FRIDAY, MARCH 12, 1886.

*Lord Chamberlain's Office, St. James's Palace,
March 5, 1886.*

NOTICE is hereby given, that The Queen will hold a Drawing Room at Buckingham Palace, on Tuesday, the 23rd of March instant, at three o'clock.

REGULATIONS
TO BE OBSERVED AT THE QUEEN'S DRAWING ROOM.

By Her Majesty's Command,

The Ladies who propose to attend Her Majesty's Drawing Room, at Buckingham Palace, are requested to bring with them two large cards with their names clearly written thereon, one to be left with The Queen's Page in Attendance, and the other to be delivered to the Lord Chamberlain, who will announce the name.

PRESENTATIONS.

Any Lady who proposes to be presented must leave at the Lord Chamberlain's Office, St. James's Palace, before twelve o'clock, two clear days before the Drawing Room, a card with her name written thereon, and with the name of the Lady by whom she is to be presented. In order to carry out the existing regulations, that no presentation can be made at a Drawing Room excepting by a Lady actually attending that Court, it is also necessary that an intimation from the Lady who is to make the presentation, of her intention to be present, should accompany the presentation card above referred to, which will be submitted to The Queen for Her Majesty's approbation. It is Her Majesty's command, that no presentations shall be made at the Drawing Rooms, except in accordance with the above regulations.

It is particularly requested that in every case the names be very distinctly written upon the cards to be delivered to the Lord Chamberlain, in order that there may be no difficulty in announcing them.

It is not expected that Gentlemen will present themselves at the Drawing Room, except in attendance on the Ladies of their families.

Any Gentleman who under these circumstances should desire to be presented, will observe the same regulations as are in force for Her Majesty's Levees.

The State Apartments will be open for the reception of Company coming to Court at two o'clock.

KENMARE,
Lord Chamberlain.

*Lord Chamberlain's Office, St. James's Palace,

In order to carry out the existing regulations that no presentation can be made at a Levee excepting by a person actually attending that Levee, it is also necessary that an intimation from the Nobleman or Gentleman who is to make the presentation, of his intention to be present, should accompany the presentation card above referred to, which will be submitted to The Queen for Her Majesty's approbation. It is Her Majesty's command that no presentations shall be made at Levees, except in accordance with the above regulations.

It is particularly requested, that in every case the names be very distinctly written upon the cards to be delivered to the Lord Chamberlain, in order that there may be no difficulty in announcing them to His Royal Highness.

The State Apartments will be open for the reception of Company coming to Court at half-past one o'clock.

KENMARE,
Lord Chamberlain.

AT the Court at Windsor, the 8th day of March, 1886.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

THIS day the Right Honourable John William Mellor was, by Her Majesty's command, sworn of Her Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council, and took his place at the Board accordingly.

AT the Court at Windsor, the 8th day of March, 1886.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by the 11th section of the Volunteer Act, 1863, it is amongst other things enacted that Her Majesty in Council may, from time to time declare what is requisite to entitle a Volunteer to be deemed an efficient Volunteer by an Order in Council defining for that purpose the extent of attendance at drill to be given by the Volunteer, and the course of instruction to be gone through by him, and the degree of proficiency in drill and instruction to be attained by him and his corps, such proficiency to be judged of by the Inspecting Officer at the annual inspection of the corps or otherwise as by Order in Council is from time to time directed; and that the draft of any scheme to be from time to time submitted to Her Majesty in Council for approval under the present section shall have been laid before both Houses of Parliament for one lunar month at least, either before or after, or partly before and partly after, the passing of this Act during the present, or for the like period during any subsequent session of Parliament before such scheme receives the approval of Her Majesty in Council.

And whereas it is deemed expedient that the Order in Council bearing date the thirty-first day of July, one thousand eight hundred and eighty, declaring what is requisite to entitle a Volunteer to be deemed an efficient Volunteer, be varied so far as relates to the conditions under which the requirement of musketry practice may be dispensed with.

And whereas drafts of the proposed amendment of the said Order in Council were on the twenty-eighth January, one thousand eight hundred and eighty-six, laid before both Houses of Parliament in the words mentioned and set forth in the schedule to this Order annexed, and one lunar month having elapsed since that date, the said amendment hath this day been submitted to Her Majesty for Her approval thereof.

Now therefore, Her Majesty having this day taken the said amendment into consideration, doth, in pursuance and exercise of the power in Her Majesty by the aforesaid Act of Parliament in that behalf vested, and by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, hereby vary the Order in Council of the thirty-first day of July, one thousand eight hundred and eighty, according to the terms of the proposed amendment as set forth in the schedule hereof.

SCHEDULE referred to in the foregoing Order in Council.

Amendment of the Scheme relative to the Efficiency of Volunteers in force under Her Majesty's Order in Council, dated thirty-first July, one thousand eight hundred and eighty, promulgated agreeably with the Volunteer Act, 1863:—

To add to Clause 8 of the scheme in question, the following words:—

“ And likewise where in the case of any Rifle Volunteer Corps, or any Detachment of such Corps, the Volunteers belonging to such Corps or Detachment are precluded from the use of a Rifle Range during the whole or some considerable portion of any Volunteer year, it shall in like manner be competent to one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State to dispense with the requirement of Musketry Practice for such year from the Volunteers belonging to such Corps or Detachment.”

AT the Court at Windsor, the 8th day of March, 1886.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS, by the four hundred and tenth section of “The Merchant Shipping Act, 1854,” it is enacted that, upon the completion of any new lighthouse, buoy, or beacon, Her Majesty may, by Order in Council, fix such dues in respect thereof, to be paid by the master or owner of every ship which passes the same, or derives benefit therefrom, as Her Majesty may deem reasonable, and may from time to time alter the amount thereof; and that such dues shall be paid and collected in the same manner, by the same means, and subject to the same conditions, in, by and subject to which the light dues authorized to be levied by the said Act are paid and collected:

And whereas the Commissioners of Northern Lighthouses are erecting a new lighthouse on Ailsa Craig, in the Firth of Clyde, and a light will shortly be exhibited therefrom:

Now, therefore, Her Majesty, in exercise of the powers vested in Her by the said recited Act, and by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, is pleased to direct that, from and after the exhibition of the said light, or from and after the time of the receipt of notice of such exhibition by the officers authorized to collect light dues, there shall be paid in respect thereof for every vessel, whether British or foreign, which shall pass into or trade within the area enclosed by three imaginary lines drawn respectively from Sanda to Corsewall Point, from Sanda to Pladda, and from Pladda to the Heads of Ayr, a toll of eight-sixteenths of a penny per ton of the burden of every such vessel for each time of passing or deriving benefit therefrom if on an overseas voyage, and one-sixteenth of a penny per ton of the burden of every such vessel for each time of passing or deriving benefit therefrom if on a coasting voyage.

The said tolls shall be levied subject to the regulations and exemptions contained in the new Consolidated Table of Light Duties sanctioned by Orders in Council dated respectively the twenty-fourth day of October, one thousand eight hundred and seventy, and the sixteenth day of May, one thousand eight hundred and seventy-one, and in the Order in Council dated the twenty-first day of February, one thousand eight hundred and seventy-four, and also in the special section of the Consolidated Tables prepared in pursuance of an Order in Council dated the sixth day of September, one thousand eight hundred and eighty, or to such other regulations and exemptions as may from time to time be duly sanctioned, and subject also to the gross abatement or discount of seventy per centum mentioned in an Order in Council dated the fourth day of March, one thousand eight hundred and eighty-four, or to such other abatement or discount as may for the time being be in force.

C. L. Peel.

AT the Court at Windsor, the 8th day of March, 1886.

PRESENT.

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by the 333rd section of "The Merchant Shipping Act, 1854," it is enacted that it shall be lawful for every Pilotage authority, by Bye-laws made with the consent of Her Majesty in Council, from time to time, to do within its districts all or any of the things specified in that behalf in the said section :

And whereas the Sunderland Pilotage Commissioners, being the Pilotage authority for the Port of Sunderland within the meaning of "The Merchant Shipping Act, 1854," have in exercise of the powers vested in them by that Act and by "The (Sunderland) Pilotage Order Confirmation Act, 1865," made, and submitted for the consent of Her Majesty, certain Bye-laws and Regulations which were approved by an Order in Council, dated the twenty-ninth day of June, one thousand eight hundred and eighty-two :

And whereas the said Pilotage Commissioners have made and submitted for the consent of Her Majesty certain new Bye-laws and Regulations in lieu of that portion of those approved by the aforesaid Order in Council which relates to Pilot Apprentices, Second-class Pilots, and Rates of Pilotage into or out of the Port :

And whereas it has been made to appear to Her Majesty that the proposed new Bye-laws and Regulations are proper and reasonable :

Now, therefore, Her Majesty, by virtue of the powers vested in Her by the said Merchant Shipping Act, 1854, and by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, is pleased to approve of and signify Her consent to the said new Bye-laws and Regulations, as set forth in the schedule hereto annexed, and to approve of their substitution, from and after the first day of April, one thousand eight hundred and eighty-six, for the Bye-laws and Regulations heretofore in force in the Sunderland Pilotage District with respect to Pilot Apprentices, Second-class Pilots, and Rates of Pilotage into or out of the Port.

C. L. Peel.

SCHEDULE to which the foregoing Order refers.

BYE-LAWS made by the Sunderland Pilotage Commissioners, under section 333 of "The Merchant Shipping Act, 1854."

I.—Preliminary.

1. The following new Bye-laws, made by the Sunderland Pilotage Commissioners, under section 333 of "The Merchant Shipping Act, 1854," are in lieu of those relating to "Pilot Apprentices;" "Second-class Pilots;" and the "Rates of Pilotage into or out of the Port," which were approved by an Order in Council, dated the 29th day of June, 1882; which said new Bye-laws shall come into operation on the 1st day of April, 1886, and thereupon the Bye-laws theretofore in force with respect to "Pilot Apprentices;" "Second-class Pilots;" and the "Rates of Pilotage into or out of the Port," viz. :—Bye-law, No. III, sections 1, 2, 3, and 4, of Bye-law No. IV, and Bye-law No. IX, set forth in the schedule annexed to the said Order in Council, shall be repealed, except as to anything done thereunder, or any right, power, duty, obligation, penalty, or liability, acquired, or incurred, thereunder.

Interpretation.

2. Throughout these Bye-laws the expressions "the Port," "the District," and "the Commissioners," have the same meanings as are assigned to them by section 2 of Bye-law No. I set forth in the schedule annexed to the said Order in Council.

Pilot Apprentices.

1. Every Candidate for Pilot Apprenticeship before he can be considered eligible for the Pilotage Service must produce satisfactory testimonials as to character, with a Surgeon's certificate that he is of sound health and free from colour blindness; and must prove to the satisfaction of the Commissioners that he is not less than fifteen nor more than eighteen years of age; that he is able to read and write correctly, and that he has a competent knowledge of arithmetic.

2. After three months of probation, he may then, if approved by the Commissioners, be bound as an Apprentice for five years to a First-class Pilot, who has a licensed Pilot boat of his own; he must not leave the service of the Pilot to whom he is bound without the permission of his master and of the Pilot Ruler; and on his applying to be examined for a Pilot's Licence he must give proof of the full and satisfactory completion of his five years' term of service.

3. Each Apprentice, for twelve months of his term, shall serve as a seaman in the Home, Baltic, or Mediterranean Trades, or in such other trades as the Commissioners shall from time to time direct. The division of the twelve months of sea service between sailing vessels and steam vessels, or the performance of the whole of that service on board either sailing vessels or steam vessels, shall be entirely in the discretion of the Commissioners; and the Apprentice shall perform such sea service at such periods of his apprenticeship as shall be ordered by the Pilot Ruler.

4. The proposed Indentures of every Apprentice shall be submitted to the Commissioners for their approval; and after being signed by the Master and Apprentice shall not be cancelled without the permission of the Commissioners; but the Commissioners shall have power to cancel any such indentures at any time either at the request of the parties, or for misconduct on the part of the Apprentice; and all indentures shall contain a provision that they are made and entered into, subject to the exercise of this power by the Commissioners. At the expiration of each year the Pilot Ruler, if requested to do so by the Master, shall indorse on the indentures a record of the conduct of the Apprentice, stating the nature of his employment, and whether or not he has been absent from his duty at any time.

5. Subject to such modifications or alterations as may from time to time be made therein by the Commissioners, the following shall be the scale of pay for Apprentices, that is to say:—

For the 1st year	one-third of a share.
" 2nd "	one-half of a share.
" 3rd "	ditto.
" 4th "	two-thirds of a share.
" 5th "	ditto.

