, to the first-described point, upon the last-mentioned boundary, at the junction of Spa-road with Grange-road as aforesaid, at which point the said imaginary line commenced."

And whereas the said representation has been approved by Her Majesty in Council; now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said representation, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Acts; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said diocese of Rochester.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of an Act of the sixth and seventh years of Her Majesty chapter thirty-seven sections six and eight duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a scheme, bearing date the twenty-ninth day of October, in the year one thousand eight hundred and eighty-five, in the words and figures following, that is to say:—

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the sixth and seventh years of Your Majesty chapter thirty-seven, sections six and eight have prepared and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council the following scheme for authorizing the sale and disposal of certain property situate in the parish of Saint Mary Magdalen, in the city of Canterbury, and now vested in us.

"Whereas under and by virtue of a certain indenture bearing date the twenty-first day of December in the year one thousand eight hundred and seventy-six, and made or expressed to be made between James White of Canterbury in the county of Kent Gentleman and William Welby of the same place Gentleman (the executors and trustees named in and appointed by the last will and testament of Sarah Bird the surviving executrix and trustee of the will of Edward Stephen Bird, late of the city of Canterbury aforesaid deceased) of the one part, and us the Ecclesiastical Commissioners of the other part a certain piece or parcel of land situate in the said parish of Saint Mary Magdalen and lying at the rear of the premises known as Number 56 Burgate-street Canterbury which piece or parcel of land is more particularly described in the said indenture became with its appurtenances and is now vested in us.

"And whereas the said land is not subject to any outstanding beneficial lease or grant but is now in our possession but some portion thereof on account of its character and situation is unsuitable or inconvenient to be held or applied for the purposes for which estates vested in us are applicable under the Acts by which our proceedings are governed.

"And whereas with a view to the advantageous appropriation of the same, or of the proceeds thereof for the ultimate improvement of our common fund, it is expedient that the said land or such part or parts thereof as we shall at any time and from time to time think fit should be sold or disposed of and accordingly that we should be empowered to sell or dispose of our interest in such land or in any part or parts thereof in such manner as shall appear to us advisable.

"Now therefore we humbly recommend and propose that we may be authorized and empowered by instrument or instruments in writing duly executed according to law from time to time to sell or dispose of, and duly to convey according to the provisions of the said Act all or any of the said land so vested in us as aforesaid with its appurtenances and all our estate right title and interest therein or in any part or parts thereof unto and to the use of any person or persons desirous or willing to purchase the same and his or their heirs executors administrators or assigns or otherwise as he or they shall direct or appoint, and for such consideration as shall upon due calculation and enquiry appear to us to be just and reasonable it being our intention to invest the proceeds of such sale from time to time as occasion may arise in the purchase of other lands, tithes, rent-charges tenements or hereditaments or of some estate or interest therein convenient to be held by us for the purposes of the Acts by which our proceedings are governed as aforesaid, and in the meantime to invest the said proceeds in some Government or Parliamentary stock or other public securities in England.

"And we further recommend and propose that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any other measures relating to the matters aforesaid or any of them, in accordance with the provisions of the said Acts, or of any other Act of Parliament."

And whereas the said scheme has been approved by Her Majesty in Council: now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Act; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the diocese of Canterbury.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of an Act of the sixth and seventh years of Her Majesty, chapter thirty-seven, sections six and eight, duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a scheme, bearing date the twenty-ninth day of October, in the year one thousand eight hundred and eighty-five, in the words following, that is to say:—

"We the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England in pursuance of an Act of the sixth and seventh years of Your Majesty chapter thirty-seven sections six and eight have prepared and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council the following scheme for authorizing the sale and disposal of certain property formerly belonging to the Prebend of Fordington-cum-Writhlington in the Cathedral Church of Salisbury and now vested in us.

"Whereas by the decease of the Reverend Charles Buchanan Pearson which occurred on or about the seventh day of January in the year one thousand eight hundred and eighty-one all the lands tithes tenements and hereditaments theretofore belonging to the said prebend became by virtue of the Act of the third and fourth years of Your Majesty chapter one hundred and thirteen absolutely vested in us for the purposes and subject to the provisions applicable to other hereditaments vested in us.

"And whereas our estate in the lands tenements hereditaments and endowments aforesaid consists to a considerable extent of reversions expectant upon the determination of beneficial leases such leases producing only a small annual revenue and partly on that account and partly on account of the character or situation of the property the said lands tenements hereditaments and endowments are unsuitable or inconvenient to be held or applied for the purposes for which estates vested in us are applicable under the Acts by which our proceedings are governed.

"And whereas by an Act of the twenty-third and twenty-fourth years of Your Majesty chapter one hundred and twenty-four power is given to lessees holding under us in the event of our declining to enter into a treaty for the sale of our reversions or the purchase of the leasehold interests to require us to purchase such leasehold interests at a valuation.

"And whereas with a view to the advantageous appropriation of the said lands tenements hereditaments and endowments or of the proceeds thereof for the ultimate improvement of our common fund it is expedient that the said lands tenements hereditaments and endowments or such parts thereof as we shall at any time and from time to time think fit should be sold or disposed of and accordingly that we should be empowered to dispose of our interests therein or in any part or parts thereof in such manner as shall appear to us advisable.

"Now therefore we humbly recommend and propose that we may be authorized and empowered by instrument or instruments in writing duly executed according to law from time to time to sell or dispose of and duly to convey according to the provisions of the said Act of the sixth and seventh years of Your Majesty's reign with the consent of the holder or holders thereof (if any) to be testified by his her or their being made parties to such instruments all or any of the said lands tenements hereditaments and endowments formerly belonging to the said Prebend of Fordington-cum-Writhlington and so vested in us as aforesaid with their appurtenances and all our estate right title and interest therein or in any part or parts thereof unto and to the use of any person or persons desirous or willing to purchase the same and his her or their heirs executors administrators or assigns or otherwise as he she or they shall direct or appoint and for such consideration as shall upon due calculation and enquiry appear to us to be just and reasonable it being our intention to invest the proceeds of such sale from time to time as occasion may arise in the purchase of other lands tithes rent-charges tenements or hereditaments or of some estate or interest therein convenient to be held by us for the purposes of the Acts by which our proceedings are governed as aforesaid and in the meantime to invest the said proceeds in some Government or Parliamentary stock or other public securities in England.

"And we further recommend and propose that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any other measures relating to the matters aforesaid or any of them in accordance with the provisions of the said Acts or of any other Act of Parliament."

And whereas the said scheme has been approved by Her Majesty in Council; now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Act; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the diocese of Salisbury.

AT the Court at Windsor, the 12th day of December, 1885.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the eighth and ninth years of Her Majesty, chapter seventy; of the Act of the fourteenth and fifteenth years of Her Majesty, chapter ninety-seven; of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Her Majesty, chapter fifty-five; and of the Act of the thirty-fourth and thirty-fifth years of Her Majesty, chapter eighty-two; duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a representation, bearing date the nineteenth day of November in the year one thousand eight hundred and eighty-five in the words and figures following; that is to say:—

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the eighth and ninth years of Your Majesty chapter seventy, of the Act of the fourteenth and fifteenth years of Your Majesty chapter ninety-seven, of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Your Majesty chapter fifty-five, and of the Act of the thirty-fourth and thirty-fifth years of Your Majesty chapter eighty-two, have prepared and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council the following representation as to the assignment of a consolidated chapelry to the consecrated church of Saint Dionis situate at Parson's Green in the parish of All Saints, Fulham, in the county of Middlesex and in the diocese of London.

"Whereas at certain extremities of the said parish of All Saints Fulham, and of the new parish of Saint John Walham Green in the county and diocese aforesaid, which said extremities lie contiguous one to another, and are described in the schedule hereunder written, there is collected together a population which is situate at a distance from the several churches of such parish and new parish respectively.

