

map or plan hereunto annexed, should be assigned as a district chapelry to the said church of the Holy Trinity situate within the limits of the ancient chapelry of Seathwaite as aforesaid, and that the same should be named 'The District Chapelry of Seathwaite.'

"And with the like consent of the said Harvey, Bishop of the said diocese of Carlisle (testified as aforesaid), we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners, further represent that it appears to us to be expedient that banns of matrimony should be published, and that marriages, baptisms, churchings, and burials should be solemnized or performed at the said church of the Holy Trinity, situate within the limits of the ancient chapelry of Seathwaite as aforesaid and that the fees to be received in respect of the publication of such banns and of the solemnization or performance of the said offices should be paid and belong to the minister of the same church for the time being: Provided always, that nothing herein contained shall be construed as expressing any intention on the part of us the said Commissioners to concur in or approve the taking of any fee for the performance of the said office of baptism or for the registration thereof.

"We, therefore, humbly pray that Your Majesty will be graciously pleased to take the premises into Your Royal consideration, and to make such Order with respect thereto as to Your Majesty, in Your Royal wisdom, shall seem meet.

"The SCHEDULE to which the foregoing Representation has reference.

"The District Chapelry of Seathwaite, being:—

"All that the northern part of the parish of Kirkby Ireleth, in the county of Lancaster and in the diocese of Carlisle (comprising the ancient chapelry of Seathwaite) which is co-extensive with the limits of that portion of the township of Dunnerdale-cum-Seathwaite which is bounded upon the south and upon the south-east by an imaginary line commencing upon the boundary which divides the said county of Lancaster from the county of Cumberland at the centre of Ulpha Bridge which carries the road leading from the Kirkhouse to Whistleton Green over the River Duddon and extending thence first south-eastward and then southward along the middle of the said road for a distance of five chains or thereabouts to the culvert which carries the same road over Birk's Beck and extending thence eastward and in a straight line for a distance of one mile or thereabouts to the summit of Stickle Pike and extending thence north-eastward and in a straight line for a distance of one mile and a half or thereabouts to the summit of Mount Caw and continuing thence north-eastward and in a straight line for a distance of one mile and one third of a mile or thereabouts to the summit of White Pike and continuing thence still north-eastward and in a straight line for a distance of one-third of a mile or thereabouts to the highest point at the southern end of Walney Scar, the last-mentioned point being upon the boundary which divides the said parish of Kirkby Ireleth from the parochial chapelry and rectory of Torver in the parish of Ulverston in the said county of Lancaster and in the diocese of Carlisle aforesaid.

"All which said hereinbefore described portion of the parish of Kirkby Ireleth aforesaid is bounded upon the remaining sides other than upon the south and the south-east as aforesaid that is to say upon the east upon the north and upon the west as follows upon the east partly by the said parochial chapelry and rectory of Torver and partly by the chapelry of Coniston in the parish of Ulverston aforesaid and upon the north and upon the west by the county of Cumberland aforesaid."

And whereas the said representation has been approved by Her Majesty in Council; now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said representation, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Acts; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said diocese of Carlisle.

AT the Court at Osborne House, Isle of Wight, the 10th day of February, 1886.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the fifty-ninth year of His Majesty King George the Third, chapter one hundred and thirty-four; of the Act of the second and third years of Her Majesty, chapter forty-nine; and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Her Majesty, chapter fifty-five, duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a representation, bearing date the twenty-first day of January, in the year one thousand eight hundred and eighty-six, in the words following, that is to say:—

"We the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the fifty-ninth year of His Majesty King George the Third, chapter one hundred and thirty-four; of the Act of the second and third years of Your Majesty chapter forty-nine; and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Your Majesty, chapter fifty-five, have prepared, and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council, the following representation as to the assignment of a district chapelry to the consecrated church situate within the township and chapelry of Micklefield in the parish of Sherburn in the West Riding of the county of York and in the diocese of York.

"Whereas it appears to us to be expedient that a district chapelry should be assigned to the said church situate within the township and chapelry of Micklefield aforesaid.

"Now therefore, with the consent of the Right Honourable and Most Reverend William Archbishop of York (testified by his having signed and sealed this representation), we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners, humbly represent, that it would, in our opinion, be expedient that all that part of the said parish of Sherburn which is comprised within and is co-extensive with the township and chapelry of Micklefield aforesaid, all which part, together with the boundaries thereof, is delineated and set forth on the map or plan hereunto annexed, should be assigned as a district chapelry to the said church situate within such township and chapelry as aforesaid, and that the same should be named 'The District Chapelry of Micklefield.'

"And with the like consent of the said William Archbishop of York (testified as aforesaid), we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners further represent, that it appears to us to be expedient that banns of matrimony should be published, and that marriages, baptisms, churchings, and