After the 5th " one full share.

6. Each Apprentice shall on entering the Pilotage Service pay to the Commissioners such sum, not exceeding £10, as they shall from time to time fix, as a contribution to the Pilotage Fund; and during his apprenticeship, and until he shall have received a Second-class Pilot Licence, he shall also pay to the Commissioners annually, on or before the 30th of June in each year, a fee of 10s.

7. Every Apprentice shall at all times be strictly obedient to the orders of the Pilot Ruler in all matters relating to the Pilotage Service; and civil and respectful to all the members of the Service.

8. It shall be the duty of the Apprentices to clean the Pilots' look-out houses and to keep them in proper order. Any Apprentice neglecting or refusing to comply with this regulation shall, for every such offence, be liable to a penalty of not exceeding 2s. 6d.

9. The number of Apprentices in the Pilotage Service shall be entirely in the discretion of the Commissioners.

10. Apprentices attaining the age of 30 years without having become licensed Pilots, must then retire from the Pilotage Service:

Second Class Pilots.

1. A candidate for a Licence as a Second-class Pilot must have served as a Pilot Apprentice for five years in manner hereinbefore provided, and must produce certificates, verified by the Registrar-General of Seaman, of his service as a Seaman as before provided.

2. He must have attained the age of 21 years, and must not exceed 30 years.

3. He shall undergo an examination before and under the direction of the Commissioners, for the purpose of ascertaining his freedom from colour blindness, and his skill, knowledge, and experience in relation to the navigating, piloting, and conducting of vessels, including knowledge of the rule of the road at sea. He must be able to give a correct and seamanlike description of the river, harbour, docks, piers, and south outlet; and must know the course and distance between any two places within the District. He must be able to navigate any vessel into, from, and throughout any part of the District. He must be familiar with the rise and set of the tides; the depth and character of the soundings; the best anchorages; the river berths; the sandbanks, rocks, shoals, and other dangers; and the landmarks, buoys, lights, and signals. He must understand how to bring a vessel to anchor, and to keep her clear of her anchor in a tideway; to moor, unmoor, and get under weigh; and how to handle a vessel under any circumstances. If he satisfactorily passes his examination, and is approved by the Commissioners, he will be then eligible to receive a Licence as a Second-class Pilot to conduct vessels of not exceeding 400 tons register into and out of the port.

4. After a Second-class Pilot has held his Licence for one year, and his conduct during that time has been in all respects satisfactory to the Commissioners, he will, on being approved by them, be eligible to receive a Licence as a Second-class Pilot to conduct vessels of not exceeding 600 tons register into and out of the port.

5. Second-class Pilots shall not have any apprentices.

Rates of Pilotage into or out of the Port.

1. The Pilotage Dues for piloting and conducting vessels into or out of the port shall be at the rate of 1s. 6d. for every foot of the vessel's draught of water, such rate to be payable throughout the whole of the year, with an additional Pilotage Due for vessels exceeding 350 tons register of  $\frac{1}{4}$ d. per ton for every ton beyond 350 tons.

2. If a vessel be piloted from sea to any place in the river above the "Rack," or from any place in the river above the "Rack" to sea, the Pilot shall be paid a further due of 1s. for every 250 tons, or any fractional part thereof, of the vessel's register tonnage.

3. If in piloting any vessel in from sea to any part of the port, the Pilot shall, through no fault of his own, be unable to bring the vessel direct to her destination, and shall subsequently attend, at the request of the Master, Agent, or Owner thereof, and move the said vessel to her destination, he shall, for that extra Pilotage Service, be paid a moving foy in accordance with the scale contained in Bye-law No. X, set forth in the schedule annexed to the said Order in Council.

4. The Pilotage Dues shall be paid within five days after the performance of the Pilotage Service.

5. The Commissioners may from time to time increase or diminish the said Dues or any of them, subject to the approval of the Board of Trade.

AT the Court at Windsor, the 8th day of March, 1886.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the seventh and eighth years of Her Majesty chapter ninety-four and of the Act of the thirteenth and fourteenth years of Her Majesty chapter ninety-four duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a scheme, bearing date the twenty-sixth day of November, in the year one thousand eight hundred and eighty-five, in the words following, that is to say:—

"We the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England acting under the provisions of the Act of the seventh and eighth years of Your Majesty chapter ninety-four and of the Act of the thirteenth and fourteenth years of Your Majesty chapter ninety-four have prepared and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council the following scheme for altering the boundaries of the district of the Holy Redeemer Clerkenwell in the county of Middlesex and in the diocese of London.

"Whereas by the authority of an Order of Your Majesty in Council bearing date the twenty-fifth day of July in the year one thousand eight hundred and eighty-two and published in the London Gazette on the twenty-eighth day of the same month a portion of the new parish of Saint Philip Clerkenwell in the said county and diocese was constituted a separate district for spiritual purposes and the same was called 'The District of the Holy Redeemer Clerkenwell.'

"And whereas it has been represented to us and it appears to us to be expedient that the boundaries of the said district of the Holy Redeemer Clerkenwell should be altered by way of extension in the manner hereinafter mentioned.

"Now therefore with the consent of the Right Honourable and Right Reverend Frederick, Bishop of the said diocese of London (in testimony whereof he has signed and sealed this scheme) we the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners humbly recommend and propose that from and after the day of the date of the publication in the London Gazette of any Order of Your Majesty in Council ratifying this scheme the boundaries of the said district of the Holy Redeemer Clerkenwell shall be altered by way of extension so as to include therein all that part of the parish of Saint James Clerkenwell in the county and diocese aforesaid which is described in the schedule hereunder written and is delineated and set forth upon the map or plan hereunto appended and is thereon coloured pink and that from and after the same day and without any assurance in law other than such duly gazetted Order the said part of the said parish of Saint James, Clerkenwell, so to be included as aforesaid shall become and be and form part of the said district of the Holy Redeemer, Clerkenwell.

“ And we further recommend and propose that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending or proposing any other measures relating to the matters aforesaid or any of them in accordance with the provisions of the herein-before mentioned Acts or of either of them or of any other Act of Parliament.

“ The SCHEDULE to which the foregoing Scheme has reference.

“ The territory to be annexed to the district of the Holy Redeemer, Clerkenwell, in the county of Middlesex and in the diocese of London, being :—

“ All that part of the parish of Saint James, Clerkenwell, in the county and diocese aforesaid which is bounded upon the north-west by the said district of the Holy Redeemer Clerkenwell, and upon all other sides, that is to say, upon the south-west and upon the east by an imaginary line commencing upon the boundary which divides the said district of the Holy Redeemer Clerkenwell from the parish of Saint James Clerkenwell aforesaid at the point where Exmouth-street joins Farringdon-road and extending thence south-eastward along the middle of the said road for a distance of nine chains or thereabouts to its junction with the street called or known as Vineyard-walk and extending thence north-eastward along the middle of the last-named street for a distance of three chains or thereabouts to its junction with Lower Wood-street, and extending thence northward along the middle of the last-named street for a distance of two and a half chains or thereabouts to its junction with Northampton-road and extending thence north-eastward along the middle of the last-named road for a distance of eight and a half chains or thereabouts to its junction with Rosoman-street and extending thence north-westward along the middle of the last-named street for a distance of three and a half chains or thereabouts to the point where the boundary dividing the said parish of Saint James Clerkenwell from the district of the Holy Redeemer Clerkenwell aforesaid joins the boundary dividing the said district from the district parish of Saint Mark Clerkenwell in the county and diocese aforesaid at which point the several streets or roads called or known as Rosoman-street as aforesaid, Myddleton-street, Garnault-place, Upper Rosoman-street, Tysoe-street, and Exmouth-street aforesaid, all meet.”

And whereas drafts of the said scheme have been transmitted to the patrons and to the incumbents of the district of the Holy Redeemer, Clerkenwell, and to the patrons and to the incumbent of the parish of Saint James Clerkenwell which two cures are affected by the arrangements contemplated by such scheme.

And whereas the patrons and the incumbent of the district of the Holy Redeemer Clerkenwell aforesaid have signified their assent to the said scheme, but the patrons and also the incumbent of the parish of Saint James Clerkenwell have made certain objections to the same scheme.

And whereas the said scheme has notwithstanding such objections, been approved by Her Majesty in Council, now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Acts; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said diocese of London.

C. L. Peel.

AT the Court at Windsor, the 8th day of March, 1886.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the third and fourth years of Her Majesty chapter one hundred and thirteen, and of the Act of the seventeenth and eighteenth years of Her Majesty, chapter eighty-four duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a scheme, bearing date the twenty-first day of January, in the year one thousand eight hundred and eighty-six, in the words following, that is to say :—

“ We the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England in pursuance of the Act of the third and fourth years of Your Majesty chapter one hundred and thirteen and of the Act of the seventeenth and eighteenth years of Your Majesty chapter eighty-four have prepared and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council the following scheme for apportioning the income of the benefice (being a rectory) of All Hallows London Wall in the city of London and in the diocese of London between that benefice and three other benefices, namely, the benefice (being a vicarage) of Saint Gabriel Canning Town, and the benefice (being a vicarage) of Holy Trinity Barking-road and the benefice (being a vicarage) of Saint Luke Victoria Docks; all which said three lastly-named benefices are situate in the county of Essex and in the diocese of Saint Albans.

“ Whereas the whole advowson of each of the said four benefices of All Hallows London Wall, Saint Gabriel Canning Town, Holy Trinity Barking-road, and Saint Luke Victoria Docks is vested in Your Majesty Your heirs and successors and is or may be exercised on behalf of Your Majesty by the Lord High Chancellor of Great Britain for the time being.

“ And whereas it has been made to appear to us that each of the said three lastly-named benefices is at present insufficiently endowed, and that the said benefice of All Hallows London Wall has endowments of such an amount as that after the apportionments hereinafter recommended and proposed to be made shall have been made the said benefice of All Hallows London Wall will still be sufficiently endowed.

“ And whereas the Right Honourable Hardinge Stanley Baron Halsbury, now Lord High Chancellor of Great Britain has represented to us and we are of opinion that it is desirable that additional provision should be made for the cure of souls within the new parish of Saint Gabriel Canning Town and within the new parish of Holy Trinity Barking-road and within the new parish of Saint Luke Victoria Docks by means of that apportionment of the income of the said benefice of All Hallows London Wall which is hereinafter recommended and proposed.

“ And whereas the said benefice of All Hallows London Wall is now full.

“ Now therefore with the consent of the said Hardinge Stanley Baron Halsbury acting on behalf of Your Majesty as such Lord High Chancellor as aforesaid and with the consent of the Right Honourable and Right Reverend Frederick Bishop of London acting as Bishop of the diocese within which the said benefice of All Hallows London Wall, is situate and with the consent of the Right Reverend Thomas Legh Bishop of Saint Albans acting as Bishop of the diocese within which each of the said three benefices of Saint Gabriel Canning Town, Holy Trinity Barking-road, and Saint Luke Victoria Docks is situate (in testimony whereof they the said consenting parties have respectively signed this scheme and sealed the same with their several seals) we the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners humbly recommend and propose that without any conveyance or assurance in the law other than this scheme and any duly gazetted Order of Your Majesty in Council ratifying the same and as from the day of the date at which the said benefice of All Hallows London Wall shall from whatsoever cause be next avoided all the annual income of all the tithe rent-charges glebe lands and all (if any) other the endowments which shall at the date of the next avoidance of the said benefice of All Hallows London Wall belong to the same benefice or which may thereafter belong to it shall be held by the next and all future incumbents of the said benefice of All Hallows London Wall upon the following trusts that is to say, Upon trust that in the first place the incumbent for the time being of the said benefice of All Hallows London Wall shall out of the said income reserve and retain to his own use in each and every year one clear yearly sum of three hundred pounds and upon trust in the second place that he the said incumbent shall as to the residue (whatsoever the amount thereof in any given year may be) of the same income remaining after the said clear yearly sum of three hundred pounds shall have been so reserved and retained as aforesaid divide the same residue accruing to or received by him in each and every year into four equal parts and shall reserve and retain to his own use one of such parts and shall pay over (without any deduction other than income or property tax (if any) to each of the respective incumbents of the said three benefices of Saint Gabriel Canning Town, Holy Trinity Barking-road, and Saint Luke Victoria Docks one other of the said four equal parts Provided always that the sum (whatsoever in any given year the same may be) payable as aforesaid by the incumbent of the said benefice of All Hallows London Wall to each of the incumbents of the said three benefices of Saint Gabriel Canning Town, Holy Trinity Barking-road, and Saint Luke Victoria Docks shall in the case of each and every of the said three last-mentioned incumbents be apportionable between any outgoing incumbent of the benefice or his representatives on the one hand and his successor in the same benefice on the other hand, and provided also that in the case of each of the three last-named incumbents the annual sum so payable to him as aforesaid shall be paid by equal half-yearly payments on the first day of January and the first day of July in every year, the first of such equal half-yearly payments or a proportionate part thereof to be made in each case upon the first day of January or the first day of July (whichever of such two days shall first happen) next after the next avoidance of the said benefice of All Hallows London Wall, and provided further that if any dispute or difference shall at any time or times arise between the incumbent of the said benefice of All Hallows London Wall on the one hand and the incumbents of the said other three benefices or any of them on the other hand as to the annual sums or any of them so payable respectively to the said lastly-named incumbents as aforesaid the same dispute and difference shall be referred to and be finally determinable by the person being the permanent secretary for the time being of the Lord High Chancellor of Great Britain.