"And whereas it appears to us to be expedient that such contiguous portions of the said parish of All Saints Fulham and of the said new parish of Saint John, Walham Green should be formed into a consolidated chapelry for all ecclesiastical purposes and that the same should be assigned to the said church of Saint Dionis situate at Parson's Green as aforesaid.

"Now therefore with the consent of the Right Honourable and Right Reverend Frederick Bishop of the said diocese of London as such Bishop and also as the patron in right of his See of the vicarage of the said parish of All Saints Fulham and with the consent of the Reverend Frederick Horatio Fisher the vicar or incumbent of the same vicarage and as such vicar or incumbent the patron of the vicarage of the said new parish of Saint John Walham Green (in testimony whereof they the said consenting parties have respectively signed and sealed this representation), we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, humbly represent, that it would, in our opinion, be expedient that all those contiguous portions of the said parish of All Saints Fulham and of the said new parish of Saint John Walham Green which are described in the schedule hereunder written all which portions together with the boundaries thereof are delineated and set forth on the map or plan hereunto annexed should be united and formed into one consolidated chapelry for the said church of Saint Dionis situate at Parson's Green as aforesaid, and that the same should be named 'The Consolidated Chapelry of Saint Dionis Parson's Green, Fulham.'

"We, therefore, humbly pray that Your Majesty will be graciously pleased to take the premises into Your Royal consideration, and to make such Order in respect thereto as to Your Majesty in Your Royal wisdom shall seem meet.

"The SCHEDULE to which the foregoing Representation has reference.

"The Consolidated Chapelry of Saint Dionis, Parson's Green Fulham comprising:—

"I. All that portion of the parish of All Saints Fulham in the county of Middlesex and in the diocese of London, wherein the present incumbent of such parish now possesses the exclusive cure of souls, which is bounded upon the south by the boundary in the middle of the River Thames which divides the said county of Middlesex and the diocese of London aforesaid from the county of Surrey and from the diocese of Rochester upon the north-east partly by the consolidated chapelry of Saint James Moore Park Fulham and partly by the new parish of Saint John Walham Green both in the said county of Middlesex and in the diocese of London aforesaid upon the north-west by the new parish of Saint Peter Fulham in the last-mentioned county and diocese and upon the remaining side that is to say upon the west by an imaginary line commencing upon the boundary which divides the said new parish of Saint Peter, Fulham, from the parish of All Saints Fulham aforesaid at the point where Fulham-road is joined by Munster-road, and extending thence south-eastward along the middle of the last-named road for a distance of nine chains or thereabouts to the centre of the bridge which carries the line of the Metropolitan District Railway (Fulham Extension) over the same road and extending thence south-westward along the middle of the said line of railway for a distance of eleven chains or thereabouts to the centre of the bridge which carries the same line of railway over King's-road and extending thence north-eastward along the middle of the last-named road for a distance of four and a half chains or thereabouts to its junction with Gristowe-road and extending thence southward along the fronts of the houses situate upon the eastern side of the last-named road for a distance of six chains or thereabouts to the junction of the same road with Bettridge-road and continuing thence still in precisely the same direction and in a straight line for a distance of three chains or thereabouts thereby passing close to the eastern side of the house called or known as the Vineyard, and situate on the northern side of Hurlingham-lane to a point in the middle of the said lane, and extending thence eastward along the middle of the said lane for a distance of fifty feet or thereabouts to a point opposite to the northern end of the wall or fence which divides the grounds attached to Mulgrave House from the grounds attached to Saint Cyprian's Orphanage and from the grounds attached to Hurlingham House and extending thence southward to and along the said wall or fence for a distance of twenty-eight chains or thereabouts to its southern end upon the northern bank of the River Thames aforesaid, and continuing thence still southward and in a direct line to the county and diocesan boundary in the middle of the same river as aforesaid.

II. "And also all that contiguous portion of the new parish of Saint John Walham Green aforesaid which is bounded upon the south-west by the hereinbefore described portion of the parish of All Saints Fulham upon the south-east and upon the north-east by the consolidated chapelry of Saint James Moore Park Fulham aforesaid and upon the remaining side that is to say upon the north-west by an imaginary line commencing at a point near to the north-western angle of Eel Brook Common in the middle of the said line of the Metropolitan District Railway (Fulham Extension) upon the boundary which divides the last-named cure from the new parish of Saint John Walham Green aforesaid and extending thence south-westward along the middle of the said line of railway for a distance of twelve chains or thereabouts to the boundary which divides the said new parish of Saint John, Walham Green from the hereinbefore described portion of the parish of All Saints Fulham aforesaid."

And whereas the said representation has been approved by Her Majesty in Council: now, therefore, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said representation, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Acts; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said diocese of London.

AT the Court at Windsor, the 12th day of December, 1885.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the sixth and seventh years of His late Majesty King William the Fourth chapter seventy-seven, and of the Act of the fifth year of Her Majesty (session 2) chapter twenty-six duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a scheme, bearing date the nineteenth day of November, in the year one thousand eight hundred and eighty-five, in the words and figures following, that is to say:—

"We the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England in pursuance of the Act of the sixth and seventh years of His late Majesty King William the Fourth chapter seventy-seven, and of the Act of the fifth year of Your Majesty (session 2) chapter twenty-six, have prepared and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council the following scheme for authorizing certain alterations and improvements at the episcopal residence belonging to the See of Ripon, which is situate near Ripon in the West Riding of the county of York.

"Whereas the Right Reverend William Boyd, now Bishop of the diocese of Ripon is desirous that certain permanent improvements should be made at the said episcopal residence near Ripon, and has submitted to us the particulars of such proposed improvements.

"And whereas the said Bishop is also desirous and it appears to us to be expedient that towards the cost of effecting the said proposed improvements a sum of four hundred pounds should be provided by borrowing the same by way of mortgage upon the security of all and every part of the lands tenements and hereditaments endowments or emoluments which now belong or may hereafter belong to the Bishoprick of Ripon.

"And whereas under the provisions of an Order (duly gazetted) of Your Majesty in Council dated the twenty-ninth day of June one thousand eight hundred and sixty-five a sum of one thousand pounds was advanced by the Governors of Queen Anne's Bounty upon a mortgage of the lands tenements and hereditaments belonging to the said bishoprick of Ripon.

"And whereas the monies (if any) now due in respect of the said mortgage together with the sum of four hundred pounds now proposed to be borrowed as aforesaid do not exceed two years income of the See of Ripon.

"Now therefore with the consent of the said William Boyd, Bishop of the said diocese of Ripon testified by his having affixed his signature and episcopal seal to this scheme, we the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England humbly recommend and propose that the said Bishop be authorized to borrow from the Governors of the Bounty of Queen Anne, and that the said Governors be empowered to lend under the provisions of the above-mentioned Acts, any sum not exceeding four hundred pounds, and that as a security for the same, the said Bishop do mortgage all and every part of the lands tenements and hereditaments and endowments or emoluments which now belong or may hereafter belong to his said See to the said Governors by deed for the term of thirty years or until the said sum of four hundred pounds with the interest for the same as hereinafter mentioned, and all costs and charges which may attend the recovery thereof, shall be fully paid and satisfied, and that such principal sum shall be repaid with interest in manner following, that is to say during and in respect of the first period of twelve months of the said term of thirty years, computed from the day of the date of the mortgage no part of the said principal sum shall be repayable, but the said Bishop or his successors shall yearly at the end of the second period of twelve months so computed and at the end of every such like period of twelve months thereafter pay to the said Governors their successors and assigns one thirtieth part of the said principal sum, until the whole thereof shall be repaid and shall also at the end of the first and each succeeding period of twelve months computed as aforesaid, pay interest at the rate of four pounds per centum per annum on the said principal sum or on so much thereof as shall from time to time remain unpaid. And that if and when it shall happen that either the principal or the interest directed to be paid as hereinbefore-mentioned shall be in arrear and unpaid for the space of forty days after the same shall have become due, it shall and may be lawful for the said Governors their successors and assigns to recover the same and the costs and charges attending the recovery thereof by distress and sale: in the like manner as rents may be recovered by landlords or lessors from their tenants by the laws in force at the time of such distress and sale. And that such mortgage deed shall be in the form and to the effect to be approved by us the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners, and shall bind as well the said William Boyd now Bishop of the said diocese of Ripon as every succeeding Bishop of the same diocese, until the principal money and interest costs and charges shall have been paid off and discharged.