"And we further recommend and propose that the incumbent for the time being of each of the said three benefices of Saint Gabriel Canning Town, Holy Trinity Barking-road and Saint Luke Victoria Docks shall for recovering the sum hereby proposed to be made annually payable to him as such incumbent have as against the incumbent for the time being of the said benefice of All Hallows London Wall, all such remedies and powers as may by the law then in force be had for the recovery of a debt. Provided always that if at any time the incumbent for the time being of the said benefice of All Hallows London Wall, shall by any deed or deeds duly executed by him under his hand and seal in accordance with the provisions of any statute in that behalf enabling him, grant convey and annex to all or any of the said three benefices of Saint Gabriel Canning Town, Holy Trinity Barking-road and Saint Luke Victoria Docks, any part or parts of the rectorial endowments belonging to the said benefice of All Hallows London Wall, which shall in the opinion of the Lord Chancellor and of the Bishop of London and of the Bishop of Saint Albans for the time being be a just and fair equivalent or not less than an equivalent for all or any (as the case may be) of the three annual sums which at the date or dates of such deed or deeds respectively shall under the provisions aforesaid be payable as aforesaid then the same three annual sums or those of them for which such equivalent shall have been so provided shall thereupon and thenceforth cease and determine and shall not nor shall any other annual sum be there- after payable under the provisions aforesaid.

"And we further recommend and propose that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any other measures relating to the matters aforesaid or any of them in accordance with the provisions of the said Acts or of either of them or of any other Act of Parliament."

And whereas the said scheme has been approved by Her Majesty in Council; now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Acts, and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said diocese of London and by the Registrar of the said diocese of St. Albans.

AT the Court at Windsor, the 8th day of March, 1886.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the seventh and eighth years of Her Majesty chapter ninety-four, of the Act of the thirteenth and fourteenth years of Her Majesty chapter ninety-four, and of the Act of thirty-second and thirty-third years of Her Majesty chapter ninety-four duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a scheme or representation, bearing date the twenty-first day of January, in the year one thousand eight hundred and eighty-six, in the words and figures following, that is to say:—

“We the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England acting under the provisions of the Act of the seventh and eighth years of Your Majesty chapter ninety-four of the Act of the thirteenth and fourteenth years of Your Majesty chapter ninety-four and of the Act of the thirty-second and thirty-third years of Your Majesty chapter ninety-four have prepared and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council the following scheme or representation for altering the boundaries of the new parish of Saint Mary Magdalene Barnstaple in the county of Devon and in the diocese of Exeter.

“Whereas by the authority of an Order of Your Majesty in Council bearing date the third day of September in the year one thousand eight hundred and forty-four and published in the London Gazette upon the fourteenth day of the same month a part of the parish of Barnstaple in the county and diocese aforesaid was constituted a district for spiritual purposes and the same was called ‘The District of St. Mary Magdalene Barnstaple.’

“And whereas the said district of Saint Mary Magdalene Barnstaple has become a new parish of the character contemplated by the Act of the sixth and seventh years of Your Majesty thirty-seven, and by the said Act of the thirty-second and thirty-third years of Your Majesty chapter ninety-four.

“And whereas it has been represented to us and it appears to us to be expedient that the boundaries of the said new parish of Saint Mary Magdalene Barnstaple should be altered in the manner hereinafter mentioned.

“Now therefore with the consent of the Right Reverend Edward Henry Bishop of the said diocese of Exeter (in testimony whereof he has signed and sealed this scheme or representation we the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners humbly represent recommend and propose that from and after the day of the date of the publication in the London Gazette of any Order of Your Majesty in Council ratifying this scheme or representation the boundaries of the said new parish of Saint Mary Magdalene Barnstaple shall be altered by way of extension so that the same shall include and comprise all those two portions of the said parish of Barnstaple which are described in the schedule hereunder written and are delineated and set forth on the map or plan hereunto appended and are thereon coloured pink and that from and after the day of the same date and without any assurance in the law other than such duly gazetted Order the said portions of the parish of Barnstaple so described and delineated as aforesaid shall become and be and form part of the said new parish of Saint Mary Magdalene Barnstaple.

“And we further represent recommend and propose that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from representing recommending or proposing any other measures relating to the matters aforesaid in accordance with the provisions of the hereinbefore-mentioned Acts or of any of them or of any other Act of Parliament.

“The SCHEDULE to which the foregoing Scheme or Representation has reference.

“The territory to be annexed to the new parish of Saint Mary Magdalene Barnstaple in the county of Devon and in the diocese of Exeter being:—

“I. All that portion of the parish of Barnstaple in the county and diocese aforesaid wherein the present incumbent of such parish now possesses the exclusive cure of souls which is bounded on the north on the east and on the south by an imaginary line commencing at the point near to the Derby Lace Factory where the boundary which divides the said parish from the new parish aforesaid crosses the middle of Vicarage-road and extending thence eastward for a distance of twelve chains or thereabouts along the middle of the said road and along the middle of the road leading towards Stoneyard Farm to a point exactly opposite to the eastern wall of the house called or known as ‘Zephyr Cottage’ and extending thence southward and in a direct line for a distance of seventeen chains or thereabouts thereby passing along the eastern side of Zephyr Cottage aforesaid to the point where the road leading from Goodleigh to Barnstaple is joined by Sowden-lane and continuing thence still southward along the middle of the last-named lane for a distance of eleven and a half chains or thereabouts to the point where it bends sharply towards the east and extending thence westward and in a direct line for a distance of seventeen chains or thereabouts to the point at the junction of Pulchrass-street with Pulchrass-lane upon the boundary which divides the said parish of Barnstaple from the new parish of the Holy Trinity Barnstaple in the county and diocese aforesaid.

“All which said hereinbefore described portion of the parish of Barnstaple aforesaid is bounded upon the remaining side other than upon the north, the east and the south as aforesaid that is to say upon the west partly by the said new parish of the Holy Trinity Barnstaple and partly by the new parish of Saint Mary Magdalene Barnstaple aforesaid.

“And (II). All that other portion of the said parish of Barnstaple which is bounded upon the west and upon the south-west by an imaginary line commencing upon the boundary which divides the said parish of Barnstaple from the new parish of Saint Mary Magdalene Barnstaple aforesaid at the junction of Bear-street with Boutport-street and extending thence southward along the middle of the last-named street for a distance of five and a half chains or thereabouts to its junction with Queen-street and extending thence south-eastward along the middle of the last-named street for a distance of one and three-quarters chains or thereabouts to the boundary which divides the said parish of Barnstaple from the new parish of Saint Mary Magdalene Barnstaple aforesaid.

“All which said lastly hereinbefore described portion of the parish of Barnstaple aforesaid is bounded upon the remaining sides other than upon the west and south-west as aforesaid that is to say upon the south-east and upon the north by the new parish of Saint Mary Magdalene Barnstaple aforesaid.”

And whereas drafts of the said scheme or representation have been transmitted to the patrons and to the incumbents of the cures affected by the arrangements which are contemplated by such scheme or representation and such patrons and incumbents have respectively signified their assent thereto.

And whereas the said scheme or representation has been approved by Her Majesty in Council; now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme or representation, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Acts: and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said diocese of Exeter.

AT the Court at Windsor the 8th day of March, 1886.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the eighth and ninth years of Her Majesty, chapter seventy; of the Act of the fourteenth and fifteenth years of Her Majesty, chapter ninety-seven; of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Her Majesty, chapter fifty-five; and of the Act of the thirty-fourth and thirty-fifth years of Her Majesty, chapter eighty-two; duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a representation, bearing date the fourth day of February, in the year one thousand eight hundred and eighty-six, in the words and figures following; that is to say:—

“We the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the eighth and ninth years of Your Majesty chapter seventy of the Act of the fourteenth and fifteenth years of Your Majesty chapter ninety-seven of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Your Majesty chapter fifty-five, and of the Act of the thirty-fourth and thirty-fifth years of Your Majesty chapter eighty-two have prepared and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council the following representation as to the assignment of a consolidated chapelry to the consecrated church called Emmanuel Church situate in Hornsey-road in the new parish (sometime district chapelry) of Saint Mark Tollington Park in the county of Middlesex and in the diocese of London.

“Whereas at certain extremities of the said new parish of Saint Mark Tollington Park, of the new parish (sometime consolidated chapelry) of Saint Paul Upper Holloway in the county and diocese aforesaid and of the new parish (sometime consolidated chapelry) of Saint Luke West Holloway in the same county and diocese which said extremities lie contiguous one to another and are described in the schedule hereunder written, there is collected together a population which is situate at a distance from the several churches of such new parishes respectively.

“And whereas it appears to us to be expedient that such contiguous portions of the said new parish of Saint Mark Tollington Park, of the said new parish of Saint Paul Upper Holloway, and of the said new parish of Saint Luke West Holloway should be formed into a consolidated chapelry for all ecclesiastical purposes and that the same should be assigned to the said church called Emmanuel situate in Hornsey-road aforesaid.

“Now therefore with the consent of the Right Honourable and Right Reverend Frederick, Bishop of the said diocese of London as such Bishop and with the consent of the Reverend Henry Woodhouse Dearden Clerk in Holy Orders vicar or incumbent of the vicarage of the new parish of Saint John Upper Holloway in the county and diocese aforesaid and as such vicar or incumbent the patron of the vicarage of the said new parish of Saint Mark Tollington Park with the consents of the Reverend Walter Abbott Clerk in Holy Orders vicar or incumbent of the vicarage of the parish of Paddington in the said county of Middlesex, of the Reverend Reginald Gunnery of Worthing in the county of Sussex, Clerk in Holy Orders of John Derby Allcroft of No. 108 Lancaster-gate in the said county of Middlesex, Esquire, of James Cundy of No. 97 Wood-street in the city of London Esquire and of Thomas Paget of Saint Albans in the county of Hertford Esquire, the patrons of the vicarage of the said new parish of Saint Paul Upper Holloway, and with the consents of the Reverend John Hurst, Clerk in Holy Orders, the vicar or incumbent of the vicarage of the new parish of Saint Mark Tollington Park aforesaid, of the Reverend Walter Sunderland Lewis, Clerk in Holy Orders the vicar or incumbent of the vicarage of the new parish of Saint Mary Hornsey Rise in the said county of Middlesex of the Reverend Lewis Borrett White, Clerk in Holy Orders the rector or incumbent of the rectory of the parish of Saint Mary Aldermary in the city of London aforesaid, of William Edwards of No. 89 Ladbroke-grove Notting Hill, in the said county of Middlesex, Esquire, and of Thomas Wall of No. 4, the Grange Highbury in the same county Esquire the patrons of the vicarage of the said new parish of Saint Luke West Holloway aforesaid (in testimony whereof they the said consenting parties have respectively signed and sealed this representation) we the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England humbly represent that it would in our opinion be expedient that all those contiguous portions of the said new parish of Saint Mark Tollington Park of the said new parish of Saint Paul Upper Holloway and of the said new parish of Saint Luke West Holloway which are described in the schedule hereunder written all which portions together with the boundaries thereof are delineated and set forth on the map or plan hereunto annexed should be united and formed into one consolidated chapelry for the said church of Emmanuel situate in Hornsey-road aforesaid and that the same should be named ‘The Consolidated Chapelry of Emmanuel Hornsey-road Holloway.’