"And we further recommend and propose that the said sum of four hundred pounds shall be paid to us the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners, and that the receipt of our joint treasurers for the time being endorsed on the said mortgage deed shall be a good and sufficient discharge to the said Governors and their successors for the same, who shall not be bound or required to see to the application thereof and that upon the receipt of the said sum of four hundred pounds the whole or any part or parts thereof shall be applied by us at such times and in such manner as shall appear to us to be expedient towards effecting the said proposed improvements at the episcopal residence aforesaid.

"And we further recommend and propose that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any other measures relating to the matters aforesaid or any of them in conformity with the provisions of the herein-named Acts or of either of them or of any other Act of Parliament."

And whereas the said scheme has been approved by Her Majesty in Council; now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette, pursuant to the said Acts; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said diocese of Ripon.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the session of Parliament held in the fifteenth and sixteenth years of Her Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to amend the laws concerning the burial of the dead in the Metropolis," it is enacted, that, in case it appears to Her Majesty in Council, upon the representation of one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, that, for the protection of the public health, burials in any part or parts of the Metropolis, or in any burial-grounds or places of burial in the Metropolis, should be wholly discontinued, or should be discontinued subject to any exception or qualification, it shall be lawful for Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, to order that from and after a time mentioned in the Order burials in such part or parts of the Metropolis, or in such burial-grounds or places of burial, shall be discontinued wholly or subject to any exceptions or qualifications mentioned in such Order, and so from time to time as circumstances may require; provided that notice of such representation, and of the time when it shall please Her Majesty to order the same to be taken into consideration by the Privy Council, shall be published in the London Gazette, and shall be affixed on the doors of the churches or chapels of the parishes in which any burial-grounds or places of burial affected by such representation shall be situate, or on some other conspicuous places, within the part or parts of the Metropolis affected by such representation, one calendar month before such representation is so considered: Provided always, that no such representation shall be made in relation to the burial-ground of any parish until ten days' previous notice of the intention to make such representation shall have been given to the Incumbent and the Vestry Clerk of such parish:

And whereas the Right Honourable Sir Richard Assheton Cross, one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, after giving to the Incumbent and the Vestry Clerk of the parish herein-after mentioned ten days' previous notice of his intention to make such representation, has made a representation, stating that, for the protection of the public health, burials should be discontinued in the said parish with the modifications hereinafter specified:

And whereas Her Majesty in Council was pleased, by Her Order in Council of the seven-teenth day of September last, to give notice of such representation: and to order that the same be taken into consideration by a Committee of the Lords of Her Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council, on the thirty-first day of October, one thousand eight hundred and eighty-five; and such Order has been published in the London Gazette, and copies thereof have been affixed as required by the said Act:

Now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, is pleased to order and it is hereby ordered, that burials be discontinued, as follows, in the undermentioned parish (except as is herein otherwise directed) as follows, viz.:—

HAMMERSMITH, MIDDLESEX.—Forthwith and entirely in the burial-ground attached to the Convent of the Good Shepherd, Hammersmith, in the county of Middlesex, except for the burial of eight of the nuns now belonging to the convent at their decease.

C. L. Peel.

AT the Court at Windsor, the 12th day of December, 1885.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act passed in the session of Parliament held in the twentieth and twenty-first years of Her Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to amend the Burial Acts," it is, amongst other things, enacted, that in case it appear to Her Majesty in Council, upon the petition of the Local Board of Health of any district established under the Public Health Act, that the district of such Local Board of Health is co-extensive with a district for which it is proposed to provide a burial-ground, and that no Burial Board has been appointed for such district, and that an Order in Council has been made for closing all or any of the burial-grounds within the said district, it shall be lawful for Her Majesty, with the advice of Her Privy Council, in case Her Majesty see fit so to do, to order that such Local Board shall be a Burial Board for the district of such Local Board, and thereupon such Local Board shall be a Burial Board for such district accordingly, and the powers and provisions of the Acts therein-before mentioned (except the provisions relating to the constitution or appointment and resignation of members of Burial Boards), and the provisions therein contained, shall extend to the district of such Board, and to such Board, and to any burial-ground and places for the reception of the bodies of the dead previously to interment which may be provided by such Board, in like manner as to any parish or parishes, and the Burial Board thereof, and any burial-ground, and any such places as aforesaid provided by such last-mentioned Board, save that no approval, sanction, or authorization of any vestry shall be requisite: Provided always, that notice of such petition, and of the time when it shall please Her Majesty to order the same to be taken into consideration by the Privy Council, shall be published in the London Gazette, and in one of the newspapers usually circulating in the district of such Local Board, one month, at least, before such petition is so considered:

And whereas the Tow Law Local Board, in the county of Durham, have petitioned Her Majesty in Council, stating that the district of the said Local Board is co-extensive with the district for which it is proposed to provide a burial-ground, that an Order in Council has been made for closing the existing burial grounds at Dan's Castle and Tow Law that no Burial Board has been appointed for the said district, and praying that the said Local Board may be constituted a Burial Board for the district of such Local Board.

And whereas notice of such petition, and of the time when it pleased Her Majesty to order the same to be taken into consideration by the Privy Council has been published in the London Gazette, and in one of the newspapers usually circulating in the district of the said Local Board one month at least before such petition was so considered.

Now therefore Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, is pleased to order, and it is hereby ordered, that the said Local Board shall be a Burial Board for the district of such Local Board, in accordance with the provisions of the hereinbefore in part recited Act.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act passed in the Session of Parliament held in the sixteenth and seventeenth years of Her Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to amend the laws concerning the burial of the dead in England beyond the limits of the Metropolis, and to amend the Act concerning the burial of the dead in the Metropolis," it is enacted that, in case it appears to Her Majesty in Council, upon the representation of one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, that for the protection of the public health the opening of any new burial-ground in any city or town, or within any other limits, save with the previous approval of one of such Secretaries of State, should be prohibited, or that burials in any city or town, or within any other limits, or in any burial-grounds or places of burial, should be wholly discontinued, or should be discontinued subject to any exception or qualification, it shall be lawful for Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, to order that no new burial-ground shall be opened in any city or town, or within such limits, without such previous approval, or (as the case may require) that, after a time mentioned in the Order, burials in such city or town, or within such limits, or in such burial-grounds or places of burial, shall be discontinued wholly, or subject to any exceptions or qualifications mentioned in such Order, and so from time to time as circumstances may require; provided always, that notice of such representation, and of the time when it shall please Her Majesty to order that the same be taken into consideration by the Privy Council, shall be published in the London Gazette, and shall be affixed on the doors of the churches or chapels of, or on some other conspicuous places within, the parishes affected by such representation, one month before such representation is so considered; provided also, that no such representation shall be made in relation to the burial-ground of any parish until ten days' previous notice of the intention to make such representation shall have been given to the Incumbent and Vestry Clerk or Churchwardens of such parish:

bents and the Churchwardens of the parishes hereinafter mentioned ten days' previous notice of his intention to make such representation, has made a representation stating that, for the protection of the public health, no new burial ground should be opened in the undermentioned parishes without the previous consent of one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, and that burials should be discontinued therein, with certain modifications:

And whereas Her Majesty was pleased, by Her Order in Council of the seventeenth day of September last, to give notice of such representation, and to order that the same should be taken into consideration by a Committee of the Lords of Her Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council, on the thirty-first day of October, one thousand eight hundred and eighty-five, and such Order has been published in the London Gazette, and copies thereof have been affixed, as required by the said Act:

Now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, is pleased to order, and it is hereby ordered, that no new burial ground shall be opened in the undermentioned parishes without the previous approval of one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, and that burials in the said parishes shall be discontinued, as follows, viz.:-

PRESENT,

The QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act passed in the session of Parliament held in the sixteenth and seventeenth years of Her Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to amend the laws concerning the burial of the dead in England beyond the limits of the Metropolis, and to amend the Act concerning the burial of the dead in the Metropolis," it is enacted that, in case it appears to Her Majesty in Council, upon the representation of one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, that, for the protection of the public health, the opening of any new burial ground in any city or town, or within any other limits, save with the previous approval of one of such Secretaries of State, should be prohibited, or that burials in any city or town, or within any other limits, or in any burial ground or places of burial, should be wholly discontinued, or should be discontinued subject to any exception or qualification, it shall be lawful for Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, to order that no new burial ground shall be opened in any city or town, or within such limits, without such previous approval, or (as the case may require), that, after a time mentioned in the Order, burials in such city or town, or within such limits, or in such burial grounds or places of burial, shall be discontinued wholly, or subject to any exceptions or qualications mentioned in such Order, and so from time to time as circumstances may require ; provided always, that notice of such representation, and of the time when it shall please Her Majesty to order that the same be taken into consideration by the Privy Council, shall be published in the London Gazette, and shall be affixed on the doors of the churches or chapels of, or on some other conspicuous places within, the parishes affected by such representation, one month before such representation is so considered ; provided also that no such representation shall be made in relation to the burial ground of any parish until ten days' previous notice of the intention to make such representation shall have been given to the Incumbent and Vestry Clerk or Churchwardens of such parish :

And whereas by another Act passed in the session of Parliament held in the eighteenth and nineteenth years of Her Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act further to amend the laws concerning the burial of the dead in England," it is, amongst other things, enacted that it shall be lawful for Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, from time to time to postpone the time appointed by any Order in Council for the discontinuance of burials, or otherwise to vary any Order in Council made under any of the Acts recited in the said Act, or under the said Act (whether the time thereby appointed for the discontinuance of burials thereunder, or other operation of such Order, shall or shall not have arrived), as to Her Majesty, with such advice as aforesaid, may seem fit :

And whereas the Right Honourable Sir Richard Assheton Cross, one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, after giving to the Incumbent and Churchwardens of the parish hereinafter mentioned ten days previous notice of his intention to make such representation, has made a representation stating that he is of opinion that the Order of Her Majesty in Council of the twenty-eighth day of July, one thousand eight hundred and seventy-one, in so far as it affects burials in the churchyard of New Shoreham, in the county of Sussex, should be varied, and that the directions hereinafter set forth should be substituted for those contained in the said Order with respect to burial in the said churchyard :

And whereas Her Majesty was pleased by Her Order in Council of the seventeenth day of September, one thousand eight hundred and eighty-five, to give notice of such representation and to order that the same should be taken into consideration by a Committee of the Lords of Her Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council on the thirty-first day of October, one thousand eight hundred and eighty-five, and such Order has been published in the London Gazette and copies thereof have been affixed as required by the said first recited Act :

Now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, is pleased to order, and it is hereby ordered, that the said Order of the twenty-eighth day of July, one thousand eight hundred and seventy-one, be varied as follows, viz. :—

That burials be discontinued forthwith and entirely in the parish church of New Shoreham, in the county of Sussex ; and also in the churchyard, except as follows :—

(a.) In such vaults and wholly walled graves as are now existing in the churchyard burials may be allowed on condition that every coffin buried therein be separately enclosed by stonework or brickwork properly cemented.

(b.) In such partly walled graves as are now existing in the churchyard, provided that the earth above them can be opened to the depth of five feet without exposing coffins or disturbing human remains, burials may be allowed of so many of the following relations of those interred therein at the date of this Order, viz., widows and widowers, as can be buried at or below that depth.

C. L. Peel.

AT the Court at Windsor, the 12th day of December, 1885.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act passed in the session of Parliament held in the sixteenth and seventeenth years of Her Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to amend the laws concerning the burial of the dead in England beyond the limits of the Metropolis, and to amend the Act concerning the burial of the dead in the Metropolis," it is enacted that, in case it appears to Her Majesty in Council, upon the representation of one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, that, for the protection of the public health, the opening of any new burial-ground in any city or town, or within any other limits, save with the previous approval of one of such Secretaries of State, should be prohibited, or that burials in any city or town, or within any other limits, or in any burial-grounds or places of burial, should be wholly discontinued, or should be discontinued subject to any exception or qualification, it shall be lawful for Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, to order that no new burial ground shall be opened in any city or town, or within such limits, without such previous approval, or (as the case may require) that, after a time mentioned in the Order, burials in such city or town, or within such limits, or in such burial grounds or places of burial, shall be discontinued wholly or subject to any exceptions or qualifications mentioned in such Order, and so from time to time as circumstances may require: provided always, that notice of such representation, and of the time when it shall please Her Majesty to order that the same be taken into consideration by the Privy Council, shall be published in the London Gazette, and shall be affixed on the doors of the churches or chapels of, or on some other conspicuous places within, the parishes affected by such representation, one month before such representation is so considered; provided also, that no such representation shall be made in relation to the burial ground of any parish until ten days' previous notice of the intention to make such representation shall have been given to the Incumbent and Vestry Clerk or Churchwardens of such parish:

And whereas by another Act passed in the session of Parliament held in the eighteenth and nineteenth years of Her Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act further to amend the laws concerning the burial of the dead in England," it is, amongst other things, enacted that it shall be lawful for Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, from time to time, to postpone the time appointed by any Order in Council for the discontinuance of burials, or otherwise to vary any Order in Council made under any of the Acts recited in the said Act, or under the said Act (whether the time thereby appointed for the discontinuance of burials thereunder, or other operation of such Order, shall or shall not have arrived), as to Her Majesty, with such advice as aforesaid, may seem fit:

And whereas Her Majesty was pleased by Her Order in Council of the twentieth day of March, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-seven, to direct the discontinuance of burials in the church and churchyard of Holy Trinity, Bristol.

And whereas the Right Honourable Sir Richard Assheton Cross, one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, after giving to the Incumbent and Churchwardens of the above-named parish ten days' previous notice of his intention to make such representation, has made a representation stating that he is of opinion that the said Order of Her Majesty in Council should be varied by substituting the directions hereinafter set forth for those contained in the said Order in so far as they affect burials in the said church and churchyard:

And whereas Her Majesty was pleased by Her Order in Council of the seventeenth day of September last, to give notice of such representation, and to order that the same should be taken into consideration by a Committee of the Lords of Her Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council on the thirty-first day of October, one thousand eight hundred and eighty-five, and such Order has been published in the London Gazette, and copies thereof have been affixed, as required by the said first-recited Act:

Now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, is pleased to order, and it is hereby ordered, that the said Order in Council, dated the twentieth day of March, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-seven, be varied, and that burials be discontinued in the said church and churchyard as follows, viz.:

That burials be discontinued forthwith and entirely in the parish church of Holy Trinity, Bristol, in the county of Gloucester; and also in the churchyard, except as follows:—

(a.) In such vaults and wholly walled graves as are now existing in the churchyard burials may be allowed on condition that every coffin buried therein be separately enclosed by stonework or brickwork properly cemented.

(b.) In such earthen graves now existing in the churchyard as can be opened to the depth of five feet without exposing coffins or disturbing human remains, burials may be allowed of so many of the following relations of those interred therein at the date of this Order, viz.:—widows and widowers, as can be buried at or below that depth.