“We therefore humbly pray that Your Majesty will be graciously pleased to take the premises into Your Royal consideration, and to make such Order in respect thereto as to Your Majesty in Your Royal wisdom shall seem meet.

“The SCHEDULE to which the foregoing Representation has reference.

“The Consolidated Chapelry of Emmanuel Hornsey-road Holloway, being:—

“All those several contiguous portions of the new parish (sometime district chapelry) of Saint Mark Tollington Park, of the new parish (sometime consolidated chapelry) of Saint Paul Upper Holloway, and of the new parish (sometime consolidated chapelry) of Saint Luke West Holloway all in the county of Middlesex and in the diocese of London which said portions of such new parishes are comprised within and are bounded by an imaginary line commencing upon the boundary which divides the said new parish of Saint Mark Tollington Park from the new parish of Saint Anne Tollington Park in the county and diocese aforesaid at the point where Russell-road joins the Seven Sisters'-road and extending thence south-westward along the middle of the last-named road for a distance of fourteen chains or thereabouts to its junction with Sussex-road and extending thence north-westward along the middle of the last-named road for a distance of ten chains or thereabouts to its junction with Windsor-road and extending thence south-westward along the middle of the last-named road for a distance of eleven chains or thereabouts thereby crossing at Devonshire-road the boundary which divides the said new parish of Saint Mark Tollington Park from the new parish of Saint Paul Upper Holloway aforesaid to the point at the junction of the said Windsor-road with Grafton-road upon the boundary which divides the said new parish of Saint Paul Upper Holloway from the new parish of Saint George Tufnell Park in the county and diocese aforesaid and extending thence south-eastward along the last-mentioned boundary for a distance of twelve chains or thereabouts thereby passing along the middle of Grafton-road aforesaid to the point at the junction of the last-named road with the Seven Sisters'-road aforesaid, where the said last-mentioned boundary joins the boundary dividing the said new parish of Saint George Tufnell Park from the new parish of Saint Luke West Holloway aforesaid and extending thence south-westward along the last-mentioned boundary for a distance of six chains or thereabouts thereby passing along the middle of the said Seven Sisters'-road to its junction at the Nag's Head with the Holloway-road and extending thence south-eastward along the middle of the last-named road for a distance of twelve and a half chains or thereabouts to a point at the junction of the same road with Camden-road and with Tollington-road upon the boundary which divides the said new parish of Saint Luke West Holloway from the consolidated chapelry or new parish of Saint Barnabas Hornsey-road in the county and diocese aforesaid and extending thence north-eastward along the last-mentioned boundary for a distance of nine and a quarter chains or thereabouts thereby passing along the middle of the said Tollington-road to the point where the said last-mentioned boundary joins the boundary which divides the said new parish of Saint Mark Tollington Park from the consolidated chapelry or new parish of Saint Barnabas Hornsey-road aforesaid and continuing thence still north-eastward along the last-mentioned boundary for a distance of thirteen and a half chains or thereabouts thereby still keeping along the middle of Tollington-road aforesaid and crossing the Hornsey-road and passing along the middle of Upper Tollington-road to the point at or near to the junction of the last-named road with Harvist-road where the said last-mentioned boundary joins the boundary dividing the said new parish of Saint Mark Tollington Park from the new parish of Saint Anne Tollington Park aforesaid and extending thence first northward then north-eastward and then north-westward along the last-mentioned boundary for a distance of twenty chains or thereabouts thereby passing along the middle of Upper Tollington-road aforesaid of Isledon-road and of Russell-road aforesaid to the first-described point at the junction of the last-named road with the Seven Sisters'-road aforesaid at which point the said imaginary line commenced."

And whereas the said representation has been approved by Her Majesty in Council: now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said representation, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Acts; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said diocese of London.

AT the Court at Windsor, the 8th day of March, 1886.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the fifty-ninth year of His Majesty King George the Third, chapter one hundred and thirty-four; of the Act of the second and third years of Her Majesty, chapter forty-nine; of the Act of the third and fourth years of Her Majesty, chapter sixty; and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Her Majesty, chapter fifty-five duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a representation, bearing date the fourth day of February in the year one thousand eight hundred and eighty-six in the words following; that is to say:—

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the fifty-ninth year of His Majesty King George the Third, chapter one hundred and thirty-four; of the Act of the second and third years of Your Majesty, chapter forty-nine; of the Act of the third and fourth years of Your Majesty chapter sixty and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Your Majesty, chapter fifty-five, have prepared, and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council, the following representation as to the assignment of a district chapelry to the consecrated church called Emmanuel situate within the limits of the new parish (sometime district chapelry) of St. Ann Nottingham in the town and county of the town of Nottingham and in the diocese of Southwell.

"Whereas it appears to us to be expedient that a district chapelry should be assigned to the said church of Emmanuel situate at Nottingham as aforesaid.

"Now therefore with the consent of the Right Reverend George Bishop of the said diocese of Southwell (testified by his having signed and sealed this representation), we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners, humbly represent, that it would, in our opinion, be expedient that all that part of the said new parish of Saint Ann Nottingham which is described in the schedule hereunder written, all which part, together with the boundaries thereof, is delineated and set forth on the map or plan hereunto annexed, should be assigned as a district chapelry to the said church of Emmanuel situate at Nottingham as aforesaid, and that the same should be named 'The District Chapelry of Emmanuel Nottingham.

"And with the like consent of the said George Bishop of the said diocese of Southwell (testified as aforesaid), we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners, further represent, that it appears to us to be expedient that banns of matrimony should be published, and that marriages, baptisms, churchings, and burials should be solemnized or performed at the said church of Emmanuel situate at Nottingham as aforesaid, and that the fees to be received in respect of the publication of such banns and of the solemnization or performance of the said offices should be paid and belong to the minister of the same church for the time being: Provided always, that nothing herein contained shall be construed as expressing any intention on the part of us the said Commissioners to concur in or approve the taking of any fee for the performance of the said office of baptism or for the registration thereof.

"We, therefore, humbly pray that Your Majesty will be graciously pleased to take the premises into Your Royal consideration and to make such

Order with respect thereto as to Your Majesty, in Your Royal wisdom, shall seem meet.

"The SCHEDULE to which the foregoing Representation has reference.

"The District Chapelry of Emmanuel Nottingham, being:—

"All that part of the new parish of Saint Ann Nottingham in the town and county of the town of Nottingham and in the diocese of Southwell wherein the present incumbent of such new parish still possesses the exclusive cure of souls which is bounded upon the west and upon the greater part of the south-west by the consolidated chapelry or new parish of Saint Andrew Nottingham in the town county and diocese aforesaid and upon all other sides that is to say upon the remaining part of the south-west upon the south-east and upon the north-east by an imaginary line commencing upon the boundary which divides the said consolidated chapelry or new parish of Saint Andrew Nottingham from the new parish of Saint Ann Nottingham aforesaid at the point where Peas Hill-road is joined by Truman-street and extending thence south-eastward along the middle of the said Peas Hill-road for a distance of three chains or thereabouts to its junction with Carolinestreet and extending thence northward along the middle of the last-named street for a distance of eleven chains or thereabouts to its northern end on the south-western side of the public walk called or known as Robin Hood's Chase and continuing thence still northward across the said public walk to a point on its north-eastern side at the south-western end of Whitehead-street and extending thence north-eastward along the middle of the last-named street for a distance of five and a half chains or thereabouts to its junction with Dame Agnes-street and with Pole-street and continuing thence still north-eastward along the middle of the last-named street for a distance of four and a half chains or thereabouts to its junction with Sycamore-road and extending thence north-westward along the middle of the last-named road for a distance of eighteen and a half chains or thereabouts to the boundary at the junction of the said last-named road with Woodborough-road which boundary divides the said new parish of Saint Ann Nottingham from the consolidated chapelry or new parish of Saint Andrew Nottingham aforesaid."

And whereas the said representation has been approved by Her Majesty in Council; now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said representation, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Acts; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said diocese of Southwell.

C. L. Peel.

AT the Court at Windsor, the 8th day of March, 1886.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the seventh and eighth years of Her Majesty chapter ninety-four, of the Act of the thirteenth and fourteenth years of Her Majesty chapter ninety-four, and of the Act of the thirty-second and thirty-third years of Her Majesty, chapter ninety-four, and of the Act of the forty-seventh and forty-eighth years of Her Majesty chapter sixty-five duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a scheme, or representation bearing date the eleventh day of February, in the year one thousand eight hundred and eighty-six, in the words following, that is to say:—

"We the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England acting under the provisions of the Act of the seventh and eighth years of Your Majesty chapter ninety-four, of the Act of the thirteenth and fourteenth years of Your Majesty chapter ninety-four, of the Act of the thirty-second and thirty-third years of Your Majesty chapter ninety-four, and of the Act of the forty-seventh and forty-eighth years of Your Majesty chapter sixty-five have prepared and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council the following scheme or representation for altering the boundaries of the district of Saint Jude South Shields in the county of Durham and in the diocese of Durham.

"Whereas by the authority of an Order of Your Majesty in Council bearing date the twenty-third day of August in the year one thousand eight hundred and eighty-three and published in the London Gazette upon the fourth day of the following month of September ratifying a scheme of the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England prepared under the provisions of the Act of the third and fourth years of Your Majesty chapter one hundred and thirteen, of the Act of the sixth and seventh years of Your Majesty chapter thirty-seven of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Your Majesty chapter one hundred and four, and of the Act of the twenty-third and twenty-fourth years of Your Majesty chapter one hundred and twenty-four a certain part of the new parish of the Holy Trinity South Shields, in the county and diocese aforesaid was constituted a separate district for spiritual purposes and the same was named 'The District of Saint Jude South Shields.'

"And whereas no church has yet been provided for or consecrated within the said district of Saint Jude South Shields.

"And whereas it has been represented to us and it appears to us to be expedient that the boundaries of the said district should be altered by way of extension so that they shall include the part hereinafter described of the new parish of the Holy Trinity South Shields aforesaid.

Now therefore with the consent of the Right Reverend Joseph Barber Bishop of the said diocese of Durham (in testimony whereof he has signed and sealed this scheme or representation) we the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners humbly represent recommend and propose that from and after the day of the date of the publication in the London Gazette of any Order of Your Majesty in Council ratifying this scheme or representation the boundaries of the said district of Saint Jude South Shields shall be altered by way of extension so that they shall include all that part of the said new parish of the Holy Trinity South Shields which is described in the schedule hereunder written and is delineated and set forth on the map or plan hereunto appended and is thereon coloured pink. And that from and after the said day of publication as aforesaid and without any assurance in law other than such duly gazetted Order the said part of the new parish of the Holy Trinity South Shields so to be included within the boundaries of the district of Saint Jude South Shields as aforesaid shall become and be and form part of the same district.

"And we further represent recommend and propose that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from representing recommending or proposing any other measures relating to the matters aforesaid or any of them in accordance with the provisions of the hereinbefore mentioned Acts or of any of them or of any other Act of Parliament."

"The SCHEDULE to which the foregoing Scheme or Representation has reference.

"The territory to be annexed to the district of Saint Jude South Shields in the county of Durham and in the diocese of Durham, being:—

"All that part of the new parish of the Holy Trinity South Shields in the county and diocese aforesaid which forms the northern angle of the piece of land which by a deed bearing date the second day of July in the year one thousand eight hundred and eighty-five and deposited in the Registry of the diocese of Durham has been appropriated as and for a site of an intended new church to be called the Church of Saint Jude South Shields with surrounding yard and enclosure. All which said piece of land is bounded on the south by the said district of Saint Jude, South Shields, and upon the remaining sides that is to say upon the north-east and upon the north-west by the new parish of the Holy Trinity South Shields aforesaid."

And whereas drafts of the said scheme or representation have been transmitted to the patrons and to the incumbents of the cures affected by the arrangements which are contemplated by such scheme or representation and such patrons and incumbents have respectively signified their assent thereto.

And whereas the said scheme or representation has been approved by Her Majesty in Council; now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme or representation, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Acts; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said diocese of Durham.

AT the Court at Windsor, the 8th day of March, 1886.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the thirty-third and thirty-fourth years of Her Majesty chapter thirty-nine and of the Acts therein mentioned, that is to say, the Act of the third and fourth years of Her Majesty chapter one hundred and thirteen the Act of the fourth and fifth years of Her Majesty chapter thirty-nine and the Act of the thirty-first and thirty-second years of Her Majesty chapter one hundred and fourteen duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a scheme, bearing date the eleventh day of February, in the year one thousand eight hundred and eighty-six, in the words following, that is to say:—

"We the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England in pursuance of the Act of the thirty-third and thirty-fourth years of Your Majesty chapter thirty-nine and of the Acts therein mentioned that is to say, the Act of the third and fourth years of Your Majesty chapter one hundred and thirteen, the Act of the fourth and fifth years of Your Majesty chapter thirty-nine and the Act of the thirty-first and thirty-second years of Your Majesty chapter one hundred and fourteen have prepared and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council the following scheme for effecting a transfer of the ownership of the advowson or perpetual right of patronage of and presentation to the church and cure (hereinafter called 'the said benefice') of Trinity Church Coleham, sometime part of the parish of Saint Julian in the town and borough of Shrewsbury in the county of Salop and in the diocese of Lichfield.

"Whereas the advowson or perpetual right of patronage of and presentation to the said benefice of Trinity Church Coleham is vested for an estate in fee simple without incumbrances in Alfred Wright of Honiton-terrace Belle Vue in the said town and borough of Shrewsbury and his heirs and assigns.

"And whereas the said Alfred Wright is desirous that the whole advowson or perpetual right of patronage of and presentation to the said benefice of Trinity Church Coleham now vested in him as aforesaid should be transferred to and be vested in the Bishop for the time being of the said diocese of Lichfield.

"And whereas the Right Reverend William Dalrymple now Bishop of the said diocese of Lichfield is willing to accept such transfer and in token of such his willingness and also in token that the same transfer has that consent of the Bishop of the diocese which by the Acts in the firstly hereinbefore mentioned Act recited or by some or one of them is made necessary he the said William Dalrymple Bishop of the said diocese of Lichfield has executed this scheme as herein-after mentioned.

"And whereas the transfer of the patronage of the said benefice of Trinity Church Coleham which is hereinbefore mentioned and hereinafter recommended and proposed will render the same benefice more eligible than it is at present for augmentation out of funds under our control and this circumstance will in our opinion tend to make better provision for the cure of souls in the parish or district in or in respect of which the right of patronage or advowson so recommended and proposed to be transferred as aforesaid arises or exists, that is to say in the district parish of Trinity Church Coleham.

"Now therefore with the consent of the said Alfred Wright (in testimony whereof he has signed and sealed this scheme) and with the consent of the said William Dalrymple Bishop of the said diocese of Lichfield (in testimony whereof he has signed this scheme and sealed the same with his episcopal seal) we the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England humbly recommend and propose that upon and from the day of the date of the publication in the London Gazette of any Order of Your Majesty in Council ratifying this scheme and without any conveyance or assurance in the law other than such duly gazetted Order the whole advowson or perpetual right of patronage of and presentation to the said benefice of Trinity Church Coleham, now vested in him the said Alfred Wright and his heirs and assigns as aforesaid shall be transferred from him and them to the said William Dalrymple Bishop of the said diocese of Lichfield and his successors Bishops of the same diocese, and shall thereupon and thenceforth become and be absolutely vested in and shall and may from time to time be fully and freely exercised by the said William Dalrymple Bishop of the said diocese of Lichfield and by his successors Bishops of the same diocese for ever.

"And we further recommend and propose that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any further or other measures relating to the matters aforesaid or any of them in accordance with the provisions of the said Acts or of any of them or of any other Act of Parliament."

And whereas the said scheme has been approved by Her Majesty in Council; now, therefore Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Acts, and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said diocese of Lichfield.

AT the Court at Windsor, the 8th day of March, 1886.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Right Honourable Hugh Culling Eardley Childers, one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, after giving to the Incumbents and the Churchwardens of the parishes hereinafter mentioned ten days' previous notice of his intention to make such representation, has, under the provisions of an Act passed in the session of Parliament held in the sixteenth and seventeenth years of Her Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to amend the laws concerning the burial of the dead in England beyond the limits of the Metropolis, and to amend the Act concerning the burial of the dead in the Metropolis," made a representation stating that, for the protection of the public health, no new burial-ground should be opened in the undermentioned parishes without the previous consent of one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, and that burials should be discontinued therein with the following modifications, viz.:—

UPWOOD.—Forthwith and entirely in the Parish Church of Upwood, in the county of Huntingdon; and also in the churchyard except as follows:—

In such vaults and walled graves as are now existing in the churchyard burials may be permitted on condition that every coffin buried therein be separately enclosed by stonework or brickwork properly cemented.

EVERTON.—Forthwith and entirely in the Parish Church of Everton, in the county of Nottingham; and also in the churchyard except as follows:—

(a.) In such partly walled graves as are now existing in the churchyard, provided that the earth above them can be opened to the depth of five feet without exposing coffins or disturbing human remains, burials may be allowed of so many of the relations of those interred therein at the date of the Order as can be buried at or below that depth.

(b.) In such earthen graves now existing in the churchyard as can be opened to the depth of five feet without exposing coffins or disturbing human remains burials may be allowed of so many of the relations of those interred therein at the date of the Order as can be buried at or below that depth.

HOPTON-BY-THEFTORD.—Forthwith and entirely in the Parish Church of Hopton-by-Thetford, in the county of Suffolk; and also in the churchyard after the thirtieth June one thousand eight hundred and eighty-six except as follows:—

(a.) In such vaults and wholly walled graves as are now existing in the churchyard burials may be allowed on condition that every coffin buried therein be separately enclosed by stonework or brickwork properly cemented.

(b.) In such partly walled graves as are now existing in the churchyard, provided that the earth above them can be opened to the depth of five feet without exposing coffins or disturbing human remains, burials may be allowed of so many of the relations of those interred therein at the date of the Order as can be buried at or below that depth.

(c.) In such earthen graves now existing in the churchyard as can be opened to the depth of five feet without exposing coffins or disturbing human remains burials may be allowed of so many of the relations of those interred therein at the date of the Order as can be buried at or below that depth.

CHARMOUTH.—Forthwith and entirely in the Parish Church of Charmouth, in the county of Dorset; and also in the churchyard after the thirty-first December, one thousand eight hundred and eighty-six except as follows:—

(a.) In such vaults and wholly walled graves as are now existing in the churchyard burials may be allowed on condition that every coffin buried therein be separately enclosed by stonework or brickwork properly cemented.

(b.) In such earthen graves now existing in the churchyard as can be opened to the depth of five feet without exposing coffins or disturbing human remains burials may be allowed of so many of the relations of those interred therein at the date of the Order as can be buried at or below that depth:

CHECKLEY.—Forthwith and entirely in the Parish Church of Checkley, in the county of Stafford; and also in the churchyard except as follows:—

(b.) In such vaults and wholly walled graves as are now existing in the churchyard burials may be allowed on condition that every coffin buried therein be separately enclosed by stonework or brickwork properly cemented.

(b.) In such partly walled graves as are now existing in the churchyard, provided that the earth above them can be opened to the depth of five feet without exposing coffins or disturbing human remains, burials may be allowed of so many of the relations of those interred therein at the date of the Order as can be buried at or below that depth.

(c.) In such earthen graves now existing in the churchyard as can be opened to the depth of five feet without exposing coffins or disturbing human remains burials may be allowed of so many of the following relations of those interred therein at the date of the Order, viz.:—widows and widowers as can be buried at or below that depth.

Now, therefore, Her Majesty in Council is pleased hereby to give notice of such representation, and to order that the same be taken into consideration by a Committee of the Lords of Her Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council on the twentieth day of April next.

And Her Majesty is further pleased to direct that this Order be forthwith published in the London Gazette; and that copies thereof be affixed on the doors of the churches or chapels of, or on some conspicuous places within, the parishes affected by such representation, one month before the said twentieth day of April.

VICTORIA, R.

VICTORIA, by the Grace of God of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland Queen, Defender of the Faith:—

To Our right trusty and well-beloved Councillor Sir Richard Assheton Cross, Knight Grand Cross of Our Most Honourable Order of the Bath; Our trusty and well-beloved the Most Reverend Cardinal Archbishop, Henry Edward Manning, Doctor in Divinity; Our right trusty and right well-beloved Cousin and Councillor Dudley Francis Stuart, Earl of Harrowby; Our right trusty and right well-beloved Cousin and Councillor Frederick, Earl Beauchamp; the Right Reverend Father in God, Our right trusty and well-beloved Councillor Frederick, Bishop of London; Our right trusty and well-beloved Councillor Charles Bowyer, Baron Norton, Knight Commander of Our Most Distinguished Order of Saint Michael and Saint George; Our right trusty and well-beloved Councillor Sir Francis Richard Sandford, Knight Commander of Our Most Honourable Order of the Bath, Under Secretary to Our Secretary for Scotland; Our trusty and well-beloved Edward Lyulph Stanley, Esquire, commonly called the Honourable Edward Lyulph Stanley; Our trusty and well-beloved Sir John Lubbock, Baronet; Our trusty and well-beloved Sir Bernhard Samuelson, Baronet; Our trusty and well-beloved James Harrison Rigg, Doctor in Divinity; Our trusty and well-beloved Robert William Dale, Doctor of Laws; Our trusty and well-beloved Robert Gregory, Clerk, Master of Arts, Canon of Our Cathedral Church of Saint Paul, in the city of London; Our trusty and well-beloved Benjamin Frederick Smith, Clerk, Master of Arts, Honorary Canon of Our Cathedral and Metropolitan Church of Canterbury; Our trusty and well-beloved Thomas Daniel Cox Morse, Clerk; Our trusty and well-beloved Charles Henry Alderson, Esq., Second Charity Commissioner for England and Wales; Our trusty and well-beloved John Gilbert Talbot, Esq., Master of Arts and Honorary Doctor of Civil Law of the University of Oxford; Our trusty and well-beloved Sydney Charles Buxton, Esq.; Our trusty and well-beloved Thomas Edmund Heller, Esq.; Our trusty and well-beloved Bernard Charles Molloy, Esq.; Our trusty and well-beloved Samuel Rathbone, Esq.; Our trusty and well-beloved Henry Richard, Esq.; and Our trusty and well-beloved George Slipton, Esq.; greeting!

Whereas We did, by Warrant under Our Royal Sign Manual, bearing date the fifteenth day of January, one thousand eight hundred and eighty-six, authorize and appoint certain noblemen and gentlemen therein named, or any six or more of them, to be Our Commissioners to inquire into the working of the Elementary Education Acts, England and Wales:

Now know ye, that We have revoked and determined, and do by these presents revoke and determine, the said Warrant, and every matter and thing therein contained:

And whereas We have deemed it expedient that a new Commission should issue for the purpose specified in such Warrant of the fifteenth day of January, one thousand eight hundred and eighty-six:

Further know ye, that We, reposing great trust and confidence in your ability and discretion, have appointed, and do by these presents nominate, constitute, and appoint you, the said Sir Richard Assheton Cross; Henry Edward Manning, Cardinal Archbishop; Dudley Francis Stuart, Earl of Harrowby; Frederick, Earl Beauchamp; Frederick, Bishop of London; Charles Bowyer, Baron Norton; Sir Francis Richard Sandford; Edward Lyulph Stanley, commonly called the Honourable Edward Lyulph Stanley; Sir John Lubbock; Sir Bernhard Samuelson; James Harrison Rigg; Robert William Dale; Robert Gregory; Benjamin Frederick Smith; Thomas Daniel Cox Morse; Charles Henry Alderson; John Gilbert Talbot; Sydney Charles Buxton; Thomas Edmund Heller; Bernard Charles Molloy; Samuel Rathbone; Henry Richard; and George Shipton, to be Our Commissioners to inquire into the working of the Elementary Education Acts, England and Wales.

And, for the better effecting the purpose of this Our Commission, We do by these presents give and grant unto you, or any six or more of you, full power to call before you such persons as you shall judge likely to afford you any information upon the subject of this Our Commission; and also to call for, have access to, and examine all such books, documents, registers, and records as may afford you the fullest information on the subject; and to inquire of and concerning the premises by all other lawful ways and means whatsoever.

And We do further by these presents authorize and empower you, or any six or more of you, to visit and personally inspect such places in Our United Kingdom as you may deem expedient for the more effectual carrying out of the purpose aforesaid.

And We do by these presents will and ordain that this Our Commission shall continue in full force and virtue, and that you, Our said Commissioners, or any six or more of you, may from time to time proceed in the execution thereof, and of every matter and thing therein contained, although the same be not continued from time to time by adjournment.

And We do further ordain that you, or any six or more of you, have liberty to report your proceedings under this Our Commission, from time to time, if you shall judge it expedient so to do.