Privy Council Office, 12th December, 1885.

THE following Statute, passed on the 22nd day of October, 1885, by the Governing Body of Wadham College, Oxford, has been submitted for the approval of Her Majesty in Council, and notice of its having been so submitted is published in accordance with the provisions contained in the Universities of Oxford and Cambridge Act, 1877:—

Wadham College Statutes.

Statute IV, 9.

"EVERY Scholarship shall be tenable for two years from the day of election, if the person elected be already a member of the University. If not then it shall be tenable for two years from a day not later than seven months after the day of election to be fixed by the Warden and Fellows. At the expiration of such two years it shall determine, unless the Electoral Board shall by resolution in writing to be reported to the Warden and Fellows, declare "themselves satisfied with the industry and good conduct of the Scholar; in which case the tenure of his Scholarship shall be renewed by the Warden and Fellows for a further term not exceeding two years. If it shall have been renewed for a less term than two years, and if at the end of such term the Electoral Board shall pass a resolution as aforesaid, the Warden and Fellows may again renew the tenure of the Scholarship, and in like manner from time to time as they may think fit, but so that the whole time shall not exceed a second period of two years; at the end of this latter period the Warden and Fellows may extend the tenure of any such Scholarship, if for special reasons they deem it advisable so to do, but so that the whole term for which the Scholarship is held shall not exceed five years. Provided always that nothing in this clause shall prevent the exercise at any time for any sufficient cause of the power of deprivation conferred by the clause hereinafter numbered 12 or of any other power of inflicting any fines or penalties less than deprivation under any byelaw of the College for the time being in force."

Privy Council Office, December 12, 1885.

NOTICE is hereby given, that a Petition of the Town Council of the Borough of Croydon, praying that a Scheme may be settled for the adjustment of the liabilities of the School Board for the parish of Croydon and for other purposes has been submitted to Her Majesty in Council, and the Draft of the proposed Scheme is hereby published in pursuance of the provisions of the Municipal Corporations Act 1882:

Municipal Corporations Act 1882, and School Boards Act 1885.

Draft Scheme.

WHEREAS on the 9th day of March, 1883, the Queen's Most Excellent Majesty was pleased by Royal Charter to extend the Municipal Corporations Acts to so much of the parish of Croydon, in the county of Surrey, as excluded a detached portion of the parish known as Selsdon or Croydon Crook.

And whereas at the date of the said Charter there was in existence a School Board for the said parish of Croydon. The said School Board is hereinafter referred to as the Parish School Board. And whereas the said School Board for the said parish continued to act as a School Board for the whole of the said parish of Croydon, including the said detached portion thereof until the 25th day of March, 1883, when, by virtue of an order made by the Local Government Board under the provisions of the Detached Parishes Act, 1882, the said detached portion of the parish was severed therefrom and became annexed to and formed part of the parish of Sanderstead in the said county.

And whereas thereafter and until the 18th day of June, 1885, the said School Board acted as a School Board for the borough of Croydon created by the said Royal Charter.

And whereas on the 1st day of May, 1885, an Order was made by the Education Department for the election of a School Board for the borough of Croydon, and on the 27th day of May, 1885, a School Board for the borough of Croydon was duly elected, and the same is hereinafter referred to as the Borough School Board.

And whereas in the course of the ordinary conduct of business by the Parish School Board certain Acts were done by the Parish School Board, by the Council of the Borough of Croydon, and by certain Justices acting in and for the Petty Sessional Division of Croydon.

And whereas under the provisions of the School Boards Act, 1885, the Council of the said borough have petitioned Her Majesty in Council that a scheme may be made and settled containing the provisions hereinafter contained.

And whereas it is expedient, right, and just that such a scheme should be settled.

Now therefore the Committee of Her Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council have settled a scheme containing the provisions herein, and do hereby order and declare as follows:—

- (1.) This scheme may be cited for all purposes as "The Croydon School Board Scheme, 1885."
- (2.) This scheme shall come into operation on the date of its confirmation by Order in Council, which date is hereinafter mentioned as the commencement of this scheme.
- (3.) Upon the day of the commencement of this scheme the Parish School Board shall cease to exist, and upon and after the said day all the powers, rights, privileges, franchises, duties, obligations, property, things in action, and liabilities whatsoever, exercisable by, or vested in, or attaching to the Parish School Board shall be transferred to and extend to continue and vest in and be exercised by and be enforceable against the Borough School Board.
- (4.) The Municipal Borough of Croydon and the parish of Croydon shall be the School District of the School Board for the time being in force for the borough of Croydon.
- (5.) The acts respectively mentioned in the schedules hereto shall be deemed to have been duly authorized by law, and to have been duly done by the Parish School Board, the Council of the said Borough, and the Justices of the Peace acting in and for the Petty Sessional Division of Croydon respectively.
- (6.) The Borough School Board, elected pursuant to the said Order of the Education Department, shall be deemed to have been a legally constituted School Board, and any persons who have been or are acting as members of the Borough School Board shall be deemed to have been legally chosen and to have formed and to form a legal School Board, and on the retirement of all or any members of the said School Board the vacancies may be filled up in the same manner in all respects as if such retiring members or member had been and were in all respects legally chosen members of a legally constituted School Board.

FIRST SCHEDULE.

1. Precepts made by the Parish School Board requiring the Town Council of the borough of Croydon to pay the sums following upon the dates following, that is to say:—November 5th, 1883, £500; November 30th, 1883, £1,000; December 15th, 1883, £1,000; December 31st, 1883, £1,000; January 15th, 1884, £1,000; January 30th, 1884, £1,000; April 19th, 1884, £1,000; May 19th, 1884, £1,000; June 19th, 1884, £1,000; July 19th, 1884, £1,500; August 19th, 1884, £500; October 20th, 1884, £1,000; November 10th, 1884, £2,000;

December 1st, 1884, £2,000; December 20th, 1884, £1,000; January 20th, 1885, £1,000; April 2nd, 1885, £500; May 19th, 1885, £1,000.

2. All informations laid by or under the direction of the Parish School Board against persons for breach of the Bye-laws of the said Board between the 9th March, 1883, and the commencement of this Scheme, and all proceedings taken by or by the direction of the said School Board under the 11th and 12th sections respectively [of the Elementary Education Act, 1876.

3. All resolutions passed and acts done by the Parish School Board and the Committees thereof between the 9th March, 1883, and the commencement of this Scheme if such resolutions and acts would have been valid if passed by a legally constituted School Board duly exercising its powers in a School District for which it had been elected.

SECOND SCHEDULE.

1. All payments made by the Town Council of the borough of Croydon to the Parish School Board pursuant to the precepts set out in the first schedule and all precepts issued by the said Town Council to the Overseers of the parish of Croydon requiring them to provide the funds wherewith to make such payments.

THIRD SCHEDULE.

1. All orders, convictions and warrants made and issued by the Justices of the Peace acting in and for the Petty Sessional Division of Croydon between the 9th March, 1883, and the commencement of this Scheme, upon summonses issued at the instance of the Parish School Board or the officers thereof in respect of the breach of any of the Bye-laws of the said School Board, or the 11th and 12th sections of the Elementary Education Act, 1876.

Privy Council Office, December 12, 1885.

NOTICE is hereby given, that a Petition has been presented to Her Majesty in Council from the Town Council of the Borough of New Windsor, in the county of Berks, praying, under the provisions of the Act 45 and 46 Victoria, cap. 50, for an alteration of the number and boundaries of the Wards into which the said borough is now divided. And notice is hereby further given, that Her Majesty has been pleased, by Her Order in Council of this day's date, to order that the said petition be taken into consideration by a Committee of the Lords of Her Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council, on the twentieth day of January, one thousand eight hundred and eighty-six.

AT the Council Chamber, Whitehall, the 7th day of December, 1885.

By the Lords of Her Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council.

PRESENT:

Lord President.

Duke of Richmond and Gordon.

Sir Henry Holland.

WHEREAS there was this day read at the Board a letter to the Clerk of the Council from the Secretary and Registrar of the Pharmaceutical Society of Great Britain, dated the fifth day of December, one thousand eight hundred and eighty-five, in the words following:—

"I have to acquaint you that at a meeting of the Council of this Society held last Wednesday the Pharmaceutical Chemists

"whose names appear on the other side were appointed Examiners for the ensuing year, and I am requested to submit their names to the Privy Council for approval, in accordance with the Bye-laws of the Society.

"Neither of the persons appointed has held office as Member of the Council of the Society during the year preceding the date hereof."

TREASURY WARRANT.

WE, the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury, in pursuance of the Acts relating to Her Majesty's Post Office, and in exercise of all powers enabling us in this behalf, do, by this Warrant, made on the representation of Her Majesty's Postmaster-General (testified by his signing the same), and under the hands of two of us, the said Commissioners, order, direct, and declare as follows:—

Interpretation Clause.

1.—(1.) The expressions "Parcels" and "Parcel" in this Warrant respectively mean any postal packet, which is posted as a parcel, in accordance with the provisions of this Warrant, or any Warrant amending the same.

(2.) The expression "United Kingdom" includes the Channel Islands and the Isle of Man.

(3.) The expression "Lord Lieutenant" means the Lord Lieutenant of Ireland, or other Chief Governor or Governors of Ireland for the time being.

(4.) The expression "arms" includes any cannon, gun, revolver, pistol, and any description of fire-arms, also any sword, cutlass, pike, and bayonet, also any part of any arms as so defined.

(5.) The expression "ammunition" includes bullets, gunpowder, nitro-glycerine, dynamite, guncotton, and every other explosive substance, whether fitted for use with any arms or otherwise.

(6.) The expression "prohibited district in Ireland" means any place in Ireland in respect of which the Lord Lieutenant of Ireland, by and with the advice of the Privy Council in Ireland, may have made or may make orders for prohibiting or regulating therein the sale or importation of arms and ammunition.

Places between which Parcels may be transmitted.

2. From and after the date when this Warrant comes into operation parcels may, subject to the provisions of this Warrant, be transmitted by post between the United Kingdom and British Guiana and Cyprus.

Maximum Dimensions and Weight.

3. There shall not be conveyed or tendered for conveyance by post under this Warrant any Parcel the dimensions of which shall exceed in length three feet six inches, or in length and girth measured together six feet (such girth being measured round the thickest part of such Parcel), or which shall exceed in weight seven pounds.

Rates of Postage.

4. On all Parcels transmitted by post under this Warrant between the United Kingdom and British Guiana there shall be charged and paid the following rates of postage (that is to say):—

On every Parcel not exceeding one pound in weight ten pence.

On every Parcel exceeding one pound and not exceeding seven pounds in weight, for the first pound ten pence, and for every additional pound, or fraction of a pound in weight, eight pence.

5. On all Parcels transmitted by post under this Warrant between the United Kingdom and Cyprus there shall be charged and paid the following rates of postage (that is to say):—

In the United Kingdom.

On every Parcel not exceeding one pound in weight, one shilling and four pence.

On every Parcel exceeding one pound and not exceeding seven pounds in weight, for the first pound one shilling and four pence, and for every additional pound, or fraction of a pound in weight, eight pence.

In Cyprus.

On every Parcel not exceeding one pound in weight, one shillings and three pence.

On every Parcel exceeding one pound, and not exceeding seven pounds in weight, for the first pound, one shilling and three pence, and for every additional pound, or fraction of a pound in weight, six pence.

Prepayment.

6. The postage chargeable according to the rates hereinbefore mentioned respectively shall in all cases (except as otherwise provided in this Warrant) be prepaid at the time of posting, and such prepayment shall, in the United Kingdom, be effected by means of adhesive postage stamps.

Times of Posting.

7. Parcels intended to be transmitted by post may, in the United Kingdom, be posted on any day of the week except Sunday, but shall not be posted on Sundays, or in England or Ireland, on Christmas Day or Good Friday, and in Scotland on either of the two Sacramental Fast Days, except in the cases next hereinafter mentioned, that is to say:—

Where the delivery of Parcels on Sundays, or any of the other days aforesaid, at certain Post Offices, to addressees calling for the same, may hereafter be specially authorized by the Postmaster-General, the posting of Parcels on Sundays, or such other days as aforesaid, at such offices respectively, shall also be permitted within such times and in such manner as may be directed by the Postmaster-General.

Mode of Posting.

8. Except as otherwise provided in this Warrant, all Parcels shall in the United Kingdom be posted by being handed in at a Post Office in the manner hereinafter provided, within the hours during which such office shall be open to the public for the posting of Parcels.

Posting at Post Offices.

9. The following provisions shall apply to the posting of Parcels at any Post Office in the United Kingdom, that is to say:—

(1.) It shall be the duty of a person bringing a Parcel to hand it to an officer on duty at the counter in such office.

(2.) Such Parcel must be accompanied by or have affixed to it a declaration of such kind and stating the contents of the Parcel in such manner and form and with such other particulars as the Commissioners of Customs and the Postmaster-General may prescribe.

(3.) Such Parcel shall be measured and weighed by such officer, and (if such Parcel do not exceed the limits of measurement or weight hereinbefore mentioned) the postage thereof according to the rates hereinbefore mentioned shall be paid by means of postage stamps affixed to such Parcel, and shall be verified by such officer, and no such Parcel shall be forwarded by the post without being accompanied by or having affixed thereto such declaration as aforesaid, and until such Parcel has been so measured and weighed and the postage chargeable thereon shall have been properly paid: and if any such Parcel shall be left at a Post Office without being accompanied by or having affixed thereto such declaration and without being so measured and weighed and the postage chargeable thereon properly paid as aforesaid such Parcel shall be detained and may be returned or given up to the sender thereof or otherwise dealt with or disposed of in any manner authorized by this Warrant.

10. Any packet transmissible by Parcel Post from the United Kingdom which from any words or marks thereon, or other external evidence, appears to have been intended for transmission as a Parcel, but which has not been tendered for transmission as a Parcel, but has been posted in a Post Office Letter-box or otherwise than according to the manner hereinbefore prescribed for the posting of Parcels may, in the discretion of the Postmaster-General, either be detained and returned or given up to the sender, or be dealt with as follows, that is to say:—

(1.) If the said Packet is fully prepaid with the Letter or Book Packet rate of postage and otherwise conforms to the Regulations as to the Letter or Book Post the same may be forwarded as a Letter or Book Packet (as the case may be).

(2.) If the said Packet is not fully prepaid with the Letter or Book Packet rate of postage the same may be forwarded to its destination as a Parcel charged with the sum of three pence in addition to all other postage payable upon such Packet as a Parcel.

Collection of Parcels.

11. The Postmaster-General may, if he think fit, from time to time authorize such officers as he may direct to receive Parcels for the Post under such regulations and conditions as he may from time to time prescribe.

Retention of Parcels at Postes Restantes.

12. Any Parcel addressed to a Post Office in the United Kingdom "to be called for" shall, if not called for, remain in such office for a period of one week after the date of the arrival of such Parcel thereat, and shall then be dealt with as provided in this Warrant.

Parcels for Places beyond limits of free Delivery.

13. If the place of address in the United Kingdom of any Parcel be beyond the limits of the free postal delivery of any town or district to which the same may be forwarded by post, such Parcel shall be detained at the nearest Post Office until an opportunity of delivering the same shall occur, or in default of any such opportunity until a period of one week shall have elapsed from the time of the receipt of the Parcel at such Post Office. Upon the expiration of such period without such Parcel having been called for, such Parcel shall be dealt with as provided in this Warrant.