And Our further will and pleasure is that you do, with as little delay as possible, report to Us, under your hands and seals, or under the hands and seals of any six or more of you, your opinion upon the matter herein submitted for your consideration.

Given at Our Court at Saint James's, the tenth day of March, one thousand eight hundred and eighty-six, in the forty-ninth year of Our reign.

By Her Majesty's command.

TREASURY WARRANT.

WE, the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury, in pursuance of the Acts relating to Her Majesty's Post Office, and in exercise of all powers enabling us in this behalf, do, by this Warrant, made on the representation of Her Majesty's Postmaster-General (testified by his signing the same), and under the hands of two of us, the said Commissioners, order, direct, and declare as follows:—

Interpretation Clause.

1.—(1.) The expressions "Parcels" and "Parcel" in this Warrant respectively mean any Postal Packet which is posted as a Parcel in accordance with the provisions of this Warrant, or any Warrant amending the same.

(2.) The expression "United Kingdom" includes the Channel Islands and the Isle of Man.

(3.) The expression "Lord Lieutenant" means the Lord Lieutenant of Ireland or other Chief Governor or Governors of Ireland for the time being.

(4.) The expression "arms" includes any cannon, gun, revolver, pistol, and any description of fire-arms, also any sword, cutlass, pike, and bayonet, also any part of any arms as so defined.

(5.) The expression "ammunition" includes bullets, gunpowder, nitro-glycerine, dynamite, gun-cotton, and every other explosive substance, whether fitted for use with any arms, or otherwise.

(6.) The expression "prohibited district in Ireland" means any place in Ireland in respect of which the Lord Lieutenant of Ireland, by and with the advice of the Privy Council in Ireland, may have made or may make orders for prohibiting or regulating therein the sale or importation of arms and ammunition.

Places between which Parcels may be Transmitted.

2. From and after the date when this Warrant comes into operation, Parcels may, subject to the provisions of this Warrant, be transmitted by post between the United Kingdom and St. Helena.

Maximum Dimensions and Weight.

3. There shall not be conveyed or tendered for conveyance by post under this Warrant any Parcel the dimensions of which shall exceed in length three feet six inches, or in length and girth measured together six feet (such girth being measured round the thickest part of such Parcel) or which shall exceed in weight seven pounds.

Rates of Postage.

4. On all Parcels transmitted by post under this Warrant between the United Kingdom and St. Helena there shall be charged and paid the following rates of postage, that is to say:—

On every Parcel not exceeding one pound in weight ten pence.

On every Parcel exceeding one pound and not exceeding seven pounds in weight, for the first pound ten pence, and for every additional pound or fraction of a pound in weight ten pence.

Prepayment.

5. The postage chargeable according to the rates hereinbefore mentioned respectively shall in all cases (except as otherwise provided in this Warrant) be prepaid at the time of posting, and such prepayment shall in the United Kingdom be effected by means of adhesive postage stamps.

Times of Posting.

6. Parcels intended to be transmitted by post, may, in the United Kingdom, be posted on any day of the week except Sunday, but shall not be posted on Sundays, or in England or Ireland, on Christmas Day or Good Friday, and in Scotland on either of the two Sacramental Fast Days, except in the cases next hereinafter mentioned, that is to say :—

Where the delivery of Parcels on Sundays, or any of the other days aforesaid, at certain Post Offices, to addressees calling for the same, may hereafter be specially authorized by the Postmaster-General, the posting of Parcels on Sundays, or such other days as aforesaid, at such offices respectively, shall also be permitted within such times and in such manner as may be directed by the Postmaster-General.

Mode of Posting.

7. Except as otherwise provided in this Warrant, all Parcels shall in the United Kingdom be posted by being handed in at a Post Office in the manner hereinafter provided, within the hours during which such office shall be open to the public for the posting of Parcels.

Posting at Post Offices.

8. The following provisions shall apply to the posting of Parcels at any Post Office in the United Kingdom, that is to say :—

- (1.) It shall be the duty of a person bringing a Parcel to hand it to an officer on duty at the counter in such office.
- (2.) Such Parcel must be accompanied by or have affixed to it a declaration of such kind, and stating the contents of the Parcel in such manner and form, and with such other particulars, as the Commissioners of Customs and the Postmaster-General may prescribe.
- (3.) Such Parcel shall be measured and weighed by such Officer, and (if such Parcel do not exceed the limits of measurement or weight hereinbefore mentioned) the postage thereof, according to the rates hereinbefore mentioned, shall be paid by means of Postage stamps affixed to such Parcel, and shall be verified by such Officer, and no such Parcel shall be forwarded by the Post without being accompanied by or having affixed thereto such declaration as aforesaid; and until such Parcel has been so measured and weighed and the postage chargeable thereon shall have been properly paid, and if any such Parcel shall be left at a Post Office without being accompanied by or having affixed thereto such declaration, and without being so measured and weighed and the postage chargeable thereon properly paid as aforesaid, such Parcel shall be detained and may be returned or given up to the sender thereof, or otherwise dealt with or disposed of in any manner authorized by this Warrant.

9. Any Packet transmissible by Parcel Post from the United Kingdom which, from any words or marks thereon, or other external evidence, appears to have been intended for transmission as a Parcel, but which has not been tendered for transmission as a Parcel, but has been posted in a Post Office Letter Box, or otherwise than according to the manner hereinbefore prescribed for the posting of parcels, may, in the discretion of the Postmaster-General, either be detained and returned or given up to the sender, or be dealt with as follows, that is to say :—

- (1.) If the said Packet is fully prepaid with the Letter or Book Packet rate of postage, and otherwise conforms to the Regulations as to the Letter or Book Post the same may be forwarded as a Letter or Book Packet (as the case may be).
- (2.) If the said Packet is not fully prepaid with the Letter or Book Packet rate of postage the same may be forwarded to its destination as a Parcel, charged with the sum of three-pence in addition to all other postage payable upon such Packet as a Parcel.

Collection of Parcels.

10. The Postmaster-General may, if he think fit, from time to time authorize such officers as he may direct to receive Parcels for the Post under such regulations and conditions as he may from time to time prescribe.

Retention of Parcels at Postes Restantes.

11. Any Parcel addressed to a Post Office in the United Kingdom "to be called for," shall, if not called for, remain in such office for a period of one week after the date of the arrival of such Parcel thereat, and shall then be dealt with as provided in this Warrant.

Parcels for Places beyond limits of free Delivery.

12. If the place of address in the United Kingdom of any Parcel be beyond the limits of the free postal delivery of any town or district to which the same may be forwarded by post, such Parcel shall be detained at the nearest Post Office until an opportunity of delivering the same shall occur, or in default of any such opportunity until a period of one week shall have elapsed from the time of the receipt of the Parcel at such Post Office. Upon the expiration of such period without such Parcel having been called for, such Parcel shall be dealt with as provided in this Warrant.

Parcels addressed to Ships.

13. Any Parcel addressed to a ship at any port in the United Kingdom shall, if from any cause such Parcel cannot be delivered at such ship, be detained at the Post Office at such port for a period of one calendar month, and if not delivered at the expiration of that time such Parcel shall be dealt with as provided in this Warrant.

Return and Disposal of Undelivered Parcels.

14. With regard to—

- (a.) Parcels which are addressed to a Post Office in the United Kingdom to be called for or to a place in the United Kingdom beyond the limits of the free postal delivery of any town or district, or to a ship at any port in the United Kingdom, and which are not called for or delivered within the respective times in this Warrant specified in that behalf; and
- (b.) Parcels which cannot be delivered in the United Kingdom for want of a true direction, or by reason that the addressee is dead, or cannot be found, or has refused the same, or has refused to pay any charges thereon, or for any other sufficient reason;

The following provisions shall apply, that is to say :—

- (1.) The Parcel shall, as the Postmaster-General may from time to time direct, be retained at or forthwith forwarded to such place as the Postmaster-General may from time to time appoint, and may, if necessary, be there opened and examined.
- (2.) Where the name and address of the sender can be ascertained from the Parcel or the Declaration accompanying the same, notice shall be given by Post to the sender through the Post Office of St. Helena, that the Parcel will, in default of any claim on the part of the addressee, be given up to the sender or his agent, upon personal application, at such place as aforesaid, or, at the request of the sender, will be returned to him by post in either case upon payment of such charges as are hereinafter mentioned.

- (3.) Where the name and address of the sender cannot be ascertained from the Parcel notice shall be publicly given (by affixing the same at such place or places or in such other manner as the Postmaster-General may direct), and notice shall also be given to the Post Office of St. Helena that the Parcel will in default of any claim on the part of the addressee, and upon payment of such charges as are hereinafter mentioned, be given up upon the personal application of the sender or his agent or be returned to the sender by post.
- (4.) In any case the notice shall state that in default of the receipt by the Postmaster-General of an application for the Parcel during a period to be specified in such notice from some person who, in the Postmaster-General's judgment, is entitled to receive the Parcel, it will be disposed of in such manner as the Postmaster-General may direct.
- (5.) The Postmaster-General may, in his discretion, specify in any such notice, or otherwise, the periods during which Parcels may be returned to the senders thereof, and in so doing may have regard to the nature and contents of Parcels.
- (6.) A Parcel shall not be given up or returned by post to the sender except upon payment by him of any charge for redirection or other charge to which the Parcel has become liable under the provisions of this Warrant, or of any such Regulations as are referred to in Section 14 of the "Post Office (Parcels) Act, 1882."
- (7.) A Parcel shall not be given up or returned by post to the sender except upon payment by him of the sum of one penny in respect of every day or part of a day during which the Parcel remains at the place appointed as aforesaid after the expiration of three calendar months from the day on which the Parcel has arrived at such place.
- (8.) Where the sender requests a parcel to be returned to him by post, such Parcel shall not be returned to the sender except upon payment by him of a new and distinct rate of postage, according to the rates fixed by this Warrant, and in such case the said rate of postage, and all other charges to which the parcel has become liable, shall be prepaid by the sender in stamps before the return of the parcel to him.
- (9.) The Postmaster-General may require proof to his satisfaction that an applicant for a Parcel is entitled to receive the same.
- (10.) Where no application is made for a Parcel within the period specified in any such notice as aforesaid, or an applicant fails to prove to the satisfaction of the Postmaster-General that he is entitled to receive the Parcel, or refuses or fails to pay the charges to which the parcel has become liable under this Warrant, the Parcel may be dealt with or disposed of in such manner as the Postmaster-General may in his discretion direct or authorize.
- (11.) If at any time while a Parcel remains in the possession of the Postmaster-General, it becomes offensive or injurious, to any Officer of the Post Office or other person, or to other Parcels, it may forthwith be dealt with or disposed of in such manner as the Postmaster-General may in his discretion direct or authorize, notwithstanding that the provisions of this Warrant as to the return of such Parcel have not been or have only partially been complied with.

Redirection of Parcels.

15. Any Parcel may be re-directed from its original address or any substituted address within the United Kingdom to any other address within the United Kingdom, and in every case of such re-direction there shall be charged on such Parcel in respect of each such re-direction, and paid by the addressee thereof in money upon the delivery of such Parcel a new and distinct rate of postage equal in amount to the rate of postage which would have been chargeable on such Parcel if it had been a Parcel posted in the United Kingdom for delivery at an address in the United Kingdom.

Remission of Re-direction Rates.

16. The Postmaster-General may wholly remit the rate of postage for re-direction on any Parcel addressed to the United Kingdom which may, on the request of the addressee thereof, be re-directed by an Officer of the Post Office, and again forwarded by post to the same person at any address within the limits of the same free postal delivery as the address from which such Parcel was so re-directed.

Prohibitions.

17. There shall not be conveyed or tendered for conveyance by post any Parcel consisting of or containing any indecent or obscene picture, painting, photograph, lithograph, engraving, print, book, or card, or any indecent or obscene article or thing of any other kind, or any Parcel having thereon, or on the cover thereof, any words, marks, or designs of an indecent, obscene, libellous, or grossly offensive character, and if any Parcel shall be posted or tendered for conveyance by post which primâ facie appears to be or which any Officer of the Post Office may have reasonable cause to suspect to be a Parcel within the description aforesaid, the same shall be detained, opened, and examined, and if on such examination it be found to infringe this or any other of the Regulations contained in this or any other Treasury Warrant relating to the Post Office, it may be dealt with and disposed of in any manner which may be authorized by the Postmaster-General.