Parcels addressed to Ships.

14. Any Parcel addressed to a ship at any port in the United Kingdom shall, if from any cause such Parcel cannot be delivered at such ship, be detained at the Post Office at such port for a period of one calendar month, and if not delivered at the expiration of that time such Parcel shall be dealt with as provided in this Warrant.

Return and Disposal of Undelivered Parcels.

15. With regard to

(a.) Parcels which are addressed to a Post Office in the United Kingdom to be called for, or to a place in the United Kingdom beyond the limits of the free postal delivery of any town or district, or to a ship at any port in the United Kingdom, and which are not called for or delivered within the respective times in this Warrant specified in that behalf; and (b.) Parcels which cannot be delivered in the United Kingdom for want of a true direction, or by reason that the addressee is dead, or cannot be found, or has refused the same, or has refused to pay any charges thereon, or for any other sufficient reason;

The following provisions shall apply, that is to say:—

(1.) The Parcel shall, as the Postmaster-General may from time to time direct, be retained at or forthwith forwarded to such place as the Postmaster-General may from time to time appoint, and may, if necessary, be there opened and examined.

(2.) Where the name and address of the sender can be ascertained from the Parcel, or the Declaration accompanying the same, notice shall be given by Post to the sender by the Post Office of the place from which the Parcel was transmitted to the United Kingdom that the Parcel will, in default of any claim on the part of the addressee, be given up to the sender or his agent upon personal application at such place as aforesaid, or at the request of the sender will be returned to him by post, in either case upon payment of such charges as are hereinafter mentioned.

(3.) Where the name and address of the sender cannot be ascertained from the Parcel notice shall be publicly given (by affixing the same at such place or places, or in such other manner as the Postmaster-General may direct), and notice shall also be given to the Post Office of the place from which the Parcel was transmitted to the United Kingdom, that the Parcel will, in default of any claim on the part of the addressee, and upon payment of such charges as are hereinafter mentioned, be given up upon the personal application of the sender or his agent, or be returned to the sender by post.

(4.) In any case the notice shall state that in default of the receipt by the Postmaster-General of an application for the Parcel during a period to be specified in such notice from some person who in the Postmaster-General's judgment is entitled to receive the Parcel, it shall be disposed of in such manner as the Postmaster-General may direct.

(5.) The Postmaster-General may, in his discretion, specify in any such notice, or otherwise, the periods during which Parcels may be returned to the senders thereof, and in so doing may have regard to the nature and contents of Parcels.

(6.) A Parcel shall not be given up or returned by post to the sender except upon payment by him of any charge for redirection or other charge to which the Parcel has become liable under the provisions of this Warrant, or of any such Regulations as are referred to in section 14 of the "Post Office (Parcels) Act, 1882."

(7.) A Parcel shall not be given up or returned by post to the sender except upon payment by him of the sum of one penny in respect of every day or part of a day during which the Parcel remains at the place appointed as aforesaid after the expiration of three calendar months from the day on which the Parcel has arrived at such place.

(8.) Where the sender requests a Parcel to be returned to him by post, such Parcel shall not be returned to the sender except upon payment by him of a new and distinct rate of postage, according to the rates fixed by this Warrant, and in such case the said rate of postage and all other charges to which the Parcel has become liable shall be prepaid by the sender in stamps before the return of the parcel to him.

(9.) The Postmaster-General may require proof to his satisfaction that an applicant for a Parcel is entitled to receive the same.

(10.) Where no application is made for a Parcel within the period specified in any such notice as aforesaid, or an applicant fails to prove to the satisfaction of the Postmaster-General that he is entitled to receive the Parcel, or refuses or fails to pay the charges to which the Parcel has become liable under this Warrant, the Parcel may be dealt with or disposed of in such manner as the Postmaster-General may in his discretion direct or authorize.

(11.) If at any time while a Parcel remains in the possession of the Postmaster-General it becomes offensive or injurious to any officer of the Post Office, or other person, or to other Parcels, it may forthwith be dealt with or disposed of in such manner as the Postmaster-General may in his discretion direct or authorize, notwithstanding that the provisions of this Warrant as to the return of such Parcel, have not been or have only partially been complied with.

Re-direction of Parcels.

16. Any Parcel may be re-directed from its original address, or any substituted address, within the United Kingdom, to any other address within the United Kingdom, and in every case of such re-direction there shall be charged on such Parcel in respect of each such re-direction, and paid by the addressee thereof in money upon the delivery of such Parcel, a new and distinct rate of postage, equal in amount to the rate of postage which would have been chargeable on such Parcel as an Inland parcel.

Remission of Re-direction Rates.

17. The Postmaster-General may wholly remit the rate of postage for re-direction on any Parcel addressed to the United Kingdom which may, on the request of the addressee thereof, be re-directed by an Officer of the Post Office and again forwarded by post to the same person at any address within the limits of the same free postal delivery as the address from which such Parcel was so re-directed.

Prohibitions.

18. There shall not be conveyed or tendered for conveyance by post any Parcel consisting of or containing any indecent or obscene picture, painting, photograph, lithograph, engraving, print, book or card, or any indecent or obscene article or thing of any other kind or any Parcel having thereon, or on the cover thereof any words, marks, or designs of an indecent, obscene, libellous, or grossly offensive character, and if any Parcel shall be posted or tendered for conveyance by post which prima facie appears to be, or which any Officer of the Post Office may have reasonable cause to suspect to be, a Parcel within the description aforesaid, the same shall be detained, opened, and examined, and if on such examination it be found to infringe this or any other of the Regulations contained in this or any other Treasury Warrant relating to the Post Office, it may be dealt with and disposed of in any manner which may be authorized by the Postmaster-General.

19. There shall not be conveyed or tendered for conveyance by post :—

- (1.) Any Parcel containing any substance, material, article, or thing of any kind whatsoever, which might, in the course of transmission through the post, be or become, or be rendered injurious to any officer of the Post Office, or any other person who may deal with such Parcel, or to any bag, basket, box, or other receptacle in or by which such Parcel may be conveyed by post, or to any other Parcel or other contents of any such receptacle.
- (2.) Any Parcel consisting of or enclosing any bladder or other membranous substance containing a liquid of any kind.
- (3.) Any Parcel containing a live animal of any kind whatsoever.
- (4.) Any Parcel which either from the nature of the contents thereof, or from the absence of proper packing or covering, is, in the opinion of the Postmaster-General or his officers, likely to injure any person in the course of the conveyance of the Parcel through the post, or any receptacle in or by which such Parcel may be conveyed by post, or any other Parcel or any other contents of such receptacle.

Any such Parcel, if posted or tendered for conveyance by post, may be detained, and either returned or given up to the sender thereof or dealt with or disposed of in such other manner as may be authorized by the Postmaster-General.

20. There shall not be posted or tendered for conveyance by post any Parcel consisting of or containing more than one Parcel or other Postal Packet, where any one of such Packets is intended for delivery to a person other than the addressee of such Parcel, and if any such Parcel shall be posted or tendered for conveyance by post the contents thereof, so far as the same consist of Parcels, may be forwarded to the addressees of such Parcels charged with new and distinct rates of postage, according to the rates fixed by this Warrant, and so far as the same consist of other Postal Packets, may be treated and charged as unpaid Postal Packets, or such Parcel may be otherwise dealt with or disposed of as the Postmaster-General may authorize.

21. There shall not be conveyed or tendered or delivered for conveyance by post in or to any prohibited district in Ireland any Parcel containing arms or ammunition, and any such Parcel, if posted or tendered or delivered for conveyance by post as aforesaid, may be detained and opened and returned to the sender thereof, or otherwise dealt with according to law.