18. There shall not be conveyed or tendered for conveyance by post—

- (1.) Any Parcel, the value of which shall exceed the sum of fifty pounds, or which shall contain specie, bullion, gold dust, nuggets, or ostrich feathers.
- (2.) Any Parcel containing any substance, material, article, or thing of any kind whatsoever which might, in the course of transmission through the Post, be or become or be rendered injurious to any Officer of the Post Office, or any other person who may deal with such Parcel, or to any bag, basket, box, or other receptacle in or by which such Parcel may be conveyed by Post, or to any other Parcel or other contents of any such receptacle.
- (3.) Any Parcel consisting of or enclosing any bladder or other membranaceous substance containing a liquid of any kind.
- (4.) Any Parcel containing a live animal of any kind whatsoever.
- (5.) Any Parcel which, either from the nature of the contents thereof, or from the absence of proper packing or covering, is, in the opinion of the Postmaster-General or his Officers, likely to injure any person in the course of the conveyance of the Parcel through the Post, or any receptacle in or by which such Parcel may be conveyed by post, or any other Parcel or any other contents of such receptacle.

Any such Parcel, if posted or tendered for conveyance by post may be detained, and either returned or given up to the sender thereof or dealt with or disposed of in such other manner as may be authorized by the Postmaster-General.

19. There shall not be posted or tendered for conveyance by post any Parcel consisting of or containing more than one Parcel or other Postal Packet, where any one of such Packets is intended for delivery to a person other than the addressee of such Parcel, and if any such Parcel shall be posted or tendered for conveyance by post the contents thereof, so far as the same consist of Parcels, may be forwarded to the addressees of such Parcels charged with new and distinct rates of postage according to the rates fixed by this Warrant, and so far as the same consist of other Postal Packets may be treated and charged as unpaid Postal Packets, or such Parcel may be otherwise dealt with or disposed of as the Postmaster-General may authorize.

20. There shall not be conveyed or tendered or delivered for conveyance by post in or to any prohibited district in Ireland any Parcel containing arms or ammunition, and any such Parcel if posted or tendered or delivered for conveyance by post as aforesaid may be detained and opened and returned to the sender thereof, or otherwise dealt with according to law.

Non-compliance with Regulations.

21. In any case not hereinbefore expressly provided for, where any parcel shall be posted or tendered for conveyance by post which in any respect infringes or fails to comply with the Regulations in this Warrant contained, or any of them, such Parcel may, at the option of the Postmaster-General, either be dealt with as in this Warrant provided with reference to parcels which cannot be delivered, or be dealt with or disposed of in such manner as the Postmaster-General may in his discretion direct or authorize.

Provision for safety of Parcels.

22. In any case where any officer of the Post Office may find it necessary or expedient for the safety or protection of Parcels that any Parcel should be forwarded or delivered by some later despatch or delivery than that for which the same was posted or despatched, or intended to be posted or despatched respectively, he may delay the despatch or delivery of such Parcel, or make such other and special arrangements as to the despatch or delivery thereof, not, however, involving a greater delay than 24 hours in the whole, as may be deemed by such officer necessary or expedient in the circumstances of the case.

Parcels not to interfere with Letter Post.

23. Where the despatch or delivery from a Post Office in the United Kingdom of letters would be delayed by the despatch or delivery therefrom at the same time of Parcels, such Parcels, or any of them, may be detained in the Post Office until the despatch or delivery next following that by which they would ordinarily be despatched or delivered.

Postmaster-General not liable for Loss or Damage.

24. Nothing contained in or done under or in pursuance of this Warrant shall render the Postmaster-General liable, either personally or in his official capacity, to any action or other legal proceeding in respect or in consequence of any loss of or damage to any Parcel, whether such loss or damage be occasioned by or arise from any act or neglect of any officer of the Post Office or any other person.

Customs Regulations.

25. Parcels intended to be transmitted by post under the provisions of this Warrant shall not be posted, forwarded, conveyed, or delivered, except subject to such Regulations as are referred to in section 14 of the Post Office (Parcels) Act, 1882.

Remission of Postage.

26. The Postmaster-General may, in any case in which he may consider it just or reasonable so to do, remit any postage or any sum made payable under this Warrant.

Commencement of Warrant.

27. This Warrant shall come into operation on the first day of April, one thousand eight hundred and eighty-six.

Dated this ninth day of March, one thousand and eighty-six.

E. J. Reed,

G. Leveson-Gower,

Two of the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury.

Wolverton,

Her Majesty's Postmaster-General.

TREASURY WARRANT.

WHEREAS a Convention has been lately entered into between the Postmaster-General of the United Kingdom and the Postal Administration of the Netherlands, with the approval of their respective Governments, for the establishment of a Parcel Post between those countries, and it is expedient for the due carrying out of the same that certain rates of postage to be charged in respect of Parcels should be fixed as hereinafter appears, and that Parcels should be posted, forwarded, conveyed, and delivered, subject to the regulations, conditions, prohibitions, and restrictions hereinafter appearing.

Now, We, the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury, in pursuance of the Acts relating to Her Majesty's Post Office, and in exercise of all powers enabling us in this behalf, do, by this Warrant, made on the representation of Her Majesty's Postmaster-General (testified by his signing the same), and under the hands of two of us, the said Commissioners, order, direct, and declare as follows:—

Interpretation Clause.

1.—(1.) The expressions "Parcels" and "Parcel" in this Warrant respectively mean any postal packet, which is posted as a parcel, in accordance with the provisions of this Warrant, or any Warrant amending the same.

(2.) The expression "United Kingdom" includes the Channel Islands and the Isle of Man.

(3.) The expression "Lord Lieutenant" means the Lord Lieutenant of Ireland, or other Chief Governor or Governors of Ireland for the time being.

(4.) The expression "arms" includes any cannon, gun, revolver, pistol, and any description of fire-arms, also any sword, cutlass, pike, and bayonet, also any part of any arms as so defined.

(5.) The expression "ammunition" includes bullets, gunpowder, nitro-glycerine, dynamite, gun-cotton, and every other explosive substance, whether fitted for use with any arms or otherwise.

(6.) The expression "prohibited district in Ireland" means any place in Ireland in respect of which the Lord Lieutenant of Ireland, by and with the advice of the Privy Council in Ireland, may have made or may make orders for prohibiting or regulating therein the sale or importation of arms and ammunition.

Places between which Parcels may be transmitted.

2. From and after the date when this Warrant comes into operation parcels may, subject to the provisions of this Warrant, be transmitted by post between the United Kingdom and the Netherlands.

Maximum Dimensions and Weight.

3. There shall not be conveyed or tendered for conveyance by post under this Warrant from the United Kingdom any Parcel the dimensions of which shall exceed in any direction two feet, or which shall exceed in weight seven pounds.

Rates of Postage.

4. On all Parcels transmitted by post under this Warrant from the United Kingdom to the Netherlands there shall be charged and paid the following rates of postage (that is to say):—

On every Parcel not exceeding three pounds in weight, one shilling.

On every Parcel exceeding three pounds and not exceeding seven pounds in weight, one shilling and eight pence.

Prepayment.

5. The postage on Parcels posted in the United Kingdom shall in all cases (except as otherwise provided in this Warrant) be prepaid at the time of posting by means of adhesive postage stamps.

Times of Posting.

6. Parcels intended to be transmitted by post may, in the United Kingdom, be posted on any day of the week except Sunday, but shall not be posted on Sundays, or in England or Ireland, on Christmas Day or Good Friday, and in Scotland on either of the two Sacramental Fast Days, except in the cases next hereinafter mentioned, that is to say:—

Where the delivery of Parcels on Sundays, or any of the other days aforesaid, at certain Post Offices, to addressees calling for the same, may hereafter be specially authorized by the Postmaster-General, the posting of Parcels on Sundays, or such other days as aforesaid, at such offices respectively, shall also be permitted within such times and in such manner as may be directed by the Postmaster-General.

Mode of Posting.

7. Except as otherwise provided in this Warrant, all Parcels shall in the United Kingdom be posted by being handed in at a Post Office in the manner hereinafter provided, within the hours during which such office shall be open to the public for the posting of Parcels.

Posting at Post Offices.

8. The following provisions shall apply to the posting of Parcels at any Post Office in the United Kingdom, that is to say:—

(1.) It shall be the duty of the person bringing a Parcel to hand it to an officer on duty at the counter in such office.

(2.) Such Parcel must bear the name and address of the sender and the exact direction of the addressee, and must be packed in a manner adequate for the length of the journey, and for the protection of the contents. The Parcel must also be so packed as to prevent any tampering with its contents without leaving an obvious trace of its violation, and must be sealed by means of sealing wax, lead, or otherwise, with some impress or mark of the sender. Such Parcel must also be accompanied by or have affixed to it a declaration of such kind, and stating the contents of the Parcel in such manner and form and with such other particulars as the Commissioners of Customs and the Postmaster-General may prescribe.

(3.) Such Parcel shall be measured and weighed by such officer, and (if such Parcel do not exceed the limits of measurement or weight hereinbefore mentioned) the postage thereof according to the rates hereinbefore mentioned shall be paid by means of postage stamps affixed to such Parcel, and shall be verified by such officer, and no such Parcel shall be forwarded by the post without the before-mentioned requirements being complied with; and if any such Parcel shall be left at a Post Office without such requirements being complied with, such Parcel shall, except as hereinafter mentioned, be detained and may be returned or given up to the sender thereof or otherwise dealt with or disposed of in any manner authorized by this Warrant.

9. Any packet transmissible by Parcel Post from the United Kingdom which from any words or marks thereon, or other external evidence, appears to have been intended for transmission as a Parcel, but which has not been tendered for transmission as a Parcel, but has been posted in a Post Office Letter-box or otherwise than according to the manner hereinbefore prescribed for the posting of Parcels may, in the discretion of the Postmaster-General, either be detained and returned or given up to the sender, or if the said Packet is fully prepaid with the Letter or Book Packet rate of postage and otherwise conforms to the Regulations as to the Letter or Book Post may be forwarded as a Letter or Book Packet (as the case may be).

Collection of Parcels.

10. The Postmaster-General may, if he think fit, from time to time authorize such of his officers as he may direct to receive Parcels for the Post under such regulations and conditions as he may from time to time prescribe.

Retention of Parcels at Postes Restantes.

11. Any Parcel addressed to a Post Office in the United Kingdom "to be called for" shall, if not called for, remain in such office for a period of one week after the date of the arrival of such Parcel thereat, and shall then be dealt with as provided in this Warrant.

Parcels for Places beyond limits of free Delivery.

12. If the place of address in the United Kingdom of any Parcel be beyond the limits of the free postal delivery of any town or district to which the same may be forwarded by post, such Parcel shall be detained at the nearest Post Office until an opportunity of delivering the same shall occur, or in default of any such opportunity until a period of one week shall have elapsed from the time of the receipt of the Parcel at such Post Office. Upon the expiration of such period without such Parcel having been called for, such Parcel shall be dealt with as provided in this Warrant.

Parcels addressed to Ships.

13. Any Parcel addressed to a ship at any port in the United Kingdom shall, if from any cause such Parcel cannot be delivered at such ship, be detained at the Post Office at such port for a period of one calendar month, and if not delivered at the expiration of that time such Parcel shall be dealt with as provided in this Warrant.

Return and Disposal of Undelivered Parcels.

14. With regard to

(a.) Parcels which are addressed to a Post Office in the United Kingdom to be called for, or to a place in the United Kingdom beyond the limits of the free postal delivery of any town or district, or to a ship at any port of the United Kingdom, and which are not called for or delivered within the respective times in this Warrant specified in that behalf; and

(b.) Parcels which cannot be delivered in the United Kingdom for want of a true direction, or by reason that the addressee is dead, or cannot be found, or has refused the same, or has refused to pay any charges thereon, or for any other sufficient reason;

The following provisions shall apply, that is to say:—

(1.) The Parcel shall, as the Postmaster-General may from time to time direct, be retained at or forthwith forwarded to such place as the Postmaster-General may from time to time appoint, and may, if necessary, be there opened and examined.

(2.) Notice shall be given to the sender through the Postal Administration of the Netherlands that the Parcel will, in default of any claim on the part of the addressee, be given up to the sender's agent upon personal application at such place as aforesaid, or at the request of the sender will be returned to him by post upon payment of such charges as are hereinafter-mentioned.

(3.) The notice shall state that in default of the receipt by the Postmaster-General of an application for the parcel, during a period to be specified in such notice from some person who, in the Postmaster-General's judgment, is entitled to receive the Parcel, it will be disposed of in such manner as the Postmaster-General may direct.

(4.) The Postmaster-General may, in his discretion, specify in any such notice, or otherwise, the periods during which Parcels may be returned to the senders thereof, and in so doing may have regard to the nature and contents of Parcels.

(5.) A Parcel shall not be given up or returned by post to the sender except upon payment by him of any charge for redirection or other charge to which the Parcel has become liable under the provisions of this Warrant, or of any such Regulations as are referred to in section 14 of the "Post Office (Parcels) Act, 1882."

(6.) Where the sender requests a Parcel to be returned to him by post, such Parcel shall not be returned to the sender except upon payment by him of a new and distinct rate of postage, according to the rates fixed by this Warrant, and all other charges to which the Parcel has become liable.

(7.) The Postmaster-General may require proof to his satisfaction that an applicant for a Parcel is entitled to receive the same.

(8.) Where no application is made for a Parcel within the period specified in any such notice as aforesaid, or an applicant fails to prove to the satisfaction of the Postmaster-General that he is entitled to receive the Parcel, or refuses or fails to pay the charges to which the Parcel has become liable under this Warrant, the Parcel may be dealt with or disposed of in such manner as the Postmaster-General may direct or authorize.

(9.) If at any time while a Parcel remains in the possession of the Postmaster-General it becomes offensive or injurious to any officer of the Post Office, or other person, or to other Parcels, it may forthwith be dealt with or disposed of in such manner as the Postmaster-General may in his discretion direct or authorize, notwithstanding that the provisions of this Warrant as to the return of such Parcel, have not been or have only partially been complied with.

Re-direction of Parcels.

15. Any Parcel may be re-directed from its original address, or any substituted address, within the United Kingdom, to any country or place with which a Parcel Post to or from the United Kingdom or the Netherlands is established, and in every case of such re-direction there shall be charged on such Parcel in respect of such re-direction a new and distinct rate of postage according to the rates for the time being payable in respect of the transmission of a like Parcel from the United Kingdom to the country or place to which it may be re-directed, and such postage, if not paid at the time of such re-direction, shall be collected on the delivery of the Parcel to the addressee.

16. Any Parcel may be re-directed from its original address, or any substituted address, within the United Kingdom to any other address within the United Kingdom, and in every case of such re-direction there shall be charged on such Parcel in respect of each such re-direction, and paid by the addressee thereof in money upon the delivery of such Parcel, a new and distinct rate of postage, equal in amount to the rate of postage which would have been originally chargeable on such Parcel as an Inland parcel.

Remission of Re-direction Rates.

17. The Postmaster-General may wholly remit the rate of postage for re-direction on any Parcel addressed to the United Kingdom which may, on the request of the addressee thereof, be re-directed by an Officer of the Post Office and again forwarded by post to the same person at any address within the limits of the same free postal delivery as the address from which such Parcel was so re-directed.

Prohibitions.

18. There shall not be conveyed or tendered for conveyance by post any Parcel consisting of or containing any indecent or obscene picture, painting, photograph, lithograph, engraving, print, book or card, or any indecent or obscene article or thing of any other kind or any Parcel having thereon, or on the cover thereof any words, marks, or designs of an indecent, obscene, libellous, or grossly offensive character, and if any Parcel shall be posted or tendered for conveyance by post which prima facie appears to be, or which any Officer of the Post Office may have reasonable cause to suspect to be, a Parcel within the description aforesaid, the same shall be detained, opened, and examined, and if on such examination it be found to infringe this or any other of the Regulations contained in this or any other Treasury Warrant relating to the Post Office, it may be dealt with and disposed of in any manner which may be authorized by the Postmaster-General.

19. There shall not be conveyed or tendered for conveyance by post:—

(1.) Any Parcel containing or bearing any letter or communication in the nature of a letter, or any article or thing not authorized by the Customs or other laws of the Netherlands.

(2.) Any Parcel containing any substance, material, article, or thing of any kind whatsoever, which might, in the course of transmission through the post, be or become, or be rendered injurious to any officer of the Post Office, or any other person who may deal with such Parcel, or to any bag, basket, box, or other receptacle in or by which such Parcel may be conveyed by post, or to any other Parcel or other contents of any such receptacle.

- (3.) Any Parcel consisting of or enclosing any bladder or other membranous substance containing a liquid of any kind.
- (4.) Any Parcel containing a live animal of any kind whatsoever.
- (5.) Any Parcel which either from the nature of the contents thereof, or from the absence of proper packing or covering, is, in the opinion of the Postmaster-General or his officers, likely to injure any person in the course of the conveyance of the Parcel through the post, or any receptacle in or by which such Parcel may be conveyed by post, or any other Parcel or any other contents of such receptacle.

Any such Parcel, if posted or tendered for conveyance by post, may be detained, and either returned or given up to the sender thereof or dealt with or disposed of in such other manner as may be authorized by the Postmaster-General.

20. There shall not be posted or tendered for conveyance by post any Parcel consisting of or containing more than one Parcel or other Postal Packet, where any one of such Packets is intended for delivery to a person other than the addressee of such Parcel, and any such Parcel if posted or tendered for conveyance by post may be detained and either returned or given up to the sender thereof, or such Parcel may be otherwise dealt with or disposed of as the Postmaster-General may authorize.

21. There shall not be conveyed or tendered or delivered for conveyance by post in or to any prohibited district in Ireland any Parcel containing arms or ammunition, and any such Parcel, if posted or tendered or delivered for conveyance by post as aforesaid, may be detained and opened and returned to the sender thereof, or otherwise dealt with according to law.

Non-compliance with Regulations.

22. In any case not hereinbefore expressly provided for, where any Parcel shall be posted or tendered for conveyance by post which in any respect infringes or fails to comply with the regulations in this Warrant contained, or any of them, such Parcel may, at the option of the Postmaster-General, either be dealt with as in this Warrant provided, with reference to Parcels which cannot be delivered, or be dealt with or disposed of in such manner as the Postmaster-General may in his discretion direct or authorize.

Provision for safety of Parcels.

23. In any case where any officer of the Post Office may find it necessary or expedient for the safety or protection of Parcels that any Parcel should be forwarded or delivered by some later despatch or delivery than that for which the same was posted or despatched, or intended to be posted or despatched respectively, he may delay the despatch or delivery of such Parcel, or make such other and special arrangements as to the despatch or delivery thereof, not, however, involving a greater delay than 24 hours in the whole, as may be deemed by such officer necessary or expedient in the circumstances of the case.

Parcels not to interfere with Letter-Post.

24. Where the despatch or delivery from a Post Office in the United Kingdom of letters would be delayed by the despatch or delivery therefrom at the same time of Parcels, such Parcels, or any of them, may be detained in the Post Office until the despatch or delivery next following that by which they would ordinarily be despatched or delivered.

Postmaster-General not liable for Loss or Damage.

25. Nothing contained in or done under or in pursuance of this Warrant shall render the Postmaster-General liable, either personally or in his official capacity, to any action or other legal proceeding in respect or in consequence of any loss of or damage to any Parcel, whether such loss or damage be occasioned by or arise from any act or neglect of any officer of the Post Office or any other person.

Customs Regulations.

26. Parcels intended to be transmitted by post under the provisions of this Warrant shall not be posted, forwarded, conveyed, or delivered, except subject to such Regulations as are referred to in section 14 of the "Post Office (Parcels) Act, 1882."

Remission of Postage.

27. The Postmaster-General may, in any case in which he may consider it just or reasonable so to do, remit any postage or any sum made payable under this Warrant.

Commencement of Warrant.

28. This Warrant shall come into operation on the first day of April, one thousand eight hundred and eighty-six.

Dated this tenth day of March, one thousand eight-hundred and eighty-six.

E. J. Reed,

G. Leveson-Gower,

Two of the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury.

Walverton,

Her Majesty's Postmaster-General.

WE, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in consideration of a benefaction of one thousand and five hundred pounds sterling, which has been paid to us in favour of the benefice of Saint Peter, Redcar, in the county of York, and in the diocese of York, and in respect of which we have agreed to pay to the Incumbent of the same benefice, and to his successors, a yearly sum of forty-five pounds, do hereby, in pursuance of the Act of the twenty-ninth and thirtieth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and eleven, section five, grant to the Incumbent of the said benefice of Saint Peter, Redcar, and to his successors, to meet such benefaction, one other yearly sum or stipend of forty-five pounds, such yearly sum or stipend to be payable out of the common fund under our control, and to be calculated as from the day of the publication of these presents in the London Gazette, and to be receivable in equal half-yearly portions, on the first day of May and on the first day of November in each and every year: Provided always, that if at any time lands, tithes, or other hereditaments sufficient, in our opinion, to produce the yearly sum or stipend so payable out of our common fund as lastly herein mentioned, or any part thereof, shall be annexed by us to the said benefice, in substitution for such yearly sum or stipend, or for such part thereof, our liability for the payment of such yearly sum or stipend, or of such part thereof, as the case may be, shall thereupon and thereafter cease and determine.

In witness whereof, we have hereunto set our common seal, this fourth day of March, in the year one thousand eight hundred and eighty-six.

(L.S.)

WE, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, acting in pursuance of the Act of the twenty-ninth and thirtieth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and eleven, section five, do hereby grant and convey to the Incumbent of the vicarage of Hanbury, in the county of Stafford, and in the diocese of Lichfield, and to his successors, Incumbents of the same vicarage, all and singular the yearly rectorial tithes commutation rent-charges which are particularly described in the schedule hereunto annexed, and are now vested in us, to have and to hold the said yearly rectorial tithes commutation rent-charges to the use of the said Incumbent and his successors for ever: Provided always, that the Incumbent for the time being of the same vicarage shall be entitled to receive from us, or on our account, the net amount of the profits and proceeds of the said yearly rectorial tithes commutation rent-charges for and in respect of the period intervening between the first day of May, in the year one thousand eight hundred and eighty-four, and the date of the publication of these presents in the London Gazette.

In witness whereof, we have hereunto set our common seal, this fourth day of March, in the year one thousand eight hundred and eighty-six.

WE, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in consideration of a benefaction, consisting of a sum of four hundred pounds sterling, which has been paid to us in favour of the vicarage of Saint Paul, Walsall, in the county of Stafford, and in the diocese of Lichfield, do hereby, in pursuance of the Act of the twenty-ninth and thirtieth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and eleven, sections five and eleven, grant and appropriate out of our common fund to the said vicarage of Saint Paul, Walsall, to meet such benefaction, one other capital sum of four hundred pounds sterling, to be applicable towards defraying the cost of providing a parsonage or house of residence for the said vicarage, according to plans and a specification approved or to be approved by us, such capital sum, or the balance thereof unapplied to such purpose, to remain in the meantime in our hands at interest after the rate of two pounds and ten shillings per centum per annum, and such interest to be paid to the Incumbent for the time being of the said vicarage of Saint Paul, Walsall.

In witness whereof, we have hereunto set our common seal, this fourth day of March, in the year one thousand eight hundred and eighty-six.

NOTICE OF INTENDED DISTRIBUTION OF NAVAL PRIZE MONEY.

Department of the Accountant-General of the Navy and Comptroller of Navy Pay, Admiralty, March 10, 1886.

NOTICE is hereby given to the Officers, Seamen, and Marines, and to all persons interested therein, that the distribution of the slave and tonnage bounties, awarded for the slave dhow, name unknown, and 154 slaves, and the slave dhow "Futch-al-Khair," and 51 slaves, captured by Her Majesty's ship "Philomel," on the 13th and 18th October, 1884, respectively, will commence on Friday, the 19th instant, in the Prize Branch of the Department of the "Accountant-General of the Navy and Comptroller of Navy Pay, Admiralty, New-street, Spring-gardens, S.W."

Agents and other persons holding powers of attorney, prize orders, assignments, or other instruments, by virtue of which they may be legally entitled to claim the share of any captor serving in the above-named ship, are requested to present the same at this office.

Any Officer, Seaman, Marine, or other person who may desire to receive his share from the Collector of Customs or of Inland Revenue within the United Kingdom, is required to intimate the same by letter to be addressed "On Prize Business, to the Accountant-General of the Navy and Comptroller of Navy Pay, Admiralty, London, S.W." (enclosing his certificate of service or an attested copy thereof, excepting in the case of Commissioned Officers),—in which letter his own place of residence is to be precisely stated, as well as the place of the nearest Collector of Customs, or of Inland Revenue, from whom it would be convenient to receive such share of prize money.

The following are the shares due to an individual in the several classes:—