Non-compliance with Regulations.

22. In any case not hereinbefore expressly provided for, where any Parcel shall be posted or tendered for conveyance by post which in any respect infringes or fails to comply with the regulations in this Warrant contained, or any of them, such Parcel may, at the option of the Postmaster-General, either be dealt with as in this Warrant provided, with reference to Parcels which cannot be delivered, or be dealt with or disposed of in such manner as the Postmaster-General may in his discretion direct or authorize.

Provision for safety of Parcels.

23. In any case where any officer of the Post Office may find it necessary or expedient for the safety or protection of Parcels that any Parcel should be forwarded or delivered by some later despatch or delivery than that for which the same was posted or despatched, or intended to be posted or despatched respectively, he may delay the despatch or delivery of such Parcel, or make such other and special arrangements as to despatch or delivery thereof, not, however, involving a greater delay than 24 hours in the whole, as may be deemed by such officer necessary or expedient in the circumstances of the case.

Parcels not to interfere with Letter Post.

24. Where the despatch or delivery from a Post Office in the United Kingdom of letters would be delayed by the despatch or delivery therefrom at the same time of Parcels, such Parcels, or any of them, may be detained in the Post Office until the despatch or delivery next following that by which they would ordinarily be despatched or delivered.

Postmaster-General not liable for Loss or Damage.

25. Nothing contained in or done under or in pursuance of this Warrant shall render the Postmaster-General liable, either personally or in his official capacity, to any action or other legal proceeding in respect or in consequence of any loss of or damage to any Parcel, whether such loss or damage be occasioned by or arise from any act or neglect of any officer of the Post Office or any other person.

Customs Regulations.

26. Parcels intended to be transmitted by post under the provisions of this Warrant shall not be posted, forwarded, conveyed, or delivered, except subject to such Regulations as are referred to in section 14 of the "Post Office (Parcels) Act, 1882."

Remission of Postage.

27. The Postmaster-General may, in any case in which he may consider it just or reasonable so to do, remit any postage or any sum made payable under this Warrant.

Commencement of Warrant.

28. This Warrant shall come into operation on the first day of January, one thousand eight hundred and eighty-six.

Dated this 10th day of December, 1885.

*Sidney Herbert,
W. H. Walrond,*

Two of the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury.

John Manners,

Her Majesty's Postmaster-General.

Civil Service Commission, December 15, 1885.

THE Civil Service Commissioners hereby give notice, that an Open Competitive Examination will be held in London on the 2nd February, 1886, and following days, under the Special Regulations dated 8th August, 1884, and published in the London Gazette of the same date, respecting open competitions for the situations of Draughtsman in the Department of the Director of Engineering and Architectural Works in the Admiralty at the Outposts, and of Assistant Surveyor in the Office of Her Majesty's Works, &c. A Preliminary Examination will be held in London, Edinburgh, and Dublin, on the 19th January, 1886.

The number of situations to be filled will be the number vacant at the time of the Examination.

The number at present vacant is four, which are in the class of Assistant Surveyors in the Office of Works.

No person will be admitted to Examination from whom the Secretary of the Civil Service Commission has not received, on or before the 5th January, 1886, an "application" in the Candidate's own handwriting, on a prescribed form, which may be obtained from the Secretary at once.

7, Albert Mansions, S.W., December 7, 1885.

THE Agent-General for the Cape of Good Hope has been requested by the Government of that Colony to publish the following Notice:—

CAPE TOWN, CAPE OF GOOD HOPE.

Master's Office (late Orphan Chamber), October 15, 1885.

Unknown and Foreign Heirs.

AN Account of all estates or property belonging to persons unknown, or not residing within the Colony of the Cape of Good Hope, and not having any known legal representatives therein; and of the names and designations, so far as known, of the persons who are supposed to be interested therein; published in conformity with the 37th section of the Ordinance No. 105 of his Excellency the Governor in Council, promulgated on the 14th day of February, 1834, entitled "An Ordinance for providing for the due administration and management of the estates and property of minors, lunatics, and persons absent from the Colony, and for the proper care of the persons of minors and lunatics."

All persons interested in any of the said estates or property are hereby required, under the provisions of the Ordinance aforesaid, to transmit their claims to the Master of the Supreme Court.

All such claims must be supported by the requisite proof of kindred, and an agent in Cape Town, legally appointed and authorized by the claimant, to prefer the same, and receive the payment thereof.

J. Hofmeyr, Master of the Supreme Court, Administering the Guardians' Fund.

NOTICE is hereby given, that the Chief Registrar of Friendly Societies has, pursuant to 38 and 39 Vic., c. 60, s. 12, by writing under his hand, dated the 10th day of December, 1885, suspended for three months the Registry of the Wonder of the Valley Friendly Society (Register No. 3261), held at the Malt Shovel Inn, Darton, Barnsley, in the county of York, on the ground that the Society has wilfully, and after notice from a Registrar, violated the provisions of the above-mentioned Act, in respect of the valuation of its assets and liabilities. The Society ceases to enjoy during such suspension the privileges of a registered Society, but without prejudice to any liability incurred by the Society, which may be enforced against it as if such suspension had not taken place.

J. M. Ludlow, Chief Registrar.

NOTICE is hereby given, that the Old Friendly Society, Register No. 286, held at the Red Cow Inn, Dudley-street, Wolverhampton, in the county of Stafford, is dissolved by instrument, registered at this office, the 12th day of December, 1885, unless within three months from the date of the Gazette in which this advertisement appears, proceedings be commenced by a member or other person interested in or having any claim on the funds of the Society to set aside such dissolution, and the same be set aside accordingly.

J. M. Ludlow, Chief Registrar of Friendly Societies.

J. S. PURCELL, Registrar of Bank Returns.

In the High Court of Justice.—Chancery Division.
Vice-Chancellor Bacon.

In the Matter of the Companies Acts, 1862 and 1867, and in the Matter of the Otto Company Limited.

BY an Order made by the Vice-Chancellor Bacon in the above matter, dated the 5th day of December, 1885, on the petition of the above-named Company, it was ordered that the above-named Otto Company Limited be wound up by this Court, under the provisions of the Companies Acts, 1862 and 1867.—Dated this 14th day of December, 1885.

Tibbitts and Son, 1, Field-court, Gray's-inn, London, W.C., Solicitors for the said Petitioner.

In the High Court of Justice.—Chancery Division.
Vice-Chancellor Bacon.

In the Matter of the Companies Acts, 1862 and 1867, and in the Matter of the Anglo-Roumanian Preserved Meat and Produce Company Limited.

BY an Order made by the Vice-Chancellor Sir James Bacon in the above matter, dated the 5th day of December instant, on the petition of James David Moore, of 43, Lincoln's-inn-fields, in the county of Middlesex, claiming to be a creditor of the said Company, it was ordered that the voluntary winding up of the said Anglo-Roumanian Preserved Meat and Produce Company Limited be continued, but subject to the supervision of the Court.—Dated this 14th day of December, 1885.

W. W. Gabriel, 43, Lincoln's-inn-fields, London, Solicitor for the Petitioner.

In the High Court of Justice.—Chancery Division.
Mr. Justice Chitty.

In the Matter of the Companies Acts, 1862 and 1867, and in the Matter of the Hydro-Carbon Syndicate Limited.

BY an Order made by Mr. Justice Chitty in the above matter, dated the 5th day of December, 1885, on the petition of the above-named Company, it was ordered that the voluntary winding up of the above-named Hydro-Carbon Syndicate Limited be continued, but subject to the supervision of the Court, and any of the proceedings under the said voluntary winding up may be adopted as the Judge shall think fit; and the creditors, and contributories, and Liquidator of the said Company, and all other persons interested, are to be at liberty to apply to the Judge at Chambers as there may be occasion.—Dated this 14th day of December, 1885.
